BUILDING CONTROL BILL 2005

BILL

entitled

5 AN ACT TO AMEND AND EXTEND THE BUILDING
CONTROL ACT 1990; TO IMPLEMENT CERTAIN
PROVISIONS OF DIRECTIVE 2002/91/EC OF THE
EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL OF
10 16 DECEMBER 2002 ON THE ENERGY PERFORMANCE
OF BUILDINGS; TO REGULATE THE USE OF THE TITLES “ARCHITECT”, “QUANTITY SURVEYOR” AND “BUILDING SURVEYOR”; TO IMPLEMENT CERTAIN
PROVISIONS OF DIRECTIVE 2005/36/EC OF THE
EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL OF
15 7 SEPTEMBER 2005 ON THE RECOGNITION OF PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS AND TO PROVIDE FOR RELATED MATTERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS AS FOLLOWS:

PART 1

20 PRELIMINARY AND GENERAL

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Building Control Act 2006.

Short title,
collective citation,
construction and commencement.

(2) The Building Control Act 1990 and this Act may be cited together as the Building Control Acts 1990 and 2006 and shall be construed together as one.

25 (3) This Act shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister may appoint by order or orders either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or different provisions.

2.—(1) In this Act—

Interpretation.

30 “Act of 1990” means the Building Control Act 1990;

“adaptation period” means an adaptation period of such duration as the Admissions Board determines in accordance with the Directive;

“Admissions Board” means an Admissions Board established under section 11, 26 or 40, as the context requires;

“Appeals Board” means an Appeals Board established under section 22, 36 or 50, as the context requires;

“aptitude test” means an aptitude test of such character as the Admissions Board determines in accordance with the Directive; 5

“Directive” means Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 September 2005 on the recognition of professional qualifications;

“EEA Agreement” means the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2 May 1992, as amended for the time being; 10

“EEA measure” means a measure or decision taken by the Joint Committee under the EEA Agreement;

“Member State” means a Member State of the European Union and includes the following: 15

(a) on the State being required to implement an EEA measure having an effect corresponding to that of the Directive or any other Directive adopted by an institution of the European Union for the recognition of professional education and training, an EEA State; 20

(b) the Swiss Confederation;

“Member State of the EEA” means a state (other than a Member State of the European Union) that is a contracting party to the EEA Agreement; 25

“Minister” means the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Minister under this Act;

“Professional Conduct Committee” means a Professional Conduct Committee established under section 21, 35 or 49, as the context requires; 30

“registered professional” means a person who is registered in the register under Part 3, 4 or 5, as the context requires;

“Registrar” means a person appointed under section 17, 31 or 45, as the context requires; 35

“registration body” means, with respect to—

(a) Part 3, the Royal Institute of Architects of Ireland,

(b) Parts 4 and 5, the Society of Chartered Surveyors,

(c) Parts 6 and 7, each of the bodies referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b), with respect to such body performing its functions for the purpose of the relevant Parts; 40

“relevant measure” means—

(a) any EEA measure having an effect corresponding to that of the Directive or any other Directive adopted by an institution of the European Union for the recognition of professional education and training, and

(b) a measure that is in force by virtue of the Swiss Confederation Agreement;

“specified”, in relation to a fee or an amount of a fee, means specified under section 61;

“Technical Assessment Board” means a Technical Assessment Board established under section 20, 34 or 48, as the context requires.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the definition of “registered professional” in subsection (1) does not have the effect of requiring any class of person falling within that definition to be the subject of any designation or other specification in regulations under the Act of 1990 of a person or a class of person for any purpose of those regulations.

(3) A word or expression used in Part 3, 4, 5 or 7 and which is also used in the Directive has the same meaning in that Part as it has in the Directive.

PART 2

AMENDMENT OF BUILDING CONTROL ACT 1990

3.—Section 1(3) of the Act of 1990 is amended by substituting “, paragraph or subparagraph” for “or paragraph” in both places where it occurs.

Amendment of section 1 (interpretation) of Act of 1990.

4.—Section 6 of the Act of 1990 is amended—

Amendment of section 6 (building control regulations) of Act of 1990.

(a) in subsection (2)(a)(ii), by deleting “and”, after “provisions of building regulations as may be prescribed,”,

(b) in subsection (2)(a)(iii), by substituting “the requirements of building regulations,” for “the requirements of building regulations;”,

(c) in subsection (2)(a), by inserting the following after subparagraph (iii):

“(iv) the submission (before grant of the relevant fire safety certificate) of a notice in writing to a building control authority (in this Act referred to as a ‘7 day notice’) by a person who intends to commence work on the construction of a building or an extension of or a material alteration to a building, giving not less than 7 days notice of that person's intention to carry out those works, and requiring that such notice shall be accompanied by a valid application for a fire safety certificate,

- (v) the submission to a building control authority by a person who submits a 7 day notice of a statutory declaration (in this Act referred to as a '7 day notice statutory declaration') made by that person stating that the application for the relevant fire safety certificate has been completed in all respects and complies with the relevant provisions of the building control regulations, that any works that have been commenced before the grant of such certificate will comply with the building regulations and that the person will, within such period as may be specified by the building control authority, carry out any modification of such works that is required by or under the fire safety certificate, including any condition attached to it, when it is granted by the building control authority concerned, 5 10 15 20
- (vi) where an application for a fire safety certificate in respect of the construction of a building or an extension of or a material alteration to a building has been submitted before planning permission has been granted in respect of such construction, extension or alteration, the submission, if required by the subsequent grant of such planning permission, of a further application to a building control authority for a fire safety certificate (in this Act referred to as a 'revised fire safety certificate') for the purpose of ensuring that the revised design arising from the grant of planning permission (including any condition attached to it) complies with the provisions of building regulations relating to fire safety, 25 30 35 40
- (vii) where work has been commenced or completed in respect of the construction of a building or an extension of or a material alteration to a building, and no application has been made for a fire safety certificate that is required under building control regulations for such construction, extension of or material alteration to a building, the submission to a building control authority of an application for a certificate (a 'regularisation certificate') which shall be accompanied by drawings of the relevant works (as they have been constructed) and a statutory declaration from the applicant stating that such works comply with the provisions of the building regulations relating to fire safety, and enabling the authority to specify in a 45 50 55 60 regularisation certificate that the regularisation certificate shall not have effect unless, within 4 months after its being granted, any conditions attached to it by the authority (including conditions as to the carrying out of additional works) are complied with,

(viii) a building control authority to inspect (before it decides whether to grant such a certificate) a building in respect of which an application has been submitted for a regularisation certificate and enabling the authority to grant, if it considers it appropriate, in its discretion, to do so, a regularisation certificate specifying that in its opinion the works, as constructed in accordance with plans, documents and information submitted with the application for the certificate, comply with the provisions of building regulations relating to fire safety, subject to compliance (within the period of 4 months there mentioned) with any conditions attached to the certificate of the kind mentioned in subparagraph (vii),

(ix) the submission to a building control authority of an application for a certificate of compliance with respect to requirements under the building regulations for provision of access to a building for persons with disabilities (a 'disability access certificate') and enabling the building control authority to grant such certificate if in its opinion the design of the building or the extension of or material alteration to the building in respect of which the submission is made would comply (subject to any relevant dispensation or relaxation already granted under section 4 or 5 or to any appeal under section 7 which has been allowed) with the relevant requirements of the building regulations,

(x) the submission to a building control authority of an application for a fire safety certificate (in this Act also referred to as a 'revised fire safety certificate') or a disability access certificate (in this Act referred to as a 'revised disability access certificate') if significant revision is made to the design or works of a building or an extension of or a material alteration to a building in respect of which a fire safety certificate or a disability access certificate has been granted by a building control authority, and

(xi) that a new building, or an existing building in respect of which an extension or a material alteration has been made, shall not be opened, operated or occupied or permitted to be opened, operated or occupied—

(I) unless a fire safety certificate or disability access certificate (or, as the case may require, a revised certificate of either kind) or a regularisation certificate required by regulations under this Act has been granted by the building control authority in relation to the building, or

(II) if such an appeal is made to it, pending the determination by An Bord Pleanála of an appeal under section 7 relating to a refusal to grant any of the certificates or revised certificates referred to in clause (I) or the attachment of conditions to any of them;”,

(d) in subsection (2)(b), by substituting the following for subparagraph (i):

“(i) the form and content of—

(I) certificates of compliance,

(II) applications for fire safety certificates, revised fire safety certificates, regularisation certificates, disability access certificates and revised disability access certificates,

(III) each of the certificates referred to in clause (II),

(IV) 7 day notices and 7 day notice statutory declarations,

(V) applications for certificates of approval and certificates of approval,”

(e) in subsection (2)(b)(ii), by inserting “7 day notices, 7 day notice statutory declarations, revised fire safety certificates, regularisation certificates, disability access certificates, building energy rating certificates, revised disability access certificates” after “fire safety certificates,”

(f) in subsection (2)(h)(ii), by inserting “, 7 day notices, 7 day notice statutory declarations, revised fire safety certificates, regularisation certificates, disability access certificates, revised disability access certificates” after “fire safety certificates”,

(g) in subsection (2), by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (h):

“(ha) the exemption, in specified circumstances, from fees referred to in paragraph (h);”

(h) in subsection (2)(k), by substituting “regulations;” for “regulations.”,

(i) in subsection (2), by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (k)—

5 “(l) prescribing the period for which a building energy rating certificate (as provided for in section 6B) shall be valid and the time when it shall be provided to a person.”,

10 (j) in subsection (5), by inserting “, 7 day notice, revised fire safety certificate, regularisation certificate, disability access certificate, revised disability access certificate” after “fire safety certificate” in both places where it occurs in that subsection, and

15 (k) in subsection (6), by inserting “, 7 day notice, revised fire safety certificate, regularisation certificate, disability access certificate, revised disability access certificate” after “fire safety certificate”.

5.—The Act of 1990 is amended by inserting the following after section 6: Amendment of Act of 1990 — new sections 6A and 6B.

20 “Alternative energy systems for large buildings. 6A.—(1) Where a person proposes to construct a building with a total useful floor area exceeding 1,000 square metres, the person shall ensure, before work commences on its construction, that due consideration has been given to the technical, environmental and economic feasibility of using alternative energy systems in the proposed building, and use of such systems has been taken into account, as far as practicable, in the design of the proposed building.

30 (2) The alternative energy systems to be considered for the purposes of subsection (1) shall include—

 (a) decentralised energy supply systems, based on renewable energy,

35 (b) combined heat and power systems,

 (c) district or block heating or cooling, if available,

 (d) heat pumps.

40 (3) Compliance with the requirement specified in subsection (1) shall be demonstrated either by reference to—

45 (a) a study, approved by the Minister, which assesses the appropriateness or otherwise of the alternative energy systems which may be technically, environmentally and economically feasible for buildings or particular types of building, or

(b) a particular feasibility study carried out for the proposed building, and a study under paragraph (a) (subject to any technical requirements the Minister may specify in an approval under that paragraph that the technology must comply with) may be constituted by the employment of information technology for that purpose and the provision of the results therefrom.

(4) The feasibility study referred to in subsection (3)(b) shall be carried out by a suitably qualified person (who may employ appropriate information technology for that purpose), and shall include specific recommendations for or against the utilisation of alternative energy systems, including those specified in this section, to serve the building in question.

Requirements respecting a building energy rating certificate.

6B.—(1) A person who constructs a building of a prescribed class construction of which commenced on or after such date as may be prescribed for the purposes of this subsection shall, before such building is occupied for the first time, secure a building energy rating certificate (hereafter in this section referred to as a ‘BER certificate’) in relation to the building and shall produce such certificate—

(a) where the construction of the building was commissioned by another person, to that person, and

(b) to the building control authority in whose functional area the building is situated, on demand being made by that authority for its production.

(2) A person who offers for sale or letting (whether in writing or otherwise)—

(a) a building construction of which commenced on or after such date as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph (in subsection (5) referred to as a ‘new building’), or

(b) a building that is in existence on or before such date as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph,

and any agent acting on behalf of such person in connection with such offering, shall produce a BER certificate in relation to the building to any person expressing an interest in purchasing or taking a letting of the building and, on demand, to the building control authority in whose functional area the building is situated.

