BILLE UM THRACHT AR BHOITHRE, 1933. ROAD TRANSPORT BILL, 1933.

BILL

entitled

AN ACT TO MAKE FURTHER AND BETTER PROVISION FOR THE REGULATION AND CONTROL OF THE CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS, MERCHANDISE, AND MAILS BY ROAD.

10 BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS OF SAORSTÁT
EIREANN AS FOLLOWS:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY AND GENERAL.

1.—This Act may be cited as the Road Transport Act, 1933. Short title.

15 2.—(1) In this Act—

Definitions.

the expression “the Minister” means the Minister for Industry and Commerce;

the expression “the Act of 1932” means the Road Transport Act, 1932 (No. 2 of 1932);

20 the expression “mails” includes mail bags and postal packets (other than telegrams) as defined in the Post Office Act, 1908;

the expression “merchandise” includes goods, wares, minerals and animals, but does not include passenger’s luggage or mails;

25 the expression “mechanically propelled vehicle” does not include a railway engine or a tramcar or other vehicle running on permanent rails;

the expression “merchandise road transport” means the carriage for reward by road in mechanically propelled vehicles or in vehicles drawn by mechanically propelled vehicles of merchandise 30 and includes, so far as they are carried on by means of such vehicles, the services of collection and delivery of merchandise hitherto carried on by railway, canal, and shipping companies, as ancillary or subsidiary to their main undertakings, or by agents on behalf of such companies, but does not include—

35 (a) the carriage of merchandise by passenger road services licensed under the Act of 1932, or

(b) the carriage of mails by or under contract with the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, or 40 (c) the carriage of merchandise by means of any vehicle primarily provided for the carriage of mails where and to the extent to which the carriage of merchandise by means of such vehicle is permitted under the contract made with the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs;

45 the expression “authorised (merchandise carrying) company” means a company to which Part III of the Act of 1932 applies and which is entitled by virtue of section 28 of the Act of 1932 to engage in or carry on the business of carrying merchandise by road.

the expression " authorised (passenger carrying) company " means a company to which Part III of the Act of 1932 applies and which is entitled by virtue of section 28 of the Act of 1932 to engage in or carry on the business of carrying passengers by road;

the expression " shipping company " means a person carrying on a regular steamer service to and from a port in Saorstát Eireann; the expression " existing carrier " means a person, other than an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, who carried on at some time between the 1st day of July, 1932, and the 8th day of February, 1933, a merchandise road transport business and includes a successor in title to such person in such business;

the expression " vehicle plate " means a plate of that name issued under Part II of this Act; the word " lorry " means a mechanically propelled vehicle fitted with a body designed and constructed for the carriage of merchandise;

the word " tractor " means a mechanically propelled vehicle which—

20

(a) is not a lorry, and

(b) is constructed and designed for the traction of another vehicle;

the expression " the registration book " in relation to a mechanically propelled vehicle means the registration book for such vehicle issued under the Roads Act, 1920; the expressions " passenger road service " " passenger licence " and " annual passenger licence " have the same meanings respectively as in the Act of 1932;

the expression " unladen weight " in relation to a mechanically propelled vehicle means the unladen weight specified in the registration book which relates to such vehicle; the word " prescribed " means prescribed by regulations made by the Minister under this Act.

(2) For the purpose of this Act the area included within a circle having radius of fifteen miles and its centre at a post-office which on the appointed day is the principal post office in any of the following cities and towns, that is to say, Dublin, Cork, Limerick, Waterford, Ballina, Drogheda, Dundalk, Galway, Sligo, Tralee, Westport, and Wexford, shall be an exempted area.

The appointed day.

3.—(1) The Minister may after consultation with the Minister for Justice, by order appoint a day to be the appointed day for the purposes of this Act.

(2) In this Act the expression " the appointed day " means the day appointed by the Minister by order under this section.

45

Regulations.

4.—The Minister may by order make regulations for all or any of the following purposes, that is to say:—

(a) prescribing any thing which is in this Act referred to as prescribed or as prescribed by regulations made by the Minister;

(b) prescribing any thing which the Minister is by this Act authorised to prescribe by regulations made under this Act.

Finance.

5.—(1) All expenses incurred by the Minister or the Garda Síochána in carrying this Act into execution shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Finance, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

55

(2) All fees received by the Minister or a Chief Superintendent of the Garda Síochána under this Act shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in such manner as the Minister for Finance may direct.

60

PART II.

REGULATION OF MERCHANDISE ROAD TRANSPORT BUSINESSES.

6.—(1) On and after the appointed day it shall not be lawful for any person to carry on a merchandise road transport business unless—

Prohibition of carrying on merchandise road transport business by unlicensed persons.

(a) such person is the holder of a licence (in this Act referred to as a merchandise licence) granted under this Part of this Act authorising him to carry on such business, and such business is carried on under and in accordance with such licence, or

(b) such business is carried on exclusively in an exempted area or exempted areas.

(2) Every person who carries on a merchandise road transport business in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds together with, in the case of a continuing offence, a further fine not exceeding five pounds for every day during which the offence continues.

(3) A certificate purporting to be signed by an officer of the Minister and to certify that on a specified day or days or during the whole of a specified period a specified person was not the holder of a merchandise licence authorising him to carry on a merchandise road transport business in respect of a specified class of merchandise within a specified area, shall, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign such certificate or that he was an officer of the Minister be evidence until the contrary is proved of such of the matters aforesaid as are purported to be certified in and by such certificate.

7.—The Minister may, after consultation with the Commissioner of the Garda Síochána, from time to time by order appoint such and so many Garda Síochána stations as he thinks proper to be vehicle plate issuing stations for the purposes of this Part of this Act, and every Garda Síochána station so appointed shall be a vehicle plate issuing station for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

Vehicle plate issuing stations.

