3.—(1) Section 70(1) of the Act of 2006 is amended—

(a) by substituting the following for the definition of “criminal organisation”: 10

and 15

(b) by substituting the following for the definition of “structured group”:

“ ‘structured group’ means a group of 3 or more persons, which is not randomly formed for the immediate commission of a single offence, and the involvement in which 20 by 2 or more of those persons is with a view to their acting in concert; for the avoidance of doubt, a structured group may exist notwithstanding the absence of all or any of the following:

(a) formal rules or formal membership, or any formal roles for those involved in the group; 25

(b) any hierarchical or leadership structure;

(c) continuity of involvement by persons in the group.”.

(2) Section 70 of the Act of 2006 is further amended by adding 30 the following subsection:

Amendment of section 71 of Act of 2006.

4.—Section 71 of the Act of 2006 is amended—

(b) references to activities include references to—

(i) activities carried on outside the State, and

(ii) activities that do not constitute an offence or offences.

(2) A person who directs, at any level of the organisation’s structure, the activities of a criminal organisation is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for life or a lesser term of imprisonment.

(3) Any statement made orally, in writing or otherwise, or any conduct, by the defendant implying or leading to a reasonable inference that he or she was at a material time directing the activities of a criminal organisation shall, in proceedings for an offence under this section, be admissible as evidence that the defendant was doing such at that time.

(4) In proceedings under this section, the court or the jury, as the case may be, in determining whether an offence under this section has been committed, may, in addition to any other relevant evidence, also consider—

(a) any evidence of a pattern of behaviour on the part of the defendant consistent with his or her having directed the activities of the organisation concerned at the material time, and

(b) without limiting paragraph (a) or subsection (3)—

(i) whether the defendant has received any benefit from the organisation concerned, and

(5) Any document or other record emanating or purporting to emanate from the organisation concerned from which there can be inferred—

(a) either—

(i) the giving, at the time concerned, of an instruction, order or guidance by the defendant to any person involved in the organisation, or

(ii) the making, at that time, by the defendant of a request of a person so involved, or

(b) the seeking, at that time, by a person so involved of assistance or guidance from the defendant,

Organised crime: offence to participate in, or contribute to, certain activities.

6.—The Act of 2006 is amended by substituting the following section for section 72:

“Offence to participate in, or contribute to, certain activities. 72.—(1) A person is guilty of an offence if, with knowledge of the existence of the organisation referred to in this subsection, the person participates in or contributes to any activity (whether constituting an offence or not)—

(ii) facilitate the commission by a criminal organisation or any of its members of, a serious offence.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years or both.

(3) The reference in subsection (1) to the commission of a serious offence includes a reference to the doing of an act in a place outside the State that constitutes a serious offence under the law of that place and which act would, if done in the State, constitute a serious offence.

(a) that the criminal organisation concerned or any of its members actually committed, as the case may be—

(i) a serious offence in the State, or

(b) that the participation or contribution of the defendant actually—

(i) enhanced the ability of the criminal organisation concerned or any of its members to commit, or

(ii) facilitated the commission by it or any of its members of, a serious offence, or

(c) knowledge on the part of the defendant of the specific nature of any offence referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b).

(5) In determining whether a person participates in or contributes to an activity referred to in subsection (1), the court may consider, inter alia, whether the person—

- (a) uses a name, word, symbol or other representation that identifies, or is associated with, the criminal organisation concerned, or
- (b) receives any benefit from the criminal organisation concerned. 5

(6) In proceedings for an offence under this section, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that the participation or contribution (the 'relevant act') of the defendant referred to in subsection (1) was engaged in or made with the state of mind on the defendant's part referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection if the circumstances under which the relevant act was committed— 10

- (a) involved either—
    - (i) the possession by the defendant, whilst in the presence of one or more other persons, of any article or item referred to in the Table to this section, or 20

      - (II) of which the defendant and one or more other persons were occupants on or about the date of commission of the relevant act, 30

Certain offences under Part 7 of Act of 2006 to be scheduled offences.

