(b) The value of an interest in a pension scheme shall, where appropriate, be determined for the purposes of the said paragraph (a) in accordance with the Second Schedule to the Pensions Act, 1990. 20

Preservation of pension entitlements after judicial separation.

12.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, on granting a decree of judicial separation or at any time thereafter, the court may, in relation to a pension scheme, on application to it in that behalf by either of the spouses concerned, make during the lifetime of the spouse who is a member of the scheme ("the member spouse") an order directing the trustees of the scheme not to regard the separation of the spouses resulting from the decree as a ground for disqualifying the other spouse for the receipt of a benefit under the scheme a condition for the receipt of which is that the spouses should be residing together at the time the benefit becomes payable. 25 30

(2) Notice of an application under subsection (1) shall be given by the spouse concerned to the trustees of the pension scheme concerned and, in deciding whether to make an order under subsection (1) and in determining the provisions of the order, the court shall have regard to the provisions of section 16 (2) and any representations made by those trustees in relation to the matter. 35

(3) The court may make an order under this section in addition to or in substitution in whole or in part for orders under sections 7 to 9 and, in deciding whether or not to make such an order, it shall have regard to the question whether adequate and reasonable financial provision exists or can be made for the spouse concerned by orders under those sections. 40 45

Orders extinguishing succession rights on judicial separation.

13.—On granting a decree of judicial separation or at any time thereafter, the court shall, on application to it in that behalf by either of the spouses concerned, make an order extinguishing the share that either of the spouses would otherwise be entitled to in the estate of the other spouse as a legal right or on intestacy under the Act of 1965 if— 50

(a) it is satisfied that adequate and reasonable financial provision exists for the spouse whose succession rights are in question ("the spouse concerned"),

5 (b) the spouse concerned is a spouse for the support of whom the court refused to make an order under section 7, 8, 9 (1) (a) or 12, or

(c) it is satisfied that the spouse concerned is not a spouse for whose benefit the court would, if an application were made to it in that behalf, make an order under section 7, 8, 9 (1) (a) or 12.

10 14.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where one of the spouses in respect of whom a decree of nullity has been granted dies, the court, on application to it in that behalf by the other spouse ("the applicant") not more than 12 months after representation was first granted under the Act of 1965 in respect of the estate of the deceased spouse, may by order make such provision for the applicant out of the estate of the deceased spouse as it considers appropriate having regard to the rights of any other person having an interest in the matter and specified in the order if it is satisfied that it was not possible to provide adequate and reasonable financial provision for the applicant during the lifetime of the deceased spouse under sections 7 to 11 for any reason (other than conduct referred to in subsection (2) (i) of section 16 or desertion referred to in subsection (3) of that section by the deceased spouse).

Orders for provision for spouse out of estate of other spouse.

25 (2) The court shall not make an order under this section if the applicant concerned has remarried since the granting of the decree of nullity concerned.

(3) In considering whether to make an order under this section, the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case including—

30 (a) any order under paragraph (c) of section 7 (1) or a property adjustment order in favour of the applicant,

(b) if relevant, the matters referred to in section 16 (2) in so far as they relate to the applicant, and 35 (c) any devise or bequest made by the deceased spouse to the applicant.

40 (4) The provision made for the applicant concerned by an order under this section together with any provision made for the applicant by an order referred to in subsection (3) (a) (the value of which for the purposes of this subsection shall be its value on the date of the order) shall not exceed in total the share (if any) of the applicant in the estate of the deceased spouse to which the applicant was entitled or (if the deceased spouse died intestate as to the whole or part of his or her estate) would have been entitled under the Act of 1965 if the marriage had been valid.

45 (5) Section 121 of the Act of 1965 shall apply with any necessary modifications to a disposition referred to in subsection (1) of that section in respect of which the court is satisfied that it was made for the purpose of defeating or substantially diminishing the provision which the court would make for the applicant concerned under this section if the disposition had not been made.

50 (6) Notice of an application, under this section, shall be given by the applicant to the spouse (if any) of the deceased spouse concerned and to such (if any) other persons as the court may direct and, in deciding whether to make the order concerned and in determining the provisions of the order, the court shall have regard to any representations made by the spouse of the deceased spouse and any other such persons as aforesaid. 5

(7) Where an application is made under this section, the personal representative of the deceased spouse concerned shall not, without the leave of the Court, distribute any of the estate of that spouse until the court makes or refuses to make an order under this section. 10

Orders for sale of property.

