AGES FOR PERSONAL INJURIES; TO PROVIDE THAT
10 AN ACTION FOR PERSONAL INJURIES SHALL NOT BE BROUGHT AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF 2 YEARS FROM THE DATE OF ACCRUAL OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION OR THE DATE OF KNOWLEDGE OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION WHICHEVER OCCURS LATER; TO 15 PROVIDE THAT WHERE A PLAINTIFF IN A PERSONAL INJURIES ACTION GIVES FALSE EVIDENCE, THE COURT MAY DISMISS THE PLAINTIFF'S ACTION; TO MAKE PROVISION IN RELATION TO THE ASSESS-MENT OF DAMAGES IN A PERSONAL INJURIES
20 ACTION; TO MAKE PROVISION IN RELATION TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE CIRCUIT COURT IN PRO-CEEDINGS RELATING TO LAND; TO PROVIDE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF PART OF THE FUNDS OF SUITORS VESTED IN THE ACCOUNTANT OF THE COURTS OF
25 JUSTICE; TO MAKE PROVISION IN RELATION TO THE PUBLICATION OF REPORTS, AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PREPARED FOR THE PURPOSES, OF PROCEEDINGS TO BE HEARD OTHERWISE THAN IN PUBLIC; AND, FOR THOSE AND OTHER PURPOSES, TO 30 AMEND THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS
(AMENDMENT) ACT 1991, THE CIVIL LIABILITY ACT 1961 AND CERTAIN OTHER ENACTMENTS; AND TO PROVIDE FOR RELATED MATTERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS AS FOLLOWS:

PART 1

PRELIMINARY AND GENERAL

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Civil Liability and Courts Act 2004. Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister may appoint by order or orders either generally or with 40 reference to any particular purpose or provision and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or provisions.

2.—(1) In this Act, except where the context otherwise requires—

“act” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

“Act of 1961” means the Civil Liability Act 1961;

“Act of 1993” means the Social Welfare (Consolidation) Act 1993;

“Act of 1998” means the Social Welfare Act 1998; 5

“Act of 2002” means the Courts and Court Officers Act 2002;

“Act of 2003” means the Personal Injuries Assessment Board Act 2003;

“court” means, in relation to a personal injuries action, the court in which that action has been brought, being the High Court, Circuit 10 Court or District Court, as the case may be;

“date of knowledge” shall be construed in accordance with the Statute of Limitations (Amendment) Act 1991;

“defendant” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

“expert evidence” means evidence of fact or opinion given by a person who would not be competent to give such evidence unless he or she had a special skill or expertise; 15

“further information” has the meaning assigned to it by section 10;

“mediation conference” has the meaning assigned to it by section 14;

“Minister” means the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law 20 Reform;

“negligence” includes nuisance and breach of duty (whether the duty exists by virtue of a contract, a provision of a statute, an instrument under a statute, or otherwise);

“personal injuries action” means an action for the recovery of damages, in respect of a wrong, for— 25

(a) personal injuries,

(b) both such injuries and damage to property (but only if both have been caused by the same wrong), or

(c) under section 48 of the Act of 1961, 30

but shall not include an application for compensation under the Garda Síochána (Compensation) Acts 1941 and 1945, or an action where the damages claimed include damages for false imprisonment or trespass to the person;

“personal injuries summons” has the meaning assigned to it by section 9; 35

“personal injury” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

“plaintiff” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

“pleading” means, in relation to a personal injuries action, a personal injuries summons, a defence, a defence and counterclaim or any 40

5 other document (other than an affidavit or a report prepared by a person who is not a party to that action) that, under rules of court, is required to be, or may be, served (within such period as is prescribed by those rules) by a party to the action on another party to that action;

“settlement” includes, in relation to a personal injuries action, a settlement of the action in part only, and cognate words shall be construed accordingly;

“third party” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

10 “wrong” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961;

“wrongdoer” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 1961.

(2) In this Act—

15 (a) a reference to a section or Part is a reference to a section or Part of this Act, unless it is indicated that a reference to some other enactment is intended,

20 (b) a reference to a subsection, paragraph or subparagraph is a reference to a subsection, paragraph or subparagraph of the provision in which the reference occurs, unless it is indicated that a reference to some other provision is intended, and

(c) a reference to any enactment is a reference to that enactment as amended, extended or adapted whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act, by or under any subsequent enactment.

25 3.—Every order (other than an order under section 1(2)) and regulation under this Act shall be laid by the Minister before both Houses of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the order is passed by either such House within the 30 is laid before it, the order or regulation shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

Orders and regulations.

4.—The expenses incurred by the Minister in the administration of this Act shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister 35 for Finance, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

Expenses.

PART 2

CIVIL LIABILITY

5.—Subject to sections 13(8), 24(4), 25(4), 26(3) and 27(2), a provision of this Part applies to personal injuries actions brought after 40 the date of the commencement of that provision only.

Application of Part.

6.—The Statute of Limitations (Amendment) Act 1991 is amended by—Amendments of Statute of Limitations (Amendment) Act 1991.

