Levy on milk and slaughtered or exported animals.

2.—(1) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, there shall be 15 charged and levied by and paid to the Minister a levy as respects—

(a) milk received from a herd for processing by any—

(i) dairy produce manufacturer or milk pasteuriser,

(ii) milk bottler or other person by whom milk is for the 20 time being either sold or offered for sale for liquid consumption, whether or not the milk so received comes from the herd of such dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, bottler or other person,

(b) any animal slaughtered in premises to which this section 25 applies,

(c) any animal exported live from the State.

(2) The amount of levy payable under this section shall be—

(a) as regards milk, the amount standing for the time being prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, or, in case 30 no such sum stands for the time being so prescribed, 0.5 new pence per gallon,

(b) as regards animals slaughtered or exported live, the amount per animal standing for the time being prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, or, in case no such amount 35 stands for the time being so prescribed, £3 per animal.

(3) Levy shall not be charged or levied in respect of the same milk more than once.

(4) This section applies to the following premises, namely:

(a) any slaughtering premises registered under the Act of 1930, 40

(b) any slaughter-house licensed or registered under either the Act of 1847 or that Act as extended either by section 105 of the Act of 1878 or by section 4 of the Act of 1935,

(c) any slaughter-house owned or provided by a local authority.

(5) Where regulations prescribing the amount of a levy payable under this section are proposed to be made, a draft of the regulations shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas and the regulations shall not be made until a resolution approving of the draft has been passed by each such House.

3.—(1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, the exportation live from the State of an animal shall be prohibited unless, before exportation and subject to such conditions as the Revenue Commissioners may impose, the amount of the levy is paid to the Revenue Commissioners or such security as is, in the opinion of the Revenue Commissioners, adequate for its payment is given to the Revenue Commissioners.

Export of certain animals prohibited.

(b) The Revenue Commissioners may, subject to such conditions as they may see fit to impose (including conditions in relation to the giving of security for payment of levy), permit payment of levy to be deferred for such period as the Revenue Commissioners may determine.

(2) The provisions of the Customs Acts and instruments made thereunder or which relate to the exportation of goods shall apply to an animal the exportation of which is prohibited by this section.

4.—(1) Levy, other than levy payable in respect of an animal which is exported live from the State, shall be due—

Levy due and payable.

(a) in case it is payable in respect of milk, when the milk is received for processing by the relevant dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, milk bottler or other person described in section 2 (1) (a) of this Act, or

(b) in case it is payable in respect of an animal, when the animal is slaughtered.

(2) Within the period of fourteen days commencing immediately after the expiration of a levy period, any person who is an accountable person within the meaning of section 11 of this Act shall furnish to the Minister a true and correct return, in the prescribed manner, of the amount of levy which became payable by him during the levy period and shall at the same time remit to the Minister the amount of levy, if any, payable by him in respect of such levy period.

(3) Levy payable as respects milk shall be paid to the Minister by the dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, milk bottler or other person described in section 2 (1) (a) of this Act and by whom the milk is received for processing.

(4) Levy as respects animals which are slaughtered shall be paid to the Minister by—

(a) in case any such animal is slaughtered at a slaughter-house owned or provided by a local authority, the person for whom the slaughtering facilities were provided by the authority,

(b) in case any such animal is slaughtered at any slaughtering premises registered under the Act of 1930, the person who is the holder of either a beef exporter's licence or an exporter's permit issued in respect of such premises,

(c) in case any such animal is not slaughtered in the manner described in paragraph (b) of this subsection and is slaughtered at a slaughter-house licensed or registered under the Act of 1847, or that Act as extended either by section 105 of the Act of 1878 or by section 4 of the Act of 1935, the person who at the time at which the animal is slaughtered is either the holder of the relevant licence or the person in whose name the premises are so registered. 5

(5) Levy as respects an animal which is exported live from the State shall be paid to the Revenue Commissioners, as agents of the Minister, by the person by whom or on whose behalf the animal is being exported. 10

(6) All moneys received by the Revenue Commissioners on account of levy under this Act shall be paid by them to the Minister.

