BILL

entitled

AN ACT TO GIVE THE FORCE OF LAW TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE SAFETY OF UNITED NATIONS AND ASSOCIATED PERSONNEL, DONE AT NEW YORK ON 9 DECEMBER, 1994, TO PROVIDE FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF OFFENCES AGAINST PERSON-NEL, AND RELATED MATTERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS AS FOLLOWS:

1.—In this Act—

Interpretation.

“associated personnel” means:

(a) persons assigned by a Government or an intergovernmental organisation with the agreement of the competent organ of the United Nations;

(b) persons engaged by the Secretary-General of the United Nations or by a specialised agency or by the International Atomic Energy Agency;

(c) persons deployed by a humanitarian non-governmental organisation or agency under an agreement with the Secretary-General of the United Nations or with a specialised agency or with the International Atomic Energy Agency, to carry out activities in support of the fulfilment of the mandate of a United Nations operation;

“the Convention” means the United Nations Convention done at New York on the 9th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-four;

“Host State” means a state in whose territory a United Nations operation is conducted;

“the Minister” means the Minister for Foreign Affairs;

“the Secretary-General” of the United Nations is the chief administrative officer of the United Nations. He or she is appointed by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Security Council, as set out in the procedures for the conduct of the affairs of the United Nations;

“States Parties” means any states which have signed and acceded to the Convention;

“Transit State” means a state, other than the host state, in whose territory United Nations and associated personnel or their equipment are in transit or temporarily present in connection with a United Nations operation; 5

“United Nations operation” means an operation established by the competent organ of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and conducted under United Nations authority and control; 10

- (a) Where the operation is for the purpose of maintaining or restoring international peace and security; or
- (b) Where the Security Council or the General Assembly has declared, for the purposes of this Convention, that there exists an exceptional risk to the safety of the personnel participating in the operation; 15

“United Nations personnel” means

- (a) persons engaged or deployed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations as members of the military, police or civilian components of a United Nations operation; 20
- (b) other officials and experts on mission for the United Nations or its specialised agencies or the International Atomic Energy Agency who are present in an official capacity in the area where a United Nations operation is being conducted. 25

Convention to have force of law.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Convention shall have the force of law in this State.

(2) The text of the Convention is set out for convenience of reference in the Schedule to this Act.

Scope of application.

3.—(1) This Act applies in respect of United Nations and associated personnel and United Nations operations, as defined in section 1. 30

(2) This Act shall not apply to a United Nations operation authorised by the Security Council as an enforcement action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations in which any of the personnel are engaged as combatants against organised armed forces and to which the law of international armed conflict applies. 35

Agreements on the status of United Nations operations.

4.—Where a United Nations operation is conducted in the national territory, the State and the United Nations shall conclude as soon as possible an agreement on the status of the United Nations operation and all personnel engaged in the operation including, inter alia, provisions on privileges and immunities for military and police components of the operation. 40

Transit.

5.—Where United Nations and associated personnel and their equipment are in transit or temporarily present in the national territory, the State shall facilitate their unimpeded transit to and from the host state. 45

6.—(1) The commission of:

Crimes against United Nations and associated Personnel.

- (a) a murder, kidnapping or other attack upon the person or liberty of any United Nations or associated personnel;
- (b) a violent attack upon the official premises, the private accommodation or the means of transportation of any United Nations or associated personnel likely to endanger his or her person or liberty;
- (c) a threat to commit any such attack with the objective of compelling a physical or juridical person to do or to refrain from doing any act;
- (d) an attempt to commit any such attack; or
- (e) an act constituting participation as an accomplice in any such attack, or in an attempt to commit such attack, or in organising or ordering others to commit such attack,

15 is an indictable offence and is punishable in accordance with the laws and practices of the State.

(2) An indictable offence, as defined in subsection 1 of this section shall be punishable in the State by penalties applicable to similar indictable offences committed within the State if the offence is committed within the jurisdiction of any state party to the Convention.

7.—(1) The State hereby establishes jurisdiction over the crimes set out in section 6 in the following cases:

Establishment of jurisdiction.

(a) When the crime is committed in the territory of the State or on board a ship or aircraft registered in the State;

(b) when the alleged offender is a national of the State.

(2) The State also hereby establishes its jurisdiction over any such crime when it is committed:

(a) by a stateless person whose habitual residence is in the State; or

(b) with respect to a national of the State.