8.—(1) The following provisions shall have effect in relation to applications for merchandise licences, that is to say:—

Applications for merchandise licences.

(a) every application shall be in the prescribed form, and be made to the Minister in the prescribed manner;

(b) every application shall state—

(i) the area or areas in which the applicant proposes to carry on a merchandise road transport business;

(ii) the class or classes of merchandise proposed to be carried by the applicant;

(iii) the vehicle plate issuing station at which the applicant, in the event of his application being granted, desires that vehicle plates should be available for issue to him;

(iv) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) When the applicant for a merchandise licence is an existing carrier, his application shall, in addition to the matters required by the immediately preceding sub-section to be stated therein, state—

(a) the merchandise road transport business in respect of which the applicant claims to be an existing carrier;

(b) the number of mechanically propelled vehicles being lorries or tractors, and so classified in such application which, at any specified date (in this Act referred to as the critical date) between the 1st day of July, 1932, and the 8th day of February, 1933, selected by the applicant, complied with the following conditions (in this Act referred to as the qualifying conditions) that is to say, were—

- (i) duly licensed under section 13 of the Finance Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent enactments; 5
- (ii) in use or available for the purpose of such merchandise road transport business; and

(c) particulars (including the unladen weight) of each of such mechanically propelled vehicles.

(3) There shall be sent to the Minister with every application made in accordance with the immediately preceding sub-section the registration books relating to the mechanically propelled vehicles particulars of which are stated in such application. 10

(4) Every person who applies for a merchandise licence shall, when required by the Minister so to do, furnish to the Minister all such information as the Minister may require for the consideration of such application. 15

(5) The Minister may require any statement of fact made in an application for a merchandise licence or made to the Minister in response to a request for information under the immediately preceding sub-section of this section to be verified by the statutory declaration of some person having personal knowledge of the fact so stated. 20

(6) If any person fails to furnish any information or any verification which he is required by the Minister under this section to furnish, the Minister may on the ground of such failure refuse the application in relation to which such information or verification was so required. 25

merchandise
licences.

9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section, the Minister shall grant a merchandise licence to every authorised (merchandise carrying) company or shipping company which at any time applies to him for such licence in accordance with the said section. 30

(2) Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section, the Minister shall grant a merchandise licence to every existing carrier who before the appointed day applies to him for such licence in accordance with the said section. 35

(3) Where an application is made in accordance with the immediately preceding section after the appointed day by a person who is neither an authorised (merchandise carrying) company nor a shipping company for the grant of a merchandise licence to carry on a merchandise road transport business in respect of a specified class or specified classes of merchandise in a specified area, the Minister may grant such licence to such person if he is satisfied that— 40 45

(a) the existing merchandise road transport facilities in such area are inadequate, and

(b) no authorised (merchandise carrying) company is willing to undertake the supply of adequate merchandise road transport facilities in such area, and 50

(c) the grant of such licence to such person is desirable in the public interest.

(4) The Minister shall not at any time grant a merchandise licence to any person other than a person to whom the Minister is required or authorised by this section to grant a merchandise licence. 55

(5) In this Act the expression "merchandise (existing carrier's) licence" means a merchandise licence granted to an existing carrier in pursuance of sub-section (2) of this section.

10.—The Minister before granting a merchandise licence to an existing carrier in pursuance of an application shall—

Standard lorry weights and tractor weights for existing carrier.

- 5 (a) in case any of the mechanically propelled vehicles specified in such application were lorries which, in the opinion of the Minister, at the critical date complied with the qualifying conditions, ascertain the total unladen weight of such lorries and the total unladen weight so ascertained shall for the purposes of this Act be the standard lorry weight for the licensee under such licence;
- 10 (b) in case any of the mechanically propelled vehicles specified in such application were tractors which, in the opinion of the Minister, at the critical date complied with the qualifying conditions, ascertain the total unladen weight of such tractors and the total unladen weight so ascertained shall for the purposes of this Act be the standard tractor weight for the licensee under such licence.

11.—(1) Every merchandise licence granted in pursuance of an application shall—

Operation of merchandise licences.

- 20 (a) operate and be expressed to authorise the licensee under such licence to carry on a merchandise road transport business in respect of the merchandise specified in such application within the area or areas specified in such application, but subject to the provisions of this Act and regulations made thereunder and to the conditions specified in such licence;
- 25 (b) state the vehicle plate issuing station at which vehicle plates will be available for issue to such licensee, and such station shall be the station stated in such application as the station at which such licensee desired that vehicle plates should be available for issue to him;
- 30 (c) state whether such licensee is or is not an existing carrier.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, every merchandise (existing carrier's) licence shall operate and be expressed to authorise the licensee under such licence—
- 35 (a) if there is a standard lorry weight for such licensee but no standard tractor weight for such licensee to carry on the business authorised by such licence only with a lorry or lorries, the unladen weight or total unladen weight of which does not exceed such standard lorry weight;
- 40 (b) if there is a standard tractor weight for such licensee, but no standard lorry weight for such licensee, to carry on the business authorised by such licence only with a tractor or tractors the unladen weight or total unladen weight of which does not exceed such standard tractor weight;
- 45 (c) if there is a standard lorry weight for such licensee and also a standard tractor weight for such licensee, to carry on the business authorised by such licence only with a lorry or lorries the unladen weight or total unladen weight of which does not exceed such standard lorry weight and a tractor or tractors the unladen weight or total unladen weight of which does not exceed such standard tractor weight or with such lorry or lorries or such tractor or tractors.
- 50
- 55

(3) Where a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence is transferred under this Act to an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

60

- (a) sub-section (2) of this section shall cease to have effect in relation to such licence, and

(b) the Minister shall, on the application of such company, amend such licence accordingly.

Licencees to be common carriers.