(7) In this section "levy period" means a period of any month beginning on the first day of that month. 15

Recovery of levy.

5.—Every sum payable by a person for or on account of levy shall be a simple contract debt due by that person to the Minister and shall be recoverable by the Minister in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Notice of infection.

6.—(1) Where as a result of a test or otherwise an inspector believes that an animal in a herd is infected with disease, he shall forthwith give, or cause to be given, both to the owner of, or the person who for the time being is in charge of, the herd concerned and to any dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, or any milk bottler or other person by whom milk is sold, or offered for sale, for liquid consumption and who, in any case, is for the time being receiving a supply of milk from the herd, a notice in writing in the form prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, and such notice shall, after its commencement, continue in force until a certificate given under section 7 of this Act and cancelling the notice comes into force. 20 25 30

(2) A notice under this section shall come into force on the expiration of the period of seven days beginning on the date of the notice.

Cancellation of notice under section 6.

7.—(1) Where— 35

(a) a notice under section 6 of this Act is for the time being in force, and

(b) as a result of a test or otherwise an inspector believes that there is no longer in the herd an animal which is infected with disease, 40

the inspector shall forthwith give, or cause to be given, both to the owner of, or the person who for the time being is in charge of, the herd and to any dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, milk bottler or any other person to whom such notice was given, a certificate in relation to the herd in the form prescribed for the purposes of this section and such certificate shall be deemed to have come into force on such day, being a day earlier than that on which the certificate is given, as may be specified in the certificate, and in case such a day is not so specified, the certificate shall come into force on the day next following that on which it is given. 45 50

(2) Where there is for the time being in force a notice under section 6 of this Act and there is given in relation to the herd to which the notice relates a certificate under subsection (1) of this section, the certificate shall on its commencement operate to cancel the notice. 55

8.—In case a notice under section 6 of this Act is given, then for so long as the notice is in force the following provisions shall apply: Milk price differential.

5 (a) notwithstanding anything contained in any agreement, the amount payable as regards milk supplied to and received by a dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser, milk bottler or other person described in section 6 (1) of this Act, at any time while the notice is in force from a herd to which the notice relates, shall be, and shall only be, the amount payable apart from this section reduced
10 by an amount calculated at the rate per gallon standing for the time being prescribed for the purposes of this section, 15 (b) it shall be unlawful for such manufacturer, pasteuriser, bottler or other person to pay in respect of such milk an amount other than that which is appropriate having regard to paragraph (a) of this section.

9.—(1) An inspector or an authorised officer may require the owner or the person in charge of a herd to furnish to him the name and address of any dairy produce manufacturer, milk
20 pasteuriser, milk bottler or other person by whom milk is sold or offered for sale and who, in any case, is for the time being receiving or has, on any day specified by the inspector or officer, received a supply of milk from the herd. Information as regards supply of milk.

(2) Where a requisition is made under this section, the person
25 of whom the requisition is made shall comply with the requisition.

10.—(1) This section applies to any land which is for the time being used, or is capable of being used whether wholly or partly, for any agricultural purpose. Information to Minister as regards land used for or in connection with grazing or retention of animals.

(2) The Minister may by a notice in writing given to the owner
30 of any land to which this section applies, any herdowner, cattle dealer, auctioneer, estate agent or other person, require the person to give to the Minister, within a period specified in the notice (being a period of not less than ten days commencing on the date of the notice), such of the following information as it is in the person's 35 power to give as regards any land specified in the notice, namely:

(a) whether or not such land is used, either partly or wholly, for or in connection with the grazing or retention of animals;

(b) the name of the person who for the time being is in occupation of such land;

40 (c) whether or not such land is let, and, if it is let, the name and address of the person to whom, and the period of time for which, it is let,

and in case such a notice is given, the person to whom it is given shall, within the period specified in the notice, comply with the 45 requirement of the notice.