15.—(1) Where the court makes a secured periodical payments order, a lump sum order or a property adjustment order, thereupon, or at any time thereafter, it may make an order directing the sale of such property as may be specified in the order, being property in which, or in the proceeds of sale of which, either or both of the spouses concerned has or have a beneficial interest, either in possession or reversion. 15

(2) The jurisdiction conferred on the court by subsection (1) shall not be so exercised as to affect a right to occupy the family home of the spouse concerned that is enjoyed by virtue of an order under this Part. 20

(3) (a) An order under subsection (1) may contain such consequential or supplementary provisions as the court considers appropriate.

(b) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a), an order under subsection (1) may contain— 25

(i) a provision specifying the manner of sale and some or all of the conditions applying to the sale of the property to which the order relates,

(ii) a provision requiring any such property to be offered for sale to a person, or a class of persons, specified in the order, 30

(iii) a provision directing that the order, or a specified part of it, shall not take effect until the occurrence of a specified event or the expiration of a specified period, 35

(iv) a provision requiring the making of a payment to a specified person or persons out of the proceeds of the sale of the property to which the order relates or payments (whether periodical payments or lump sum payments), and 40

(v) a provision specifying the manner in which the proceeds of the sale of the property concerned shall be disposed of between the following persons or such of them as the court considers appropriate, that is to say, the spouses concerned and any other person having an interest therein. 45

(4) A provision in an order under subsection (1) providing for the making of periodical payments to one of the spouses concerned out of the proceeds of the sale of property shall, on the death or remarriage of that spouse, cease to have effect except as respects payments due on the date of the death or remarriage. 50

(5) Where a spouse has a beneficial interest in any property, or in the proceeds of the sale of any property, and a person (not being the other spouse) also has a beneficial interest in that property or those proceeds, then, in considering whether to make an order under this section in relation to that property or those proceeds, the court shall give to that person an opportunity to make representations with respect to the making of the order and the contents thereof, and any representations made by such a person shall be deemed to be included among the matters to which the court is required to have regard under section 16 in any relevant proceedings under a provision referred to in that section after the making of those representations.

(6) This section shall not apply in relation to a family home in which, following the grant of a decree of nullity, either spouse, having remarried, ordinarily resides with his or her spouse.

15 16.—(1) In deciding whether to make an order under section 7, 8, 9 (1) (a), 10, 11, 12, 14 or 18 and in determining the provisions of such an order, the court shall endeavour to ensure that such financial provision is made for the spouse applying for the order and for any dependent member of the family concerned as is adequate and 20 reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

Provisions relating to certain orders under sections 7 to 12, 14 and 18.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), in deciding whether to make such an order as aforesaid and in determining the provisions of such an order, the court shall, in particular, have regard to the following matters—

25 (a) the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources which each of the spouses concerned has or is likely to have in the foreseeable future,

(b) the financial needs, obligations and responsibilities which each of the spouses has or is likely to have in the foreseeable future (whether in the case of the remarriage of the spouse or otherwise),

(c) the standard of living enjoyed by the family concerned before the proceedings were instituted or before the spouses separated, as the case may be,

35 (d) the age of each of the spouses, the duration of their marriage and the length of time during which the spouses lived together,

(e) any physical or mental disability of either of the spouses,

40 (f) the contributions which each of the spouses has made or is likely in the foreseeable future to make to the welfare of the family, including any contribution made by each of them to the income, earning capacity, property and financial resources of the other spouse and any contribution made by either of them by looking after the home or caring for the family,
45

(g) the effect on the earning capacity of each of the spouses of the marital responsibilities assumed by each during the period when they lived together and, in particular, the degree to which the future earning capacity of a spouse is impaired by reason of that spouse having relinquished or foregone the opportunity of remunerative activity in order to look after the home or care for the family, 50

- (h) any income or benefits to which either of the spouses is entitled by or under statute,
- (i) the conduct of each of the spouses, if that conduct is such that in the opinion of the court it would in all the circumstances of the case be unjust to disregard it, 5
- (j) the accommodation needs of either of the spouses,
- (k) in the case of proceedings for the grant of a decree of nullity of marriage, the value to each of the spouses of any benefit (for example, a benefit under a pension scheme) which, by reason of the annulment of the marriage, that spouse will forfeit the opportunity or possibility of acquiring. 10

(3) The court shall not make an order under a provision referred to in subsection (1) for the support of a spouse if the spouse had deserted the other spouse before the institution of proceedings for the decree or, as the case may be, a decree, specified in that provision and had continued such desertion up to the time of the institution of such proceedings unless, having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including the conduct of the other spouse), the court is of opinion that it would be unjust not to make the order. 15

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), in deciding whether to make an order referred to in that subsection in favour of a dependent member of the family concerned and in determining the provisions of such an order, the court shall, in particular, have regard to the following matters: 20

(5) In this section "desertion" includes conduct on the part of one of the spouses concerned that results in the other spouse, with just cause, leaving and living apart from the first-mentioned spouse.

