BILL

entitled

5

AN ACT TO AMEND AND EXTEND THE LICENSING (IRELAND) ACTS, 1833 TO 1929, IN DIVERS RESPECTS AND, IN PARTICULAR, BY PROVIDING FOR THE LICENSING OF AERODROMES AND PASSENGER AIRCRAFT.

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title, construction, and collective citation.

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1942. 15

(2) This Act shall be construed as one with the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1929, and may be cited with those Acts as the Licensing Acts, 1833 to 1942.

PART II.

AMENDMENTS OF THE INTOXICATING LIQUOR ACT, 1927. 20

Definition for the purposes of
Part II.

2.—In this Part of this Act the expression “ the Act of 1927 ” means the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1927 (No. 15 of 1927).

Amendment of section 2 of the Act of 1927.

3.—Section 2 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended by the deletion of paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) and the substitution in lieu thereof of the following paragraph:— 25

“ (c) on any Sunday, before the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon, or between the hours of two o'clock and four o'clock in the afternoon, or after the hour of seven o'clock in the evening, or ”.

Amendment of section 5 of the Act of 1927.

4.—Section 5 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended by the deletion in sub-section (1) of the words “ and are situate in a county borough ”. 30

Amendment of section 11 of the Act of 1927.

5.—Section 11 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended—

(a) by the deletion in sub-section (1) of the words “ the annual licensing District Court ” and the substitution in lieu thereof of the words “ any sitting of the Justice of the District Court ”, and 35

(b) by the deletion in sub-section (2) of the words “ the annual licensing District Court ” and the substitution in lieu thereof of the words “ any sitting of the Justice of the District Court ”. 40

6.—Section 12 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended by the insertion before sub-section (2) of a new sub-section as follows:—

Amendment of section 12 of the Act of 1927.

5 “ (1A) A person who is the holder of a wine retailer’s on-licence within the meaning of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, may, at any annual licensing District Court, apply to the Court to certify that the premises to which such licence is attached are a restaurant for the purposes of this Act and the Court, if satisfied after hearing the officer in charge of 10 the Gárda Síochána for the licensing area that such premises are structurally adapted for use and bona fide and mainly used as a restaurant, refreshment house or other place for supplying substantial meals to the public, shall grant to such person a certificate (in this section also referred to as 15 a restaurant certificate) certifying that such premises are a restaurant for the purposes of this Act.”

7.—Section 15 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended by the deletion of sub-sections (1) and (2) and the substitution in lieu thereof of the following sub-section, that is to say:—

Amendment of section 15 of the Act of 1927.

20 “ (1) Nothing in this Act shall operate to prohibit the holder of an on-licence (not being a six-day licence) in respect of premises which are not situate in a county borough from selling intoxicating liquor for consumption on such licensed premises to bona fide travellers—

25 (a) on any Sunday during a period of summer time, between the hours of one o’clock in the afternoon and eight o’clock in the evening, or

(b) on any other Sunday, between the hours of one o’clock in the afternoon and seven o’clock in the evening.”

30

8.—Section 26 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended—

Amendment of section 26 of the Act of 1927.

(a) by the deletion in sub-section (1) of the words “ the trivial nature of the offence ”, and the substitution in lieu thereof of the words “ extenuating circumstances ”;

35

(b) by the deletion in sub-section (1) of the words “ circumstances which reduce the offence to one of a trivial nature ”, and the substitution in lieu thereof of the words “ the said extenuating circumstances ”;

40 (c) by the deletion of sub-section (2).

9.—(1) In this section the expression “ 1942 order ” means a final apportionment order under section 48 of the Act of 1927 for the year 1942.

Amendment of sections 48 and 49 of the Act of 1927.

(2) Every 1942 order shall, as regards the compensation
45 annuity to which such order relates, be deemed to be the final apportionment order under section 48 of the Act of 1927 for each of the years subsequent to the year 1942.