(3) The State shall notify the establishment of jurisdiction as mentioned in subsection 2 of this section to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. If the State subsequently rescinds such jurisdiction, it shall immediately notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

(4) The State shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the crimes set out in section 6 in cases where the alleged offender is present in its territory and it does not extradite such person pursuant to section 9 of this Act to any of the States Parties which have established their jurisdiction in accordance with subsection (1) or (2).

(5) The provisions of this Act do not exclude any criminal jurisdiction exercised in accordance with law.

Communication of information.

8.—(1) If reasonable grounds to suspect a crime set out in section 6 has been committed, the State shall, if it has reason to believe that an alleged offender has fled from its territory, communicate to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, directly through the Secretary-General, to the state or states concerned, all the pertinent facts regarding the crime committed and all available information regarding the identity of the alleged offender. 5

(2) Whenever a crime set out in section 6 has been committed, the State, should it have information concerning the victim and circumstances of the crime, shall endeavour to transmit such information, under the conditions provided for in law, fully and promptly to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and any other state concerned. 10

Measures to ensure prosecution or extradition.

9.—(1) The extradition of alleged offenders from the State to another jurisdiction as otherwise provided by law shall be an obligation of the State where the District Court decides the circumstances so warrant and provided the alleged offender does not in the first instance face charges within the State which are at least of equal gravity. 15

(2) Measures taken in accordance with subsection (1) shall be notified, in conformity with law and without delay, to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, either directly or through the Secretary-General, to: 20

- (a) the state where the crime was committed;
- (b) the state or states of which the alleged offender is a national or, if such person is a stateless person, in whose territory that person has his or her habitual residence; 25
- (c) the state or states of which the victim is a national; and
- (d) other interested states.

Prosecution of alleged offenders.

10.—In the case of an alleged offender who is present within the State, the State shall, if it does not extradite that person, submit, without exception whatsoever and without undue delay, the case to the Director of Public Prosecutions for the purpose of prosecution, through proceedings in accordance with the law. 30

Extradition of
alleged offenders.

11.—(1) To the extent that the crimes set out in section 6 are not extraditable offences in any extradition treaty existing between States Parties, they shall be deemed to be included as such herein. The State undertakes to include those crimes as extraditable offences in every extradition treaty to be concluded between the State and other States Parties. 35 40

(2) Each of those crimes shall be treated, for the purposes of extradition between States Parties, as if it had been committed not only in the place in which it occurred but also in the territories of the States Parties which have established their jurisdiction in accordance with section 10. 45

12.—(1) Any person regarding whom investigation or proceedings are being carried out in connection with any of the crimes set out in section 6 shall be guaranteed fair treatment, a fair trial and full protection of his or her rights at all stages of the investigations or proceedings, in accordance with the laws of the State. Fair treatment.

- (2) Any alleged offender shall be entitled:
- (a) to communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of the state or states of which such a person is a national or which is otherwise entitled to protect that person's rights or, if such a person is a stateless person, of the state which at that person's request, is willing to protect that person's rights; and
 - (b) to be visited by a representative of that state or those states.

13.—The study of the Convention, as well as relevant provisions of the international humanitarian law, shall be included in the programmes of military instruction of the State. Military Instruction.

14.—The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to this Act. Regulations.

15.—Every regulation and order under this Act shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation or order is passed by either such House within the next subsequent 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulation or order is laid before it, the regulation or order shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder. Laying of regulations and orders before Houses of Oireachtas.

16.—The expenses incurred arising from obligations under this Act shall, as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Finance, be paid out of monies provided by the Oireachtas. Expenses.

17.—This Act may be cited as the United Nations Safety of Personnel and Punishment of Offenders Act, 1999. Short title.

SCHEDULE Section 2.

Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel

The States Parties to this Convention,

35 Deeply concerned over the growing number of deaths and injuries resulting from deliberate attacks against United Nations and associated personnel,

Bearing in mind that attacks against, or other mistreatment of, personnel who act on behalf of the United Nations are unjustifiable and unacceptable, by whomsoever committed,

40 Recognising that United Nations operations are conducted in the common interest of the international community and in accordance with the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations,

Acknowledging the important contribution that United Nations and associated personnel make in respect of United Nations efforts in the fields of preventive diplomacy, peacemaking, peace-keeping, peace-building and humanitarian and other operations,

Conscious of the existing arrangements for ensuring the safety of United Nations and associated personnel, including the steps taken by the principal organs of the United Nations, in this regard, 5

Recognizing none the less that existing measures of protection for United Nations and associated personnel are inadequate,

Acknowledging that the effectiveness and safety of United Nations operations are enhanced where such operations are conducted with the consent and cooperation of the host State, 10

Appealing to all States in which United Nations and associated personnel are deployed and to all others on whom such personnel may rely, to provide comprehensive support aimed at facilitating the conduct and fulfilling the mandate of United Nations operations, 15

Convinced that there is an urgent need to adopt appropriate and effective measures for the prevention of attacks committed against United Nations and associated personnel and for the punishment of those who have committed such attacks, 20

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

Definitions

For the purposes of this Convention:

(a) “United Nations personnel” means: 25

(i) Persons engaged or deployed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations as members of the military, police or civilian components of a United Nations operation;

(ii) Other officials and experts on mission of the United Nations or its specialized agencies or the International Atomic Energy Agency who are present in an official capacity in the area where a United Nations operation is being conducted; 30

(b) “Associated personnel” means; 35

(i) Persons assigned by a Government or an intergovernmental organization with the agreement of the competent organ of the United Nations;

(ii) Persons engaged by the Secretary-General of the United Nations or by a specialized agency or by the International Atomic Energy Agency; 40

(iii) Persons deployed by a humanitarian non-governmental organization or agency under an agreement with the Secretary-General of the United Nations or with a specialized agency or with the International Atomic Energy Agency, 45 to carry out activities in support of the fulfilment of the mandate of a United Nations operation:

(c) “United Nations operation” means an operation established by the competent organ of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and conducted under United Nations authority and control:

(i) Where the operation is for the purpose of maintaining or restoring international peace and security; or

(ii) Where the Security Council or the General Assembly has declared, for the purposes of this Convention, that there exists an exceptional risk to the safety of the personnel participating in the operation;

(d) “Host State” means a State in whose territory a United Nations operation is conducted;

(e) “Transit State” means a State, other than the host State, in whose territory United Nations and associated personnel or their equipment are in transit or temporarily present in connection with a United Nations operation.

Article 2

Scope of application

1. This Convention applies in respect of United Nations and associated personnel and United Nations operations, as defined in article 1.

2. This Convention shall not apply to a United Nations operation authorized by the Security Council as an enforcement action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations in which any of the personnel are engaged as combatants against organized armed forces and to which the law of international armed conflict applies.

Article 3

Identification

1. The military and police components of a United Nations operation and their vehicles, vessels and aircraft shall bear distinctive identification. Other personnel, vehicles, vessels and aircraft involved in the United Nations operation shall be appropriately identified unless otherwise decided by the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

2. All United Nations and associated personnel shall carry appropriate identification documents.

Article 4

Agreements on the status of the operation

The host State and the United Nations shall conclude as soon as possible an agreement on the status of the United Nations operation and all personnel engaged in the operation including, inter alia, provisions on privileges and immunities for military and police components of the operation.

Article 5

Transit

A transit State shall facilitate the unimpeded transit of United Nations and associated personnel and their equipment to and from the host State. 5

Article 6

Respect for laws and regulations

1. Without prejudice to such privileges and immunities as they may enjoy or to the requirements of their duties, United Nations and associated personnel shall: 10

(a) Respect the laws and regulations of the host State and the transit State; and

(b) Refrain from any action or activity incompatible with the impartial and international nature of their duties.

2. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the observance of these obligations. 15

Article 7

Duty to ensure the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel

1. United Nations and associated personnel, their equipment and premises shall not be made the object of attack or of any action that prevents them from discharging their mandate. 20

2. States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel. In particular, States Parties shall take all appropriate steps to protect United Nations and associated personnel who are deployed in their territory from the crimes set out in article 9. 25

3. States Parties shall cooperate with the United Nations and other States Parties, as appropriate, in the implementation of this Convention, particularly in any case where the host State is unable itself to take the required measures. 30

Duty to release or return United Nations and associated personnel captured or detained

Except as otherwise provided in an applicable status-of-forces agreement, if United Nations or associated personnel are captured or detained in the course of the performance of their duties and their identification has been established, they shall not be subjected to interrogation and they shall be promptly released and returned to United Nations or other appropriate authorities. Pending their release such personnel shall be treated in accordance with universally recognized standards of human rights and the principles and spirit of the Geneva Conventions of 1949. 35
40