12.—Every licensee under a merchandise licence shall in relation to all the merchandise specified in such licence and in the area stated in such licence be a common carrier.

Prohibition of undue preference by licensee.

13.—(1) No licensee under a merchandise licence shall, in carrying on the business authorised by such licence, make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to or in favour of any particular person, trade, industry, district or port nor subject any particular person, trade, industry, district or port to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

(2) Any person, any representative body of traders, or any body of persons representative of a trade or a locality may, on the ground that there has been a contravention on the part of a licensee under a merchandise licence of the provisions of this section, apply to the railway tribunal for an order enjoining such licensee to desist from such contravention, and upon such application, the railway tribunal may, if satisfied that such contravention has taken place, make such order.

Conditions of merchandise licences.

14.—Whenever the Minister grants a merchandise licence he may attach to such licence such conditions as he shall think proper and shall specify in such licence and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, conditions in respect of all or any of the following matters, that is to say:—

(a) the wages and conditions of employment of employees engaged in the operation of the vehicles used for the purposes of the licensee's business of merchandise road transport;

(b) the notification to and approval by the Minister of agreements or arrangements made in relation to such business by the licensee with other persons engaged in the transport of merchandise by rail, road, air, or water;

30

(c) the use, either exclusively or to a specified extent, of vehicles manufactured in whole or in part in Saorstát Eireann, and the maintenance thereof.

35

Amendment of conditions of a merchandise licence during its currency.

15.—(1) The Minister may on his own motion during the currency of a merchandise licence amend (whether by addition, omission or variation) in such manner as he thinks fit the conditions attached to such licence.

40

(2) Whenever the Minister proposes to amend, in exercise of the power conferred on him by the immediately preceding sub-section, the conditions attached to a merchandise licence he shall cause a notice to be served on the licensee specifying the amended conditions which are to attach to such licence and upon service of such notice the said amended conditions shall attach to such licence.

45

Commencement and duration of merchandise licences.

16.—(1) Every merchandise licence shall specify the date on which it commences and every such licence shall commence on the date so specified.

(2) Every merchandise licence shall (unless it previously lapses or is revoked under this Act and subject to any suspension under this Act) continue in force for a period of twelve months from the date on which it commenced and shall then expire unless it is renewed under this Act.

55

Application for renewal of merchandise licences.

17.—(1) Every person who is the licensee under a merchandise licence which is in force (whether by virtue of the original grant or of a renewal of such licence) may, within the prescribed time and while such licence continues so in force, apply to the Minister for a renewal of such licence.

(2) Every application for the renewal of a merchandise licence shall be in the prescribed form and be made in the prescribed manner and shall contain the prescribed particulars.

(3) Every person who applies under this section for a renewal of a merchandise licence shall, when required by the Minister so to do, furnish to the Minister all such information as the Minister may require for the consideration of such application.

(4) The Minister may require any statement of fact made in an application for the renewal of a merchandise licence or made to the Minister in response to a request for information under the next preceding sub-section of this section to be verified by the statutory declaration of some person having personal knowledge of the fact so stated.

(5) If any person fails to furnish any information or any verification which he is required by the Minister under this section to furnish, the Minister may, on the ground of such failure and without prejudice to any other power of refusal conferred on him by this Act, refuse the application in relation to which such information or verification was so required.

18.—(1) The Minister may refuse an application for a renewal of a merchandise licence on one or more of the following grounds but on no other ground, that is to say:—

Grants of renewals of merchandise licences.

(a) on the ground that in his opinion there was, during the currency of the licence or of the last renewal thereof, a breach of or a failure to observe or comply with one or more of the conditions attached to such licence;

(b) on the ground that in his opinion there was, during such currency, a breach of or a failure to comply with the provisions of this Act or of the regulations made thereunder;

(c) on the ground that the licensee under such licence has during such currency been convicted of an offence (whether under this or any other Act) in relation to the merchandise road transport business to which such licence relates or the vehicles used therein.

(2) Whenever the Minister grants a renewal of a merchandise licence, the Minister may amend (whether by addition, omission or variation) in such manner as he thinks proper the conditions attached to such licence.

19.—Every renewal of a merchandise licence shall commence immediately upon the expiration of the licence or of the renewal of the licence (as the case may be) of which it is a renewal and shall (unless it previously lapses or is revoked under this Act, and subject to any suspension under this Act) continue in force for a period of twelve months from the date on which it commenced.

Duration of renewals of merchandise licences.

20.—A merchandise licence which is held by a company which at the date of the grant or transfer to such company was a shipping company shall cease to be in force on such company ceasing to be a shipping company.

Expiry of licence held by a shipping company.

21.—(1) The Minister may at any time revoke a merchandise licence upon the application of the licensee thereunder.

Revocation of merchandise licences.

(2) The Minister may at any time on his own motion and at his absolute discretion revoke or suspend for such period as he shall think proper a merchandise licence on any ground on which he is authorised by this Act to refuse an application for the renewal of such licence.

(3) The Minister may at any time on his own motion and at his absolute discretion revoke a merchandise licence if he is satisfied that such licence was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.

Transfer of merchandise
licences.

22.—(1) A merchandise licence shall not be transferable by the licensee or by operation of law to any other person. 5

(2) Where the ownership of a merchandise road transport business has been transferred, whether by act of the parties or operation of law, from the licensee under the merchandise licence relating to such business to another person the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:— 10

(a) if such licensee is neither an authorised (merchandise carrying) company nor a shipping company, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

(i) in case such person is an authorised (merchandise carrying) company, a shipping company, or a relative of such licensee or in case such person has become entitled to such business under a will or intestacy, the Minister shall, on the application of such person, transfer such licence to such person, 15 20

(ii) in any other case the Minister may, on the application of such person transfer if he so thinks proper such licence to such person;

(b) if such licensee is an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:— 25

(i) in case such person is an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, the Minister shall, on the application of such person, transfer such licence to such person, 30

(ii) in any other case such licence shall cease to be in force.