(a) the substitution in subsection (1) of section 3 of “two years” for “three years”,

(b) the substitution in subsection (1) of section 4 of “two years” for “three years”,

(c) the substitution in subsection (1) of section 5 of “2 years” for “three years”, and

(d) the insertion of the following section: 5

“5A.—(1) Where a cause of action accrued before the commencement of section 6 of the Civil Liability and Courts Act 2004, the action (being an action to which section 3(1), 4(1) or 5(1) of this Act applies) in respect thereof shall not be brought after the expiration of— 10

(a) two years from the said commencement, or

(b) 3 years from the relevant date, whichever occurs first.

(2) In this section ‘relevant date’ means the date of accrual of the cause of action or the date of knowledge 15 of the person concerned as respects that cause of action whichever occurs later.”.

Letter of claim.

7.—(1) Where a plaintiff in a personal injuries action fails, without reasonable cause, to serve a notice in writing, before the expiration of 2 months from the date of the cause of action, on the wrongdoer 20 or alleged wrongdoer stating the nature of the wrong alleged to have been committed by him or her, the court hearing the action may—

(a) draw such inferences from the failure as appear proper, and

(b) where the interests of justice so require—

(i) make no order as to the payment of costs to the plain- 25 tiff, or

(ii) deduct such amount from the costs to be paid to the plaintiff as it considers appropriate.

(2) In this section “date of the cause of action” means—

(a) the date of accrual of the cause of action, or 30

(b) the date of knowledge, as respects the cause of action concerned, of the person against whom the wrong was committed or alleged to have been committed, whichever occurs later.

Rules of court.

8.—(1) It shall be a function of the courts in personal injuries 35 actions to ensure that parties to such actions comply with such rules of court as apply in relation to personal injuries actions so that the trial of personal injuries actions within a reasonable period of their having been commenced is secured.

(2) Where rules of court prescribe a period of time for the service 40 of a document, or the doing of any other thing, in relation to a personal injuries action, the period within which that document may be served or thing may be done shall not be extended beyond the period so prescribed unless—

(a) the parties to the action agree to the period being extended, or

5 (b) the court considers that—

(i) in all the circumstances the extension of the period by such further period as it may direct is necessary or expedient to enable the action to be properly prosecuted or defended, and

10 (ii) the interests of justice require the extension of the period by that further period.

(3) For the purposes of ensuring compliance by a party to a personal injuries action with rules of court, a court may make such orders as to the payment of costs as it considers appropriate.

15 (4) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting or reducing the power of an authority, having (for the time being) power to make rules regulating the practice and procedure of a court, to make such rules in relation to proceedings or actions other than personal injuries actions.

20 9.—(1) Proceedings in the High Court, Circuit Court or District Court, in respect of a personal injuries action, shall be commenced by a summons to be known as and referred to in this Act as a “personal injuries summons”. Bringing of proceedings.

(2) A personal injuries summons shall specify—

25 (a) the plaintiff’s name, the address at which he or she ordinarily resides and his or her occupation,

(b) the personal public service number allocated and issued to the plaintiff under section 223 (inserted by section 14 of the Act of 1998) of the Act of 1993,

30 (c) the defendant’s name, the address at which he or she ordinarily resides (if known to the plaintiff) and his or her occupation (if known to the plaintiff),

(d) the injuries to the plaintiff alleged to have been occasioned by the wrong of the defendant,

35 (e) full particulars of all items of special damage in respect of which the plaintiff is making a claim,

(f) full particulars of the acts of the defendant constituting the said wrong and the circumstances relating to the commission of the said wrong,

40 (g) full particulars of each instance of negligence by the defendant.

(3) Where a plaintiff fails to comply with this section—

(a) the court may—

- (i) direct that the action shall not proceed any further until the plaintiff complies with such conditions as the court may specify, or
  - (ii) where it considers that the interests of justice so require, dismiss the plaintiff's action, 5
- and

(b) the court shall take such failure into account when deciding whether to make an order as to the payment of the costs of the personal injuries action concerned, or the amount of such costs. 10

(4) Where a plaintiff fails to comply with this section, the court hearing the personal injuries action concerned may draw such inferences from the failure as appear proper.

Request for further information.

10.—(1) Upon the request of a defendant in a personal injuries action, the plaintiff shall provide the defendant with— 15

- (a) particulars of any personal injuries action brought by the plaintiff in which a court made an award of damages,
- (b) particulars of any personal injuries action brought by the plaintiff which was withdrawn or settled,
- (c) particulars of any injuries sustained or treatment administered to the plaintiff that would have a bearing on the personal injuries to which the personal injuries action relates, and 20
- (d) the name of any persons from whom the plaintiff received such medical treatment, 25 in this Act referred to as “further information”.

(2) Upon the request of a defendant in a personal injuries action, the plaintiff shall provide the defendant with documents, of such a class as may be prescribed from time to time by the Minister, from the Revenue Commissioners or the Minister for Social and Family Affairs, as may be appropriate, relating to any earnings or other income in respect of which the plaintiff is making a claim. 30

(3) Where a plaintiff fails to comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2)—

- (a) the court may— 35
    - (i) direct that the personal injuries action concerned shall not proceed any further until the plaintiff complies with such conditions as the court may specify, or
    - (ii) where it considers that the interests of justice so require, dismiss the plaintiff's action, 40
- and
- (b) the court shall, at the hearing of the action, take such failure into account when deciding whether to make any order as to the payment of the costs of the action, or the amount of such costs. 45

(4) Where, upon a request referred to in subsection (1), a plaintiff fails to comply with that subsection, the court hearing the personal injuries action concerned may draw such inferences from the failure as appear proper.

