(a) by the substitution for paragraph (1) of the following paragraph:

“(1) the yearly value of any property belonging to the person (not being property personally used or enjoyed by the person or a farm of land leased by him under a lease which has been certified by the Irish Land Commission to be bona fide and in accordance with sound land use practice) which is invested or is otherwise put to profitable use by the person or which, though capable of investment or profitable use is not invested or put to profitable use by the person, the yearly value of the property being calculated as follows:

(a) the first £200 of the capital value of the property shall be excluded, and

(b) the yearly value of the next £375 of the capital value of the property shall be taken to be one-twentieth part of the capital value, and

(c) the yearly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds £575 shall be taken to be one-tenth part of the capital value, but no account shall be taken under any other provision of these Rules of any appropriation of the property for the purpose of current expenditure.”,

(b) by the substitution for clause (a) of paragraph (4) of the following clause:

“(a) any sums arising from the investment or profitable use of property (not being property personally used or enjoyed by the person or a farm of land leased by him under a lease which has been certified by the Irish Land Commission to be bona fide and in accordance with sound land use practice),” and

(c) by the substitution for paragraph (5) of the following paragraph:

“(5) The yearly value of any advantage accruing to the person from—

(a) the use or enjoyment of property (other than a domestic dwelling or a farm building owned and occupied, furniture and personal effects) which is personally used or enjoyed by the person, and

(b) a farm of land leased by the person under a lease which has been certified by the Irish Land Commission to be bona fide and in accordance with sound land use practice, but for the purposes of this Rule a cottage provided under the Labourers Acts, 1883 to 1965, and vested in the person or the spouse of that person pursuant to those Acts or pursuant to the Housing Acts, 1966 to 1984, shall not be treated as property which is personally used or enjoyed by that person or the spouse of that person so long as payment of the purchase annuity has not been completed.”.

5 10.—Section 223 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution in subsection (2) for “who resides with his father while the father” of “who resides with a qualified person while such person”. Amendment of section 223 of Principal Act (qualified child).

11.—Section 226 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for “3 months (or, where the Minister so thinks fit, 6 months)” of “6 months”. Amendment of section 226 of Principal Act (time limit for payment of children’s allowances).

12.—(1) The Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion of the following section after section 306: Insertion of section 306A in Principal Act.

15 “Taking of certain benefits, etc., into account in assessing damages.

306A.—(1) Notwithstanding section 2 of the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act, 1964, and section 306 of this Act, where in any action relating to the use of a mechanically propelled vehicle damages are assessed in respect of any liability for personal injuries which is required to be covered by an approved policy of insurance, there shall in assessing those damages be taken into account the value of any rights arising from such injuries which have accrued, or probably will accrue, to the injured person in respect of disability benefit (including any amount payable therewith by way of pay-related benefit) and invalidity pension for the five years beginning with the time when the cause of action accrued.

30

35

(2) The reference in subsection (1) to the assessment of damages shall, in cases where damages otherwise recoverable are subject to reduction under the law relating to contributory negligence or are limited by or under any Act, be taken as referring to the total damages which would have been recoverable apart from the reduction or limitation.

(3) In subsection (1):

40

“approved policy of insurance” means a policy of insurance which, by virtue of section 62 of the Road Traffic Act, 1961, as amended by the European Communities (Road Traffic) (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations, 1975 (S.I. No. 178 of 1975), is an approved policy of insurance for the purposes of that Act;

45

“mechanically propelled vehicle” has the meaning assigned by section 3 of the Road Traffic Act, 1961.”.

(2) The Principal Act is hereby further amended by the insertion in section 306 of “and section 306A” after “section 68” in subsection (2).

(3) This section shall not apply in relation to any action instituted before the date of the passing of the Social Welfare Act, 1984.

PART III

FAMILY INCOME SUPPLEMENT

Insertion of Part
IVA in Principal Act.

13.—The Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion of the following Part after Part IV:

“PART IVA

FAMILY INCOME SUPPLEMENT

232A.—In this Part—

Interpretation.

“child” means a person who by virtue of section 223 (1) (as amended by the Social Welfare Act, 1983) is a qualified child for the purposes of Part IV; 10

“family” means—

- (a) a person who is engaged in remunerative full-time employment as an employee, and
- (b) where such person is a married person living with or wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse, that spouse, and 15
- (c) a child or children in respect of whom any of the foregoing is qualified for a children’s allowance under section 224;

“family income supplement” shall be construed in accordance with section 232B; 20

“weekly family income” means, subject to regulations under section 232F, the amount of income received in a week by a family, less any income of a person who in respect of that family is a child. 25

Entitlement to family income
supplement.

