AN BILLE UM OSPIDEAL RIOGA CHILL MHAIGHNEANN, ROYAL HOSPITAL KILMAINHAM BILL, 1961.

BILL

entitled

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISIONS CONSEQUENTIAL ON 5
THE DISSOLUTION OF THE GOVERNORS OF THE ROYAL HOSPITAL, KILMAINHAM.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS AS FOLLOWS:—

Interpretation.

1.—In this Act—

S.I. No. 260 of 1955.

“ the dissolution date ” means the date, namely, the 31st day of 10
December, 1955, on which the Governors became dissolved by virtue of the Royal Hospital Kilmainham (Dissolution of Governors and Revocation of Charters) Order, 1955;

“ the Governors ” means the Governors of the Hospital of King 15
Charles the Second incorporated under that name by charter of the 19th day of February, 1684;

“ the Hospital ” means the Hospital of King Charles the Second 20 for antient and maimed officers and soldiers of the army of Ireland, established by the said charter and commonly called the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham;

“ the Minister ” means the Minister for Finance;

“ the trust funds ” means the sums of stock specified in the Schedule to this Act and includes all investments which may hereafter be substituted for and represent those sums.

Transfer of lands and buildings to the Minister.

2.—(1) All lands and buildings which were comprised in and 25 constituted the Hospital immediately before the dissolution date and all other lands and buildings which were vested in or held in trust for the Governors immediately before the dissolution date shall, on the commencement of this Act, and without any conveyance or assignment, become vested in the Minister, freed from all 30 trusts, for all the estate or interest for which such lands and buildings were vested in or held in trust for the Governors immediately before the dissolution date.

1881, c. 41.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall, for the purposes of 35 section 6 of the Conveyancing Act, 1881, have effect as a conveyance of land.

Transfer of chattels to the Minister.

3.—(1) All furniture, fittings, fixtures, pictures, books, documents, and other chattels whatsoever, whether situated in the Hospital or elsewhere, which, having belonged to or having been held in trust for the Governors immediately before the dissolution date, remained existing immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, on such commencement, become transferred to and the property of the Minister.

5 (2) The chattels transferred by this section shall be retained and used by the Minister for such public purposes as he may think proper, but the Minister may, at his absolute discretion, dispose of all or any of such chattels by sale for the benefit of the Exchequer or by gift, exchange or loan.

10 4.—The High Court, on application made to it by the Attorney General, may—

Payment to Royal Hospital, Chelsea, and settlement of scheme.

(a) order the payment to the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, of—

15 (i) the sum of £2,440. 7. 4. out of the interest accrued on the portion of the trust funds mentioned in Part I of the Schedule to this Act,

(ii) such sum as may be realised on the sale of all investments representing accrued interest on the said portion, and

20 (iii) all interest accrued on the investments referred to in the foregoing subparagraph up to the time of their sale,

25 (b) prepare and settle a scheme for the management and application of the trust funds (including any balance of interest accrued thereon) for some specified charitable purposes or purpose for the benefit of all or any classes or class of members or former members of the Defence Forces.

30 5.—On the commencement of this Act and thereafter until the coming into operation of a scheme under section 4 of this Act, the Attorney General shall be the sole trustee of the trust funds.

Trustee of trust funds until coming into operation of scheme.

6.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Royal Hospital Kilmainham Act, 1962.

Short title and commencement.

35 (2) This Act shall come into operation on the 6th day of April, 1962.