5 (5) Where, for the purposes of complying with subsection (2), a plaintiff requests the Revenue Commissioners or the Minister for Social and Family Affairs to furnish him or her with documents referred to in that paragraph, the Revenue Commissioners or the said Minister shall furnish him or her with such documents as are in 10 their, or his or her, possession or procurement.

11.—(1) A defence to a personal injuries action shall specify— Defence and counterclaim.

(a) the allegations specified, or matters pleaded, in the personal injuries summons of which the defendant does not require proof,

15 (b) the allegations specified, or matters pleaded in the personal injuries summons of which he or she requires proof,

(c) the grounds upon which the defendant claims that he or she is not liable for any injuries suffered by the plaintiff, and

20 (d) where the defendant alleges that some or all of the personal injuries suffered by the plaintiff were occasioned in whole or in part by the plaintiff's own acts, the grounds upon which he or she so alleges.

(2) A counterclaim in a personal injuries action shall specify—

25 (a) the personal public service number allocated and issued to the defendant under section 223 (inserted by section 14 of the Act of 1998) of the Act of 1993,

(b) the injuries to the defendant alleged to have been occasioned by the wrong of the plaintiff,

30 (c) full particulars of all items of special damage in respect of which the defendant is making a claim,

(d) full particulars of the acts of the plaintiff constituting the said wrong and the circumstances relating to the commission of the said wrong,

35 (e) full particulars of each instance of negligence by the plaintiff.

(3) Where a defendant fails to comply with this section—

(a) the court may—

40 (i) direct that the action shall not proceed further until the defendant complies with such conditions as the court may specify, or

(ii) where it considers that the interests of justice so require, give judgment in favour of the plaintiff,

and

(b) the court shall take such failure or refusal into account when deciding whether to make any order as to the payment of the costs of the personal injuries action concerned, or the amount of such costs.

(4) Where a defendant fails to comply with this section, the court hearing the personal injuries action concerned may draw such inferences from the failure as appear proper. 5

Pleadings generally.

12.—(1) All pleadings in a personal injuries action shall—

(a) in the case of a pleading served by the plaintiff, contain full and detailed particulars of the claim of which the action consists and of each allegation, assertion or plea comprising that claim, or 10

(b) in the case of a pleading served by the defendant or a third party contain full and detailed particulars of each denial or traverse, and of each allegation, assertion or plea, comprising his or her defence. 15

(2) Subject to this Act, pleadings in a personal injuries action shall be in such form as are prescribed by rules of court.

(3) All pleadings shall, in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the High Court, be lodged in the Central Office of the High Court. 20

(4) All pleadings shall, in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the Circuit Court, be lodged in the Circuit Court Office for the county in which the action is brought.

(5) All pleadings shall, in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the District Court, be lodged in the District Court Office for the district court district in which the action is brought. 25

Verifying affidavit.

13.—(1) Where the plaintiff in a personal injuries action—

(a) serves on the defendant any pleading containing assertions or allegations, or 30

(b) provides further information to the defendant,

the plaintiff (or in the case of a personal injuries action brought on behalf of an infant or person of unsound mind by a next friend or a committee of the infant or person, the next friend or committee) shall swear an affidavit verifying those assertions or allegations, or that further information. 35

(2) Where the defendant or a third party in a personal injuries action serves on another party to the action any pleading containing assertions or allegations, the defendant or third party, as the case may be, shall swear an affidavit verifying those assertions or allegations. 40

(3) Where a personal injuries action is brought on behalf of an infant or a person of unsound mind by a next friend or a committee of the infant or person, an affidavit to which subsection (1) applies sworn by the next friend or committee concerned shall, in respect of assertions, allegations or further information, of which he or she does 45 not have personal knowledge, state that he or she honestly believes the assertions, allegations or further information, to be true.

(4) An affidavit under this section shall be lodged in court not later than—

5 (a) 21 days after the service of the pleading concerned or such longer period as the court may direct or the parties may agree, or 10 (b) in the case of a requirement to which subsection (8)(b) applies, 7 days before the date fixed for the trial of the personal injuries action concerned.

(5) If a person makes a statement in an affidavit under this section—

(a) that is false or misleading in any material respect, and

(b) that he or she knows to be false or misleading,

15 he or she shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) The reference to court in subsection (4) shall—

(a) in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the High Court, include a reference to the Master of the High Court, and 20 (b) in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the Circuit Court, include a reference to the county registrar for the county in which the proceedings concerned were issued.

25 (7) An affidavit sworn under this section shall include a statement by the deponent that he or she is aware that the making of a statement by him or her in the affidavit that is false or misleading in any material respect and that he or she knows to be false or misleading is an offence.

(8) This section applies to personal injuries actions brought—

30 (a) on or after the commencement of this section, and

(b) before such commencement, where a party to the action requires (not later than 21 days before the date fixed for the trial of the action) another party to the action to swear an affidavit in accordance with this section.