Article 9

Crimes against United Nations and associated personnel

1. The intentional commission of:

- (a) A murder, kidnapping or other attack upon the person or liberty of any United Nations or associated personnel;
- (b) A violent attack upon the official premises, the private accommodation or the means of transportation of any United Nations or associated personnel likely to endanger his or her person or liberty;
- (c) A threat to commit any such attack with the objective of compelling a physical or juridical person to do or to refrain from doing any act;
- (d) An attempt to commit any such attack; and
- (e) An act constituting participation as an accomplice in any such attack, or in an attempt to commit such attack, or in organizing or ordering others to commit such attack, shall be made by each State Party a crime under its national law.

2. Each State Party shall make the crimes set out in paragraph 1 punishable by appropriate penalties which shall take into account their grave nature.

Article 10

Establishment of jurisdiction

1. Each State Party shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the crimes set out in article 9 in the following cases:

- (a) When the crime is committed in the territory of that State or on board a ship or aircraft registered in that State;
- (b) When the alleged offender is a national of that State.

2. A State Party may also establish its jurisdiction over any such crime when it is committed:

- (a) By a stateless person whose habitual residence is in that State; or
- (b) With respect to a national of that State; or
- (c) In an attempt to compel that State to do or to abstain from doing any act.

3. Any State Party which has established jurisdiction as mentioned in paragraph 2 shall notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations. If such State Party subsequently rescinds that jurisdiction, it shall notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

4. Each State Party shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the crimes set out in article 9 in cases where the alleged offender is present in its territory and it does not extradite such person pursuant to article 15 to any of the States Parties which have established their jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph 1 or 2.

5. This Convention does not exclude any criminal jurisdiction exercised in accordance with national law.

Article 11

Prevention of crimes against United Nations and associated personnel

States Parties shall cooperate in the prevention of the crimes set out in article 9, particularly by: 5

- (a) Taking all practicable measures to prevent preparations in their respective territories for the commission of those crimes within or outside their territories; and
- (b) Exchanging information in accordance with their national law and coordinating the taking of administrative and other measures as appropriate to prevent the commission of those crimes. 10

Article 12

Communication of information 15

1. Under the conditions provided for in its national law, the State Party in whose territory a crime set out in article 9 has been committed shall, if it has reason to believe that an alleged offender has fled from its territory, communicate to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, directly or through the Secretary-General, to the State or States concerned all the pertinent facts regarding the crime committed and all available information regarding the identity of the alleged offender. 20

2. Whenever a crime set out in article 9 has been committed, any State Party which has information concerning the victim and circumstances of the crime shall endeavour to transmit such information, under the conditions provided for in its national law, fully and promptly to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the State or States concerned. 25

Article 13 30

Measures to ensure prosecution or extradition

1. Where the circumstances so warrant, the State Party in whose territory the alleged offender is present shall take the appropriate measures under its national law to ensure that person's presence for the purpose of prosecution or extradition. 35

2. Measures taken in accordance with paragraph 1 shall be notified, in conformity with national law and without delay, to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, either directly or through the Secretary-General, to:

- (a) The State where the crime was committed; 40
- (b) The State or States of which the alleged offender is a national or, if such person is a stateless person, in whose territory that person has his or her habitual residence;
- (c) The State or States of which the victim is a national; and
- (d) Other interested States. 45

Article 14

Prosecution of alleged offenders

5 The State Party in whose territory the alleged offender is present shall, if it does not extradite that person, submit, without exception whatsoever and without undue delay, the case to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution, through proceedings in accordance with the law of that State. Those authorities shall take their decision in the same manner as in the case of an ordinary offence of a grave nature under the law of that State.

10

Extradition of alleged offenders

1. To the extent that the crimes set out in article 9 are not extraditable offences in any extradition treaty existing between States Parties, they shall be deemed to be included as such therein. States Parties undertake to include those crimes as extraditable offences in every extradition treaty to be concluded between them.

2. If a State Party which makes extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty receives a request for extradition from another State Party with which it has no extradition treaty, it may at its option consider this Convention as the legal basis for extradition in respect of those crimes. Extradition shall be subject to the conditions provided in the law of the requested State.