(3) Every application for the transfer of a merchandise licence under this section shall be in the prescribed form and contain the prescribed particulars. 35

(4) Where a merchandise licence is transferred under this section such licence shall be deemed to have been transferred as on the date on which the business to which such licence relates is transferred.

(5) For the purposes of this section each of the following persons and no other person shall be the relative of a licensee, that is to say, the husband of such licensee, the wife of such licensee, and any person related by blood to such licensee in the first, second, or third degree. 40

Death of licensee under merchandise
licence.

23.—Whenever the licensee under a merchandise licence dies, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:— 45

(a) the merchandise road transport business to which such licence relates may be carried on under such licence until the happening of whichever of the following events first happens, that is to say—the grant of probate of the will or letters of administration of the personal estate of such licensee, or the expiration of such licence, or the expiration of one month from the death of such licensee; 50

(b) the said merchandise road transport business may, while such licence is in force, be carried on by the personal representative of such licensee until the expiration of three months from the death of such licensee or the expiration of such licence, whichever first happens; 55

(c) the personal representative of such licensee may apply to the Minister for a renewal or transfer (as the 60 circumstances may require) of such licence to himself and upon such application being made the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

- 5 (i) if such application is for a renewal, the Minister may refuse such application but only on a ground or grounds upon which he would be authorised by this Act to refuse the application if such licensee had survived and had himself made the application,
- 10 (ii) if such application is for a transfer, the Minister shall grant such application.

24.—(1) There shall be paid to the Minister on every application under this Part of this Act for the grant, renewal, or transfer of a merchandise licence a fee of such amount as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance, and the payment of such fee (which shall be retained whether the application is or is not granted) shall be a condition precedent to the consideration of such application.

Fees on the grant, etc., of merchandise licences.

20 (2) Different fees may be prescribed in respect of grants, renewals and transfers respectively of merchandise licences, and such fees may be of a fixed amount or of an amount calculated by reference to a scale graduated according to the number of mechanically propelled vehicles used by the licensee or the total

25 unladen weights of such vehicles or otherwise.

(3) Every fee payable under this section shall be collected and accounted for in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Minister with the sanction of the Minister for Finance.

25.—(1) The Minister may, by regulations made by him under this Act, prescribe the accounts to be kept by every person carrying on a merchandise road transport business under a merchandise licence and also the statements of accounts, returns of traffic, and other returns to be furnished periodically by every such person to the Minister and the times and occasions at which such returns are to be so furnished.

Accounts and returns by licensees under merchandise licences.

(2) The Minister may, by the conditions attached to a merchandise licence, require the licensee under such licence to keep accounts or make returns differing (whether by addition, omission, or variation) from the accounts or returns prescribed by regulations made under this Act, and where any such condition is attached to a merchandise licence, the said regulations shall have effect in respect of the licensee under such licence subject to such condition.

40

(3) The Minister may publish, as and when he thinks proper, all or any returns made to him under this section and also statistics compiled by him from such returns.

45

(4). Every person who shall fail to keep the accounts or make the returns which he is required by regulations made under this Act or by a condition attached to a merchandise licence to keep or make shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds and, in the case of a continuing offence, a further fine not exceeding one pound for every day during which the offence continues.

50

26.—(1) The licensee under a merchandise licence may apply at the vehicle plate issuing station specified in his licence to the Chief Superintendent of the Garda Síochána within whose functional area such station is situate for the issue of a vehicle plate in respect of any mechanically propelled vehicle intended to be used by him for the purpose of the business authorised by such licence to be carried on.

55

Issue of vehicle plates.

(2) Every application under this section shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain a description of the vehicle in respect of which the plate is sought and shall be accompanied by the registration book in relation to such vehicle.

(3) Upon receipt of an application duly made under this section and upon payment of a fee of such amount as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance and after consultation with the Minister for Justice, may from time to time appoint, the Chief Superintendent of the Gárda Síochána to whom the application is made shall, if he is satisfied that the vehicle in respect of which the vehicle plate is sought is duly licensed under section 13 of the Finance Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent enactments, and subject to the provisions of the next following section issue a vehicle plate to the applicant in respect of such vehicle.

(4) Every vehicle plate issued under this section shall be made of metal and be of the prescribed pattern and bear the prescribed marks thereon.

Restriction on issue of vehicle plates.

27.—(1) Where an application for the issue of a vehicle plate in respect of a lorry is made by the licensee (other than an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company) under a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, such plate shall not be issued—

- (a) if there is no standard lorry weight for such licensee, or
- (b) in case there is a standard lorry weight for such licensee, if—
 - (i) the unladen weight of such lorry exceeds such standard lorry weight, or
 - (ii) the result of such issue, if made, would be that the combined unladen weights of the lorries in respect of which vehicle plates are on issue to such licensee would exceed such standard lorry weight.

(2) Where an application for the issue of a vehicle plate in respect of a tractor is made by the licensee (other than an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company) under a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, such plate shall not be issued—

- (a) if there is no standard tractor weight for such licensee, or
- (b) in case there is a standard tractor weight for such licensee, if—
 - (i) the unladen weight of such tractor exceeds such standard tractor weight, or
 - (ii) the result of such issue, if made, would be that the combined unladen weights of the tractors in respect of which vehicle plates are on issue to such licensee would exceed such standard tractor weight.

(3) Whenever a vehicle plate issued to a licensee under a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence is surrendered by such licensee at the vehicle plate issuing station at which it was issued such vehicle plate shall be deemed for the purposes of this section no longer to be on issue to such licensee.

Obligation to carry vehicle
plate on vehicles carrying merchandise.