(3) A public body shall, in relation to a building occupied by it with a total useful floor area exceeding 1,000 square metres—

(a) construction of which commenced on or after such a date as may be prescribed, or

(b) that is in existence on or before such date as may be prescribed, secure and display a BER certificate in relation to the building in a prominent place clearly visible to the public.

(4) Different dates may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) and paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) in relation to different classes of building.

(5) Where a new building of a prescribed class is constructed, the following applies for the purposes of subsection (2):

(a) where the building is being offered for sale or letting (whether in writing or otherwise) on the basis of the plans for its construction, a provisional BER certificate in relation to the building shall be produced to any of the persons referred to in subsection (2); and

(b) on the completion of construction of the building referred to in paragraph (a), a BER certificate in relation to the building which takes account of any changes implemented during its construction shall be produced to any purchaser or tenant, before completion of such sale or letting, to the relevant building control authority if required by the authority to be produced to it.

(6) In this section—

‘building energy rating certificate’ or ‘BER certificate’ means a certificate respecting the rating of a building according to its energy performance that is—

(a) in a prescribed form and contains prescribed information,

(b) issued by a person who has successfully completed a prescribed training course, and

(c) accompanied by a report, prepared by the foregoing person, containing recommendations on how the energy performance of the building may be improved in a cost-effective manner, and the reference to a provisional such certificate is a reference to such a certificate respecting the rating of the relevant building according to its energy performance based on the plans for the building's construction referred to in subsection (5)(a);

'public body' means—

- (a) a Department of State,
- (b) the Office of the President, 5
- (c) the Office of the Attorney General,
- (d) the Office of the Comptroller and Auditor General,
- (e) the Office of the Houses of the Oireachtas, 10
- (f) a local authority,
- (g) the Health Service Executive,
- (h) a person, body or organisation (other than the Defence Forces) established— 15
 - (i) by or under any enactment (other than the Companies Acts), or
 - (ii) under the Companies Acts, in pursuance of powers conferred by or under another enactment, and 20 financed wholly or partly, whether directly or indirectly, by means of moneys provided, or loans made or guaranteed, by a Minister of the Government or shares held by 25 or on behalf of a Minister of the Government.

(7) The fee (if any) charged by a person referred to in subsection (6)(b) for the issuing by him or her of a BER certificate shall not exceed a prescribed amount (and different amounts may be prescribed by reference to different classes of building (as defined in the regulations for this purpose) in respect of which such certificates are issued).” 35

Amendment of section 7 (appeals) of Act of 1990.

6.—Section 7 of the Act of 1990 is amended—

(a) in subsection (1)—

- (i) in paragraph (c), by substituting “approval, or” for “approval,” and
- (ii) by inserting the following paragraphs after 40 paragraph (c):

“(d) section 6(2)(a)(vii), for a regularisation certificate, or

(e) section 6(2)(a)(ix), for a disability access certificate,”

(b) in subsection (3), by deleting paragraph (c).

5 7.—The Act of 1990 is amended by inserting the following after section 7: Amendment of Act of 1990 — new sections 7A and 7B.

“Fees in respect of an appeal.

10 7A.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister, An Bord Pleanála (hereafter in this section referred to as ‘the Board’) may determine that fees shall be payable in relation to appeals under section 7 and, subject to subsection (2), such a fee so determined shall be paid to the Board by the person making the appeal under section 7 at such time as the Board specifies.

15 (2) The power of the Board in relation to fees referred to in subsection (1) includes a power of the Board—

20 (a) to determine that different such fees shall be payable in respect of different classes of appeal under section 7,

 (b) to exempt a person from the requirement to pay any such fee in such circumstances as it determines, and

25 (c) to remit or refund in whole or in part any such fee that has been paid in such circumstances as it determines,

30 and the exercise of the power under paragraph (b) or (c) (as distinct from the determination of the circumstances in which the power shall be exercisable) shall not require the approval of the Minister.

35 (3) The Board shall review the fees determined under subsection (1) from time to time, but at least every three years, having regard to any change in the consumer price index since the determination of the fees for the time being in force, and may amend the fees to reflect the results of that review, without the necessity of the Minister’s approval under subsection (1).

45 (4) For the purposes of this section, ‘change in the consumer price index’ means the difference between the All Items Consumer Price Index Number last published by the Central Statistics Office before the date of the determination under this section and the said number last published before the date of the review under subsection (3), expressed as a percentage of the last-mentioned number.

(5) Where the Board determines or amends fees in accordance with this section, it shall give notice of the fees in at least one newspaper circulating in the State, not less than 8 weeks before the fees come into effect. 5

Provision with respect to amendment of this Act by S.I. No.872 of 2005. 7B.—The Minister shall be deemed always to have had the power to make the regulations under section 3 of the European Communities Act 1972 entitled the ‘European Communities (Energy Performance of Buildings) Regulations 2005’ (S.I. No. 872 of 2005) and, accordingly— 10

(a) the amendment of section 3(2) purported to have been made by those Regulations shall be deemed to have been validly made and to have been in operation as and from the date those Regulations were purported to have been made, and 15

(b) the Building Regulation (Amendment) Regulations 2005 (S.I. No. 873 of 2005) made in the purported exercise of the powers conferred by sections 3 and 18 shall be deemed to have been validly made and to have been in operation as and from the time that those Regulations provided that those Regulations were to come into operation.”. 20 25

Amendment of section 12 (order of High Court in relation to buildings and works) of Act of 1990. 8.—Section 12 of the Act of 1990 is amended by inserting the following after subsection (1): 30

“(1A) Where the construction of any building or works to which building regulations apply is or has been commenced or completed and in respect of which—

(a) a fire safety certificate, a disability access certificate or a regularisation certificate is required to be granted and such construction— 35

(i) is or has been commenced without the fire safety certificate, disability access certificate or regularisation certificate having been granted, or 40

(ii) is or has been completed without the fire safety certificate, disability access certificate or regularisation certificate having been granted,

or

(b) an enforcement notice has not been complied with, 45

the building control authority concerned may apply to the High Court for an order requiring the removal, alteration or making safe of any structure, service, fitting or equipment, or the discontinuance of any works or restricting or prohibiting the use of the building until the fire safety certificate, disability access certificate or regularisation certificate has been granted and 50 complied with or the enforcement notice has been complied with.”.

9.—Section 17 of the Act of 1990 is amended—

Amendment of section 17 (penalties) of Act of 1990.

(a) in subsections (1) and (2)(a)—

(i) by substituting “€5,000” for “£800”, and

(ii) by substituting “€500” for “£150”,

(b) in subsection (2)(b) by substituting “€25,000” for “£10,000”, and

(c) in subsection (5) by substituting “under this Act” for “to which subsection (1) applies”.

10.—The Act of 1990 is amended by inserting the following after section 17:

Amendment of Act of 1990 — new sections 17A and 17B.

“Payment of fines to building control authority.

17A.—Where a court imposes a fine or affirms or varies a fine imposed by another court for an offence under this Act in proceedings brought by a building control authority, it shall, on application of the building control authority (made before the time of such imposition, affirmation or variation), provide by order for the payment of the amount of the fine to the building control authority and such payment may be enforced by the authority as if it were due to it on foot of a decree or order made by the court in civil proceedings.

Evidential value of electronically stored information.

17B.—In any proceedings under this Act, a certificate issued by a building control authority purporting to be a printout of data stored by the authority in electronic format or data stored in photographic, digitised or other modern format, being, in either case, data relating to the performance by the authority of any function under this Act or to any plans, documents or information submitted to it under this Act or regulations thereunder, shall have evidential value.”.

PART 3

REGISTRATION OF ARCHITECTS

11.—(1) The Royal Institute of Architects of Ireland shall be the registration body for the purposes of this Part.

Registration body and Admissions Board (Part 3).

(2) For the purposes of the Directive, the registration body is the competent authority in the State as respects architects.

(3) The registration body shall establish an Admissions Board for the purpose of registering persons under this Part.

(4) The Admissions Board shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

- (a) 3 architects nominated for such appointment by the registration body; 5
- (b) 4 persons nominated for such appointment by the Minister, being persons who are not architects.

(5) The chairperson of the Admissions Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister. 10

Registration of architects.

12.—(1) The registration body shall establish a register for architects (the “register”).

(2) Each of the following is eligible for registration in the register:

- (a) a graduate of— 15
 - (i) the National University of Ireland,
 - (ii) the Dublin Institute of Technology, or
 - (iii) such other educational body as may be prescribed, who has received from it the degree of B. Arch., the diploma, Dipl. Arch. or such other degree, diploma or qualification as may be prescribed and who, in each case— 20
 - (I) has passed a professional practice examination specified by the body referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), as the case may be, or 25
 - (II) can demonstrate that he or she has 7 years of post-graduate experience of performing duties commensurate with those of an architect such as would entitle the person to seek the grant of an exemption by the body referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), as appropriate, from having to undergo the examination referred to in clause (I); 30
- (b) a person who is a fellow or member of the registration body on the date of the passing of this Act;
- (c) a person eligible for such registration by virtue of section 13 or 14 (which relate to holders of qualifications from other states); 35
- (d) a person in respect of whom a notice in writing, dated 7 January 1997, 13 March 1997 or 11 June 1997, was sent by the Minister for the Environment (whether to the person or to an organisation representing the person in the matter) stating that the person was successful in his or her application to be included in the relevant list; 40
- (e) a person who has been employed in the State for at least 7 years under the supervision of an architect (who is eligible for registration under this section) and who, as 45 part of a social betterment scheme or part-time third level course, attains a certificate or diploma of degree standard equivalent to any degree, diploma or qualification referred to in paragraph (a) and who has passed a professional practice examination specified by a body referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of that paragraph;

(f) a person who—

(i) has at least 7 years' practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of an architect,

(ii) is at least 35 years of age, and

(iii) has passed a prescribed register admission examination;

(g) a person (not being a person who is eligible for registration pursuant to section 13 or 14) who—

(i) has been awarded in a state, other than a Member State or a state which is a member of the World Trade Organisation, a degree, diploma or other qualification in architecture, and

(ii) can demonstrate that he or she has sufficient post-graduate experience of performing duties commensurate with those of an architect;

(h) a person who has been assessed as eligible for registration by the Technical Assessment Board established under section 19 and in accordance with the procedures provided under section 20;

(i) an Irish citizen who as attested by a certificate of the registration body is authorised by the registration body to use the title of "architect" by virtue of the distinguished quality of his or her work in the field of architecture (which authorisation the registration body is empowered, by virtue of this paragraph, to grant).

(3) The registration body may accept as sufficient compliance by a person with subsection (2)(a)(II) a statutory declaration by the person that he or she possesses the experience referred to in that provision.

(4) Membership of the registration body is not a prerequisite for registration in the register or continuance of registration but all registered professionals are eligible for membership of the registration body and the same fee shall be charged for registration in the register whether or not the particular person is a member of the registration body.

(5) No prescribing in respect of an educational body or in respect of any degree, diploma or other qualification that is awarded or conferred by it shall be done for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) unless the Minister is satisfied that the course provided by the body leading to the award or conferral of the degree, diploma or other qualification provides the requisite instruction in the various elements of the discipline of architecture.

(6) For the purposes of the Minister satisfying himself or herself of the foregoing matter, the Minister shall consult with the National Qualifications Authority of Ireland or the Higher Education and Training Awards Council as appropriate.

(7) In subsection (2)(d) “relevant list” means the list of persons whom the Minister had proposed to certify under the terms of the amendment that the State had proposed should be made, in accordance with the procedures under the Treaty establishing the European Community, to Council Directive 85/384/EEC of 10 June 1985 on the mutual recognition of diplomas, certificates and other evidence of formal qualifications in architecture, including measures to facilitate the effective exercise of the right of establishment and freedom to provide services.

Registration of nationals from certain other states
— main categories of such nationals.