232B.—Subject to this Part, an allowance (in this Part referred to as “family income supplement”) shall be payable out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas in respect of a family where the weekly family income is less than—

- (a) in the case of a family which includes only one child, £95, or 30
- (b) in the case of a family which includes more than one child, £95 increased by £15 for each additional child up to and including the fifth child.

Weekly rate of family income
supplement.

232C.—(1) Subject to this Part, the weekly rate of family income supplement shall be 25 per cent. of the amount by which the weekly family income is less than the amount appropriate in the particular case under section 232B. 35

(2) The weekly rate calculated pursuant to subsection (1) shall not in any case exceed the following amounts: 40

- (a) in the case of a family which includes only one child, £8, and

(b) in the case of a family which includes more than one child, £8 increased by £1.75 for each additional child up to and including the fifth child.

5 (3) Where the weekly rate calculated pursuant to subsection (1) is less than £1, family income supplement shall not be payable.

(4) For the purposes of this section, any fraction of £1 of weekly family income greater than 50p shall be treated as £1 and any other fraction of £1 shall be disregarded.

10 232D.—(1) Family income supplement shall be payable for a period of 52 weeks (or such other period as may be prescribed) beginning on the date on which it is receivable in accordance with regulations and, except where regulations otherwise provide, the weekly rate of family income supplement payable shall not be affected by any change of circumstances during that period. Period of payment of family income supplement.

15 (2) Where family income supplement is payable in respect of a particular family for any period, no person who was included in that family at the beginning of such period shall be regarded as a member of any other family during that period.

20 232E.—Family income supplement shall be payable to the member of the family (other than a child) who is engaged in remunerative full-time employment as an employee or, where there are two members of the family so engaged, to the member whose weekly income as calculated for the purposes of family income supplement forms the greater part of the weekly family income as so calculated. Person to whom family income supplement is payable.

25 232F.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to this Part. Regulations.

(2) Regulations under this section may, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)—

30 (a) provide for the manner of calculation or estimation of weekly family income;

35 (b) provide, in calculating or estimating weekly family income, for the disregarding in whole or in part of any amount of that income from any source specified in the regulations;

(c) determine the circumstances in which a person shall be regarded as being engaged in remunerative full-time employment as an employee;

40 (d) require employers to furnish such information as the Minister may require for the purpose of determining a claim for family income supplement;

(e) apply (with or without modification), or make provisions corresponding (with or without modification) to, any provisions of or made under Parts I, II, VII and VIII.

45 (3) The Minister may by regulations vary—

- (a) the amounts specified in section 232B,
- (b) the percentage rate specified in section 232C (1), and
- (c) the weekly rates specified in section 232C (2), but any such variation shall not reduce the amounts, the percentage rate or the weekly rates applicable immediately before the commencement of such regulations.” 5

Amendment of section 3 of Principal Act (regulations).

14.—Section 3 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion in subsection (4) (a) of “130(4),” after “108 (4) (6),” and of “232F (2) (a) (b) (c), (3),” after “210 (3),”.

Amendment of section 130 of Principal Act (overlapping provisions).

15.—Section 130 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion after subsection (3) of the following subsection: 10

“(4) Regulations shall be made by the Minister, in respect of cases in which family income supplement is payable to a person together with unemployment benefit, disability benefit, unemployment assistance or retirement pension, providing for the adjustment, after such period as may be specified in the regulations, of such supplement (including the disallowance of payment of the whole thereof).” 15

Further amendment of section 146 of, and Third Schedule to, Principal Act (calculation of means).

16.—(1) Section 146 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for “or children’s allowance,” of “, children’s allowance or family income supplement,” in subsection (1) (b) (v). 20

(2) Rule 1 (4) of the Rules contained in the Third Schedule to the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for clause (b) of the following clause:

“(b) any sums received by way of pension, allowance, assistance, benefit or supplement under Part II, III, IV or IVA,”. 25

Commencement of this Part.

17.—This Part shall come into operation on such day as the Minister appoints by order.

PART IV

CESSER OF LOCAL PENSION COMMITTEES, ETC., AND CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS 30

Repeals (cesser of local pension committees, etc.).

18.—Sections 162 (2), 164, 165 and 166 of the Principal Act are hereby repealed.

Appointment, duties of social welfare officers.

19.—(1) The Minister may, with the sanction of the Minister for the Public Service, appoint such and so many persons as he thinks fit to be social welfare officers for the purposes of Chapter 3 of Part III of the Principal Act. 35

(2) Every officer so appointed shall investigate into and report to the Minister upon every claim for or in respect of an old age pension and any question arising out of or in relation to such pension which may be referred to him by the Minister.