28.—(1) The vehicle plate issued under this Part of this Act in respect of a mechanically propelled vehicle shall be affixed to such vehicle in the prescribed place and manner and shall always be carried so affixed when such vehicle is used for the purpose of merchandise road transport.

(2) If any mechanically propelled vehicle is used for the purposes of merchandise road transport without having affixed thereto in the prescribed place and manner a vehicle plate issued under this Part of this Act in respect of such vehicle, or with such vehicle plate so defaced by wear or injury that the marks required by this Act to be borne thereon are obliterated or illegible, the owner of such vehicle and also the driver thereof shall each be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten 5 pounds.

29.—(1) Any member of the Gárda Síochána may, at any time and in any place, inspect and examine any lorry or tractor and for that purpose may do all or any of the following things, that is to say:—

Inspection of vehicles carrying merchandise.

- 10 (a) enter into any place in which such lorry or tractor is;
(b) if such lorry or tractor is in motion, require it to stop;
(c) require the driver of such lorry or tractor to drive it forthwith to a convenient place indicated by such member for such inspection and examination.

15 (2) Every person who—

- (a) obstructs or interferes with a member of the Gárda Síochána in the exercise of any power conferred by this section, or 20 (b) being the driver of a lorry or tractor in motion, fails to stop it when required by a member of the Gárda Síochána under this section so to do, or
(c) being the driver of a lorry or tractor fails to comply with a requirement made by a member of the Gárda Síochána under this section in relation to such lorry or tractor,

25 shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

30.—(1) On and after the appointed day it shall not be lawful for any person to enter into an agreement for the performance for payment of any service incidental to a merchandise road transport business with any other person unless such other person is a licensee under a merchandise licence or such service is to be performed exclusively within an exempted area.

Prohibition of contracts for carriage of merchandise with unlicensed person.

(2) If any person acts in contravention of this section such 35 person shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

31.—No action shall lie under sub-section (1) of section 1 of the Public Roads (Ireland) Act, 1911, against the licensee under a merchandise licence in respect of any damage caused to a public 40 road as the result of such licensee carrying on the business authorised by such licence.

Amendment of the Public Roads (Ireland) Act, 1911.

PART III.

CHARGES FOR CARRIAGE OF MERCHANDISE.

45 32.—(1) Whenever—

Classification of merchandise.

- (a) a merchandise licence is granted to an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company or to an existing carrier, whose merchandise road transport business is owned or controlled directly or 50 indirectly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, or
(b) a merchandise licence is transferred to an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, from any person other than an authorised

(merchandise carry) company, a shipping company, or an existing carrier whose merchandise road transport business in owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, or 5

(c) a merchandise road transport business carried on under a merchandise licence becomes owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company, the licensee under such licence shall, within three months after 10 such grant or transfer or after such business becomes owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company (as the case may be) submit to the railway tribunal a proposal for the classification of the merchandise specified in such licence for the purposes of the 15 application to such merchandise of rates of charges under this Part of this Act.

(2) Whenever a proposal for the classification of merchandise is made to the railway tribunal by the licensee under a merchandise licence in pursuance of this section the railway 20 tribunal shall consider and, after hearing all parties interested who are desirous of being heard, determine the classification of merchandise applicable to such licensee.

(3) In exercising the powers conferred on them by this section the railway tribunal shall have power to divide any classification 25 determined by them into such number of classes containing such descriptions of merchandise as they think fit, and in determining the class in which any particular merchandise shall be placed they shall, in addition to all other relevant circumstances, have regard to the value, the bulk in comparison to weight, the risk 30 of damage and the cost of handling such merchandise, and the saving of cost of handling such merchandise which may result when such merchandise is forwarded in large quantities, but so nevertheless, that any classification as a whole shall be on broad simple lines suitable to the circumstances and calculated to 35 promote the best interests of the merchandise road transport industry.

Schedules of charges.

33.—(1) Where the railway tribunal has determined a classification of merchandise applicable to the licensee under a merchandise licence, such licensee shall, within three months after 40 such determination, submit to the railway tribunal a schedule of charges proposed to be made by such licensee according to the classification of merchandise so determined.

(2) The railway tribunal shall consider every schedule of proposed charges submitted to them under this section by the licensee 45 under a merchandise licence and any objections thereto which may be lodged within the appointed time and in the appointed manner, and after hearing all parties interested and who are desirous of being heard shall settle the said schedule and fix the date on which the same is to come into force and as from the 50 said date the said schedule of charges as so settled shall subject to amendment by the railway tribunal under this Part of this Act be the schedule of charges in force for the licensee under such licence.

Variation of classification of merchandise.

34.—(1) The railway tribunal shall on the application of the 55 licensee under a merchandise licence concerned or any representative body of traders or of any body of persons representative of a trade or a locality have power to amend (whether by variation addition or omission), after hearing all parties interested and desirous of being heard, any classification of 60 merchandise determined by them under this Part of this Act.

(2) Whenever the railway tribunal amend any classification of merchandise applicable to the licensee under a merchandise licence they shall also (if necessary) amend the schedule of charges for such licensee and fix the date on which such schedule as so amended is to come into force, and as from the said date the said schedule of charges as so amended shall, subject to amendment by the railway tribunal under this Part of this Act, be the schedule of charges in force for the licensee under such

5 licence.

35.—The licensee under a merchandise licence in relation to whom a schedule of charges is in force or any representative body of traders or any person who may obtain a certificate (which the Minister is hereby authorised to grant) from the Minister that he is a proper person for the purpose, shall be entitled at any time to apply to the railway tribunal to amend such charges or any of them or any conditions relative thereto, and, if such licensee or body of traders or person, as the case may be, proves to the satisfaction of the railway tribunal that such charges or any of them ought to be amended, the railway tribunal shall make such amendments as they think fit, and shall fix the date on which the amended charges or conditions shall come into force, and as from the said date the said schedule as so amended shall, subject to further amendment by the railway tribunal, be the schedule of charges in force for the licensee under such licence.