Retrospective periodical payments
orders.

17.—(1) Where, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the court considers it appropriate to do so, it may, in a periodical payments order, direct that— 40

- (a) the period in respect of which payments under the order shall be made shall begin on such date before the date of the order, not being earlier than the time of the institution of the proceedings concerned for the grant of a decree of 45

nullity or a decree of judicial separation, as may be specified in the order,

5 (b) any payments under the order in respect of a period before the date of the order be paid in one sum and before a specified date, and

10 (c) there be deducted from any payments referred to in paragraph (b) made to the spouse concerned an amount equal to the amount of such (if any) payments made to that spouse by the other spouse as the court may determine, being payments made during the period between the making of the order for the grant of the decree aforesaid and the institution of the proceedings aforesaid.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred on the court by subsection (1) (b) is without prejudice to the generality of section 7 (1) (c).

15 18.—(1) This section applies to the following orders—

Variation, etc., of certain orders under this Part.

35 if it considers it proper to do so having regard to any change in the circumstances of the case and to any new evidence, by order vary or discharge an order to which this section applies, suspend any provision of such an order or any provision of such an order temporarily, revive the operation of such an order or provision so suspended, further 40 vary an order previously varied under this section or further suspend or revive the operation of an order or provision previously suspended or revived under this section; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, an order under this section may require the divesting of any property vested in a person under or by virtue of an order to 45 which this section applies.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of section 6 or 7, that part of an order to which this section applies which provides for the making of payments for the support of a dependent member of the family shall stand discharged if the member ceases to be a dependent member of the family by reason of his or her attainment of the age of 16 years or 21 years, as may be appropriate, and shall be discharged by the court, on application to it under subsection (2), if it is satisfied that the member has for any reason ceased to be a dependent member of the family. 5

PART III

RELIEF AFTER DIVORCE, ANNULMENT OR SEPARATION OUTSIDE STATE

Relief orders where marriage dissolved, or annulled, or spouses legally separated, outside State.

- 24.—(1) (a) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the court may, 5 in relation to a marriage to which this section applies, on application to it in that behalf by either of the spouses concerned, make any order under Part II (other than an order under section 6 or an order under section 18 in relation to an order referred to in subsection (1) (e) of that section) (in this Act referred 10 to as “a relief order”) that it could have made in relation to the marriage if—
- (i) in case the spouses have been legally separated, the court had granted a decree of judicial separation in relation to the marriage, and 15
  - (ii) in any other case, the court had granted a decree of nullity in relation to the marriage.
- (b) Part II (other than subsections (4) and (5) of section 7) shall apply and have effect in relation to relief 20 orders and applications therefor as it applies and has effect in relation to orders under Part II and applications therefor with any necessary modifications.
- (c) Where a spouse whose marriage has been dissolved or annulled in a country or jurisdiction other than the 25 State has remarried, the court may not make a relief order in favour of that spouse in relation to a previous marriage of that spouse.
- (2) (a) An application shall not be made to the court by a spouse for a relief order unless, prior to the application, the court, 30 on application to it ex parte in that behalf by that spouse, has by order granted leave for the making of the first-mentioned application and the court shall not grant such leave unless it considers that there is a substantial ground for so doing and a requirement specified in section 27 is 35 satisfied.
- (b) The court may make the grant of leave under this subsection subject to such (if any) terms and conditions as it considers appropriate and specifies in its order.
- (c) The court may grant leave under this subsection to a spouse 40 notwithstanding that an order has been made by a court of a country or jurisdiction other than the state requiring the other spouse concerned to make a payment or transfer property to the spouse.
- (3) (a) Section 16 shall apply to a relief order subject to the 45 modification that the reference in subsection (3) of that section to proceedings shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be construed as a reference to the proceedings for the dissolution or annulment of the marriage concerned or, as the case may be, for the legal separation concerned. 50
- (b) In determining, for the purposes of this section, the financial resources of a spouse or a dependent member of the family in a case in which payments are required to be made or property is required to be transferred to the spouse or to the member by the other spouse under an order of a court of a country or jurisdiction other than the State or an agreement in writing, the court shall have regard to the extent to which the order or agreement has been complied with or, if payments are required to be made, or property is required to be transferred, after the date of the order made by virtue of this section under Part II, is likely to be complied with.