20.—(1) The offices of clerk to a local pension committee and clerk to a local pension sub-committee shall cease to exist.

Cesser of certain offices to local pension committees and provision for compensation.

5 (2) The Minister may provide for the payment of compensation to a clerk who, at the time of the cesser of his office by virtue of this section, was in receipt of and entitled to retain the remuneration payable in respect of his office.

10 (3) The amount of the compensation payable to a person under this section shall be equal to—

(a) one week's remuneration for each completed year of his service up to fifteen years, and

(b) two weeks' remuneration for each completed year of his service in excess of fifteen years,

15 subject to a maximum of seventy-eight weeks' remuneration, his remuneration being taken to be the remuneration payable to him at the time of the cesser of his office by virtue of this section.

20 21.—Section 4 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion in subsection (1) of "and the expenses of the local pension committees under Chapter 3 of Part III up to an amount approved by the Minister".

Further amendment of section 4 of Principal Act (expenses).

22.—Section 159 of the Principal Act (as amended by the Amendment Act of 1981) is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

Amendment of section 159 of Principal Act (statutory conditions for old age pension).

25 "(c) the means of the person as calculated in accordance with the Rules contained in the Third Schedule must not exceed the appropriate highest amount of means at which pension may be paid to that person in accordance with section 161."

30 23.—Section 167 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

Amendment of section 167 of Principal Act (commencement of old age pensions).

35 "(2) Subject to regulations under section 170 (4), where old age pension is first allowed the pension shall commence to accrue on the first Friday after the date on which the claim for the pension is received by the Minister or on the first Friday after the date on which the claimant first becomes entitled to the pension, whichever is the later or, if the later of those two dates is a Friday, on that Friday."

24.—Section 169 of the Principal Act is hereby amended—

Amendment of section 169 of Principal Act (legal proceedings).

40 (a) by the deletion of subsection (6), and

(b) by the substitution for subsection (7) of the following subsection:

“(7) Where a person who is in receipt of old age pension is liable to repay to the Minister any sums under subsection (3), the Minister shall be entitled, without prejudice to his powers under that subsection, to direct the deduction of those sums from any sums to which that person becomes entitled on account of old age pension, as provided by regulations made for the purpose under section 170: provided that, in the case of a personal representative the deduction shall only be made from any sum to which that person becomes entitled as a personal representative.”.

Amendment of section 170 of Principal Act (regulations).

25.—Section 170 of the Principal Act (as amended by the Postal and Telecommunications Services Act, 1983) is hereby amended by the substitution for subsections (1) to (3) of the following subsections:

“(1) The Minister may, in consultation with An Post (so far as relates thereto), make regulations for the purposes of this Chapter—

(a) specifying the evidence to be required as to the fulfilment of statutory conditions, and

(b) specifying the manner in which claims to pensions may be made.

(2) The regulations shall provide for enabling claimants for pensions to make their claims and obtain information as respects old age pensions under this Chapter through An Post and for provisionally allowing claims to pensions before the date on which the claimant will become actually entitled to the pension, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the regulations.

(3) Regulations may also be made for enabling a person to be appointed to exercise, on behalf of any claimant or pensioner who is, by reason of any mental or other incapacity, unable to act, any right to which that claimant or pensioner may be entitled under this Chapter and to authorise any person so appointed to receive, on behalf of and for the benefit of the claimant or pensioner, any sums payable by way of old age pension.”.

Amendment of section 175 of Principal Act (blind pension).

26.—Section 175 of the Principal Act (as amended by the Amendment Act of 1981) is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) Every blind person who has attained the age of 18 years shall be entitled to receive and to continue to receive such pension (in this Act referred to as a blind pension) as under this Chapter he would be entitled to receive if he had attained pensionable age; and the provisions of this Chapter shall apply in all respects in the case of such person subject to the modification that, for the statutory condition contained in section 159 (1) (a) there shall be substituted the conditions that the person must be a person who has attained the age of 18 years and that he is so blind that he either cannot perform any work for which eyesight is essential or cannot continue his ordinary occupation.”.

Amendment of section 296 of Principal Act (decisions by deciding officers).

27.—Section 296 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

“(b) Part III (social assistance) other than Chapter 6 (supplementary welfare allowance),”.

28.—Section 298 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion of—Amendment of section 298 of Principal Act (appeals, etc.).

- 5 (a) in subsection (1) “or by a local pension committee”, and
(b) subsection (2).

29.—The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of securing the continuity of this Part with any provisions repealed or amended by this Part.

Continuity of this Part with repealed, amended provisions.

- 10 30.—This Part shall come into operation on such day as the Minister appoints by order.