13.—(1) In addition to the persons so eligible otherwise under this Part, each of the following is eligible for registration in the register:

- (a) a national of a Member State who holds evidence of a formal qualification as an architect listed in Annex V, point 5.7.1 of the Directive that satisfies the minimum training conditions referred to in Article 46 of the Directive and which is accompanied, if appropriate, by a certificate listed in Annex V, point 5.7.1 of the Directive;
- (b) a national of a Member State who holds evidence of a formal qualification as an architect listed in Annex VI, point 6 of the Directive (whether or not it satisfies the minimum training requirements referred to in Article 46 of the Directive) and which is accompanied by a certificate of the competent authority of the Member State which issued the qualification stating that the person was authorised to use the professional title of architect, the date on which the person was so authorised (which date shall not be later than the respective date within the meaning of Article 49(2) of the Directive), and that he or she has been performing duties commensurate with those of an architect for at least 3 consecutive years during the 5 years preceding the date of the award of the certificate;
- (c) a national of a Member State who has been awarded in a Member State a qualification that the State, pursuant to a relevant measure, is obliged to recognise as corresponding to a qualification referred to in section 12(2);
- (d) a national of a Member State who, as attested by a certificate of the competent authority of his or her home Member State, is authorised to use the title of architect by virtue of a law in that Member State that gives that competent authority the power to award that title to a national of a Member State who is especially distinguished by the quality of his or her work in the field of architecture;
- (e) a person who holds evidence of formal qualifications issued by a state, other than a Member State, and which is accompanied by a certificate issued by the competent authority of a Member State that recognised the qualifications that the person performed duties commensurate with those of an architect for 3 years in the territory of that Member State;

5 (f) a national or resident of a state who, by virtue of the following agreement, is entitled to have his or her qualifications in the field of architecture recognised in the State, namely, an agreement that—

(i) is entered into between the European Union and the World Trade Organisation, and

10 (ii) provides for the recognition by the states to which the agreement relates of qualifications of a class specified in the agreement;

15 (g) a national of a Member State who is not eligible for registration in the register under any of the preceding paragraphs but who is eligible for such registration under one of the derogations to Article 46 of the Directive provided for in Article 47 of the Directive as follows, namely—

20 (i) by the person's obtaining training existing as of 5 August 1985 provided by 'Fachhochschulen' in the Federal Republic of Germany over a period of 3 years, followed by, as attested by a certificate of the professional association in whose roll the person appears, a 4 year period during which he or she performed duties commensurate with those of an architect, or

25 (ii) by the person's having—

30 (I) been employed for not less than 7 years under the supervision of an architect who is eligible for registration under this Part, or who is registered in the register,

(II) as part of a social betterment scheme or part-time third level course, attained a certificate or diploma of university standard, and 35 (III) passed a professional practice examination in a Member State.

40 (2) The entry of a person's name in the register pursuant to subsection (1) (other than paragraph (f) thereof) may be subject to the Admissions Board being satisfied that the person applying for registration pursuant to that subsection has a knowledge of language necessary for practising architecture in the State.

(3) In relation to an application for registration pursuant to subsection (1) (other than paragraph (f) thereof), the Admissions Board may seek verification of documents furnished to it in accordance with Article 50 of the Directive.

45 (4) A person who is registered pursuant to subsection (1) (other than paragraph (f) thereof) or section 14 shall, when using his or her academic title or an abbreviation of it, express the title or abbreviation in the language or one of the languages of the Member State in which the body conferring the title is located and shall follow
50 it with the name and location of such body.

(5) The Admissions Board shall make a decision on whether or not to register an applicant pursuant to subsection (1) (other than paragraph (f) thereof) as quickly as possible and, in any event, within 3 months after the date of submission of the completed documentation by the applicant to the Board. 5

Further category of nationals from certain other states who are eligible for registration.

14.—(1) A person who wishes to be registered by virtue of satisfying conditions for recognition of his or her qualifications under Chapter I of Title III of the Directive may apply to the Admissions Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in pursuance of this section. 10

(2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Admissions Board:

- (a) an attestation of competence issued by another Member State in relation to that person;
- (b) evidence of formal qualifications; 15
- (c) where appropriate, evidence that the person has, on a full time basis, performed duties commensurate with those of an architect for not less than 2 years during the previous 10 years.

(3) The Admissions Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary. 20

(4) Where an interview is required, at least 4 members of the Admissions Board shall be present for the interview. 25

(5) The interview shall be recorded in writing or in such other form as the Admissions Board may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.

(6) An applicant may be accompanied at the interview by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant. 30

(7) In relation to an application under this section, the Admissions Board may seek verification of documents furnished to it in accordance with Article 50 of the Directive. 35

(8) The Admissions Board may decide, in accordance with Article 14 of the Directive, that a person who makes an application under this section, shall complete an adaptation period of up to 3 years or take an aptitude test before it decides whether he or she is eligible for registration pursuant to this section. 40

(9) The Admissions Board shall satisfy itself that the person who makes an application under this section has a knowledge of language necessary for practising architecture in the State.

(10) Where the Admissions Board decides— 45

- (a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, it shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or

(b) that—

10 (ii) the applicant should complete an adaptation period or take an aptitude test or obtain a knowledge of language necessary for practising architecture in the State before it can decide whether or not he or she is eligible for such registration in the register,

15 the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

20 (11) The Admissions Board shall make a decision on whether or not a person is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section as quickly as possible and, in any event (but subject to subsection (12)), within 3 months after the date of submission of the completed documentation by the applicant to the Board.

25 (12) If in the particular circumstances of the matter the Admissions Board determines that it is not practicable for it to make the decision referred to in subsection (11) within the period referred to in that subsection it may, by notice in writing sent, by prepaid registered post, to the applicant, extend that period once or more than once (but the period or the aggregate of the periods of such extension shall not be more than one month).

30 15.—(1) A person applying for registration under this Part shall, at the time of applying, pay the specified fee to the registration body and, in addition, as a condition of continuing to be registered, pay a specified annual fee on a date as may be specified by the registration body. Fees (Part 3).

35 (2) Where the Registrar has twice sent a notice by prepaid registered post to a registered professional's address as given in the register, requesting payment of the annual fee the Registrar may, if the person has not paid the fee within 2 months after sending the second notice, remove the person's name from the register and thereupon shall send a notice by prepaid registered post informing the person that he or she is no longer registered.

40 (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Registrar may, in cases of verified hardship, waive the requirement to pay a fee under this section, direct that a fee of an amount lesser than the specified amount may be paid for the purposes of this section or remit a fee paid under this section, in whole or in part.

45 (4) Where a person's name has been removed from the register for non-payment of fees and the person pays the outstanding fees together with any other specified fees, the Registrar shall re-enter the person's name in the register and it shall be treated as having been re-entered on the date it was removed.

16.—(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a person who—

- (a) not being registered under this Part, uses the title “architect”, either alone or in combination with any other words or letters, or name, title or description, implying that the person is so registered, 5
- (b) with intent to deceive, makes use of a certificate issued under this Part to such person or any other person,
- (c) makes or causes to be made, any false declaration or misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining registration under this Part, or aids or abets such action, 10 or
- (d) practises or carries on business under any name, style or title containing the word “architect”, unless he or she is registered under this Part,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both. 15

(2) If the contravention in respect of which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is continued after the conviction, the person shall be guilty of a further offence on every day on which the contravention continues and for each such offence the person shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €500. 20

(3) Subsection (1) does not prevent a body corporate, firm or partnership from carrying on business under a name, style or title containing the word “architect” if— 25

- (a) the business, so far as it relates to architecture, is under the control and management of a registered professional, and
- (b) in all premises where its business relating to architecture is carried on, it is by or under the supervision of a registered professional. 30

(4) The use by a person of the words—

- (a) “landscape architect”,
- (b) “naval architect”,
- (c) “architectural technician”,
- (d) “architectural technologist”, 35
- (e) “interior design architect”, or
- (f) such other words as may be prescribed, to describe himself or herself does not, in and of itself, constitute a contravention of subsection (1).

(5) The registration body may by rules provide that subsection (3) shall not apply in relation to a body corporate, firm or partnership unless it has provided to the registration body such information, necessary for determining whether that subsection applies, as may be provided for in such rules. 40

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person is not to be regarded as not practising by reason only of that person being in the employment of another person.

5 (7) In this section, “business” includes any undertaking which is carried on for fee or reward or in the course of which services are provided otherwise than free of charge.

17.—(1) The registration body shall appoint a Registrar to be Registrar (Part 3). responsible for keeping the register under this Part.

10 (2) The registration body, in addition to paying the Registrar a salary or fee, may pay a pension to the Registrar or make contributions to the payment of a pension, and may pay the Registrar allowances and expenses.

(3) The register shall be in such form, including electronic, photographic or other form, as the registration body decides.

15 (4) Where a person has applied for registration in accordance with this Part, if the Admissions Board is satisfied that the person is entitled to be registered, the Registrar shall enter the person’s name in the register.

20 (5) Where a person’s name is entered in the register, the Registrar shall send to the person a certificate stating that the person is registered.

25 (6) Where a person receives a certificate under subsection (5), the person shall forthwith cause the certificate to be displayed at the place where the person practises architecture at all times during which his or her registration continues, but not otherwise.

(7) The Registrar shall ensure the register is kept up to date and shall make it available for inspection at the office of the Registrar during normal working hours.

30 (8) A registered professional shall notify the Registrar of any change in the name under which or the address at which he or she carries on business.

18.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), a registered professional may Removal from register (Part 3). apply to the Registrar to have his or her name removed from the register and, on receipt of the application and on payment of the specified fee, the Registrar shall remove it.

40 (2) A person whose name has been removed from the register may apply to the Registrar to have his or her name restored to the register and, on application and payment of the specified fee, but subject to any conditions imposed by the Admissions Board with respect to such restoration, the Registrar shall restore it to the register.

45 (3) Where a complaint is being investigated by the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6 in relation to a person, no application shall be entertained by the Registrar to remove the person’s name from the register until the investigation has been completed and the Committee has decided what action to take.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent a Professional Conduct Committee from refusing to restore a person’s name to the register on the grounds of unfitness to practise architecture or attaching conditions to such restoration.

(5) Where the Professional Conduct Committee decides to refuse to so restore a person's name or decides to attach conditions to such restoration, the Registrar shall forthwith send a notice to the person by prepaid registered post to the last address given in the register informing the person of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

Technical
Assessment Board
(Part 3).

19.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Technical Assessment Board to consider applications for registration in the register from persons who do not fall within any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of section 12(2).

(2) The Technical Assessment Board shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

(a) 3 architects nominated for such appointment by the registration body;

(b) 4 persons nominated for such appointment by the Minister, being persons who are not architects.

(3) The chairperson of the Technical Assessment Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

(4) The Technical Assessment Board shall establish a panel of architects being architects who the Board considers possess the requisite expertise for the purpose of performing the functions assigned to members of the panel under subsection (5).

(5) The Technical Assessment Board shall, in respect of each application under section 20, appoint not less than 3 of the members of the panel established under subsection (4) to—

(a) examine the documents furnished to the Board under subsection (2) of that section (and any additional information furnished to it under subsection (3) of that section),

(b) interview the applicant, and

(c) give to the Board their opinion as to whether the applicant is eligible for registration pursuant to that section.

Technical
Assessment Board
procedure (Part 3).

20.—(1) The following person may apply to the Technical Assessment Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in the register pursuant to this section, namely, a person who has been performing duties commensurate with those of an architect for a period of 10 or more years in the State (but no period of such performance that occurs on or after the passing of this Act shall be reckoned for the purposes of this subsection).

(2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Technical Assessment Board:

(a) a curriculum vitae providing details of the work carried out by the applicant in the field of architecture during the period referred to in subsection (1);

5 (b) information on projects for each year of that period for which the applicant was responsible, declarations as to the authorship of the projects and all documentation necessary to support the information;

10 (c) a file containing at least 4 projects, including graphic material, for which the applicant was responsible, being projects that the applicant considers are the most suitable for the purposes of the consideration of his or her application;

15 (d) such independent verification, as the Technical Assessment Board may reasonably require, of the documentation submitted under this subsection.