35 14.—(1) Upon the request of any party to a personal injuries action, the court may— Mediation conference.

(a) at any time before the trial of such action, and

40 (b) if it considers that the holding of a meeting pursuant to a direction under this subsection would assist in reaching a settlement in the action, direct that the parties to the action meet to discuss and attempt to settle the action, and a meeting held pursuant to a direction under this subsection is in this Act referred to as a “mediation conference”.

(2) Where the court gives a direction under subsection (1), each party to the personal injuries action concerned shall comply with that direction.

(3) A mediation conference shall take place—

(a) at a time and place agreed by the parties to the personal injuries action concerned, or 5

(b) where the parties do not agree a time and place, at a time and place specified by the court.

(4) There shall be a chairperson of a mediation conference who shall— 10

(a) be a person appointed by agreement of all the parties to the personal injuries action concerned, or

(b) where no such agreement is reached—

(i) be a person appointed by the court, and

(ii) (I) be a practising barrister or practising solicitor of not less than 5 years standing, or 15

(II) a person nominated by a body prescribed, for the purpose of this section, by order of the Minister.

(5) The notes of the chairperson of a mediation conference and all communications during a mediation conference shall be confidential and shall not be used in evidence in any proceedings whether civil or criminal. 20

(6) The costs incurred in the holding and conducting of a mediation conference shall be paid by such party to the personal injuries action concerned as the court hearing the action shall direct. 25

chairperson of mediation conference.

15.—(1) A person appointed under section 14(4) to be the chairperson of a mediation conference shall prepare and submit to the court, hearing the personal injuries action concerned, a report, which shall include—

(a) where the mediation conference did not take place, a statement of the reasons as to why it did not take place, or 30

(b) where the mediation conference did take place—

(i) a statement as to whether or not a settlement has been reached in the personal injuries action concerned, and 35

(ii) where a settlement has been entered into, a statement of the terms of the settlement signed by the parties thereto.

(2) A copy of a report prepared under subsection (1) shall be given to each party to the personal injuries action at the same time as it is submitted to the court under that subsection. 40

(3) At the conclusion of a personal injuries action, the court may—

(a) after hearing submissions by or on behalf of the parties to the action, and

(b) if satisfied that a party to the action failed to comply with a direction under section 14(1),

5 make an order directing that party to pay the costs of the action, or such part of the costs of the action as the court directs, incurred after the giving of the direction under section 14(1).

16.—(1) The plaintiff in a personal injuries action shall, after the prescribed date, serve a notice in writing of an offer of terms of settlement on the defendant. Final offers.

(2) The defendant in a personal injuries action shall, after the prescribed date, serve a notice in writing on the plaintiff—

(a) of an offer of terms of settlement, or

15 (b) stating that he or she is not prepared to pay any sum of money to the plaintiff in settlement of the action.

(3) A copy of a final offer shall, after the expiration of the prescribed period be lodged in court by, or on behalf of, the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be.

20 (4) The terms of a final offer shall not be communicated to the judge in the trial of a personal injuries action until after he or she has delivered judgment in the action.

(5) The court shall, when considering the making of an order as to the payment of the costs in a personal injuries action—

(a) have regard to the terms of a final offer, and

25 (b) the reasonableness of the conduct of the parties in making their final offers.

(6) This section is in addition to and not in substitution for any rule of court providing for the payment into court of a sum of money in satisfaction of a cause of action.

30 (7) In this section—

“final offer” means an offer under subsection (1) or (2)(a), or a statement under subsection (2)(b);

35 “prescribed date” means such date before the date of the commencement of the trial of the personal injuries action concerned as is prescribed by order of the Minister;

“prescribed period” means such period commencing on the prescribed date as is prescribed by order of the Minister.

17.—(1) Where, in a personal injuries action, the court considers it appropriate, it shall direct that a hearing be held before the trial of the action for the purposes of determining what matters relating to the action are in dispute. Pre-trial hearings.

(2) All parties to a personal injuries action shall be entitled to be heard at a hearing held pursuant to a direction under subsection (1).

(3) A hearing held pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) shall be presided over by—

(a) in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the High Court, a judge of the High Court, the Master of the High Court, a Deputy Master of the High Court or an officer nominated under paragraph 6(1) of the Eighth Schedule to the Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961, as the President of the High Court may direct, 5

(b) in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the Circuit Court, a judge of the Circuit Court, the county registrar for the county in which the action was brought or a member of the staff of the Circuit Court Office in the county in which the action was brought, as the President of the Circuit Court may direct, 10

(c) in the case of a personal injuries action brought in the District Court, a judge of the District Court. 15

(4) This section is in addition to and not in substitution for any power of a court to give directions in relation to any matter in a personal injuries action.

Evidence.

18.—(1) In a personal injuries action evidence as to any matter shall, where the court so directs, be given by affidavit. 20

(2) This section shall not operate to deny a party in a personal injuries action the right to cross-examine a witness who has given evidence by affidavit in accordance with a direction under subsection (1). 25

Expert evidence.