Variation of schedule of
charges.

36.—In settling or amending under this Part of this Act a schedule of charges in respect of a licensee under a merchandise licence, the railway tribunal shall, as far as may be practicable, so settle or amend such schedule that the charges appearing therein or fixed thereby shall be such as will, having regard to the estimated volume of traffic, yield a revenue sufficient to pay the cost of carrying on the business authorised by such licence efficiently and economically and to give a reasonable return on the capital expenditure attributable to such business.

Provisions in relation to settlement and amendment of schedules of charges.

37.—(1) Every licensee under a merchandise licence shall furnish to the railway tribunal within twenty-eight days after being required by the railway tribunal so to do, such information as the railway tribunal may require and may specify in such requisition for the purpose of settling or amending a classification of merchandise applicable to such licensee under a merchandise licence or settling or amending a schedule of charges for such licensee.

Duty of licensees to furnish information to the Railway Tribunal.

(2) If any licensee under a merchandise licence fails to comply with this section, such licensee shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding ten pounds for every day during which the offence is committed.

38.—Whenever the railway tribunal determine or amend a classification of merchandise applicable to the licensee under a merchandise licence or settle or amend a schedule of charges for the licensee under a merchandise licence, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say :—

Publication of classification of merchandise and schedule of charges.

(a) such licensee shall within the appointed time cause such classification and schedule to be published in the appointed manner, and

(b) such licensee shall, upon payment of the appointed fee, deliver to any person who applies therefor at the appointed place a copy of such classification or schedule.

39.—(1) Whenever a schedule of charges is in force for the licensee under a merchandise licence, the charges appearing in or fixed by such schedule shall be the maximum charges which such licensee shall be entitled to make for all services rendered in respect of which charges are fixed.

Maximum
charges.

(2) If the licensee under a merchandise licence for whom a schedule of charges is in force, charges for any service rendered a charge in excess of the charges appearing in or fixed by such schedule, such licensee shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

40 44.—(1) This Part of this Act applies to every merchandise Merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, other than a merchandise (existing (existing carrier's) licence held by an authorised (merchandise carrying) carriers) company or a shipping company or by a person whose merchandise licences and road transport business is owned or controlled directly or in annual 45 directly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a passenger shipping company. licences to which Part V applies.

(2) This Part of this Act applies to every annual passenger licence, other than an annual passenger licence held by an authorised (passenger carrying) company or by a person whose 50 passenger road service is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (passenger carrying) company.

Application for orders transferring etc., certain merchandise licences and passenger licences.

45.—(1) Any authorised (merchandise carrying) company may send an application to the Minister requesting him to make—

- (a) an order under this Part of this Act transferring a particular merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies to such company, or 5
- (b) an order under this Part of this Act reducing the classes of merchandise specified in a particular merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies, or
- (c) an order under this Part of this Act reducing the area of operation specified in a particular merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies. 10

(2) Any authorised (passenger carrying) company may send an application to the Minister requesting him to make an order transferring a particular annual passenger licence to which this Part of this Act applies to such company. 15

(3) The licensee under a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies may send an application to the Minister requesting him to make an order under this Part of this Act transferring such licence to a specified authorised (merchandise carrying) company. 20

(4) The licensee under an annual passenger licence to which this Part of this Act applies may send an application to the Minister requesting him to make an order under this Part of this Act transferring such licence to a specified authorised (passenger carrying) company. 25

(5) Every application under this section shall be in the prescribed form and contain the prescribed particulars.

(6) Whenever an application is sent to the Minister under this section the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:— 30

- (a) the Minister shall publish in the Iris Oifigiúil notice of such application;
- (b) any person may within one month after such publication make representations to the Minister in relation to such application. 35

(7) There shall be paid to the Minister on every application under this section a fee of such amount as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance, and the payment of such fee (which shall be retained whether the application is or is not granted) shall be a condition precedent to the consideration of such application. 40

(8) Every fee payable under this section shall be collected and accounted for in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Minister with the sanction of the Minister of Finance. 45

Making of orders under Part V.

46.—(1) Whenever an application is made to the Minister under the immediately preceding section in relation to a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies the Minister may, subject to the provisions of this section— 50

- (a) in case such application is for an order transferring such licence to a particular authorised (merchandise carrying) company, make an order (in this Act referred to as a transfer order) transferring such licence to such company; or 55
- (b) in case such application is for an order reducing the classes of merchandise specified in such licence, make an order (in this Act referred to as a reduction order) reducing such classes to the classes of merchandise specified in such order; or 60
- (c) in case such application is for an order reducing the area of operation specified in such licence, make an order

(in this Act also referred to as a reduction order) reducing such area to the area specified in such order.

(2) Whenever an application is made to the Minister under the immediately preceding section for an order transferring an annual passenger licence to which this Part of this Act applies to a particular authorised (passenger carrying) company, the Minister may, subject to the provisions of this section, make an order (in this Act also referred to as a transfer order) transferring such licence to such company.

(3) The Minister shall not make an order under this section until the expiration of one month after the date of the publication in the Iris Oifigiúil of notice of the application in pursuance of which such order is made and until he has considered any representations made in relation to the application.

(4) The Minister shall not make an order under this section unless he is of opinion that in the public interest it is expedient that such order should be made.

47.—(1) Whenever the Minister makes a transfer order transferring a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a transfer order transferring an annual passenger licence to an authorised (passenger carrying) company, the licence transferred by such order shall as on the date specified in such order be transferred to such authorised (merchandise carrying) company or authorised (passenger carrying) company (as the case may be).