(3) The Technical Assessment Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary; such an interview shall be in addition to the interview conducted by the members of the panel referred to in section 19(5) (which latter interview is subsequently referred to in this section as the “panel interview”).

25 (4) Where an interview under this section is required, at least 4 members of the Technical Assessment Board shall be present for the interview.

30 (5) The panel interview and any interview under this section shall each be recorded in writing or in such other form as the members of the panel concerned or the Technical Assessment Board, as appropriate, may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.

35 (6) An applicant may be accompanied at the panel interview and any interview under this section by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant.

(7) The Technical Assessment Board shall use the following criteria in assessing an application under this section:

40 (a) whether or not for the period referred to in subsection (1), the applicant had been performing duties commensurate with those of an architect;

(b) whether or not the work submitted was equivalent to the work of an architect, having regard to its scale, complexity and quality;

45 (c) whether or not the applicant can demonstrate that he or she has acquired the competencies specified in Article 46 of the Directive;

50 (d) whether or not the work submitted had been realised by the applicant, and, if the applicant was not totally responsible, what level of responsibility by the applicant for the work could be established, and, in addition, shall have regard to the opinion of the architects referred to in section 19(5) as to whether the applicant is eligible for registration pursuant to this section (but that opinion shall not be binding on the Board).

(8) Where the Technical Assessment Board decides— 5

(a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall advise the Admissions Board which shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or 10

(b) that the applicant is not eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it. 15

Professional
Conduct Committee
(Part 3).

21.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Professional Conduct Committee (the “Committee”).

(2) The Committee shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows: 20

(a) 3 architects nominated for such appointment by the registration body;

(b) 4 persons who are not architects—

(i) 3 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and 25

(ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment.

(3) The chairperson of the Committee shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment. 30

Appeals Board
(Part 3).

22.—(1) The registration body shall establish an Appeals Board. 35

(2) The Appeals Board shall consist of a chairperson and 5 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

(a) 2 architects nominated for such appointment by the registration body, neither of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part; 40

(b) 3 persons who are not architects—

(i) 2 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and 45

(ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment,

5 none of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part.

(3) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

10 23.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Admissions Board, the Technical Assessment Board or the Professional Conduct Committee may appeal to the Appeals Board against the decision. Appeals procedure (Part 3).

15 (2) An appeal shall be in writing and lodged with the Appeals Board within 3 months after the date of the decision being appealed against.

(3) The appeal shall specify the decision to which the appeal relates and the grounds on which the appeal rests.

20 (4) An appeal may be based on either procedural or substantive matters.

(5) A person may, at any time before the appeal is heard, withdraw the appeal in whole or in part by notifying the Appeals Board in writing of the withdrawal.

25 (6) A witness at a hearing conducted by the Appeals Board has the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court.

(7) The chairperson of the Appeals Board may—

30 (a) direct in writing an appellant to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction,

35 (b) direct in writing any other person whose evidence the Appeals Board may require, to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction, and may direct the person to bring any document in the person's possession relating to the appeal,

40 (c) request the relevant Board or Committee whose decision is being appealed against to produce any documents in its possession relating to the appeal, together with its observations on the appeal,

(d) give any other direction for the purpose of the proceedings that appears to the chairperson to be fair and reasonable.

(8) The procedures of the Appeals Board shall make provision for—

45 (a) notifying the appellant and the chairperson of the relevant Board or Committee of the date, time and place of the sitting of the Appeals Board,

- (b) advising the appellant of the appellant’s right—
 - (i) to be present at the Appeals Board’s sitting, and
 - (ii) to present his or her case in person or, at his or her own expense, through a legal representative,
 - (c) the examination of witnesses, 5
 - (d) determination by the Appeals Board as to whether or not evidence should be given under oath,
 - (e) recording of proceedings.
- (9) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Appeals Board may— 10
- (a) confirm the decision of the relevant Board or Committee, subject to any amendment thereof the Appeals Board thinks fit,
 - (b) annul the decision and direct the relevant Board or Committee to make a new decision, or 15
 - (c) give such other directions as it thinks fit.
- (10) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall notify—
- (a) the appellant in writing, sent by prepaid registered post to the appellant’s stated address, of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it, and shall also advise the appellant of the right to appeal to the High Court against the Appeal Board’s decision, 20
 - (b) the relevant Board or Committee against whose decision the appeal was made of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it, 25
 - (c) where the appellant was the person who had lodged the complaint with the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6, the registered architect in respect of whom the complaint was made, stating the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it. 30

Appeal to High Court from decision of Appeals Board (Part 3).

24.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Appeals Board may, within 3 months after the date of such decision, appeal to the High Court against the decision. 35

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Court may—

- (a) confirm the decision of the Appeals Board, subject to any amendment thereof the Court thinks fit,
- (b) annul the decision and direct the Appeals Board to make a new decision, or 40
- (c) give such other directions as the Court thinks fit, and the Court may direct how the costs of the appeal are to be borne.

5 (3) On the hearing of an appeal under this section from a decision of the Appeals Board relating to a decision of the Professional Conduct Committee, the High Court may admit evidence of any person of standing in the architectural profession as to what constitutes professional misconduct.

25.—(1) If the Admissions Board fails to make a decision—

Certain other jurisdiction of Appeals Board (Part 3).

(a) referred to in subsection (5) of section 13 within the period specified in that subsection, or

(b) referred to in subsection (11) of section 14 within—

10 (i) unless subparagraph (ii) applies, the period specified in that subsection, or 15 (ii) if that period has been extended under subsection (12) of section 14, the period of that extension (or, if that period has been extended more than once under that subsection (12), the last period of such extension), the applicant referred to in section 13 or 14 may make a complaint to the Appeals Board that such a failure has occurred.

20 (2) On the hearing of such a complaint and having given the Admissions Board an opportunity to be heard, the Appeals Board may, as it thinks appropriate—

(a) give a direction to the Admissions Board to make the decision concerned forthwith, or 25 (b) make itself a decision on the application concerned referred to in section 13 or 14 (and where the Appeals Board does so section 24 shall apply to such a decision as it applies to any other decision of the Appeals Board).

PART 4

REGISTRATION OF QUANTITY SURVEYORS

30 26.—(1) The Society of Chartered Surveyors shall be the registration body for the purposes of this Part.

practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a quantity surveyor;

- 5 (h) a person eligible for such registration by virtue of section 28 (which relates to holders of qualifications from other states);
- (i) a national or resident of a state who, by virtue of the following agreement, is entitled to have his or her qualifications in the field of quantity surveying recognised in the State, namely, an agreement that—
- 10 (i) is entered into between the European Union and the World Trade Organisation, and
- (ii) provides for the recognition by the states to which the agreement relates of qualifications of a class specified in the agreement;
- 15 (j) a national of a Member State who has been awarded in a Member State a qualification that the State, pursuant to a relevant measure, is obliged to recognise as corresponding to a qualification referred to in paragraph (a);
- 20 (k) a person (not being a person who is eligible for registration pursuant to section 28) who—
- (i) has been awarded in a state, other than a Member State or a state which is a member of the World Trade Organisation, a degree, diploma or other qualification in quantity surveying, and
- 25 (ii) can demonstrate that he or she has sufficient post-graduate experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a quantity surveyor;
- (l) a person who has been assessed as eligible for registration by the Technical Assessment Board established under section 33 and in accordance with the procedures provided under section 34.
- 30

(3) Membership of the registration body is not a prerequisite for registration in the register or continuance of registration and the same fee shall be charged for registration in the register whether or not the particular person is a member of the registration body.

35

(4) No prescribing in respect of an educational body or in respect of any degree, diploma or other qualification that is awarded or conferred by it shall be done for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) unless the Minister is satisfied that the course provided by the body leading to the award or conferral of the degree, diploma or other qualification provides the requisite instruction in the various elements of the discipline of quantity surveying.

40

(5) For the purposes of the Minister satisfying himself or herself of the foregoing matter, the Minister shall consult with the National Qualifications Authority of Ireland or the Higher Education and Training Awards Council as appropriate.

45

- 28.—(1) A person who wishes to be registered by virtue of satisfying conditions for recognition of his or her qualifications under Chapter I of Title III of the Directive may apply to the Admissions Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in pursuance of this section. 5
- (2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Admissions Board:
- (a) an attestation of competence issued by another Member State in relation to that person;
 - (b) evidence of formal qualifications; 10
 - (c) where appropriate, evidence that the person has, on a full time basis, performed duties commensurate with those of a quantity surveyor for not less than 2 years during the previous 10 years.
- (3) The Admissions Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary. 15
- (4) Where an interview is required, at least 4 members of the Admissions Board shall be present for the interview. 20
- (5) The interview shall be recorded in writing or in such other form as the Admissions Board may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.
- (6) An applicant may be accompanied at the interview by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant. 25
- (7) In relation to an application under this section, the Admissions Board may seek independent verification of documents furnished to it in accordance with Article 50 of the Directive. 30
- (8) The Admissions Board may decide, in accordance with Article 14 of the Directive, that a person who makes an application under this section shall complete an adaptation period of up to 3 years or take an aptitude test before it decides whether he or she is eligible for registration pursuant to this section. 35
- (9) The Admissions Board shall satisfy itself that the person who makes an application under this section has a knowledge of language necessary for practising quantity surveying in the State.
- (10) Where the Admissions Board decides— 40
- (a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, it shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or
 - (b) that— 45
 - (i) the applicant is not eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, or

(ii) the applicant should complete an adaptation period or take an aptitude test or obtain a knowledge of language necessary for practising quantity surveying in the State before it can decide whether or not he or she is eligible for such registration in the register,

the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

(11) A person who is registered pursuant to this section shall, when using his or her academic title or an abbreviation of it, express the title or abbreviation in the language or one of the languages of the Member State in which the body conferring the title is located and shall follow it with the name and location of such body.

(12) The Admissions Board shall make a decision on whether or not a person is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section as quickly as possible, and in any event (but subject to subsection (13)), within 3 months after the date of submission of the completed documentation by the applicant to the Board.

(13) If in the particular circumstances of the matter the Admissions Board determines that it is not practicable for it to make the decision referred to in subsection (12) within the period referred to in that subsection it may, by notice in writing sent, by prepaid registered post, to the applicant, extend that period once or more than once (but the period or the aggregate of the periods of such extension shall not be more than one month).

29.—(1) A person applying for registration under this Part shall, at the time of applying, pay the specified fee to the registration body and, in addition, as a condition of continuing to be registered, pay a specified annual fee on a date as may be specified by the registration body. Fees (Part 4).

(2) Where the Registrar has twice sent a notice by prepaid registered post to a registered professional's address as given in the register, requesting payment of the annual fee the Registrar may, if the person has not paid the fee within 2 months after sending the second notice, remove the person's name from the register and thereupon shall send a notice by prepaid registered post informing the person that he or she is no longer registered.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Registrar may, in cases of verified hardship, waive the requirement to pay a fee under this section, direct that a fee of an amount lesser than the specified amount may be paid for the purposes of this section or remit a fee paid under this section, in whole or in part.

(4) Where a person's name has been removed from the register for non-payment of fees and the person pays the outstanding fees together with any other specified fees, the Registrar shall re-enter the person's name in the register and it shall be treated as having been re-entered on the date it was removed.

Prohibition against using term “quantity surveyor” unless registered.

30.—(1) A person who—

- (a) not being registered under this Part, uses the title “quantity surveyor”, either alone or in combination with any other words or letters, or name, title or description, implying that the person is so registered, 5
- (b) with intent to deceive, makes use of a certificate issued under this Part to such person or any other person,
- (c) makes or causes to be made, any false declaration or misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining registration under this Part, or aids or abets such action, 10 or
- (d) practises or carries on business under any name, style or title containing the words “quantity surveyor”, unless he or she is registered under this Part,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both. 15

(2) If the contravention in respect of which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is continued after the conviction, the person shall be guilty of a further offence on every day on which the contravention continues and for each such offence the person shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €500. 20

(3) Subsection (1) does not prevent a body corporate, firm or partnership from carrying on business under a name, style or title containing the words “quantity surveyor” if— 25

- (a) the business, so far as it relates to quantity surveying, is under the control and management of a registered professional, and
- (b) in all premises where its business relating to quantity surveying is carried on, it is by or under the supervision of a registered professional. 30

(4) The registration body may by rules provide that subsection (3) shall not apply in relation to a body corporate, firm or partnership unless it has provided to the registration body such information, necessary for determining whether that subsection applies, as may be provided for in such rules. 35

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is not to be regarded as not practising by reason only of that person being in the employment of another person.