19.—(1) In a personal injuries action, the court may appoint such approved persons as it considers appropriate to carry out investigations into, and give expert evidence in relation to, such matters as the court directs.

(2) A party in a personal injuries action shall cooperate with a person appointed under this section and shall, in particular, provide the person with— 30

- (a) (i) any report or other document prepared by the party, or
- (ii) any report or other document prepared on behalf of the party concerned, for the purposes of or in contemplation of the personal injuries action, 35

and

(b) any document or information used or referred to for the purpose of preparing the report.

(3) The costs incurred in the appointment of, and carrying out of an investigation by, a person appointed under this section shall be paid by such party to the personal injuries action concerned as the court hearing the action shall direct. 40

(4) A party in a personal injuries action shall be entitled to cross-examine a person appointed under this section in relation to any matter that he or she was appointed to investigate and give expert evidence on. 45

5 (5) The President of the High Court in consultation with the President of the Circuit Court and the President of the District Court shall approve such persons as he or she considers appropriate for the purposes of this section, and a person so approved is in this section referred to as an “approved person”.

20.—(1) The Supreme Court may, upon an appeal to it in a personal injuries action, invite such persons as it considers appropriate to make submissions to the court— Intervention in a personal injuries action.

10 (a) in relation to any matter concerning either liability or damages that it considers to be of exceptional public importance, and

(b) if the action belongs to a class of causes of action in which the same or a similar matter arises.

15 (2) The Supreme Court may perform functions under subsection (1), either—

(a) upon receiving a request in that behalf from a party to the personal injuries action concerned, or from a person who is not such a party, or

(b) where no such request is made.

20 (3) Where a person declines an invitation to make submissions under this section he or she shall inform the court in writing stating his or her reason for so declining.

21.—(1) The court shall in assessing damages in a personal injuries action have regard to the Book of Quantum. Matter to be taken into account by the court when assessing damages.

25 (2) Subsection (1) shall not operate to prohibit a court from having regard to matters other than the Book of Quantum when assessing damages in a personal injuries action.

30 (3) In this section “Book of Quantum” means the Book of Quantum required to be prepared and published by the Personal Injuries Assessment Board.

22.—(1) The Minister may, by regulations, prescribe actuarial tables for the purpose of their being referred to by the courts when assessing damages in personal injuries actions in respect of future financial loss. Actuarial tables.

35 (2) A court in a personal injuries action shall refer to prescribed actuarial tables (if any) when assessing damages in respect of future loss.

40 (3) In this section “actuarial tables” means actuarial tables prepared by a person designated for that purpose by a body prescribed by regulations made by the Minister.

23.—(1) The Minister may, by regulations, prescribe the discount rate that shall apply for the purposes of the assessment of damages in respect of future financial loss. Discount rate.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may prescribe different rates in respect of different classes of financial loss or different periods of time.

(3) The court may apply a discount rate other than the rate prescribed under subsection (1) if it considers that the application of the rate prescribed would result in injustice being done. 5

(4) In this section “discount rate” means, in relation to the assessment of damages by a court, the rate commonly referred to by that name that is applied by the court for the purpose of determining the current value of any future financial loss. 10

False evidence, etc.

24.—(1) If, after the commencement of this section, a person gives or dishonestly causes to be given, or adduces or dishonestly causes to be adduced, evidence in a personal injuries action that—

(a) is false or misleading in any material respect, and

(b) he or she knows to be false or misleading, 15

he or she shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) If, after the commencement of this section, a person gives, or dishonestly causes to be given, an instruction or information, in relation to a personal injuries action, to a solicitor, or person acting on behalf of a solicitor, or an expert, that— 20

(a) is false or misleading in any material respect, and

(b) he or she knows to be false or misleading,

he or she shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) For the purposes of this section, an act is done dishonestly by a person if he or she does the act with the intention of misleading the court. 25

(4) This section applies to personal injuries actions—

(a) brought on or after the commencement of this section, and

(b) pending on the date of such commencement.

(5) In this section “expert” means a person who has a special skill or expertise and who— 30

(a) has been engaged by or on behalf of a plaintiff or defendant in a personal injuries action to give expert evidence in that action, or

(b) for the purposes of or in contemplation of a personal injuries action has been requested to carry out an examination or investigation in relation to any matter for which such special skill or expertise is necessary. 35

Fraudulent actions.

25.—(1) If, after the commencement of this section, a plaintiff in a personal injuries action gives or adduces, or dishonestly causes to be given or adduced, evidence that— 40

(a) is false or misleading, in any material respect, and

(b) he or she knows to be false or misleading,

the court shall dismiss the plaintiff's action unless, for reasons that the court shall state in its decision, the dismissal of the action would result in injustice being done.

5 (2) The court in a personal injuries action shall, if satisfied that a person has sworn an affidavit under section 13 that—

(a) is false or misleading in any material respect, and

(b) that he or she knew to be false or misleading when swearing the affidavit,

10 dismiss the plaintiff's action unless, for reasons that the court shall state in its decision, the dismissal of the action would result in injustice being done.

(3) For the purposes of this section, an act is done dishonestly by a person if he or she does the act with the intention of misleading
15 the court.