(3) For the purposes of the application of a 1942 order in relation to a year subsequent to 1942, the following provisions
50 shall have effect, that is to say:—

(a) the 1942 order shall, as regards the year in question, be deemed to have become final under the Act of 1927 on the 15th day of September in the said year;

(b) where any licence, by reference to which an amount 55 mentioned in the 1942 order is apportioned, has terminated on or after the 2nd day of July in the year preceding the said year and before the 1st day of July in the said year, the mention in the 1942 order of such amount and of the person on whom it is apportioned shall be deemed to be deleted;

(c) subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this sub- 5 section, every mention in the 1942 order in relation to any particular premises, of a person not the holder, on the 1st day of July in the said year, of the licence in respect of those premises shall be con- 10 strued as a mention of the person who, on the said 1st day of July, was the holder of such licence, and the latter person shall be regarded for the purposes of section 49 of the Act of 1927 as the person on whom the amount mentioned in the 1942 order in respect of those premises is apportioned for the said 15 year;

(d) the Minister shall not, for the said year, carry out in relation to the compensation annuity to which the 1942 order relates the functions imposed on him by 20 section 48 of the Act of 1927;

(e) no objection shall be capable of being made in the said year in relation to the 1942 order under sub-section
(4) of section 48 of the Act of 1927.

(4) A final apportionment order made under section 48 of the Act of 1927 and apportioning a compensation annuity com- 25 mencing in a year subsequent to the year 1942 may, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, contain a declaration that such order shall, as regards such annuity, be deemed to be the final apportionment order under section 48 of the Act of 1927 for each of the years subsequent to the year in which such 30 order is made.

(5) Where an order contains a declaration under sub-section
(4) of this section—

(a) such declaration shall have the force of law in accord- 35 ance with its terms;

(b) the provisions contained in sub-section (3) of this section shall, in relation to years subsequent to that in which such order was made, have effect as if such order were a 1942 order.

(6) The Minister for Finance may, by requisition in writing 40 communicated to the Minister before the 1st day of June in any year, require the Minister to make under section 48 of the Act of 1927 an apportionment order in respect of any compensation annuity payable in that year, and, upon any such requisition being so communicated to the Minister, the 45 following provisions shall apply and have effect, that is to say:—

(a) the Minister shall make, under and in accordance with the said section 48, a draft apportionment order in respect of the said compensation annuity for the said 50 year and shall so comply with the said section 48 that such draft apportionment order (with or without amendment) shall in due course become and be final by virtue of sub-section (6) of the said section;

(b) notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing 55 provisions of this section, the apportionment order so made shall, on becoming final as aforesaid, be the final apportionment order under the said section 48 in respect of the said compensation annuity for the said year and for every succeeding year, until another 60 requisition is made under this section by the Minister for Finance in relation to the said compensation annuity;

- 5 (c) the provisions contained in sub-section (3) of this section shall, in relation to years subsequent to the said year (until another requisition is made as aforesaid), have effect as if the apportionment order so made were a 1942 order.

(7) In this section the expression " the Minister " means the 10 Minister for Justice.

10.—Section 62 of the Act of 1927 is hereby amended by the deletion in sub-section (1) of the words " the annual licensing District Court next after the passing of this Act " and the substitution in lieu thereof of the words " any annual licensing 15 District Court ".

Amendment of section 62 of the Act of 1927.

PART III.

GRANT OF NEW LICENCES IN CERTAIN CASES.

11.—In this Part of this Act—

the expression " the Act of 1833 " means the Licensing (Ireland) 20 Act, 1833;

Definitions for the purposes of Part III.

the expression " the Act of 1902 " means the Licensing (Ireland) Act, 1902;

the expression " the Act of 1927 " means the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1927 (No. 15 of 1927);

25 the word " licence " means a licence which is either a publican's licence or a beerhouse licence;

the expressions " publican's licence " and " beerhouse licence " have the meanings given to them respectively by section 52 of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, for the purposes of Part II of 30 that Act.