(6) In this section, “business” includes any undertaking which is carried on for fee or reward or in the course of which services are provided otherwise than free of charge. 40

Registrar (Part 4).

31.—(1) The registration body shall appoint a Registrar to be responsible for keeping the register under this Part.

(2) The registration body, in addition to paying the Registrar a salary or fee, may pay a pension to the Registrar or make contributions to the payment of a pension, and may pay the Registrar allowances and expenses. 45

- (3) The register shall be in such form, including electronic, photographic or other form, as the registration body decides.
- (4) Where a person has applied for registration in accordance with this Part, if the Admissions Board is satisfied that the person is entitled to be registered, the Registrar shall enter the person's name in the register.
- (5) Where a person's name is entered in the register, the Registrar shall send to the person a certificate stating that the person is registered.
- 10 (6) Where a person receives a certificate under subsection (5), the person shall forthwith cause the certificate to be displayed at the place where the person practises quantity surveying at all times during which his or her registration continues, but not otherwise.
- 15 (7) The Registrar shall ensure the register is kept up to date and shall make it available for inspection at the office of the Registrar during normal working hours.
- (8) A registered professional shall notify the Registrar of any change in the name under which or the address at which he or she carries on business.
- 20 32.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), a registered professional may apply to the Registrar to have his or her name removed from the register and, on receipt of the application and on payment of the specified fee, the Registrar shall remove it. Removal from register (Part 4).
- 25 (2) A person whose name has been removed from the register may apply to the Registrar to have his or her name restored to the register and, on application and payment of the specified fee, but subject to any conditions imposed by the Admissions Board with respect to such restoration, the Registrar shall restore it to the register.
- 30 (3) Where a complaint is being investigated by the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6 in relation to a person, no application shall be entertained by the Registrar to remove the person's name from the register until the investigation has been completed and the Committee has decided what action to take.
- 35 (4) Nothing in this section shall prevent a Professional Conduct Committee from refusing to restore a person's name to the register on the grounds of unfitness to practise quantity surveying or attaching conditions to such restoration.
- 40 (5) Where the Professional Conduct Committee decides to refuse to so restore a person's name or decides to attach conditions to such restoration, the Registrar shall forthwith send a notice to the person by prepaid registered post to the last address given in the register informing the person of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.
- 45 33.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Technical Assessment Board to consider applications for registration in the register from persons who do not fall within any of paragraphs (a) to (l) of section 27(2). Technical Assessment Board (Part 4).

(2) The Technical Assessment Board shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

- (a) 3 quantity surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (e) and (f) of section 27(2);
- (b) 4 persons nominated for such appointment by the Minister, being persons who are not quantity surveyors.

(3) The chairperson of the Technical Assessment Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

Technical Assessment Board procedure (Part 4).

34.—(1) Each of the following may apply to the Technical Assessment Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in the register pursuant to this section:

- (a) a person who—
 - (i) on 1 January 2001 was a non-corporate member of the Chartered Institute of Building, the Architecture and Surveying Institute (now merged with the Chartered Institute of Building), the Association of Building Engineers or the Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors, and
 - (ii) has been performing duties commensurate with those of a quantity surveyor for a period of 8 or more years in the State (but no period of such performance that occurs on or after the passing of this Act shall be reckoned for the purposes of this subparagraph);
- (b) a person who has been performing duties commensurate with those of a quantity surveyor for a period of 10 or more years in the State (but no period of such performance that occurs on or after the passing of this Act shall be reckoned for the purposes of this paragraph).

(2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Technical Assessment Board:

- (a) a curriculum vitae providing details of the work carried out by the applicant in the field of quantity surveying during the period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) of subsection (1); and
- (b) such independent verification, as the Technical Assessment Board may require, of the documentation so submitted.

(3) The Technical Assessment Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary.

(4) Where an interview is required, at least 4 members of the Technical Assessment Board shall be present for the interview.

(5) The interview shall be recorded in writing or in such other form as the Technical Assessment Board may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.

5 (6) An applicant may be accompanied at the interview by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant.

(7) Where the Technical Assessment Board decides—

10 (a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall advise the Admissions Board which shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or

15 (b) that the applicant is not eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

35.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Professional Conduct Committee (the “Committee”). Professional Conduct Committee (Part 4).

25 (2) The Committee shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

(a) 3 quantity surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (e) and (f) of section 27(2);

30 (b) 4 persons who are not quantity surveyors—

(i) 3 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and

35 (ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment.

40 (3) The chairperson of the Committee shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment.

36.—(1) The registration body shall establish an Appeals Board. Appeals Board (Part 4).

(2) The Appeals Board shall consist of a chairperson and 5 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows:

45 (a) 2 quantity surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (e) and (f) of section 27(2), neither of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part;

(b) 3 persons who are not quantity surveyors—

(i) 2 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and 5

(ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment, none of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part. 10

(3) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

Appeals procedure
(Part 4).

37.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Admissions Board, the Technical Assessment Board or the Professional Conduct Committee may appeal to the Appeals Board against the decision. 15

(2) An appeal shall be in writing and lodged with the Appeals Board within 2 months after the date of the decision being appealed against. 20

(3) The appeal shall specify the decision to which the appeal relates and the grounds on which the appeal rests.

(4) An appeal may be based on either procedural or substantive matters. 25

(5) A person may, at any time before the appeal is heard, withdraw the appeal in whole or in part by notifying the Appeals Board in writing of the withdrawal.

(6) A witness at a hearing conducted by the Appeals Board has the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court. 30

(7) The chairperson of the Appeals Board may—

(a) direct in writing an appellant to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction, 35

(b) direct in writing any other person whose evidence the Appeals Board may require, to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction, and may direct the person to bring any document in the person's possession relating to the appeal, 40

(c) request the relevant Board or Committee whose decision is being appealed against to produce any documents in its possession relating to the appeal, together with its observations on the appeal, 45

(d) give any other direction for the purpose of the proceedings that appears to the chairperson to be fair and reasonable.

(8) The procedures of the Appeals Board shall make provision for—

- 5 (a) notifying the appellant and the chairperson of the relevant Board or Committee of the date, time and place of the sitting of the Appeals Board,
- (b) advising the appellant of the appellant's right—
- 10 (i) to be present at the Appeals Board's sitting, and
- (ii) to present his or her case in person or, at his or her own expense, through a legal representative,
- (c) the examination of witnesses,
- (d) determination by the Appeals Board as to whether or not evidence should be given under oath,
- 15 (e) recording of proceedings.

(9) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Appeals Board may—

- 20 (a) confirm the decision of the relevant Board or Committee, subject to any amendment thereof the Appeals Board thinks fit,
- (b) annul the decision and direct the relevant Board or Committee to make a new decision, or
- (c) give such other directions as it thinks fit.

(10) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall notify—

- 25 (a) the appellant in writing, sent by prepaid registered post to the appellant's stated address, of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it, and shall also advise the appellant of the right to appeal to the High Court against the Appeal Board's decision,
- 30 (b) the relevant Board or Committee against whose decision the appeal was made of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it,
- 35 (c) where the appellant was the person who had lodged the complaint with the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6, the registered quantity surveyor in respect of whom the complaint was made, stating the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

40 38.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Appeals Board may, within 2 months after the date of such decision, appeal to the High Court against the decision.

Appeal to High Court from decision of Appeals Board (Part 4).

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Court may—

- (a) confirm the decision of the Appeals Board, subject to any amendment thereof the Court thinks fit,
- (b) annul the decision and direct the Appeals Board to make a new decision, or
- (c) give such other directions as the Court thinks fit, 5

and the Court may direct how the costs of the appeal are to be borne.

(3) On the hearing of an appeal under this section from a decision of the Appeals Board relating to a decision of the Professional Conduct Committee, the High Court may admit evidence of any person of standing in the quantity surveying profession as to what constitutes professional misconduct. 10

Certain other jurisdiction of Appeals Board (Part 4).

39.—(1) If the Admissions Board fails to make a decision referred to in subsection (12) of section 28 within—

- (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the period specified in that subsection (12), or 15
- (b) if that period has been extended under subsection (13) of that section, the period of that extension (or, if that period has been extended more than once under that subsection, the last period of such extension),

the applicant referred to in section 28 may make a complaint to the Appeals Board that such a failure has occurred. 20

(2) On hearing of such complaint and having given the Admissions Board an opportunity to be heard, the Appeals Board may, as it thinks appropriate—

- (a) give a direction to the Admissions Board to make the decision concerned forthwith, or 25
- (b) make itself a decision on the application concerned referred to in section 28 (and where the Appeals Board does so section 38 shall apply to such a decision as it applies to any other decision of the Appeals Board). 30

PART 5

REGISTRATION OF BUILDING SURVEYORS

Registration body and Admissions Board (Part 5).

40.—(1) The Society of Chartered Surveyors shall be the registration body for the purposes of this Part.

(2) For the purposes of the Directive, the registration body is the competent authority in the State as respects building surveyors. 35

(3) The registration body shall establish an Admissions Board for the purpose of registering persons under this Part.

(4) The Admissions Board shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows: 40

(a) 3 building surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of section 41(2);

5 (b) 4 persons nominated for such appointment by the Minister, being persons who are not building surveyors.

(5) The chairperson of the Admissions Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the 10 Minister.

41.—(1) The registration body shall establish a register for building surveyors (the “register”).

Registration of building surveyors.

(2) Each of the following is eligible for registration in the register:

(a) a graduate of—

15 (i) the Dundalk Institute of Technology, or

(ii) such other educational body as may be prescribed,

20 who has received from it the degree of B. Sc. in Building Surveying or such other degree, diploma or qualification as may be prescribed and who, in each case, has at least 7 years appropriate experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;

25 (b) a fellow or associate of the Society of Chartered Surveyors, Building Surveying Division, who has at least 2 years practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;

(c) a fellow or member of the Chartered Institute of Building, Building Surveying Section, who has at least 2 years practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;

30 (d) a former fellow or member of the Architecture and Surveying Institute, Building Surveying Section (now merged with the Chartered Institute of Building), who has at least 2 years practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;

35 (e) a fellow or member of the Association of Building Engineers, Building Surveying Section, who has at least 2 years practical experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;

40 (f) a person who on or after 1 January 2001 attained a building surveying degree (B.Sc.) and is enrolled as a fellow or associate of the Society of Chartered Surveyors, or as a fellow or member of the Chartered Institute of Building, the Architecture and Surveying Institute or the Association of Building Engineers;

45 (g) a person eligible for such registration by virtue of section 42 (which relates to holders of qualifications from other states);

- (h) a national of a Member State who has been awarded in a Member State a qualification that the State, pursuant to a relevant measure, is obliged to recognise as corresponding to a qualification referred to in paragraph (a); 5
- (i) a national or resident of a state who, by virtue of the following agreement, is entitled to have his or her qualifications in the field of building surveying recognised in the State, namely, an agreement that—
 - (i) is entered into between the European Union and the World Trade Organisation, and 10
 - (ii) provides for the recognition by the states to which the agreement relates of qualifications of a class specified in the agreement;
- (j) a person (not being a person who is eligible for registration pursuant to section 42) who— 15
 - (i) has been awarded in a state, other than a Member State or a state which is a member of the World Trade Organisation, a degree, diploma or other qualification in building surveying, and 20
 - (ii) can demonstrate that he or she has sufficient post-graduate experience of performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor;
- (k) a person who has been assessed as eligible for registration by the Technical Assessment Board established under section 47 and in accordance with the procedures provided under section 48. 25

(3) Membership of the registration body is not a prerequisite for registration in the register or continuance of registration and the same fee shall be charged for registration in the register whether or not the particular person is a member of the registration body. 30

(4) No prescribing in respect of an educational body or in respect of any degree, diploma or other qualification that is awarded or conferred by it shall be done for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) unless the Minister is satisfied that the course provided by the body leading to the award or conferral of the degree, diploma or other qualification provides the requisite instruction in the various elements of the discipline of building surveying. 35

(5) For the purposes of the Minister satisfying himself or herself of the foregoing matter, the Minister shall consult with the National Qualifications Authority of Ireland or the Higher Education and Training Awards Council as appropriate. 40

Nationals from other states eligible for registration (Part 5).