11.—(1) Every accountable person shall, in accordance with such direction (if any) as may be given by the Minister, keep full and true records of all transactions which affect his liability to levy (other than levy which is payable in respect of an animal which is exported 50 live from the State), and, where it is appropriate, his obligations to make reductions under section 8 of this Act. Duty to keep records.

(2) Records or other documents kept by a person pursuant to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section which are in the power, possession or procurement of the person and, in the case of any such record or other document which has been issued by the person to another person, any copy thereof which is in the power, possession or procurement of the person, shall be retained in his power, possession or procurement for a period of six years from the date of the latest transaction to which the records or other documents relate: provided that this section shall not require the retention of records or invoices or any other documents in respect of which the Minister notifies the person concerned that retention is not required, nor shall it apply to the books and papers of a company which have been disposed of in accordance with section 305 (1) of the Act of 1963. 5 10

(3) In this section "accountable person" means—

(a) any—

(i) dairy produce manufacturer, milk pasteuriser or milk bottler, or 15

(ii) person by whom milk is sold, or offered for sale, for liquid consumption, who receives milk from a herd for processing,

(b) the holder of a beef exporter's licence or an exporter's permit, 20

(c) any person for whom facilities for slaughtering animals are provided by a local authority,

(d) any person who for the time being is the holder of a licence by which a slaughter-house is licensed, or in whose name a slaughter-house is for the time being registered under the Act of 1847, or that Act as extended by either section 105 of the Act of 1878 or section 4 of the Act of 1935. 25

Inspection
of records.

12.—(1) An inspector or an authorised officer may, for the purpose of making an enquiry which he reasonably considers to be necessary either in relation to liability to levy (other than levy payable in respect of an animal which is exported live from the State), or an obligation to make reductions under section 8 of this Act, of any person, enter at any reasonable time any premises in which the inspector or officer has reason to believe that such person is carrying on business and the inspector or officer may request the production of, search for and inspect any records, books or other documents whatsoever relating to milk or animals and may remove and retain any such records, books, or other documents for such period as may be reasonable for their examination or for the purpose of any proceedings for the recovery of levy payable under or by virtue of this Act or for an offence under this Act. 30 35 40

(2) Upon request made by an inspector or an authorised officer at any premises in which a person carries on business, the person, or any person employed by him, shall produce to the inspector or officer all records, books, or other documents relating, whether solely or otherwise, to levy, a reduction under section 8 of this Act or milk in relation to which such a reduction is made, and which may be in the power, possession or procurement of the person to whom the request is made and shall permit the inspector or officer to inspect and remove any documents so produced. 45 50

(3) A person shall not impede or obstruct an inspector or an authorised officer in the exercise of his powers under this section.

(4) Where, in pursuance of this section, an inspector or an authorised officer enters any premises, carries out any search or requests production of any document, he shall, on request, produce 55 his warrant of appointment or his authorisation under this Act, as may be appropriate, to any person affected.

13.—(1) The Minister may appoint in writing such and so many of his officers as he thinks fit to be—

Inspectors and authorised officers.

- 5 (a) inspectors for the purposes of this Act, or
(b) authorised officers for such purposes.

(2) (a) An inspector shall be furnished by the Minister with a warrant of his appointment under this Act as an inspector.

- 10 (b) An authorised officer shall be furnished by the Minister with a certificate of his authorisation under this Act.

14.—(1) A person who fails to comply with the requirements of section 4 (2) or section 11 (1) of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500.

Offences.

- 15 (2) Any person who pays an amount in contravention of section 8 (b) of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment.

- 20 (3) Where an offence under subsection (1) or (2) of this section is committed by a body corporate or by a person purporting to act on behalf of a body corporate and it is proved to have been so committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been facilitated by any wilful neglect on the part of any director, manager, 25 secretary or other official of such body, such person shall also be guilty of the offence.

