(2) The Board shall from time to time determine the numbers, grades, terms of office and conditions of service of the staff of the Board.

(3) A member of the staff of the Board shall be paid

such remuneration and allowances as the Board, with the consent of the Minister for the Public Service, may from time to time determine.

(4) The Board may at any time remove any member of the staff of the Board from being a member of its staff.

11. - (1) As soon as conveniently may be after the celebration of the Board, the Board shall prepare and submit to the Minister

a scheme or schemes for the granting of superannuation allowances by way of pension, lump sum or gratuity to, or to respect of, appropriate members of the staff of the Board.

(2) A scheme submitted to the Minister under this section shall, if approved by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister for the Public Service, be carried out by the Board in accordance with its terms.

(3) The Board may at any time, with the approval of the Minister and the concurrence of the Minister for the Public Service, amend a scheme under this section.

(4) A scheme submitted and approved under this section shall fix the time and conditions of retirement for all persons to whom allowances are payable under the scheme, and different times and conditions may be fixed in respect of different classes of persons.

(5) If any dispute arises as to the claim of any person to, or the amount of, any allowance payable in pursuance of a scheme under this section, it shall be submitted to the Minister for determination by him, subject to the agreement of the Minister for the Public Service.

(6) No pension, gratuity, allowance or other payment shall be granted by the Board nor shall any other arrangements be entered into by the Board for the provision of a pension, gratuity, allowance or other payment on the resignation, retirement or death of a member of the staff of the Board, other than in accordance with a scheme approved under this section.

(7) Every scheme submitted and approved under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is approved and if either House, within the next twenty-one days on which that House has sat after the scheme is laid before it, passes a resolution annulling the scheme, the scheme shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(2) A scheme submitted to the Minister under this section shall, if approved by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister for the Public Service, be carried out by the Board in accordance with its terms.

(3) The Board may at any time, with the approval of the Minister and the concurrence of the Minister for the Public Service, amend a scheme under this section.

(4) A scheme submitted and approved under this section shall fix the time and conditions of retirement for all persons to whom allowances are payable under the scheme, and different times and conditions may be fixed in respect of different classes of persons.

(5) If any dispute arises as to the claim of any person for, or the amount of, any allowance payable in pursuance of a scheme under this section, it shall be submitted to the Minister for determination by him, subject to the agreement of the Minister for the Public Service.

(6) No pension, gratuity, allowance or other payment shall be granted by the Board nor shall any other arrangements be entered into by the Board for the provision of a pension, gratuity, allowance or other payment on the resignation, retirement or death of a member of the staff of the Board, other than in accordance with a scheme approved under this section.

(7) Every scheme submitted and approved under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is approved and if either House, within the next twenty-one days on which that House has sat after the scheme is laid before it, passes a resolution annulling the scheme, the scheme shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

Membership of Oireachtas
of employees
of the Board.

12. - (1) Where a member of the staff of the Board is nominated as a member of Seanad Éireann or for election to either House of the Oireachtas he shall stand seconded from employment by the Board and shall not be paid by, or be entitled to receive from, the Board any remuneration or allowance. -

(a) in case he is nominated as a member of Seanad Éireann,

16. in respect of the period commencing on his acceptance of the nomination and ending when he ceases to be a member of that House,

(b) in case he is nominated for election to either such House,

17. - (1) The Board shall keep, in such form as may be approved and ending when he ceases to be a member of that House or fails to be elected or withdraws his candidature, as may be appropriate.

(2) A person who is for the time being entitled under the Standing Orders of either House of the Oireachtas to sit in that House shall, while so entitled, be disqualified from becoming an employee of the Board.

Performance
of functions
of the Board.

13. - The Board may perform any of its functions through or by any member of the Board, any sub-committee of the Board or any member of the staff of the Board duly authorised in that behalf by the Board.

Gifts to the Board.

14. - The Board may accept gifts of money, land or other property on such trusts and conditions (if any) as may be specified by the donor, but shall not accept a gift if any such condition is inconsistent with the functions of the Board.

13. - (1) Where a member of the staff of the Board is nominated as a member of Seated Elected or for election to either House of the Oireachtas he shall stand seconded from employment by the Board and shall not be paid by, or be entitled to receive from, the Board any remuneration or allowance.

(a) In case he is nominated as a member of Seated Elected, in respect of the period commencing on his acceptance of the nomination and ending when he ceases to be a member of that House,

(b) In case he is nominated for election to either House, in respect of the period commencing on his nomination and ending when he ceases to be a member of that House or fails to be elected or withdraws his candidature, as may be appropriate.

(2) A person who is for the time being entitled under the Standing Orders of either House of the Oireachtas to sit in that House shall, while so entitled, be disqualified from becoming an employee of the Board.

13. - The Board may perform any of its functions through or by any member of the Board, any sub-committee of the Board or any member of the staff of the Board duly authorized in that behalf by the Board.

14. - The Board may accept gifts of money, land or other property on such trusts and conditions (if any) as may be specified by the donor, but shall not accept a gift if any such condition is inconsistent with the functions of the Board.

Estimates by the Board. 15. - The Board shall submit to the Minister in each year, not later than such date as he may appoint and in such form as he may require, an estimate of the financial requirements of the Board for the following financial year, together with any other estimates which the Minister or the Minister for Finance may require.

Grants to the Board. 16. - There may be paid to the Board in each year, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, a grant of such amount as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, may sanction towards the expenses of the Board.

Accounts and audits. 17.-(1) The Board shall keep, in such form as may be approved by the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, all proper and usual accounts of all moneys received or expended by it, including an income and expenditure account and a balance sheet, and, in particular, shall keep in such approved form all such special accounts as the Minister, on his own motion or at the request of the Minister for Finance, may from time to time direct.

(2) Accounts kept under this section shall be submitted annually by the Board to the Comptroller and Auditor General for audit and, immediately after the audit, a copy of the income and expenditure account and of the balance sheet and of such other (if any) of the accounts as the Minister, after consultation with the Minister for Finance, may direct and a copy of the Comptroller and Auditor General's report on the accounts shall be presented to the Minister, who shall cause copies thereof to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

Estimates
by the Board.

15. - The Board shall submit to the Minister in each year not later than such date as he may appoint and in such form as he may require, an estimate of the financial requirements of the Board for the following financial year, together with any other estimates which the Minister or the Minister for Finance may require.

Grants to the Board.

16. - There may be paid to the Board in each year, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, a grant of such amount as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, may sanction towards the expenses of the Board.

Accounts
and audits.

17. - (1) The Board shall keep, in such form as may be approved by the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, all proper and usual accounts of all moneys received or expended by it, including an income and expenditure account and a balance sheet, and, in particular, shall keep in such approved form all such special accounts as the Minister, on his own motion or at the request of the Minister for Finance, may from time to time direct.

(2) Accounts kept under this section shall be submitted annually by the Board to the Comptroller and Auditor General for audit and, immediately after the audit, a copy of the income and expenditure account and of the balance sheet and of such other (if any) of the accounts as the Minister, after consultation with the Minister for Finance, may direct and a copy of the Comptroller and Auditor General's report on the