42.—(1) A person who wishes to be registered by virtue of satisfying conditions for recognition of his or her qualifications under Chapter I of Title III of the Directive may apply to the Admissions Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in pursuance of this section. 45

(2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Admissions Board:

(a) an attestation of competence issued by another Member State in relation to that person;

(b) evidence of formal qualifications;

5 (c) where appropriate, evidence that the person has, on a full time basis, performed duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor for not less than 2 years during the previous 10 years.

(3) The Admissions Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may 10 require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary.

(4) Where an interview is required, at least 4 members of the Admissions Board shall be present for the interview.

(5) The interview shall be recorded in writing or in such other 15 form as the Admissions Board may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.

(6) An applicant may be accompanied at the interview by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by 20 the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant.

(7) In relation to an application under this section, the Admissions Board may seek independent verification of documents furnished to it in accordance with Article 50 of the Directive.

25 (8) The Admissions Board may decide, in accordance with Article 14 of the Directive, that a person who makes an application under this section shall complete an adaptation period of up to 3 years or take an aptitude test before it decides whether he or she is eligible for registration pursuant to this section.

30 (9) The Admissions Board shall satisfy itself that the person has a knowledge of language necessary for practising building surveying in the State.

(10) Where the Admissions Board decides—

35 (a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, it shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or

(b) that—

45 (ii) the applicant should complete an adaptation period or take an aptitude test or obtain a knowledge of language necessary for practising building surveying in the State before it can decide whether or not he or she is eligible for such registration in the register, the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

(11) A person who is registered pursuant to this section shall, when using his or her academic title or an abbreviation of it, express the title or abbreviation in the language or one of the languages of the Member State in which the body conferring the title is located and shall follow it with the name and location of such body. 5

(12) The Admissions Board shall make a decision on whether or not a person is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section as quickly as possible and, in any event (but subject to subsection (13)), within 3 months after the date of submission of the completed documentation by the applicant to the Board. 10

(13) If in the particular circumstances of the matter the Admissions Board determines that it is not practicable for it to make the decision referred to in subsection (12) within the period referred to in that subsection it may, by notice in writing sent, by prepaid registered post, to the applicant, extend that period once or more than once (but the period or the aggregate of the periods of such extension shall not be more than one month). 15

Fees (Part 5).

43.—(1) A person applying for registration under this Part shall, at the time of applying, pay the specified fee to the registration body and, in addition, as a condition of continuing to be registered, pay a specified annual fee on a date as may be specified by the registration body. 20

(2) Where the Registrar has twice sent a notice by prepaid registered post to a registered professional's address as given in the register, requesting payment of the annual fee the Registrar may, if the person has not paid the fee within 2 months after sending the second notice, remove the person's name from the register and thereupon shall send a notice by prepaid registered post informing the person that he or she is no longer registered. 25 30

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Registrar may, in cases of verified hardship, waive the requirement to pay a fee under this section, direct that a fee of an amount lesser than the specified amount may be paid for the purposes of this section or remit a fee paid under this section, in whole or in part. 35

(4) Where a person's name has been removed from the register for non-payment of fees and the person pays the outstanding fees together with any other specified fees, the Registrar shall re-enter the person's name in the register and it shall be treated as having been re-entered on the date it was removed. 40

Prohibition against using term "building surveyor" unless registered.

44.—(1) A person who—

(a) not being registered under this Part, uses the title "building surveyor", either alone or in combination with any other words or letters, or name, title or description, implying that the person is so registered, 45

(b) with intent to deceive, makes use of a certificate issued under this Part to such person or any other person,

(c) makes or causes to be made, any false declaration or misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining 50

registration under this Part, or aids or abets such action, or

5 (d) practises or carries on business under any name, style or title containing the words “building surveyor”, unless he or she is registered under this Part, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

10 (2) If the contravention in respect of which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is continued after the conviction, the person shall be guilty of a further offence on every day on which the contravention continues and for each such offence the person shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €500.

15 (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent a body corporate, firm or partnership from carrying on business under a name, style or title containing the words “building surveyor” if—

(a) the business, so far as it relates to building surveying, is under the control and management of a registered professional, and

20 (b) in all premises where its business relating to building surveying is carried on, it is by or under the supervision of a registered professional.

25 (4) The registration body may by rules provide that subsection (3) shall not apply in relation to a body corporate, firm or partnership unless it has provided to the registration body such information, necessary for determining whether that subsection applies, as may be provided for in such rules.

30 (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is not to be regarded as not practising by reason only of that person being in the employment of another person.

(6) In this section, “business” includes any undertaking which is carried on for fee or reward or in the course of which services are provided otherwise than free of charge.

35 45.—(1) The registration body shall appoint a Registrar to be Registrar (Part 5).
responsible for keeping the register under this Part.

(2) The registration body, in addition to paying the Registrar a salary or fee, may pay a pension to the Registrar or make contributions to the payment of a pension, and may pay the Registrar allowances and expenses.

40 (3) The register shall be in such form, including electronic, photographic or other form, as the registration body decides.

45 (4) Where a person has applied for registration in accordance with this Part, if the Admissions Board is satisfied that the person is entitled to be registered, the Registrar shall enter the person’s name in the register.

(5) Where a person’s name is entered in the register, the Registrar shall send to the person a certificate stating that the person is registered.

(6) Where a person receives a certificate under subsection (5), the person shall forthwith cause the certificate to be displayed at the place where the person practises building surveying at all times during which his or her registration continues, but not otherwise.

(7) The Registrar shall ensure the register is kept up to date and shall make it available for inspection at the office of the Registrar during normal working hours. 5

(8) A registered professional shall notify the Registrar of any change in the name under which or the address at which he or she carries on business. 10

Removal from register (Part 5).

46.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), a registered professional may apply to the Registrar to have his or her name removed from the register and, on receipt of the application and on payment of the specified fee, the Registrar shall remove it.

(2) A person whose name has been removed from the register may apply to the Registrar to have his or her name restored to the register and, on application and payment of the specified fee, but subject to any conditions imposed by the Admissions Board with respect to such restoration, the Registrar shall restore it to the register. 15

(3) Where a complaint is being investigated by the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6 in relation to a person, no application shall be entertained by the Registrar to remove the person's name from the register until the investigation has been completed and the Committee has decided what action to take. 25

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent a Professional Conduct Committee from refusing to restore a person's name to the register on the grounds of unfitness to practise building surveying or attaching conditions to such restoration.

(5) Where the Professional Conduct Committee decides to refuse to so restore a person's name or decides to attach conditions to such restoration, the Registrar shall forthwith send a notice to the person by prepaid registered post to the last address given in the register informing the person of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it. 30

Technical Assessment Board (Part 5).

47.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Technical Assessment Board to consider applications for registration in the register from persons who do not fall within any of paragraphs (a) to (i) of section 41(2).

(2) The Technical Assessment Board shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows: 40

(a) 3 building surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of section 41(2); 45

(b) 4 persons nominated for such appointment by the Minister, being persons who are not building surveyors.

(3) The chairperson of the Technical Assessment Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

5 48.—(1) Each of the following may apply to the Technical Assessment Board for a decision that he or she is eligible to be registered in the register pursuant to this section: Technical Assessment Board procedure (Part 5).

(a) a person who—

10 (i) on 1 May 1999 was a non-corporate member of the Chartered Institute of Building, the Architecture and Surveying Institute (now merged with the Chartered Institute of Building) or the Association of Building Engineers, and

15 (ii) has been performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor for a period of 8 or more years in the State (but no period of such performance that occurs on or after the passing of this Act shall be reckoned for the purposes of this subparagraph);

20 (b) a person who has been performing duties commensurate with those of a building surveyor for a period of 10 or more years in the State (but no period of such performance that occurs on or after the passing of this Act shall be reckoned for the purposes of this paragraph).

25 (2) A person who makes an application under this section shall submit the following to the Technical Assessment Board:

(a) a curriculum vitae providing details of the work carried out by the applicant in the field of building surveying during the period referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) of subsection (1); and

30 (b) such independent verification, as the Technical Assessment Board may require, of the documentation so submitted.

35 (3) The Technical Assessment Board may request additional information to be submitted by the applicant within a specified period and may require the applicant to appear for an interview if it considers it necessary.

(4) Where an interview is required, at least 4 members of the Technical Assessment Board shall be present for the interview.

40 (5) The interview shall be recorded in writing or in such other form as the Technical Assessment Board may decide, and additional information may, subsequent to the interview, be required to be submitted by the applicant to those who conducted the interview.

45 (6) An applicant may be accompanied at the interview by a professional advisor, including a lawyer, but any expense incurred by the applicant in being so accompanied shall be borne by the applicant.

(7) Where the Technical Assessment Board decides—

- (a) that the applicant is eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall advise the Admissions Board which shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant on payment of any applicable registration fee, or 5
- (b) that the applicant is not eligible for registration in the register pursuant to this section, the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it. 10

Conduct Committee
(Part 5).

49.—(1) The registration body shall establish a Professional Conduct Committee (the “Committee”).

(2) The Committee shall consist of a chairperson and 7 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows: 15

- (a) 3 building surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of section 41(2); 20
- (b) 4 persons who are not building surveyors—
 - (i) 3 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and
 - (ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment. 25

(3) The chairperson of the Committee shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment. 30

Appeals Board
(Part 5).

50.—(1) The registration body shall establish an Appeals Board.

(2) The Appeals Board shall consist of a chairperson and 5 ordinary members, the latter appointed by the registration body as follows: 35

- (a) 2 building surveyors nominated for such appointment by the registration body following consultation with the bodies referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of section 41(2), neither of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part; 40
- (b) 3 persons who are not building surveyors—
 - (i) 2 of whom are nominated for such appointment by the Minister, and
 - (ii) one of whom is nominated for such appointment by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment, 45

none of whom shall be a member of any other Board or Committee established under this Part.

5 (3) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall be a solicitor, a barrister or a former judge of the Circuit Court, High Court or Supreme Court who shall be appointed as chairperson by the Minister.

10 51.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Admissions Board, the Technical Assessment Board or the Professional Conduct Committee may appeal to the Appeals Board against the decision. Appeals procedure (Part 5).

(2) An appeal shall be in writing and lodged with the Appeals Board within 2 months after the date of the decision being appealed against.

15 (3) The appeal shall specify the decision to which the appeal relates and the grounds on which the appeal rests.

(4) An appeal may be based on either procedural or substantive matters.

20 (5) A person may, at any time before the appeal is heard, withdraw the appeal in whole or in part by notifying the Appeals Board in writing of the withdrawal.

(6) A witness at a hearing conducted by the Appeals Board has the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court.

(7) The chairperson of the Appeals Board may—

25 (a) direct in writing an appellant to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction,

30 (b) direct in writing any other person whose evidence the Appeals Board may require, to attend before the Appeals Board on a date and at a time and place specified in the direction, and may direct the person to bring any document in the person's possession relating to the appeal,

35 (c) request the relevant Board or Committee whose decision is being appealed against to produce any documents in its possession relating to the appeal, together with its observations on the appeal,

(d) give any other direction for the purpose of the proceedings that appears to the chairperson to be fair and reasonable.