- (4) A person to whom a notice is given under section 10 of this Act or of whom a requisition is made under section 9 of this Act and who either fails to comply with the requirement of the notice
30 or the requisition, as may be appropriate, or in purported compliance with the said requirement or requisition, gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly gives information which is so false, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding 35 £500, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment.

- 40 (5) Any person who contravenes section 12 (3) of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment.

15.—An offence under this Act may be prosecuted by the Minister.

Prosecution of offences.

- 45 16.—(1) The secretary or other officer acting as secretary for the time being of any body of persons shall be answerable in addition to the body for doing all such acts as are required to be done by the body under any of the provisions of either this Act or regulations under this Act.

Officer responsible in case of body of persons.

- 50 (2) Every such officer as aforesaid may from time to time retain out of any money coming into his hands, on behalf of the body, so much thereof as is sufficient to pay levy due under this Act by the body and shall be indemnified for all such payments made in pursuance of this section.

Application of section 10 (4) of Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, restricted.

17.—Notwithstanding section 10 (4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, proceedings for an offence under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1966, or under this Act may be instituted at any time within two years after the date of the offence.

Regulations.

18.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for prescribing any matter referred to in this Act as prescribed. 5

(2) Every regulation made under this Act, other than a regulation under section 2, shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next twenty-one days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder. 10

Service of notices, etc.

19.—(1) Where a notice or certificate is required by this Act or by regulations under this Act to be given to a person, it may be given to him— 15

(a) by delivering it to him,

(b) in the case of a person other than a body corporate, by sending it by post in an envelope addressed to him at the address at which he ordinarily resides or carries on business, or 20

(c) in the case of a body corporate, by sending it by post in an envelope addressed to the secretary or principal officer of the body at the address at which the body carries on business, or by delivering it in an envelope so addressed, to that address. 25

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, a company within the meaning of the Act of 1963 shall be deemed to carry on business at its registered offices and every other body corporate and every unincorporated body of persons shall be deemed to carry on business at its principal office or place of business. 30

Application of moneys received under Act.

20.—Moneys paid to the Minister in pursuance of any provision of this Act shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in such manner as the Minister for Finance may direct.

Expenses.

21.—The expenses incurred by the Minister in the administration of this Act shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Finance, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas. 35

Alteration of penalties specified in sections 48 and 49 of Diseases of Animals Act, 1966.

22.—A person convicted of an offence under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1966, for which a penalty is provided in subsection (2) of section 48 or subsection (2) of section 49 thereof shall, in lieu of that penalty— 40

(a) on summary conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding £500, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment, 45

(b) on conviction on indictment, be liable—

(i) in case he is so convicted by reason of his having—

(I) in contravention of an order of the Minister under the said Act, interfered with or removed an ear-tag, or 50

(II) altered or falsely made or ante-dated or counterfeited, or offered or uttered, knowing it to have been altered or falsely made or ante-dated or counterfeited, a licence, declaration, certificate or instrument described in section 49 (1) (d) of that Act, to a fine not exceeding £2,000, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment,

10

(ii) in case he is otherwise so convicted, to a fine not exceeding £1,000, or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such term of imprisonment.

15

23.—(1) Anything done pursuant to an order made by the Minister in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 22 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, as amended by section 2 of the Diseases of Animals (Bovine Tuberculosis) Act, 1957 (as amended by section 5 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1960), shall not be questioned in any legal proceedings on the grounds that there was not made by the Minister in relation to an area to which the order applies a declaration by him either declaring the area to be an attested area or declaring the area to be an attested or disease-free area.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 2nd day of May, 1979.

24.—Section 48 (3) of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1966, is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

30

25.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Bovine Diseases Act, 1979.

Short title, commencement and collective citation.

(2) This Act, other than sections 17, 21, 22, 23, 24 and this section, shall come into operation on such day or days as may be fixed therefor by order or orders of the Minister, either generally or with reference to any particular such provision.

(3) The Diseases of Animals Act, 1966, and sections 22 and 24 of this Act, together with section 17 of this Act in so far as it relates to that Act, may be cited together as the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1966 and 1979.