(4) The period specified in a periodical payments order made by virtue of this section under paragraph (a) or (b) of section 7 (1) shall begin not earlier than the date of the application for the order and shall end not later than the death of either of the spouses concerned or, if the order is made on or after the dissolution or annulment of the marriage, the remarriage of the spouse in whose favour the order was made.

(5) (a) Where, by virtue of this section, the court makes a periodical payments order or a secured periodical payments order on or after the dissolution or annulment of the marriage of the spouse in whose favour the order is made, it may direct that that spouse shall not apply for an order under section 18 extending the period specified in the order and, if the court so directs, such an order under section 18 shall not be made.

(b) Where, by virtue of this section, the court makes a periodical payments order or a secured periodical payments order other than on or after the dissolution or annulment of the marriage of the spouse in whose favour the order is made and the marriage is dissolved or annulled subsequently, the order, if then in force, shall cease to have effect on the remarriage of that spouse, except as respects payments due under it on the date of the remarriage.

(c) If, after the dissolution or annulment of a marriage to which this section applies, either of the spouses concerned remarries, the court shall not, by reference to that dissolution or annulment, make by virtue of this section such an order as aforesaid, or a property adjustment order, in favour of that spouse.

(6) This section applies to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled, or as respects which the spouses have been legally separated, after the commencement of this section under the law of a country or jurisdiction other than the State, being a divorce, annulment or legal separation that is entitled to be recognised as valid in the State.

25.—(1) Where leave is granted to a spouse under section 24 (2) for the making of an application for a relief order and it appears to the court that the spouse or a dependent member of the family is in immediate need of financial assistance, the court may, subject to subsection (3), make an order for maintenance pending relief, that is to say, an order requiring the other spouse to make to the applicant such periodical payments or lump sum payments for his or her support or, as may be appropriate, to make to such person as may be specified in the order, such periodical payments for the benefit of such (if any) dependent member of the family and, as respects periodical payments, for such period beginning not earlier than the date of such grant and

pending relief
orders.

ending not later than the date of the determination of the application as it considers proper.

(2) The court may provide that payments under an order under this section shall be subject to such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate and specifies in the order.

(3) The court shall not make an order under this section in a case where neither of the requirements specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 27 (1) is satisfied.

Appropriateness of making relief orders in State.

26.—The court shall not make a relief order unless it is satisfied that in all the circumstances of the particular case it is appropriate that such an order should be made by a court in the State and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, in deciding whether to make a relief order, the court shall, in particular, have regard to the following matters:

(a) the connection which the spouses concerned have with the State,

(b) the connection which the spouses have with the country or jurisdiction other than the State in which the marriage concerned was dissolved or annulled or in which they were legally separated,

(c) the connection which the spouses have with any country or jurisdiction other than the State,

(d) any financial benefit which the spouse applying for the making of the order ("the applicant") or a dependent member of the family has received, or is likely to receive, in consequence of the divorce, annulment or legal separation concerned or by virtue of any agreement or the operation of the law of a country or jurisdiction other than the State,

(e) in a case where an order has been made by a court in a country or jurisdiction other than the State requiring the other spouse to make any payment or transfer any property for the benefit of the applicant or a dependent member of the family, the financial relief given by the order and the extent to which the order has been complied with or is likely to be complied with,

30

(f) any right which the applicant has, or has had, to apply for financial relief from the other spouse under the law of any country or jurisdiction other than the State and, if the applicant has omitted to exercise any such right, the reason for that omission,

40

(g) the availability in the State of any property in respect of which a relief order in favour of the applicant could be made,

(h) the extent to which the relief order is likely to be enforceable,

45

(i) the length of time which has elapsed since the date of the divorce, annulment, or legal separation concerned.

27.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the court may make a relief order if, but only if, one of the following requirements is satisfied: Jurisdiction of court to make relief orders.