40 (8) The procedures of the Appeals Board shall make provision for—

(a) notifying the appellant and the chairperson of the relevant Board or Committee of the date, time and place of the sitting of the Appeals Board,

45 (b) advising the appellant of the appellant's right—

(i) to be present at the Appeals Board's sitting, and

(ii) to present his or her case in person or, at his or her own expense, through a legal representative,

(c) the examination of witnesses,

(d) determination by the Appeals Board as to whether or not evidence should be given under oath, 5

(e) recording of proceedings.

(9) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Appeals Board may—

(a) confirm the decision of the relevant Board or Committee, subject to any amendment thereof the Appeals Board thinks fit, 10

(b) annul the decision and direct the relevant Board or Committee to make a new decision, or

(c) give such other directions as it thinks fit.

(10) The chairperson of the Appeals Board shall notify— 15

(a) the appellant in writing, sent by prepaid registered post to the appellant's stated address, of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it, and shall also advise the appellant of the right to appeal to the High Court against the Appeals Board's decision, 20

(b) the relevant Board or Committee against whose decision the appeal was made of the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it,

(c) where the appellant was the person who had lodged the complaint with the Professional Conduct Committee under Part 6, the registered building surveyor in respect of whom the complaint was made, stating the decision taken on the appeal, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it. 25 30

Appeal to High Court from decision of Appeals Board (Part 5).

52.—(1) A person adversely affected by a decision of the Appeals Board may, within 2 months after the date of such decision, appeal to the High Court against the decision.

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Court may— 35

(a) confirm the decision of the Appeals Board, subject to any amendment thereof the Court thinks fit,

(b) annul the decision and direct the Appeals Board to make a new decision, or

(c) give such other directions as the Court thinks fit, 40

and the Court may direct how the costs of the appeal are to be borne.

(3) On the hearing of an appeal under this section from a decision of the Appeals Board relating to a decision of the Professional Conduct Committee, the High Court may admit evidence of any person of standing in the building surveying profession as to what constitutes professional misconduct.

53.—(1) If the Admissions Board fails to make a decision referred to in subsection (12) of section 42 within—

Certain other jurisdiction of Appeals Board (Part 5).

5 (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the period specified in that subsection (12), or

10 (b) if that period has been extended under subsection (13) of that section, the period of that extension (or, if that period has been extended more than once under that subsection, the last period of such extension),

the applicant referred to in section 42 may make a complaint to the Appeals Board that such a failure has occurred.

15 (2) On the hearing of such a complaint and having given the Admissions Board an opportunity to be heard, the Appeals Board may, as it thinks appropriate—

(a) give a direction to the Admissions Board to make the decision concerned forthwith, or 20 (b) make itself a decision on the application concerned referred to in section 42 (and where the Appeals Board does so section 52 shall apply to such a decision as it applies to any other decision of the Appeals Board).

PART 6

FITNESS TO PRACTISE

25 54.—(1) The Professional Conduct Committee shall prepare a code (in this Part referred to as the “code”) specifying the standards of professional conduct and practice that shall be adhered to by registered professionals.

Establishment of Professional Conduct Standards.

30 (2) The Professional Conduct Committee shall review the code prepared by it from time to time and may amend its provisions if it thinks fit.

(3) A draft of the proposed code or any amendment of it shall be—

35 (a) published by the Professional Conduct Committee, in such manner as it may determine, together with an invitation to the public and any organisation or other body which appears to the Committee to have an interest in the matter to comment on the draft before a date specified by the Committee in the invitation, 40 (b) submitted by the Committee to the Competition Authority with a request for the furnishing in writing (before a date specified by the Committee in the submission) by the Authority of its opinion as to whether any provision of the draft would be likely to result in competition being prevented, restricted or distorted.

(4) The Professional Conduct Committee shall take into account any comment received by it in accordance with an invitation under subsection (3)(a) and any opinion in writing of the Competition Authority received by it in accordance with a request under subsection (3)(b) in relation to the draft code or any amendment of it before it prepares the code or the amendment. 5

(5) The registration body shall provide a copy of the code it has prepared to anyone who requests it, on payment of a reasonable charge, or without charge where it considers it appropriate.

Complaints to Professional
Conduct Committee.

55.—(1) Any person may complain to the Professional Conduct Committee (the “Committee”) concerning an action of a registered professional which is alleged to amount to professional misconduct or poor professional performance. 10

(2) Where the Committee is of the opinion that a prima facie case has not been established for an inquiry under subsection (5) with respect to the complaint, it shall so inform the complainant in writing and shall not proceed further. 15

(3) The Committee may, where it considers it appropriate to do so, request the complainant and the registered professional who is the subject of the complaint to seek resolution of the complaint by mediation before a person or persons appointed under rules made by the relevant registration body and if the complainant and the registered professional consent to such mediation being conducted, such mediation shall be conducted accordingly. 20

(4) If the mediation does not result in the resolution of the complaint, the Committee shall proceed to consider the complaint. 25

(5) The Committee may decide to hold an inquiry with respect to a complaint and where it does so the chairperson of the Committee shall notify the other members of the Committee and the complainant and the registered professional of the date, time and place for the hearing, and the notice under this subsection to the registered professional shall be sent by prepaid registered post to the address given in the register, shall contain details of the nature of the alleged complaint against the registered professional and shall inform the registered professional of his or her right to appear before the Committee and to be represented at the hearing by a person of his or her choice. 30
35

(6) For an inquiry under this section, the Committee has the powers, rights and privileges vested in the High Court or a judge thereof in hearing an action, for the purpose of— 40

(a) enforcing the attendance of witnesses and examining them on oath or otherwise, and

(b) compelling the production of documents, and, for such purposes, a summons signed by the chairperson of the Committee is equivalent to any formal procedure capable of being instituted in an action. 45

(7) Where a person summoned by the chairperson to attend before a hearing of the Committee or to produce a document—

(a) makes default in attending,

(b) fails or refuses to produce a document that is within that person's power to produce, or

(c) refuses to take an oath or refuses to answer a question which the Committee may lawfully ask,

5 that person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

10 (8) If the contravention in respect of which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (7) is continued after the conviction, the person shall be guilty of a further offence on every day on which the contravention continues and for each such offence the person shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €500.

15 (9) A witness at a hearing under this section has the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court.

20 (10) On completion of an inquiry, the Committee shall produce a report embodying its findings, including the nature of the complaint, the evidence before it, such other matters relating to the registered professional as it thinks fit and its opinion respecting whether a case of professional misconduct or poor professional performance was established or not.

25 (11) The findings of the Committee on any matter referred to it shall not be made public, without the consent of the person who has been the subject of the inquiry, unless the Committee has found the person to be guilty of professional misconduct or poor professional performance.

30 (12) Where the Committee has not found the registered professional guilty of professional misconduct or poor professional performance it shall so notify the complainant and inform the complainant of his or her right of appeal to the Appeals Board against its finding.

35 56.—(1) Where the Professional Conduct Committee (the "Committee") finds there has been no professional misconduct or poor professional performance on the part of the registered professional, it shall take no further action in the matter and shall so inform the registered professional.

Decision of the Professional Conduct Committee.

40 (2) Where the Committee determines that a registered professional is guilty of professional misconduct or poor professional performance, it may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, do one or more of the following:

(a) advise, admonish or censure the registered professional in relation to the conduct or performance complained of;

45 (b) impose on the registered professional a fine of a specified amount and failing payment by him or her of the fine to the registration body within 2 months of his or her being notified of its imposition, the Registrar may erase the person's name from the register;

(c) direct that during a specified period, registration of the person's name in the register shall not have effect;

(d) erase the person's name from the register;

(e) direct that the person's name remain on the register but impose such conditions for the name remaining on the register as it considers appropriate, to be complied with by the registered professional, 5

and the chairperson of the Committee shall forthwith notify the person by prepaid registered post sent to the person's address as given in the register, of the Committee's decision, the date thereof and the reasons therefor and of the person's right of appeal to the Appeals Board against the decision. 10

(3) Without prejudice to the operation of the other provisions of this Act in relation to appeals against decisions to exercise such powers, none of the powers under subsection (2)(b) to (e) may be exercised by the Committee unless the decision to exercise the power has been confirmed by the High Court under subsection (6) or, as the case may be, on an appeal to that Court under section 24, 38 or 52 as appropriate, and then may only be exercised subject to the terms (if any) of such confirmation. 15

(4) Where a registered professional appeals against a decision of the Committee to the Appeals Board within the period provided for under this Act, the decision of the Committee is stayed until the appeal is disposed of, including any period provided for a further appeal to the High Court. 20

(5) Subsection (6) applies if—

(a) no appeal under this Act is taken against the decision of the Committee mentioned in that subsection, or 25

(b) (i) such an appeal taken against the decision has been disposed of and the decision has been confirmed (with or without amendment of it), and

(ii) that confirmation is not a confirmation of the High Court under section 24, 38 or 52, as appropriate. 30

(6) The Registrar may apply ex parte to the High Court for confirmation of a decision of the Committee to exercise the powers under subsection (2)(b), (c), (d) or (e) and, if the Registrar so applies, the High Court, on the hearing of the application, shall, unless it sees good reason to the contrary, declare accordingly and, where the declaration relates to a decision to exercise the powers under subsection (2)(d), either (as the Court may consider proper) direct the Registrar to erase the name of such person from the register concerned or direct that during a specified period (beginning not earlier than 7 days after the decision of the Court) registration of the person's name in that register shall not have effect. 35 40

(7) On erasing the name of a person from any register under this section, the Registrar shall forthwith send by prepaid registered post to such person, at the person's address as stated in the register, notice in writing of the erasure. 45

(8) Where a direction is given under this section that during a specified period registration of the name of a person in any register shall not have effect, the Registrar shall, before the commencement of that period, send by prepaid registered post to such person, at the person's address as stated in the register, notice in writing of such direction. 50

5 (9) The name of any person that has been erased under this section may be restored to the register concerned on the direction of the Committee, but not otherwise, and the Committee may attach such conditions as it sees fit to the restoration (including payment of a fee not exceeding the fee provided for an application for registration in the first instance).

10 (10) Where the registration of a person in a register has ceased to have effect under this section for a period of specified duration, the Committee may, if it thinks fit, on application made to it by such person, by direction terminate the suspension and the Committee may attach such conditions as it sees fit to the termination (including payment of a fee not exceeding the fee provided for an application for registration in the first instance).

15 57.—Proceedings of or communications to or by a Professional Conduct Committee in the course of an inquiry, and reports of the Committee made in the exercise or performance of its powers, duties or functions, under this Part shall, in any action for defamation, be absolutely privileged. Proceedings privileged.

20 58.—In this Part— Interpretation — Part 6.
“poor professional performance” in relation to a registered professional, means any failure of the registered professional to meet the standards of competence that may reasonably be expected of registered professionals practising the profession concerned;

25 “professional misconduct” in relation to a registered professional, means any act, omission or pattern of conduct of the registered professional that—

(a) is in breach of the code prepared by the relevant professional conduct committee, or 30 (b) if the registered professional has been granted by a body established in a state, other than the State, a licence, certificate or registration relating to the practice of the profession concerned, is a breach of the standard of conduct or performance that applies to a person holding that licence, certificate or registration and that corresponds to a standard in the code referred to in paragraph (a).

35

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

40 59.—(1) If a person wishes to provide, in reliance on Article 5(2) of the Directive, architectural, quantity surveying or building surveying services in the State on a temporary and occasional basis, the person shall apply to the Admissions Board for a decision that he or she is entitled to registration in the register under Part 3, 4 or 5, as the case may be, for a temporary period for that purpose. Temporary registration under Title II of Directive.

