CAPACITY TO PAY FINE, PAYMENT OF FINE BY INSTALMENTS AND FAILURE TO PAY FINE

Capacity of person to pay fine

5. (1) The purpose of this section is to ensure, in so far as is practicable, that, where a court imposes a fine on a person, the effect of the fine on that person or his or her dependants is not significantly abated or made more severe by reason of his or her financial circumstances.
- (2) Where a person of full age is convicted of an offence, the court shall, in determining the amount of the fine (if any) to impose in respect of the offence, take into account the person's financial circumstances.
- (3) (a) For the purpose of this section, a court may, in making a determination under subsection (2), impose a fine on a person that is greater than, less than or equal to the fine that the court would be minded to impose on the person in respect of the offence concerned if it were not required to take into account the person's financial circumstances.
- (b) A court shall not, in any case, impose a fine that is—
- (i) greater than the maximum fine (if any), or
 - (ii) less than the minimum fine (if any),
- to which a person would be liable upon conviction of the offence concerned.

- (4) Where—
- (a) a court has convicted a person of an offence in his or her absence, or
 - (b) a person who has been convicted of an offence fails or refuses to provide the court with information as to his or her financial circumstances,
- the court shall impose such fine as it considers appropriate in respect of the offence taking into account such information (if any) as is known to the court concerning those circumstances.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2), the court may, by notice in writing served on a person who has been convicted of an offence, require the person to attend before the court and provide the court with such information as the court may require in relation to his or her financial circumstances.
- (6) A person who knowingly or recklessly makes a statement (orally or in writing) in relation to his or her, or another person's, financial circumstances that is false or misleading in any material respect to a court discharging its function under subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a class B fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.
- (7) A person who fails or refuses to comply with a notice under subsection (5) served on him or her shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a class B fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to the imposition of a fine where the court has no discretion in the determination of the amount of the fine.

Option of fined person to pay fine by single payment or instalments

6. (1) Subject to subsection (5), a fined person may, at his or her option, effect the payment of the fine by—
- (a) (i) a single payment made on or before the relevant date for payment, or
 - (ii) the payment of instalments—
 - (I) calculated in such manner as may be prescribed, and
 - (II) at such frequency as may be prescribed,
 - (b) such means as may be prescribed for making such payment, and
 - (c) making such payment to such person as may be prescribed.
- (2) Where a fined person exercises his or her option to pay the fine by instalments under subsection (1)(a)(ii), the person shall pay the first instalment of the fine on or before the relevant date for payment and the final instalment of the fine not later than 12 months after the relevant date for payment.
- (3) A court shall, when imposing a fine on a person, inform the fined person of the 2 options available to the person under subsection (1)(a).
- (4) Where a fined person exercises his or her option to pay the fine by instalments under subsection (1)(a)(ii), he or she is also required to pay such administration fee, not exceeding 10 per cent of the value of the fine, as may be prescribed.

- (5) (a) The option to pay a fine by instalments under subsection (1)(a)(ii) shall only apply in respect of—
- (i) a fine that exceeds such amount greater than €100 as may be prescribed, or
 - (ii) if no such amount stands prescribed, a fine that exceeds €100.
- (b) Where 2 or more fines are imposed on a person at a court sitting and the option to pay any one or more of those fines by instalments is not available because of the operation of paragraph (a), the court may, in its order specifying the date by which such a fine is required to be paid in respect of which such option is not available, specify, if it thinks it appropriate in all the circumstances, a date that is later than the date it would have specified if that option had been available in respect of that fine but not taken by the fined person.
- (6) In this section “relevant date for payment”, in relation to a fine, means—
- (a) if the fined person has opted to pay the full fine under subsection (1)(a)(i), the date by which the fine is required to be paid in accordance with the order of the court that imposed the fine, and

 - (c) make a community service order if section 4 of the Act of 1983 has been complied with.
- (2) The court shall not make a recovery order in respect of the fined person (not being a body corporate) unless the fine or, as may be appropriate, that part of the fine that remains unpaid—
- (a) exceeds such amount greater than €500 as may be prescribed, or
 - (b) if no such amount stands prescribed, exceeds €500.
- (3) Where a fined person who has exercised his or her option under section 6(1)(a)(ii) to pay the fine by instalments fails to pay any such instalment (in this subsection referred to as the “relevant instalment”) by the due date for payment, it is not necessary for the court to take action under this section in respect of the failure unless—

- (a) there are 2 other failures by the fined person to pay that fine by instalments by the due date for payment, or
 - (b) the relevant instalment has still not been paid when all other instalments have been paid.
- (4) The appropriate court official concerned shall, by notice in writing served on the fined person, require the person to appear before the court on the date and at the time specified in the notice, and to provide to the court a statement in writing of his or her financial circumstances.
- (5) (a) The court shall, after considering a statement provided to it pursuant to subsection (4) in deciding what order to make under subsection (1)—
- (i) first, give consideration to making an attachment order in respect of the fined person, and
 - (ii) second, if it is satisfied that it would not be appropriate for it to make an attachment order in respect of the fined person, give consideration to making, subject to subsection (2), a recovery order or community service order in respect of the fined person.
- (b) Where the court is satisfied that it would not be appropriate for it to make an attachment order, recovery order or community service order in respect of the fined person, it may commit the person to prison in accordance with section 2 or 2A of the Act of 1986.
- (6) A notice under subsection (4) shall—
- (a) inform the fined person of the orders that the court may make under subsection (1) in respect of the person and of the court's power under subsection (5) to commit the person to prison, and
 - (b) state that a warrant may be issued for the arrest of the fined person if he or she fails to appear before the court as required by the notice.
- (7) Where a fined person fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear before the court as required by a notice under subsection (4), the court shall, if satisfied that the notice was served on the person—
- (a) issue a warrant for the arrest of the person, or
 - (b) if the court thinks it appropriate in all the circumstances, cause a further notice under subsection (4) to be served on the person specifying a new date for the person to appear before the court, and to provide it with the statement referred to in that subsection.
- (8) A fined person arrested under subsection (7)(a) shall be brought before the next sitting of the court.
- (9) A fined person who knowingly or recklessly makes a statement, in purported compliance with a notice under subsection (4), that is false or misleading in any material respect shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a class B fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.

 - (i) the appropriate court official shall cause the variation order to be served on that employer, and
 - (ii) subsection (3) of section 15 shall apply to the attachment order as so varied as if the reference in that subsection to "but is not liable for non-compliance before 10 working days have elapsed since the service of the order” were a reference to “but is not liable for non-compliance before 10 working days have elapsed since the service of the variation order”,

- (7) The employer to whom the attachment order is directed shall give to the fined person a statement in writing of the total amount of every deduction made from the person’s earnings in compliance with the order.

- (2) Where—
- (a) the fined person advises the court that he or she is no longer in employment in accordance with subsection (1)(a)(ii)(II),