12.—(1) Where a person (in this section referred to as the applicant) duly gives notice of his intention to apply for a licence in respect of specified premises and, at the hearing before the Circuit Court of objections to such application, the applicant
35 shows to the satisfaction of the Court—

Grant of a new licence in respect of certain restaurant, etc., premises.

- (a) that the said premises are structurally adapted for use and are bona fide and mainly used as a restaurant, refreshment house, or other place for supplying substantial meals to the public, and 40 (b) that on the 1st day of January, 1933, a licence was attached to the said premises or to premises substantially the same as the said premises, and
(c) that, subsequent to the said date, the said licence was not renewed,

45 the Court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1902, cause such certificate as is mentioned in section 5 of the Act of 1833 to be given to the applicant declaring him to be duly entitled to receive a licence in respect of the said premises, unless the Court, in consequence of an objection made 50 under section 4 of the Act of 1833, prohibits under that section the issuing of such licence on one or more of the following grounds, that is to say, the character, misconduct, or unfitness of the applicant or the unfitness or inconvenience of the said premises.

(2) Where, in a case to which the foregoing sub-section applies, the certificate referred to in that sub-section is given to the applicant, nothing contained in the Act of 1902 shall operate to prevent the grant to the applicant of the licence which the said certificate declares him to be entitled to receive. 5

(3) This section shall continue in force until the 31st day of December, 1944, and no longer, unless the Oireachtas otherwise determines. 10

Grant of new licence in respect of more convenient premises.

13.—(1) Where a person (in this section referred to as the applicant) duly gives notice of his intention to apply for a licence in respect of premises (in this section referred to as the new premises) to which no licence is attached and, at the hearing before the Circuit Court of objections to such application, the applicant shows to the satisfaction of the Court— 15

(a) that the applicant is the holder of a licence attached to premises (in this section referred to as the existing premises) situate in the immediate vicinity of the new premises, and 20

(b) that the new premises and the existing premises are both situate in the same District Court area prescribed by law for the purposes of the transaction of licensing business, and

(c) that neither the new premises nor the existing premises is situate in a county or other borough, an urban district, or a town, and 25

(d) that the annual value under the Valuation Acts of the new premises is not less than the annual value under those Acts of the existing premises, and 30

(e) that the new premises is more suitable than the existing premises for the business of selling intoxicating liquor,

the Court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1902, cause such certificate as is mentioned in section 5 of the Act of 1833 to be given to the applicant declaring him to be duly entitled to receive a licence in respect of the new premises, unless the Court, in consequence of an objection made under section 4 of the Act of 1833, prohibits under that section the issuing of such licence on one or more of the following grounds, that is to say, the character, misconduct, or unfitness of the applicant or the unfitness or inconvenience of the new premises. 35 40

(2) Where in a case to which the foregoing sub-section of this section applies, the certificate referred to in that sub-section is given to the applicant, the following provisions shall apply and have effect, that is to say:— 45

(a) the licence (in this sub-section referred to as the new licence) to which the applicant is declared by the said certificate to be entitled and which is granted to him in pursuance of that certificate shall be a licence of the same character in all respects (including conditions inserted therein) as the licence (in this sub-section referred to as the old licence) attached to the existing premises; 50

(b) nothing contained in the Act of 1902 shall operate to prevent the grant of the new licence to the applicant; 55

- (c) upon the grant of the new licence, the old licence shall be extinguished;
- (d) every (if any) conviction which is recorded on the old licence under section 25 of the Act of 1927 at the time of the grant of the new licence shall be deemed to be recorded on the new licence under the said section and to have been so recorded on the date on which it was recorded on the old licence;
- (e) if paragraph (1) of section 2 of the Act of 1902 applies in respect of the existing premises, those premises shall, upon the old licence being extinguished in pursuance of this sub-section, cease to be premises to which the said paragraph applies, and the Act of 1902 shall thenceforward have effect accordingly in relation to the existing premises.