(4) This section applies to personal injuries actions—

(a) brought on or after the commencement of this section, and

(b) pending on the date of such commencement.

20 26.—(1) The Act of 1961 is amended by the insertion, in section 50, of the following subsection: Collateral benefits.

“(2) In assessing damages under this Part, account shall not be taken of any charitable gift (whether in the form of money or other property) made to the plaintiff in consequence of the death of the deceased unless—

25 (a) the defendant is the donor of the gift, and

(b) at the time of the making of the gift he or she informs the plaintiff in writing that, should the plaintiff recover damages in an action under this Part, the defendant will apply to the court for the damages to be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the gift or the value of the gift, as may be appropriate.”, and the said section 50 as it stood immediately before the commencement of this subsection shall be referred to as subsection (1) of section 50.
30

35 (2) The Civil Liability (Amendment) Act 1964 is amended by the insertion, in section 2, of the following subsection:

“(2) In assessing damages in an action to recover damages in respect of a wrong resulting in personal injury not causing death, account shall not be taken of any charitable gift (whether in the form of money or other property) made to the plaintiff in respect of those injuries unless—40

(a) the defendant is the donor of the gift, and

(b) (i) at the time of the making of the gift he or she informs the plaintiff in writing that, should the plaintiff recover damages in such an action, the defendant will apply to the court for the damages to be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the gift or the value of the gift, as may be appropriate, or 5

(ii) in the case of a plaintiff who is employed by the defendant, the gift consists of a series of payments that resemble, in amount and frequency, the normal remuneration that the plaintiff would be entitled to receive from the defendant in the course of his or her employment.”, 10 and the said section 2 as it stood immediately before the commencement of this subsection shall be referred to as subsection (1) of section 2.

(3) The amendments to— 15

(a) section 50 of the Act of 1961, and

(b) section 2 of the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act 1964, effected by this section do not apply to causes of action accruing before the commencement of this section.

Income undeclared for tax purposes.

27.—(1) In a personal injuries action (other than an action under section 48 of the Act of 1961), any income, profit or gain in respect of which— 20

(a) the plaintiff is making a claim, and

(b) (i) a return has not been made before the hearing of the action in accordance with the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997, or 25

(ii) the plaintiff has not otherwise notified the Revenue Commissioners, shall, for the purposes of assessing damages, be disregarded by the court, unless the court considers that in all the circumstances it would be unjust to disregard such income, profit or gain. 30

(2) This section does not apply to causes of action accruing before the commencement of this section.

Offences.

28.—(1) A person guilty of an offence under this Part shall be liable, upon conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding €100,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years, or to both. 35

(2) The District Court may try summarily a person charged with an offence under this Part if—

(a) the court is of the opinion that the facts proved or alleged constitute a minor offence fit to be tried summarily, 40

(b) the person, upon being informed by the court of his or her right to be tried with a jury, does not object to being tried summarily, and

(c) the Director of Public Prosecutions consents to the person being tried summarily for the offence.

5 (3) A person who is tried under and in accordance with subsection (2) shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding €3,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both.

10 (4) Section 13 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1967 shall apply in relation to an offence under this Part as if, in lieu of the penalties specified in subsection (3)(a) of that section, there were specified therein the penalties provided for in subsection (3), and the reference in subsection (2)(a) of the said section 13 to the penalties provided for by subsection (3) shall be construed and have effect accordingly.

29.—(1) The Courts Service shall, on the commencement of this section, establish and maintain a register of personal injuries actions (in this section referred to as the “register”).

Register of personal injuries actions.

15 (2) The Courts Service shall enter in the register—

(a) the name and occupation of each party to a personal injuries action, and

(b) the address at which he or she ordinarily resides, as specified in the pleadings relating to the action.

20 (3) The register shall be published on the internet and in such other form as the Courts Service considers appropriate.

(4) In this section “internet” means the system commonly known by that name.

25 30.—The Act of 2003 is amended by the insertion of the following section:

Amendment of Act of 2003.

“Requiring certain persons to provide information.

30 54A.—(1) The Board may require any person (including a Minister of the Government or a body established by or under any enactment) to provide it with such records, documents or information as it may reasonably require for the purposes of the performance of its functions under section 54(1)(c).

(2) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1) shall comply with that requirement.”.

35 PART 3

COURTS

Chapter 1

Funds of Suitors

31.—In this Chapter—

Definition.

40 “accounts” means the general cash account of the funds of suitors held with the Bank of Ireland in the name of the Accountant;

“Accountant” means the Accountant of the Courts of Justice as provided for in section 16 of the Court Officers Act 1926;

“dormant account of the funds of suitors of the High Court” means the general ledger account for dormant balance maintained in accordance with Order 77 of the Rules of the Superior Courts 1986, containing the balances of funds standing to the credit of ledger accounts carried over to the said ledger account by the Accountant together with the interest and dividends accruing thereon;

“ledger account” means an account opened in the name of the Accountant under—

- (a) an order of the High Court or Supreme Court, or
- (b) an Act of the Oireachtas, into which any funds of suitors have been paid;

“small balances” means such moneys as, in accordance with rule 88 of Order 77 of the Rules of the Superior Courts, are carried over to the special account for small balances;

“special account for small balances” means the special account for small balances maintained for the purposes of the said rule 88.

