BILLE AN GHARDA SÍOCHÁNA
(COMHAR PÓILÍNEACHTA) 2003
GARDA SÍOCHÁNA (POLICE CO-OPERATION) BILL 2003

EXPLANATORY AND FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

General

The purpose of this Bill is to give effect to Articles 1 and 2 of an Agreement between Ireland and the U.K. on police co-operation, signed in Belfast on 29 April 2002.

Generally the Agreement provides for the implementation of those recommendations on co-operation between the Garda Síochána and the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) contained in the Report of the Independent Commission on Policing for Northern Ireland (the Patten Report). More specifically, Articles 1 and 2 of the Agreement provide for:

- (i) members of each police service to be eligible to apply for certain posts in the other police service, and
- (ii) a programme for members of each police service to be seconded with full police powers to the other police service for periods not exceeding 3 years.

Provisions of the Bill

Section 1 is a standard provision providing for certain necessary definitions.

Section 2 provides that the Government may appoint members of the PSNI to specified ranks in the Garda Síochána not below the rank of Superintendent, as is provided for in the Intergovernmental Agreement. For this to happen, eligible members of the PSNI will have to compete in a merit-based selection procedure with Garda Síochána applicants for appointment to the ranks in the Garda Síochána concerned. The extent to which each such rank will be opened up to competition can be varied by regulation under the Bill.

Section 3 provides for the secondment of members of the PSNI to the Garda Síochána with full Garda powers for a period not exceeding three years. Seconded members will continue to be paid by the PSNI but will be under the direction and control of the Garda Commissioner and have the powers, rights, duties and obligations of a member of the Garda Síochána of the rank to which they are appointed. A secondment under this section may be terminated by the Commissioner (or the Government, where it made the appointment). The ranks in the Garda Síochána to which members may be appointed under this section and the number to be so appointed may be prescribed by regulation under the Bill. The section also makes certain technical amendments to the Garda Síochána Acts to reflect the position of secondees.

Section 4 provides for secondments from the Garda Síochána to the PSNI with full police powers for a period not exceeding three years. Seconded members will continue to be paid as members of the Garda Síochána but shall not be subject to the direction or control of the Garda Commissioner or be entitled to exercise in the State any Garda powers. Seconded members shall continue to be entitled to claim compensation under the Garda Compensation Acts 1941 and 1945 and their service on secondment shall be regarded as service with the Garda Síochána for pension, promotion and seniority purposes. The number and rank of members of the Garda Síochána who may be seconded under this section may be prescribed by regulation under the Bill.

Section 5 provides for the procedures which will apply in relation to breaches of discipline by a member of the Garda Síochána who is seconded to the PSNI. A stand-alone disciplinary framework is provided in this regard whereby the investigation of any alleged breach of discipline by a seconded member of the Garda Síochána is carried out under the law and procedure applicable in relation to the investigation of breaches of discipline by members of the PSNI. Any appeal against or request for review of a finding of that disciplinary process is also made under the law and procedure in Northern Ireland. However, no disciplinary action may be taken against a seconded member of the Garda Síochána by the Chief Constable of the PSNI. Instead, the findings of a disciplinary investigation or the outcome of an appeal or review of such findings will be transmitted to the Garda Commissioner (or the Government, in respect of Gardaí above the rank of Inspector) for whatever action is deemed appropriate. The disciplinary action which may be taken by the Commissioner or the Government under this section is defined. A member of the Garda Síochána whose secondment to the PSNI has expired or been terminated will be obliged to co-operate with any such investigation as if he or she were a member of the PSNI and any failure to do so shall itself constitute a breach of discipline.

Section 6 provides for the procedures which will apply in relation to breaches of discipline by a member of the PSNI who is seconded to the Garda Síochána. Similar to the approach taken in section 5, the investigation of any alleged breach of discipline by a seconded member of the PSNI will be carried out in accordance with the Garda Síochána Disciplinary Regulations or, as may be the case, the Garda Síochána Complaints Board procedures. Any appeals or requests for review of the findings will also be determined within that process. No disciplinary action will be taken by the Garda Commissioner against a PSNI secondee. Instead, the findings of the disciplinary process will be transmitted by the Garda Commissioner to the Chief Constable for whatever action is deemed appropriate.

Section 7 provides for the making of Regulations for the purpose of giving full effect to the provisions of the Bill.

Section 8 provides for the laying of the regulations before each House of the Oireachtas.

Section 9 provides for the short title, collective citation, construction and commencement.

The Schedule contains the text of the Intergovernmental Agreement.

Financial Implications

The financial implications of implementing the secondment with policing powers provision of the Agreement will depend on the extent to which Garda secondments to the PSNI are made. Costs will arise mainly in respect of the accommodation and relocation of members of the Gardaí who will be seconded to the PSNI. No significant costs are anticipated in respect of PSNI members who are seconded to the Garda Síochána, as they will continue to be paid by the PSNI.

The provision enabling PSNI members to apply for specified posts in the Garda Síochána does not give rise to any specific financial implications, as it simply involves members of the PSNI competing for these posts.