14.—(1) Where a person (in this section referred to as the applicant) duly gives notice of his intention to apply for a licence in respect of premises (in this section referred to as the substituted premises) to which no licence is attached and, at the hearing before the Circuit Court of objections to such application, the applicant shows to the satisfaction of the Court—

- (a) that premises (in this section referred to as the original premises) in the immediate vicinity of the substituted premises were burnt down, or otherwise destroyed, or rendered uninhabitable by fire or other unavoidable cause or accident not more than twelve months before the date on which the said notice by the applicant was served on the county registrar, and
- (b) that a licence was attached to the original premises when they were so burnt down or otherwise destroyed or rendered uninhabitable, and
- (c) that at the time of the said hearing before the Circuit Court the applicant is in lawful occupation of the original premises or of the site and remains thereof, and
- (d) that no trade or business had been carried on in the original premises since they were so burnt down or otherwise destroyed or rendered uninhabitable,

the Court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1902, cause such certificate as is mentioned in section 5 of the Act of 1833 to be given to the applicant declaring him to be duly entitled to receive a licence in respect of the substituted premises, unless the Court, in consequence of an objection made under section 4 of the Act of 1833, prohibits under that section the issuing of such licence on one or more of the following grounds, that is to say, the character, misconduct, or unfitness of the applicant or the unfitness or inconvenience of the substituted premises.

(2) Where, in a case to which the foregoing sub-section of this section applies, the certificate referred to in that sub-section is given to the applicant, the following provisions shall apply and have effect, that is to say:—

- (a) the licence (in this sub-section referred to as the new licence) to which the applicant is declared by the said certificate to be entitled and which is granted to him in pursuance of that certificate shall be a licence of the same character in all respects (including conditions inserted therein) as the licence (in this sub-section referred to as the old licence) which was attached to the original premises when they were burnt down or otherwise destroyed or rendered uninhabitable;

- (b) nothing contained in the Act of 1902 shall operate to prevent the grant of the new licence to the applicant;
- (c) upon the grant of the new licence, the old licence (if then subsisting) shall be extinguished;
- (d) every (if any) conviction which was recorded on the 5 old licence under section 25 of the Act of 1927 and either (as the case may be) would, but for the expiry of that licence, have continued to be so recorded thereon at the time of the grant of the new licence or continues to be so recorded on the old licence 10 immediately before it is extinguished shall be deemed to be recorded on the new licence under the said section and to have been so recorded on the date on which it was recorded on the old licence;
- (e) if paragraph (1) of section 2 of the Act of 1902 applies in 15 respect of the original premises, those premises shall, upon the grant of the new licence, cease to be premises to which the said paragraph applies, and the Act of 1902 shall (subject to the provisions of the next following sub-section of this section) thenceforward have effect 20 accordingly in relation to the original premises.

(3) Where, in a case to which the foregoing sub-sections of this section apply, the original premises are reconstructed or new premises are erected on the site of the original premises (or on a site substantially the same as that site) and at any time thereafter 25 while a licence is attached to the substituted premises, the holder of that licence duly gives notice of his intention to apply for a licence in respect of the premises so reconstructed or newly erected, the Court shall cause such certificate as is mentioned in section 5 of the Act of 1833 to be given to the said holder declaring him to 30 be duly entitled to receive a licence in respect of the said reconstructed or newly erected premises, unless the Court, in consequence of an objection made under section 4 of the Act of 1833, prohibits under that section the issuing of such licence to the said holder on one or more of the following grounds, that is to say, 35 the character, misconduct, or unfitness of the said holder or the unfitness or inconvenience of the said reconstructed or newly erected premises, and, if the Court causes such certificate to be given to the said holder, the provisions contained in sub-section (2) of this section shall apply and have effect with the necessary modifica- 40 tions and, in particular, with the modifications that the expression " the new licence " shall mean the licence to which such certificate relates and the expression " the old licence " shall mean the said licence then attached to the substituted premises.

(4) Section 11 of the Excise Licences Act, 1825, shall not apply 45 or have effect in relation to a licence.

PART IV.