Realisation of investment of dormant accounts of funds of suitors.

32.—(1) As soon as may be after the passing of this Act, the Chief Justice shall order the Accountant to realise all of the investments of the dormant account of the funds of suitors of the High Court and of the special account for small balances, save such part thereof as represents 2.5 per cent of the value of those investments.

(2) The Accountant shall comply with an order of the Chief Justice under this section.

(3) In this section “investments” means, in relation to the dormant account of the funds of suitors, assets other than cash.

Disposal of part of funds of suitors.

33.—(1) The Bank of Ireland shall, where the Chief Justice so orders, pay out of the account to the Exchequer such sums, not exceeding the aggregate of the amounts in the form of cash standing in the dormant account of the funds of suitors of the High Court and the special account for small balances, as may from time to time, be required for the purposes of subsection (2).

(2) The sums paid to the Exchequer pursuant to an order under subsection (1) may be applied from time to time, by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, for the purposes of defraying the costs of providing, managing and maintaining court buildings under section 5(d) of the Courts Service Act 1998.

Deficiency in funds of suitors.

34.—Where, by virtue of the compliance by the Bank of Ireland with an order under section 33, the funds of suitors are not sufficient to enable suitors to be fully indemnified, the Minister for Finance shall, for the purposes of enabling them to be so indemnified, advance out of the Central Fund or the growing produce thereof such sum as he or she considers necessary not exceeding the aggregate of any sums paid to the Exchequer pursuant to an order under that section.

Miscellaneous Provisions

35.—In this Chapter—

Definitions.

“Act of 1976” means the Family Home Protection Act 1976;

5 “Act of 1981” means the Courts Act 1981;

25 (i) section 38 of the Act of 1996;

(j) section 16 of the Domestic Violence Act 1996.

(2) Nothing contained in a relevant enactment shall operate to prohibit—

30 (a) the preparation and publication of a report of proceedings to which the relevant enactment relates, or

(b) the publication of the decision of the court in such proceedings,

35 provided that the report or judgment does not contain any information which would enable the parties to the proceedings or any child to which the proceedings relate to be identified.

(3) Nothing contained in an enactment that prohibits proceedings to which the enactment relates from being heard in public shall operate to prohibit the production of a document prepared for the purposes or in contemplation of such proceedings or given in evidence in such proceedings, to— 5

- (a) the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for Ireland,
- (b) a body or other person when it, or he or she, is performing functions under any enactment consisting of the conducting of a hearing, inquiry or investigation in relation to, or adjudicating on, any matter, or 10
- (c) such body or other person as may be prescribed by order made by the Minister, when the body or person concerned is performing functions consisting of the conducting of a hearing, inquiry or investigation in relation to, or adjudicating on, any matter as may be so prescribed. 15

(4) Nothing contained in an enactment that prohibits proceedings to which the enactment relates from being heard in public shall operate to prohibit the giving of information or evidence given in such proceedings to— 20

- (a) the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for Ireland,
- (b) a body or other person when it, or he or she, is performing functions under any enactment consisting of the conducting of a hearing, inquiry or investigation in relation to, or adjudicating on, any matter, or 25
- (c) such body or other person as may be prescribed by order made by the Minister, when the body or person concerned is performing functions consisting of the conducting of a hearing, inquiry or investigation in relation to, or adjudicating on, any matter as may be so prescribed. 30

(5) A court hearing proceedings under a relevant enactment shall, on its own motion or on the application of one of the parties to the proceedings, have discretion to order disclosure of documents, information or evidence connected with or arising in the course of the proceedings to third parties if such disclosure is required to protect the legitimate interests of a party or other person affected by the proceedings. 35

(6) A hearing, inquiry or investigation referred to in subsection (3) or (4) shall, in so far as it relates to a document referred to in subsection (3) or information or evidence referred to in subsection (4), be conducted otherwise than in public and no such document, information or evidence shall be published. 40

Interest on costs, charges or expenses of certain judgments, orders or decrees.

37.—(1) Section 30 of the Act of 2002 is amended by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (1): 45

“(1) Subject to section 23 of the Act of 1981, interest on the amount of costs, charges or expenses awarded to a party in proceedings in a court, to which section 27 of the Debtors (Ireland) Act 1840 applies, pursuant to a judgment, order or decree of the court, shall— 50

(a) not be payable until—

(i) if the amount aforesaid is agreed by the parties to the proceedings, the date of such agreement, or

(ii) in default of agreement—

(I) the date on which a certificate of taxation (which expression includes an interim certificate of taxation) in respect of the amount aforesaid is issued by a taxing master of the High Court or by a county registrar exercising the powers of such a taxing master, as may be appropriate, or

(II) if appropriate, in the case of proceedings in the Circuit Court, the date on which a county registrar measures the amount aforesaid in accordance with rules of court,

and

(b) be payable at the rate for the time being standing specified in section 26 of the Debtors (Ireland) Act 1840, from the appropriate date aforesaid until that amount is paid.”.

(2) Subsections (3) and (4) of section 30 of the Act of 2002 are repealed.

