Produce (Cereals) Act, 1935 (No. 26 of 1935);

the expressions “ home-grown millable wheat ” and “ sale

2.—(1) Where an order (in this section referred to as 20 an original order) under sub-section (2) of section 12 of the Act of 1935 has been made (whether before or after the passing of this Act) by the Executive Council in respect of a sale (wheat) year, the Executive Council may, whenever and so often as they section, the following things that is to say:—

each substitutive order is made, in such sale (wheat) year, the price, in terms of a rate per barrel, of wheat of that class for that month, and whenever any sub-stitutive order is made in respect of a sale (wheat) year, such substitutive order shall, subject to the provisions of this section, have the like effect as if it were the original order in respect of such sale (wheat) year.

(2) Wherever and so often as a substitutive order (in this sub- 45 section referred to as the new order) is made in respect of a sale (wheat) year, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

5 (a) in case no previous substitutive order has been made in respect of such sale (wheat) year, the new order shall include all wheat included in any class constituted by the original order in respect of such sale (wheat) year, and shall fix, in respect of such wheat and in respect of each month to which the new order applies, a price not less than the price fixed in respect of such month by such original order for wheat of the same bushel weight;

10 (b) in case any previous substitutive order or orders have been made in respect of such sale (wheat) year, the new order shall include all wheat included in any class constituted by such previous substitutive order or, where 15 two or more such previous substitutive orders have been made, the last of such previous substitutive orders, and shall fix, in respect of such wheat and in respect of each month to which the new order applies, a price not less than the price fixed in respect of such month by such previous substitutive order or the last of such 20 previous substitutive orders (as the case may be) for wheat of the same bushel weight.

(3) Whenever and so often as a substitutive order (in this subsection referred to as the new order) is made in respect of a sale (wheat) year, then, as on and from the date on which the new 25 order comes into operation, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

(a) in case no previous substitutive order has been made in respect of such sale (wheat) year, the original order in respect of such sale (wheat) year shall, in case the new 30 order comes into operation on or before the first day of such sale (wheat) year, cease to have effect in respect of such sale (wheat) year or, in case the new order comes into operation on any day in such sale (wheat) year, other than the first day, cease to have effect in respect of the part then unexpired of such sale (wheat)
35 year;