LICENCES IN RESPECT OF AERODROMES AND PASSENGER AIRCRAFT.

Definitions for the purposes of
Part IV.

15.—In this Part of this Act—

the expression " the Minister " means the Minister for Industry 50 and Commerce;

the expression " the Act of 1927 " means the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1927 (No. 15 of 1927);

the expression " the Act of 1936 " means the Air Navigation and Transport Act, 1936 (No. 40 of 1936); 55

the word " aircraft " has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1936;

the expression " approved aerodrome " means an aerodrome (within the meaning of the Act of 1936) which complies with both the following conditions, that is to say:—

5 (a) it either is licensed by the Minister in pursuance of an order made under Part II of the Act of 1936 or is controlled and operated by the Minister or by the Minister for Defence, and

(b) it is used for the arrival and departure of aircraft operated as part of an authorised air transport service;

10 the expression " authorised air transport service " means an air service for the transport of passengers, mails, and goods or any of them by air which is either—

15 (a) an internal air service within the meaning of Part IX of the Act of 1936 the carrying on of which is authorised by or under the said Part IX, or 20 (b) an international airway or regular international air navigation line established, or created and operated, with the prior authorisation of the Minister under the Air Navigation (International Lines) Order, 1935 (S.R. & O., No. 560 of 1935), or any order for the time being in force amending or replacing that order;

the expression " air transport concern " means a person entitled to operate an authorised air transport service;

25 the expression " on-licence " means a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption either on or off the premises;

the expression " aerodrome premises " means all the buildings for the time being erected in an approved aerodrome irrespective of the purpose for which such premises are used;

30 the expression " licensed aerodrome premises " means premises in an approved aerodrome in respect of which a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor granted or renewed by virtue of this Part of this Act is for the time being subsisting, whether such premises are the whole or a part only of the aerodrome premises in such aerodrome.

35 16.—(1) Whenever the Minister is satisfied that it is expedient that an on-licence should be granted in respect of the whole or a particular part of any particular aerodrome premises, the Minister may issue to a person who appears to him to be a fit and proper person to hold such on-licence a certificate certifying
40 that the aerodrome in which the said aerodrome premises are situate is an approved aerodrome and that the Minister approves of the grant by the Revenue Commissioners to the said person (who shall be named in such certificate) of an on-licence in respect of specified premises which are either the whole or a part 45 of the said aerodrome premises.

Grant and renewal of licences in respect of premises in an aerodrome.

(2) On presentation to the Revenue Commissioners of a certificate issued by the Minister under the foregoing sub-section of this section, it shall be lawful for the Revenue Commissioners, notwithstanding anything contained in the Licensing (Ireland)
50 Acts, 1833 to 1929, to grant to the person named in that behalf in the said certificate an on-licence in respect of the premises specified in that behalf in the said certificate.

(3) Whenever an on-licence granted or renewed under this section is subsisting, the Minister may, if he so thinks proper,
55 issue to the holder of such on-licence a certificate certifying that the aerodrome in which the premises thereby licensed are situate continues to be an approved aerodrome and that the Minister approves of the renewal of such on-licence to the said holder thereof in respect of the said premises.

(4) On presentation to the Revenue Commissioners of a certificate issued by the Minister under the next preceding sub-section of this section, it shall be lawful for the Revenue Commissioners, notwithstanding anything contained in the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1929, to grant a renewal of the said on-licence to the holder thereof. 5

Transfer and variation of licences in respect of premises in an aerodrome.

