SECTION 4

6b. In page 6, subsection (1), between lines 28 and 29, to insert the following:

“(c) in the case of a flat that is adjoining an existing dwelling where the flat is used for the purpose of housing an immediate family member of the owner of both the main dwelling and the flat.”

—Senator Pearse Doherty.

8a. In page 7, between lines 30 and 31, to insert the following subsection:

“(5) An individual who on a liability date is the owner of a residential property shall not in respect of that residential property be liable to pay the charge relating to it for that liability date if—

(a) the property in question is the only residential property owned by the individual,

(b) the individual resides, for the purposes of employment at a greater distance from the residential property that would deem it inappropriate for the individual to commute from his or her residential property to his or her place of work.”

—Senator Pearse Doherty.