Operation of transfer orders and reduction orders.

(2) Whenever the Minister makes a reduction order reducing the classes of merchandise specified in a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, such licence shall as from the date specified in such order authorise the licensee to carry on a merchandise road transport business in respect of the classes of merchandise specified in such order and no other classes of merchandise.

(3) Whenever the Minister makes a reduction order restricting the area of operation specified in a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, such licence shall as from the date specified in such order authorise the licensee to carry on a merchandise road transport business in the area specified in such order and no other area.

48.—Whenever a transfer order is made in relation to a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence or an annual passenger licence or a reduction order is made in relation to a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, compensation shall be payable to the person who was the licensee under such licence immediately preceding the making of such order by, in the case of a transfer order, the person to whom such licence is by virtue of such transfer order transferred or, in the case of a reduction order, by the person upon whose application such reduction order was made, and the measure of such compensation shall be the pecuniary loss and expense (if any) which such first mentioned person sustains or incurs or will sustain or incur by reason of such order and which is the direct consequence of such order.

Compensation on transfer etc. of licences.

49.—The amount of compensation payable to a licensee under the immediately preceding section shall, in default of agreement between such licensee and the person liable under this Part of this Act to pay such compensation, be determined and fixed by an arbitrator appointed by the Minister under this Part of this Act and the decision of such arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Determination of compensation.

50.—Whenever the Minister makes an order under this Part of this Act in relation to a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence or a passenger licence, the Minister shall by the same order appoint a fit and proper person (in this Part of this Act referred to as an arbitrator) to fix, in default of agreement between the licensee under such licence and the person liable

Appointment of arbitrator.

under this Part of this Act to pay compensation to such licensee in respect of such order, the amount of such compensation.

Costs of licensee awarded compensation.

51.—Where an arbitrator awards compensation under this Part of this Act, the arbitrator shall also award to the person entitled to such compensation, in addition to such compensation, such sum as he thinks reasonable to cover the expenses of such person in relation to the award, and such sum shall be payable by the person liable under this Part of this Act to pay such compensation. 5

Recovery of amount of award.

52.—Where an award is made by an arbitrator under this Part of this Act, the amount of such award may be recoverable by the person entitled under this Part of this Act to payment of such amount from the person liable under this Part of this Act to pay such amount as a simple contract debt in a court of competent jurisdiction. 10 15

Remuneration of arbitrator.

53.—There shall be paid to an arbitrator in respect of every arbitration before him for fixing compensation under this Part of this Act by the person liable under this Part of this Act to pay such compensation such remuneration as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, may appoint, and the amount of such remuneration shall be recoverable by such arbitrator as a simple contract debt in a court of competent jurisdiction. 20

Powers of arbitrator.

54.—(1) Every arbitrator appointed under this Part of this Act shall have power by notice in writing signed by him to summon witnesses and to require the production of books and other documents, and any person so summoned who fails to attend or refuses to give evidence before such arbitrator and any person who fails or refuses to produce any book or other document the production of which is so required of him shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten pounds. 25 30

(2) Evidence given before an arbitrator appointed under this Part of this Act shall, if such arbitrator requires, be given on oath (which oath such arbitrator is hereby empowered to administer) and any person who gives false evidence before any such arbitrator shall be guilty of perjury and punishable accordingly. 35

PART VI.

COMPENSATION TO CERTAIN EX-EMPLOYEES OF LICENSEES UNDER MERCHANDISE (EXISTING CARRIER'S) LICENCES AND ANNUAL PASSENGER LICENCES. 40

Merchandise (existing carriers) licences and annual passenger licence to which Part VI applies.

55.—(1) This Part of this Act applies to every merchandise (existing carrier's) licence, other than a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence held by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company or by a person whose merchandise road transport business is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (merchandise carrying) company or a shipping company. 45

(2) This Part of this Act applies to every annual passenger licence, other than an annual passenger licence held by an authorised (passenger carrying) company or by a person whose passenger road service is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by an authorised (passenger carrying) company. 50

Definitions in relation to Part VI.

56.—In this Part of this Act—
the expression "transferred" means—

- (a) in relation to a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies, transferred under Part II of this Act or under Part V of this Act, and
- 5 (b) in relation to an annual passenger licence to which this Part of this Act applies, transferred under section 18 of the Act of 1932 or under Part V of this Act;

the expression " the critical date " means—

- 10 (a) in relation to a licence transferred under section 18 of the Act of 1932 or under Part II of this Act, the date as from which such transfer is deemed to have been made;
- (b) in relation to a licence the subject of a transfer order or a reduction order, the date of the application for such
- 15 order.

57.—Where—

- (1) a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies is transferred to an authorised (merchandise carrying) company, or
- 20 (2) an annual passenger licence to which this Part of this Act applies is transferred to an authorised (passenger carrying) company, or
- (3) a reduction order is made in respect of a merchandise (existing carrier's) licence to which this Part of this Act applies,
- 25

Compensation to ex-employees of certain licensees.

the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

- (a) compensation shall be payable by the company to which such licence is transferred or upon whose application such reduction order is made (as the case may be) to every person who complies with the following conditions, that is to say:—
- 30
- (i) was on the critical date employed whole-time by the licensee under such licence in the operation of the vehicles used for the purposes of the business authorised by such licence to be carried on and was so employed continuously for a period of five years ending on the day preceeding the critical date, and
- 35
- (ii) was, within six months after the critical date, dismissed (otherwise than for inefficiency or misconduct) by such licensee, and
- 40
- (iii) either, does not accept employment with the said company or, if accepting such employment, is dismissed (otherwise than for inefficiency or misconduct) by the said company within two years from the date on which such employment commenced;
- 45
- (b) the compensation payable to such person shall be a gratuity calculated on the basis of one-twelfth of the amount of his annual remuneration for every completed year before the critical date during which he was continuously employed whole-time by such licensee in the operation of the vehicles used for the purposes of the business authorised by such licence to be carried on;
- 50
- (c) the annual remuneration of such person shall be taken to be the total remuneration and emoluments paid by such licensee to such person during the calendar year next preceeding the critical date;
- 55
- (d) for the purpose of this section employment shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding any break in such employment due solely to illness or labour disputes.
- 60

Recovery of compensation under Part VI.