17.—(1) Whenever it appears to the Minister to be expedient that an on-licence granted or renewed under the next preceding section and for the time being subsisting should, because of the death of the holder thereof or for any other reason, be transferred to a particular person who appears to the Minister to be a fit and proper person to hold such on-licence, the Minister may issue to the said person a certificate certifying that the Minister approves of the transfer of such licence to him. 10

(2) On presentation to the Revenue Commissioners of a certificate issued by the Minister under the foregoing sub-section of this section, it shall be lawful for the Revenue Commissioners, notwithstanding anything contained in the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1929, to transfer the on-licence to which such certificate relates to the person specified in that behalf in such certificate. 20

(3) Whenever it appears to the Minister to be expedient for any reason that the premises to which an on-licence granted or renewed under the next preceding section and for the time being subsisting relates should be varied in any particular respect other than applying such on-licence to premises which are not part of any aerodrome premises, the Minister may issue to the holder of such on-licence a certificate certifying whichever one or more of the following things is appropriate in the circumstances, that is to say:— 25 30

(a) that the Minister approves of the extension of the said on-licence to a specified part of the aerodrome premises to another part of which it already applies;

(b) that the Minister approves of the exclusion from the premises to which the said on-licence applies of a specified part of those premises; 35

(c) that the Minister approves of the transfer of the said on-licence from the premises to which it applies to another part of the same aerodrome premises.

(4) On presentation to the Revenue Commissioners of a certificate issued by the Minister under the next preceding sub-section of this section, it shall be lawful for the Revenue Commissioners, notwithstanding anything contained in the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1929, to amend the on-licence to which such certificate relates in accordance with the approval of the Minister as stated in such certificate. 40 45

Selling to travellers and intending travellers.

18.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1927, it shall be lawful to sell intoxicating liquor in licensed aerodrome premises at any time to any of the following persons and to permit intoxicating liquor so sold to be consumed in the said premises by any of the following persons, that is to say:— 50

(a) persons who have arrived at the aerodrome in which the said licensed premises are situate as passengers in an aircraft engaged in an authorised air transport service and have, immediately before such arrival, travelled in such aircraft for a distance of not less than fifty miles measured by the ordinary flying route of such aircraft to the said aerodrome, and 55

- (b) persons who intend to travel from the said aerodrome as passengers in an aircraft engaged in an authorised air transport service and hold tickets entitling them to travel from the said aerodrome in such aircraft for a distance of not less than fifty miles measured by the ordinary flying route of such aircraft from the said aerodrome.

19.—(1) Section 3 of the Act of 1927 shall be construed and have effect as if, in sub-section (3) thereof, licensed aerodrome premises were enumerated amongst the premises specified in that sub-section as premises to which the said section 3 does not apply. Application or exclusion of certain provisions of the Act of 1927.

(2) The holder of an on-licence granted or renewed under this Act may apply under section 5 of the Act of 1927 to a Justice of the District Court for a special exemption order (within the meaning of that section) and the provisions of the said section shall apply and have effect in relation to such application as if such holder were the holder of such on-licence as is mentioned in sub-section (1) of the said section.

(3) Section 13 of the Act of 1927 shall apply and have effect in relation to licensed aerodrome premises in like manner as it applies and has effect in relation to premises which are for the time being a hotel or restaurant.

(4) In Part IV of the Act of 1927, the word "licence" shall not include a licence attached to licensed aerodrome premises; and the said Part IV (and in particular sub-section (3) of section 36 thereof) shall be construed and have effect accordingly.

20.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Revenue Commissioners, notwithstanding anything contained in the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1929, to grant to any air transport concern a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor to passengers on an aircraft owned or hired by that concern for consumption while such aircraft is in flight. Licences for sale of intoxicating liquor on aircraft in flight.

(2) A licence granted under this section shall be known as a passenger aircraft licence, and shall operate only in respect of such aircraft owned or hired by the air transport concern to whom it is granted as is specified in the licence.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1927, a passenger aircraft licence shall operate to authorise the sale, in the aircraft to which such licence relates and at any time while such aircraft is in flight, of intoxicating liquor to passengers in such aircraft for consumption therein.

PART V.

MISCELLANEOUS.

21.—So much of section 1 of the Licensing (Ireland) Act, 1833, as requires the production of a certificate signed by six householders, that is to say, that portion of the said section beginning with the words "upon the production" and ending with the words "the past year" is hereby repealed. Partial repeal of section 1 of the Licensing (Ireland) Act, 1833.