(3) The amendments to section 30 of the Act of 2002 effected by this section apply to—

(a) actions brought on or after the commencement of this section, and

(b) actions pending on the date of such commencement.

38.—The Eighth Schedule to the Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961 is amended by the insertion, in paragraph 6, of the following subparagraph: Certain officers to act as registrar of Central Criminal Court.

“(1A) Each officer nominated under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph who stands directed to act as registrar to the High Court under that subparagraph shall (in addition to any other duties which may be assigned to him or her by the officer for the time being managing the Central Office) act as registrar to the Central Criminal Court as and when directed to so act by the officer for the time being managing the Central Office.”.

39.—Section 38 of the Court Officers Act 1926 is amended by the substitution of the following subsections for subsection (3): Amendment of section 38 of Court Officers Act 1926.

“(3) The county registrar of the county, county borough or other area (other than the county or county borough of Dublin) in which the Central Criminal Court is, for the time being, sitting shall perform the following functions, that is to say:

(a) the function of acting as registrar to that court, and

- (b) the function of performing such powers and carrying out of such duties in relation to that court as are assigned to the registrar of the Central Criminal Court by rules of court, when requested to so do by the officer for the time being managing the Central Office of the High Court. 5

(4) The functions performable by a county registrar pursuant to a request under subsection (3) shall be performed by a member of the staff of the Circuit Court Office in the county concerned to whom those functions have, with the concurrence of the officer for the time being managing the Central Office of the High Court, been delegated by that county registrar.”. 10

Amendment of Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961.

40.—(1) Section 2 of the Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961 is amended by the insertion, in subsection (1), of the following definition: 15

“‘market value’ means, in relation to land, the price that would have been obtained in respect of the unencumbered fee simple were the land to have been sold on the open market, in the year immediately preceding the bringing of the proceedings concerned, in such manner and subject to such conditions as might reasonably be calculated to have resulted in the vendor obtaining the best price for the land.”. 20

(2) The Third Schedule to the Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961 is amended, in column (3), by the substitution of—

(a) “‘market value’ for ‘rateable valuation’ in each place that it occurs, and 25

(3) In this section “Act of 2000” means the Planning and Development Act 2000.

35 48.—(1) The court in a personal injuries action may, upon the application of a party to the action, direct that a person (other than another party to the action or an expert witness) who it is intended will be called to give evidence at the trial of the action shall not attend that trial until he or she is called to give evidence. Exclusion of certain witnesses, etc.

40 (2) Where a court gives a direction under subsection (1), it may give all such other directions as it considers necessary or expedient to secure that a witness to whom the first-mentioned direction applies does not—

45 (a) communicate with other witnesses who it is intended will be called to give evidence at the trial of the action concerned, or

(b) receive information such as might influence him or her when giving evidence.

(3) In this section “expert witness” means, in relation to a personal injuries action, a person who it is intended will be called as a witness to give expert evidence at the trial of that action. 5

Exclusion of witnesses, etc.

49.—(1) Upon the application of a party to any proceedings, the court hearing those proceedings may direct that a person (other than an expert witness) who it is intended will be called to give evidence in those proceedings shall not attend those proceedings until he or she is called to give evidence. 10

(2) Where a court gives a direction under subsection (1), it may give all such other directions as it considers necessary or expedient to secure that a witness to whom the first-mentioned direction applies does not—

(a) communicate with other witnesses in the proceedings concerned, or 15

(b) receive information such as might influence him or her when giving evidence.

(3) In this section “expert witness” means, in relation to proceedings, a person who it is intended will be called as a witness to give expert evidence. 20

Amendment of Act of 2002.

50.—Section 46 of the Act of 2002 is amended by—

(a) the substitution of the following subsections for subsections (3), (4) and (5):

“(3) Subject to subsection (6), if judgment in the proceedings concerned is not delivered before the expiration of 2 months from the date on which it is reserved, the President of the Court shall as soon as may be after— 25

(a) the said expiration, and

(b) the expiration of each subsequent period of 2 months (if judgment is not delivered first), 30

list the proceedings or cause them to be listed before the judge who reserved judgment therein and shall give notice in writing to the parties to the proceedings of each date on which the proceedings are listed in accordance with this section. 35

(4) Where proceedings are listed before a judge in accordance with subsection (3), the judge shall specify the date on which he or she proposes to deliver judgment in the proceedings. 40

(5) The date specified by a judge under subsection (4) shall, in relation to the proceedings concerned, be entered in the register and where the proceedings concerned have been listed more than once in accordance with subsection (1), there shall be entered in the register on each occasion on which they are so listed the date, for the time being, standing so specified.” 45

(b) the deletion of paragraph (b) of subsection (9),

(c) the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (10):

5           “(10) In this section references to a judge shall, in the case of a court constituted of more than one judge, be construed as references to the judge who, among the judges of which the court was constituted, ranks first in order of precedence in accordance with section 9 10       (inserted by section 9 of The Courts (No. 2) Act 1997) of The Courts of Justice Act 1924.”,

(d) the insertion of the following definition in subsection (11):

“ ‘President of the Court’ means—

(a) in relation to the District Court, the President of the District Court,

15           (b) in relation to the Circuit Court, the President of the Circuit Court,