5 (a) either of the spouses concerned was domiciled in the State on the date of the application for an order under section 24 (2) in relation to the relief order or was so domiciled on the date on which the divorce, annulment or judicial separation concerned took effect in the country or jurisdiction in which it was obtained,

10 (b) either of the spouses was ordinarily resident in the State throughout the period of one year ending on either of the dates aforesaid,

15 (c) on the date of the institution of the proceedings aforesaid either or both of the spouses had a beneficial interest in possession in a family home of the spouses situated in the State.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a case to which the Jurisdiction of Courts and Enforcement of Judgments (European Communities) Acts, 1988 and 1993, apply.

20 28.—(1) Where the jurisdiction of the court to make a relief order is conferred by virtue only of section 27 (1) (c), the court may make any of the following relief orders, but no others: Restriction of jurisdiction of court to make relief orders.

(a) a lump sum order,

25 (b) a property adjustment order providing for one or more of the matters specified in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of section 8 (1),

(c) an order under section 13,

(d) an order under section 14,

(e) an order directing the sale of the interest of either of the spouses concerned in the family home concerned.

30 (2) Where, in the circumstances referred to in subsection (1), the court makes one or more lump sum orders, the amount or aggregate amount of the sum or sums to which the order or orders relate shall not exceed—

35 (a) in case the interest of the spouse liable to make the payment or payments under the order or orders in the family home concerned is sold whether in pursuance of an order of the court or otherwise, the amount of the proceeds of the sale after deduction therefrom of the costs thereof, or 40 (b) in any other case, such amount as, in the opinion of the court, represents the value of that interest.

45 (3) The reference in subsection (1) (e) to the interest of either of the spouses concerned shall, in relation to a case where the interest of a spouse in the family home concerned is held under a joint tenancy or a tenancy in common with another person or other persons, be construed as including a reference to the interest of the other person or persons in the home.

PART IV

marital status.

29.—(1) The court may, on application to it in that behalf by either of the spouses concerned or by any other person who, in the opinion of the court, has a sufficient interest in the matter, by order make one or more of the following declarations in relation to a marriage, that is to say: 5

- (a) a declaration that the marriage was at its inception a valid marriage,
- (b) a declaration that the marriage subsisted on a date specified in the application, 10

- (ii) limiting the relief granted, or
- (iii) frustrating or impeding the enforcement of an order granting relief;

“reviewable disposition”, in relation to proceedings for the grant of relief brought by a spouse, means a disposition made by the other spouse concerned or any other person but does not include such a disposition made for valuable consideration (other than marriage) to a person who, at the time of the disposition acted in good faith and without notice of an intention on the part of the respondent to defeat the claim for relief.

(2) (a) The court, on the application of a person (“the applicant”) who—

- (i) has instituted proceedings that have not been determined for the grant of relief,
- (ii) has been granted leave under section 24 (2) to institute such proceedings, or
- (iii) intends to apply for such leave upon the completion of one year’s ordinary residence in the State—may—

(I) if it is satisfied that the other spouse concerned or any other person, with the intention of defeating the claim for relief, proposes to make any disposition of or to transfer out of the jurisdiction or otherwise deal with any property, make such order as it thinks fit for the purpose of restraining that other spouse or other person from so doing or otherwise for protecting the claim,

(II) if it is satisfied that that other spouse or other person has, with that intention, made a reviewable disposition and that, if the disposition were set aside, relief or different relief would be granted to the applicant, make an order setting aside the disposition.

(b) Where relief has been granted by the court and the court is satisfied that the other spouse concerned or another person has, with the intention aforesaid, made a reviewable disposition, it may make an order setting aside the disposition.

(c) An application under paragraph (a) shall, in a case in which proceedings for relief have been instituted, be made in those proceedings.

(3) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), it shall include in the order such provisions (if any) as it considers necessary for its implementation (including provisions requiring the making of any payments or the disposal of any property).

(4) In a case where neither of the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 27 (1) is satisfied, the court shall not make an order under subsection (2) in respect of any property other than the family home concerned.

- (a) in case the application is for an order under subsection (2) (a) (I), that the disposition or other dealing concerned would (apart from this section) have the consequence, or
- (b) in case the application is for an order under paragraph (a) (II) or (b) of subsection (2), that the disposition has had the consequence, of defeating the applicant's claim for relief, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that that other spouse or other person disposed of or otherwise dealt with the property concerned, or, as the case may be, proposes to do so, with the intention of defeating the applicant's claim for relief.