(2) An offence specified in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a scheduled offence for the purposes of Part V of the Act of 1939 as if an order had been made under section 36 of the Act of 1939 in relation to it and subsection (3) of that section and section 37 of the Act of 1939 shall apply to such an offence accordingly.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) shall be construed as affecting, or limiting in any particular case, the exercise—

25

(a) by the Government of any of their powers under any provision of section 35 or 36 of the Act of 1939,

30

(b) by the Director of Public Prosecutions of his or her power under section 45(2) of the Act of 1939 to direct that a person not be sent forward for trial by the Special Criminal Court on a particular charge, or

35

(4) This section shall, subject to subsection (5), cease to be in operation on and from the date that is 12 months from the passing of this Act unless a resolution has been passed by each House of the Oireachtas resolving that this section should continue in operation.

40

(5) This section may be continued in operation from time to time by a resolution passed by each House of the Oireachtas before its expiry for such period as may be specified in the resolutions.

45

(6) Before a resolution is passed by either House of the Oireachtas under this section, the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform shall prepare a report, and shall cause a copy of it to be laid before that House, of the operation of this section during the period beginning on the passing of this Act, or as may be appropriate, the date of the latest previous report under this subsection in relation to this section and ending not later than 21 days before the date of the moving of the resolution in that House.

9.—The Act of 2006 is amended by inserting the following section after section 72:

“Offences under this Part: inferences that may be drawn.

72A.—(1) Where in any proceedings against a person for an offence under this Part evidence is given that the defendant at any time before he or she was charged with the offence, on being questioned by a member of the Garda Síochána in relation to the offence, failed to answer any question material to the investigation of the offence, then the court in determining whether a charge should be dismissed under Part IA of the Criminal Procedure Act 1967 or whether there is a case to answer and the court (or subject to the judge’s directions, the jury) in determining whether the defendant is guilty of the offence may draw such inferences from the failure as appear proper; and the failure may, on the basis of such inferences, be treated as, or as capable of amounting to, corroboration of any evidence in relation to the offence, but a person shall not be convicted of the offence solely or mainly on an inference drawn from such a failure.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not have effect unless—

- (a) the defendant was told in ordinary language when being questioned what the effect of such a failure might be, and
- (b) the defendant was afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult a solicitor before such a failure occurred.

(3) Nothing in this section shall, in any proceedings—

- (a) prejudice the admissibility in evidence of the silence or other reaction of the defendant in the face of anything said in his or her presence relating to the conduct in respect of which he or she is charged, in so far as evidence thereof would be admissible apart from this section, or
- (b) be taken to preclude the drawing of any inference from the silence or other reaction of the defendant which could be properly drawn apart from this section.

(4) The court (or, subject to the judge’s directions, the jury) shall, for the purposes of drawing an inference under this section, have regard to whenever, if appropriate, an answer to the question concerned was first given by the defendant.

(5) This section shall not apply in relation to the questioning of a person by a member of the Garda Síochána unless it is recorded by electronic or similar means or the person consents in writing to it not being so recorded.

5 (6) References in subsection (1) to evidence shall, in relation to the hearing of an application under Part IA of the Criminal Procedure Act 1967 for the dismissal of a charge, be taken to include a statement of the evidence to be given by a witness at the trial.

(7) In this section ‘any question material to the investigation of the offence’ means:

10 (a) a question requesting that the defendant give a full account of his or her movements, actions, activities or associations during any specified period relevant to the offence being investigated; and

15 (b) whichever one, or more than one, of the following is relevant to the offence being investigated—

20 (i) a question relating to any statement or conduct of the type referred to in section 71A(3);

30 (iii) a question relating to articles, or documents or other records, of the type referred to in section 71A(4)(b)(ii) or (5)(a);

(iv) a question relating to any document or other record of the type referred to in section 71B(4)(a)—

35 (I) created or purporting to be created by the defendant, or

40 (II) found in the possession of the defendant on or about the time of his or her arrest or found on foot of a lawful search of any premises or vehicle occupied by the defendant;

45 (v) a question relating to the suspected use by the defendant in a document of, or the suspected reference by him or her in a document to, a name, word, symbol or other representation of the type referred to in section 71B(4)(a)(iii);