3. States Parties which do not make extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty shall recognise those crimes as extraditable offences between themselves subject to the conditions provided in the law of the requested State.

4. Each of those crimes shall be treated, for the purposes of extradition between States Parties, as if it had been committed not only in the place in which it occurred but also in the territories of the States Parties which have established their jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph 1 or 2 of article 10.

Article 16

Mutual assistance in criminal matters

35 1. States Parties shall afford one another the greatest measure of assistance in connection with criminal proceedings brought in respect of the crimes set out in article 9, including assistance in obtaining evidence at their disposal necessary for the proceedings. The law of the requested State shall apply in all cases.

2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not affect obligations concerning mutual assistance embodied in any other treaty.

Article 17

Fair treatment

45 1. Any person regarding whom investigations or proceedings are being carried out in connection with any of the crimes set out in article 9 shall be guaranteed fair treatment, a fair trial and full protection of his or her rights at all stages of the investigations or proceedings.

2. Any alleged offender shall be entitled:

- (a) To communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of the State or States of which such person is a national or which is otherwise entitled to protect that person's rights or, if such person is a stateless person, of the State which, at that person's request, is willing to protect that person's rights; and 5
- (b) To be visited by a representative of that State or those States.

Article 18 10

Notification of outcome of proceedings

The State Party where an alleged offender is prosecuted shall communicate the final outcome of the proceedings to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who shall transmit the information to other States Parties. 15

Article 19

Dissemination

The States Parties undertake to disseminate this Convention as widely as possible and, in particular, to include the study thereof, as well as relevant provisions of international humanitarian law, in their programmes of military instruction. 20

Article 20

Savings clauses

Nothing in this Convention shall affect:

- (a) The applicability of international humanitarian law and universally recognised standards of human rights as contained in international instruments in relation to the protection of United Nations operations and United Nations and associated personnel or the responsibility of such personnel to respect such law and standards; 25 30
- (b) The rights and obligations of States, consistent with the Charter of the United Nations, regarding the consent to entry of persons into their territories;
- (c) The obligation of United Nations and associated personnel to act in accordance with the terms of the mandate of a United Nations operation; 35
- (d) The right of States which voluntarily contribute personnel to a United Nations operation to withdraw their personnel from participation in such operation; or
- (e) The entitlement to appropriate compensation payable in the event of death, disability, injury or illness attributable to peace-keeping service by persons voluntarily contributed by States to United Nations operations. 40

Article 21

Right of self-defence

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed so as to derogate from the right to act in self-defence.

Article 22

Dispute settlement

1. Any dispute between two or more States Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Convention which is not settled by negotiation shall, at the request of one of them, be submitted to arbitration. If within six months from the date of the request for arbitration the parties are unable to agree on the organization of the arbitration, any one of those parties may refer the dispute to the International Court of Justice by application in conformity with the Statute of the Court.

15 2. Each State Party may at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance or approval of this Convention or accession thereto declare that it does not consider itself bound by all or part of paragraph 1. The other States Parties shall not be bound by paragraph 1 or the relevant part thereof with respect to any State Party which 20 has made such a reservation.

3. Any State Party which has made a reservation in accordance with paragraph 2 may at any time withdraw that reservation by notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 23

25

Review meetings

At the request of one or more States Parties, and if approved by a majority of States Parties, the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall convene a meeting of the States Parties to review the implementation of the Convention, and any problems encountered 30 with regard to its application.

Article 24

Signature

This Convention shall be open for signature by all States, until 31 December 1995, at United Nations Headquarters in New York.

35

Article 25

Ratification, acceptance or approval

This Convention is subject to ratification, acceptance or approval. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 26

Accession

This Convention shall be open for accession by any State. The instruments of accession shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations. 5

Article 27

Entry into force

1. This Convention shall enter into force thirty days after twenty-two instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession have been deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations. 10

2. For each State ratifying, accepting, approving or acceding to the Convention after the deposit of the twenty-second instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, the Convention shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after the deposit by such State of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession. 15

Denunciation

1. A State Party may denounce this Convention by written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. 20

2. Denunciation shall take effect one year following the date on which notification is received by the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 29

Authentic texts 25

The original of this Convention, of which the Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish texts are equally authentic, shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who shall send certified copies thereof to all States.

DONE at New York this ninth day of December one thousand nine hundred and ninety-four. 30