58.—Where a person is entitled to compensation under this Part of this Act such compensation shall be a debt due to such person by the person liable under the said Part to pay such compensation and shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt in a court of competent jurisdiction. 5

PART VII.

AMENDMENT OF CERTAIN ENACTMENTS.

Definitions in relation to Part VII.

59.—In this Part of this Act—
the expression “seasonal passenger licence” means an annual passenger licence in respect of a specified part of a year only; 10 the word “season” in relation to a seasonal passenger licence means the specified part of a year to which such licence relates.

Amendment of meaning of expression “passenger road service” in Act of 1932.

60.—(1) The definition of the expression “passenger road service” contained in section 2 of the Act of 1932 is hereby amended by the insertion therein of the words “or otherwise” 15 after the words “specified route”, and the said Act shall be construed and have effect with due regard to the modification of the meaning of the said expression effected by the said amendment.

(2) A service of one or more mechanically propelled vehicles 20 which would but for this sub-section be a passenger road service within the meaning of the Act of 1932 shall not be a passenger road service for the purposes of that Act where both the following conditions are complied with, that is to say:—

- (a) each of such vehicles is engaged in carrying mails, within 25 the meaning of the Act of 1932, under contract with the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, and
- (b) each of such vehicles is constructed and equipped to seat not more than five persons, exclusive of the driver.

Extension of duration of passenger licences in force on 31st October, 1933.

61.—Notwithstanding anything in sections 13 or 16 of the Act 30 of 1932, every seasonal passenger licence which (whether by virtue of the original grant or of a renewal of such licence) is in force at the date of the passing of this Act and also on the 31st day of October, 1933 shall, unless it is previously revoked under the Act of 1932 and subject to any suspension under that Act, 35 continue in force until the first day of the season to which such licence relates next following the said 31st day of October, 1933, and shall then expire unless it is renewed by the Minister under the Act of 1932.

Commencement and duration of future seasonal passenger licences.

62.—(1) Every seasonal passenger licence granted after the 40 passing of this Act shall commence on the first day of the season to which it relates next following the grant thereof.

(2) Every seasonal passenger licence granted after the passing of this Act shall (unless it is previously revoked under the Act of 1932 and subject to any suspension under that Act) continue 45 in force for a period of twelve months from the date on which it commenced and shall then expire unless it is renewed under the Act of 1932.

(3) Section 13 of the Act of 1932 shall cease to apply in relation to seasonal passenger licences granted after the passing 50 of this Act.

Duration of renewals of future seasonal passenger licences.

63.—(1) Every renewal granted after the passing of this Act of a seasonal passenger licence shall commence immediately upon the expiration of the licence or of the last renewal of the licence

(as the case may be) of which it is a renewal and, unless it is previously revoked under the Act of 1932 and subject to any suspension under that Act, continue in force for a period of twelve months from the date of such commencement.

- 5 (2) Section 16 of the Act of 1932 shall cease to apply in relation to renewals of seasonal passenger licences where the renewal is made after the date of the passing of this Act.

- 10 64.—(1) The Minister may on his own motion during the currency of a passenger licence amend (whether by addition, omission or variation) in such manner as he thinks fit the conditions attached to such licence. Amendment of conditions of an annual passenger licence during its currency.

- 15 (2) Whenever the Minister proposes to amend, in exercise of the power conferred on him by the immediately preceding subsection, the conditions attached to a passenger licence he shall cause a notice to be served on the licensee specifying the amended conditions which are to attach to such licence and upon service of such notice the said amended conditions shall attach to such licence.

- 20 65.—The Minister may at any time on his own motion and at his absolute discretion revoke a passenger licence if he is satisfied that such licence was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation. Revocation of passenger licences.

- 25 66.—Where the ownership of a passenger road service has been transferred from the licensee under the passenger licence relating to such service to another person and the Minister has under section 18 of the Act of 1932 transferred such licence to such person, such licence shall be deemed to have been transferred to such person as on the date of the transfer of such ownership. Date of transfer of passenger licences.

- 30 67.—A certificate purporting to be signed by an officer of the Minister and to certify that on a specified day or days or during the whole of a specified period a specified person was not the holder of a passenger licence authorising him to carry on a specified passenger road service shall, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign such certificate or that 35 he was an officer of the Minister, be evidence until the contrary is proved of such of the matters aforesaid as are purported to be certified in and by such certificate. Evidence.

- 40 68.—(1) Sub-section (4) of section 53 of the Railways Act, 1924 (No. 29 of 1924), and sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Railways (Miscellaneous) Act, 1932 (No. 3 of 1932), shall cease to have effect in relation to every business to which this section applies but nevertheless such business shall continue to be another source of revenue within the meaning of sub-section (1) of the said section 53. Amendment of the Railways Act, 1924, and the Railways (Miscellaneous) Act, 1932.

- 45 (2) When fixing the charges necessary to produce the standard revenue, within the meaning of section 53 of the Railways Act, 1924, the railway tribunal shall take into consideration the manner in which every business to which this section applies is carried on and may take into account the revenue which, in the opinion of the tribunal, should be produced by the efficient and 50 economical management of such business.

- (3) This section applies to every business authorised by a merchandise licence to be carried on where the holder of such licence is the Great Southern Railways Company or a person 55 whose merchandise road transport business is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the Great Southern Railways Company.