45 (2) A person who applies under subsection (1) shall, if the occasion of the application is the first occasion on which he or she intends, on foot of such an application, to provide architectural, quantity surveying or building surveying services, as the case may be, in the State, submit the following to the Admissions Board:

- (a) a declaration of his or her intention to provide the services in accordance with Article 7 of the Directive, which declaration shall include details of insurance or other means of personal or collective protection with regard to professional liability; 5
- (b) proof of his or her nationality;
- (c) an attestation of the competent authority of the Member State where he or she is established that he or she is legally established in that state for the purposes of providing the activities concerned and is not prohibited from practising architecture, quantity surveying or building surveying, as the case may be, temporarily or otherwise, at the time of delivery of the attestation; 10 15
- (d) evidence of the relevant professional qualifications; and
- (e) if required by the Directive as respects an applicant who has moved from the Member State of establishment, evidence that he or she has performed functions commensurate with those of an architect, quantity surveyor or building surveyor as appropriate, in that Member State, for at least 2 of the 10 years preceding the application. 20

(3) If the occasion of the application under subsection (1) is not the first occasion on which the applicant has intended, on foot of such an application, to provide the relevant services in the State, the Admissions Board may, if there has been a material change in the situation substantiated by any of the documentation referred to in paragraphs (b) to (d) of subsection (1), require the applicant to submit to it fresh documentation of the kind referred to in the paragraph or paragraphs concerned. 25 30

(4) If a period of more than 12 months has elapsed since the registration, pursuant to this section, of a person in the register under Part 3, 4 or 5 (and the period for which the person is so registered has not expired), the Admissions Board may, unless the person does not intend to provide the relevant services in the State in the ensuing period of 12 months, require the person to make a fresh declaration of his or her intention to provide the relevant services in accordance with Article 7 of the Directive; if the person does not make such a declaration, the Admissions Board may remove the person's name from the relevant register. 35 40

(5) Where the Admissions Board decides—

- (a) that the applicant is entitled to be registered, pursuant to this section, in the register under Part 3, 4 or 5 for a temporary period for the purposes of providing architectural, quantity surveying or building surveying services, as the case may be, in the State, it shall take the necessary steps to register the applicant in the relevant register, without payment of a fee by the applicant in respect of the registration, for a period not exceeding the period requested by the applicant, or 45 50
- (b) that the applicant is not entitled to such registration in that register, the chairperson shall immediately send a notice in writing to the applicant, by prepaid registered post, to the address of the applicant as furnished in his or her application, advising the applicant of the decision, the date on which it was made and the reasons for it.

5 (6) Where the applicant is registered in the register under Part 3 for a temporary period pursuant to this section, he or she shall use the title of architect while providing architectural services in the State until his or her registration ceases.

10 (7) Where the applicant is registered in the register under Part 4 or 5 for a temporary period pursuant to this section and is providing quantity surveying or building surveying services in the State, he or she shall—

15 (a) if a professional title exists for the activity or quantity surveyor or building surveyor, as the case may be, in the Member State where he or she is legally established, use that title, which shall be indicated in the official language or one of the official languages of that Member State, or

20 (b) if no such professional title exists in the Member State where he or she is legally established, indicate his or her formal qualification in the official language or one of the official languages of that Member State, in a way that avoids confusion with the title of quantity surveyor or building surveyor.

25 60.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a registration body may arrange with any person to assist it, or any other board or committee established under this Act, in the proper discharge of its or their functions. Registration body may seek assistance and make rules.

30 (2) A registration body shall not make an arrangement referred to in subsection (1) as respects the discharge of the functions under section 18, 32, 46 or 64 or Part 6.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a registration body may make rules for facilitating and carrying out its functions and the functions of the other boards and committees, including the Appeals Board, provided for under this Act.

35 (4) Before making rules, the registration body shall publish a draft of the rules and circulate them to the board or committee affected for its comments.

40 61.—(1) A registration body may specify that a fee of a specified amount shall be payable to it in respect of the doing of any of the following, namely: Registration body may specify fees.

- (a) processing applications for registration;
- (b) the annual retention of a person's name in the register;
- (c) restoring a person's name in the register after it has been erased pursuant to a provision of this Act;
- 45 (d) removing a person's name from the register on the application of that person;

- (e) entering additional qualifications, not being qualifications required for the purpose of registration, of a person in the register;
- (f) issuing a certificate of registration;
- (g) providing any other service which the registration body may provide. 5

(2) A registration body may determine that in respect of the doing of any of the things referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (g) a fee of a different amount shall be payable by reference to the different circumstances in which it is done. 10

(3) A fee shall not be specified in accordance with subsection (1) without the approval of the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(4) The amount of a fee specified in accordance with subsection (1) shall not in any case exceed the total of—

- (a) the costs in providing the services in respect of which the fee is paid, and 15
- (b) the reasonable costs incurred by the registration body in collecting, accounting for and administering the fee.

Additional qualifications.

62.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) and payment of the specified fee, a person who is registered under Part 3, 4 or 5 may apply to the registration body, in the form and manner it determines, to have an additional qualification noted in the register. 20

(2) The registration body shall determine what additional qualifications other than those required for registration may be noted in the register. 25

Regulations.

63.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for prescribing any matter referred to in this Act as prescribed or to be prescribed, or in relation to any matter referred to in this Act as the subject of regulations.

(2) Regulations under this Act may contain such incidental, supplemental and consequential provisions as appear to the Minister to be necessary or expedient. 30

(3) Every regulation made under this Act shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of any previously done thereunder. 35

Correction of register.

64.—(1) For the purpose of keeping a register provided for under this Act, the Registrar thereof shall correct all verbal and clerical errors in such register, remove therefrom all entries procured by fraud or misrepresentation, enter in the register every change which comes to the Registrar's knowledge in the addresses of registered professionals, and remove therefrom the names of all persons whose death has either been notified to, or comes to the knowledge of, the Admissions Board. 40 45

(2) Where the Registrar takes any action under subsection (1), the Registrar shall forthwith notify the person concerned or next of kin, as the case may be, if such person can be identified, of the action taken and the reasons therefor.

5 65.—(1) Expenditure incurred by a registration body in the performance of its functions under this Act shall be defrayed by the registration body from funds at its disposal. Expenses of registration bodies, boards and committees, etc.

10 (2) There shall be paid to the chairpersons and other members of any board or committee established under this Act by a registration body such remuneration and allowances for expenses as the registration body may determine and payment of such remuneration and allowances shall be made from funds at the disposal of the registration body.

15 66.—(1) Summary proceedings for an offence under Part 3, 4, 5 or 6 may be brought and prosecuted by the registration body. Prosecution of offences under this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding section 10(4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851, summary proceedings for an offence under this Act may be commenced—

20 (a) within 12 months from the date on which the offence was committed, or

(b) within 6 months from the date on which evidence sufficient, in the opinion of the person instituting the proceedings, to justify proceedings comes to that person's knowledge,

25 whichever is later, provided that no such proceedings shall be commenced later than 5 years from the date on which the offence concerned was committed.

30 (3) For the purposes of this section, a certificate signed by or on behalf of the person initiating the proceedings as to the date on which evidence referred to in subsection (2)(b) came to his or her knowledge shall be evidence of that date and, in any legal proceedings a document purporting to be a certificate under this section and to be so signed shall be admitted as evidence without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign the certificate, unless the contrary is shown.

(4) It shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that proceedings for an offence under this Act were commenced within the appropriate period.

40 67.—(1) In any proceedings, a certificate signed by the Registrar containing only information stated to be taken from the registration records under the control of the Registrar shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein, until the contrary is shown. Evidential value of an extract from register.

45 (2) In any proceedings, a document purporting to be a certificate under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be such a certificate and to have been signed by the Registrar concerned, until the contrary is shown.

(3) A certificate under this section that purports to bear a facsimile of the signature of the Registrar concerned or a copy of such signature applied by means of a stamp or produced by a computer shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to have been signed by the Registrar, until the contrary is shown.

Nomination to boards or committees and elections.

68.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), any persons nominated by a registration body for appointment by the registration body to a committee or board established under Part 3, 4 or 5 shall be chosen for the purposes of such nomination by means of an election in accordance with bye-laws made by the body under this section. 5

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

(a) nominations for the purposes of the first appointments made by a registration body of persons to a committee or board referred to in that subsection, or 10

(b) the nomination of a person by a registration body for the purposes of the person's appointment by the body to fill a casual vacancy that arises amongst the persons the subject of those first appointments. 15

(3) For the purposes mentioned in subsection (1), a registration body shall, with the consent of the Minister, make bye-laws providing for the election, by persons of the following class, of persons from among that class, namely, persons who are registered or eligible to be registered under Part 3, 4 or 5, as the case may be (and who are not excluded from that class by virtue of bye-laws under subsection (4)). 20

(4) Bye-laws made by the registration body may exclude from the foregoing class any person who is not resident in the State at a specified date or who does not comply with any specified condition or requirement which the registration body considers appropriate to specify in the bye-laws for the purposes of ensuring that the bye-laws operate in a practical manner. 25

(5) Bye-laws under this section shall provide that the election referred to in subsection (3) shall be held by means of a ballot and in a manner specified in the bye-laws. 30

(6) Bye-laws under this section may provide for such supplemental, incidental and consequential matters as the registration body that makes them considers necessary or expedient, including the deeming of candidates to be elected without an election having to be held, where the number of persons validly selected as candidates in the proposed election is less than or equal to the number of vacancies in the board or committee to which the proposed election relates. 35 40

Tenure of members of boards, etc., appointed by registration body.

69.—(1) A person appointed by a registration body to be a member of a board or committee established by it under this Act shall hold office for a period of 3 years, unless he or she sooner dies or resigns.

(2) No person appointed pursuant to a section of this Act shall hold office under that section for more than 2 consecutive terms of office. 45

(3) A member of a board or committee referred to in subsection (1) may resign from office by giving notice to the registration body in writing signed by him or her and the resignation shall take effect at the next meeting of the registration body.

5 (4) (a) Any requirement (whether as to consultation, obtaining of another's approval or otherwise) that applies with respect to the nomination of a person for appointment to a board or committee established under this Act shall apply to the nomination of a person for appointment to fill a casual vacancy amongst the membership of the board or committee.

10 (b) Where the term of office of a member of a board or committee established under this Act terminates otherwise than by reason of effluxion of time, the period of office of the person appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by that other's ceasing to hold office shall be 15 specified to be the unexpired period of that other's term of office.

(5) The registration body may make rules specifying grounds (such as repeated absence from meetings or unacceptable professional conduct) on which a member of a board or committee
20 referred to in subsection (1) may be removed from office and the procedure for such removal and for so long as rules under this subsection are in force such a member may be removed from office subject to and in accordance with the rules.

25 70.—(1) A board or committee established under this Act by a registration body shall hold such meetings as it considers necessary for the performance of its functions. Proceedings at meetings of boards or committees.

(2) The chairperson and each other member of such a board or committee shall have a vote.

30 (3) At a meeting of such a board or committee, the chairperson or, in the chairperson's absence a member chosen by those present, shall chair the meeting.

(4) Every question at a meeting referred to in subsection (3) shall be determined by a majority of votes of members present and the chairperson shall have a casting vote in the event of an equal 35 division.

(5) The quorum for such a meeting shall be 4 members of which, subject to subsection (6), the majority shall be members who were nominated for appointment as members of the board or committee, as the case may be, by the Minister.

40 (6) There may be reckoned for the purposes of that majority the chairperson of the board or committee, as the case may be, if he or she is present at the meeting.

(7) An Admissions Board, Technical Assessment Board, Appeals Board or Professional Conduct Committee may perform its functions
45 whether or not there is a vacancy in its membership and none of its proceedings are invalidated by any defect in the appointment of a member to it.

Functions in relation to regulations or directives of the Council of the EU or the European Parliament.

71.—A registration body, or a board or committee established under this Act by a registration body, shall carry out such additional functions as may be assigned to it, by regulation made by the Minister, in relation to the implementation of an act adopted by an institution of the European Communities with respect to the relevant profession. 5

Annual report by registration body.

72.—(1) A registration body shall, as soon as may be after the end of each year, prepare a report of its proceedings under this Act during that year.

(2) That report shall include a copy of the body's accounts for the year concerned in so far as they relate to its income and expenditure in respect of the performance of its functions under this Act during that year and those accounts shall be accounts that have been certified by an auditor who has been appointed to carry out an audit of them for the year concerned. 10

(3) As soon as may be after the preparation of such a report, the registration body shall cause—

(a) the report, with the copy of the foregoing accounts included in it, to be published, and

(b) copies of the report, with the foregoing certification in respect of those accounts included in each such copy, to be made available for purchase by members of the public. 20