36.—(1) Either spouse may apply to the court in a summary manner to determine any question arising between them as to the title to or possession of any property.

as the court considers proper.

(3) Either spouse or a child of a deceased spouse (in this section referred to subsequently as "the plaintiff spouse") may make an application specified in subsection (1) where it is claimed that the other spouse (in this section referred to subsequently as "the defendant spouse") has had in his or her possession or under his or her control—

- (a) money to which, or to a share of which, the plaintiff spouse was beneficially entitled whether by reason of the fact that it represented the proceeds of property to which, or to an interest in which, the plaintiff spouse was beneficially entitled or for any other reason, or
- (b) property (other than money) to which, or to an interest in which, the plaintiff spouse was beneficially entitled,

(4) Where an application under subsection (1) is made by virtue of subsection (3) and the court is satisfied that—

- (a) (i) the defendant spouse concerned has had in his or her possession or under his or her control money or other property to which paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (3) relates, or

- (ii) the defendant spouse has in his or her possession or under his or her control property that represents the whole or part of the money or other property aforesaid, 5 and

- (b) the defendant spouse has not made to the plaintiff spouse concerned such payment or disposition (not being a testamentary disposition) as would have been appropriate in all the circumstances, 10

the court may make an order under subsection (2) in relation to the application and may, in addition to or in lieu of such an order, make an order requiring the defendant spouse to pay to the plaintiff spouse either, as the case may be— 15

- (i) such sum in respect of the money to which the application relates, or the plaintiff spouse's share thereof, or
- (ii) such sum in respect of the value of the property (other than money) referred to in paragraph (a), or the plaintiff spouse's interest therein, 20

(5) In any proceedings under this section, a person (other than the plaintiff spouse concerned or the defendant spouse concerned) who is a party thereto shall, for the purposes of costs or any other matter, be treated as a stakeholder only. 25

(6) This section is without prejudice to section 2 (which prescribes the legal capacity of married women) of the Married Women's Status Act, 1957.

(7) (a) Where a marriage—

- (i) has been annulled under the law of the State, or 30
- (ii) has been annulled or dissolved under the law of a country or jurisdiction other than the State and is, by reason of that annulment or divorce, not or no longer a subsisting valid marriage under the law of the State, an application under this section shall not be made by either of the spouses more than 3 years after the date of the annulment or divorce. 35

- (b) Where a marriage is void but has not been so declared under the law of the State or another state, an application shall not be made under this section by either of the spouses more than 3 years after the parties have ceased to be ordinarily resident together. 40

(8) In this section references to a spouse include references to—

(3) Where the rateable valuation of the land to which proceedings in the Circuit Court under this Act relate exceeds £200, that Court shall, if an application is made to it in that behalf by any person having an interest in the proceedings, transfer the proceedings to the High Court, but any order made or act done in the course of such proceedings before the transfer shall be valid unless discharged or varied by the High Court by order.

(4) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Family Court by this Act may be exercised by the judge of the circuit in which any of the parties to the proceedings ordinarily resides or carries on any business, profession or occupation.

(5) The Circuit Family Court may, for the purposes of subsection (2) and section 31 (3) of the Act of 1989 in relation to land that has not been given a rateable valuation or is the subject with other land of a rateable valuation, determine that its rateable valuation would exceed, or would not exceed, £200.

(6) Section 32 of the Act of 1989 shall apply to proceedings under this Act in the Circuit Family Court and sections 33 to 36 of that Act shall apply to proceedings under this Act in that Court and in the High Court.

42.—(1) Where, in proceedings under any other Act, an order providing for the periodical payments referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 41 would, apart from this section, fall to be made, the court may in addition to, or instead of such an order, make an order providing for the making by the person concerned to the person concerned of a lump sum payment or lump sum payments of such amount or amounts and at such time or times as may be specified in the order.

(2) The amount or aggregate amount of a lump sum payment or of lump sum payments to a person under an order under this section shall be—

5 (a) if the order is instead of an order for the making of periodical payments to the person, such amount as the court considers appropriate having regard to the amount of the periodical payments that would have been made, and the periods during which and the times at which they would have been made, but for this section, and 10 (b) if the first-mentioned order is in addition to an order for the making of periodical payments to the person, such amount as the court considers appropriate having regard to the amount of the periodical payments and the periods during which and the times at which they will be made.