50 (vi) a question relating to—

(I) the possession by the defendant, or

(II) the presence in a vehicle referred to in section 72(6)(a)(ii) and in the circumstances involving the defendant referred to in that provision, 5 of any article or item referred to in the Table to section 72: 10

provided that no question shall be regarded as being material to the investigation of the offence unless the member of the Garda Síochána concerned reasonably believed that the question related to the participation of the defendant in the commission of the offence. 15

(8) In this section references to a failure to answer include references to the giving of an answer that is false or misleading and references to the silence or other reaction of the defendant shall be construed accordingly. 20

(9) This section shall not apply in relation to a failure to answer a question if the failure occurred before the commencement of section 9 of the Criminal Justice (Amendment) Act 2009.". 25

Amendment of section 73 of Act of 2006.

10.—Section 73 of the Act of 2006 is amended by substituting, in subsection (3), “15 years” for “10 years”.

Amendment of section 74 of Act of 2006.

11.—Section 74 of the Act of 2006 is amended—

(a) by substituting the following subsection for subsection (1):

“(1) A person who does any act in a place outside the State that would, if done in the State, be an offence under section 71A or 72 and either— 30

(a) the act in question is done on board an Irish ship or on an aircraft registered in the State, or

(b) the person is— 35

(i) an individual who is an Irish citizen or ordinarily resident in the State, or

(ii) a body corporate established under the law of the State or a company within the meaning of the Companies Acts, 40 then the person is guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she were guilty of an offence under section 71A or 72, as the case may be.”,

and 45

(b) by inserting the following subsection after subsection (2):

“(2A) Proceedings for—

(a) an offence under section 71 in relation to an act committed outside the State, or

5 (b) an offence under subsection (1), may be taken in any place in the State and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed in that place.”.

10 12.—The Act of 2006 is amended by inserting the following section after section 74: New section 74A of Act of 2006.

15 “Aggravating factor: serious offence committed as part of, or in furtherance of, activities of criminal organisation. 74A.—(1) Where a court is determining the sentence to be imposed on a person for a serious offence, the fact that the offence was committed as part of, or in furtherance of, the activities of a criminal organisation shall be treated for the purpose of determining the sentence as an aggravating factor.

20 (2) Accordingly, the court shall (except where the sentence for the serious offence is one of imprisonment for life or where the court considers that there are exceptional circumstances justifying its not doing so) impose a sentence that is greater than that which would have been imposed in the absence of such a factor.

25 (3) The sentence imposed shall not be greater than the maximum sentence permissible for the serious offence.”.

30 13.—The Act of 2006 is amended by inserting the following section after section 74A (inserted by section 12): New section 74B of Act of 2006.

30 “Exclusion of evidence in certain circumstances. 74B.—Nothing in this Part prevents a court, in proceedings thereunder, from excluding evidence that would otherwise be admissible if, in its opinion, the prejudicial effect of the evidence outweighs its probative value.”.

35 14.—(1) The Act of 2007 is amended by inserting the following section after section 26: New section 26A of Act of 2007 and amendment of Schedule 2 to that Act.

40 “Post-release orders in cases of certain offences. 26A.—(1) Where, on or after the commencement of a scheme under subsection (10), a person (other than a person under the age of 18 years), in this section referred to as ‘the offender’, is convicted on indictment of—

(a) an offence under Part 7 of the Act of 2006, or

45 (b) an offence (other than an offence referred to in paragraph (a)) specified in Schedule 2 that has been committed as part of, or in furtherance of, the activities of a criminal organisation, the court shall, in determining the sentence to be imposed on the offender in respect of that offence, consider whether it is appropriate to make an order under this section (in this section referred to as a 'post-release (restrictions on certain activities) order') in relation to him or her for the purpose of the offender's being subject, after his or her release from prison, to the restrictions and conditions subsequently mentioned in this section.

(2) A post-release (restrictions on certain activities) order shall not be made in relation to the offender unless the court considers that, having regard to—

(a) the evidence given in the trial of the offender for the offence concerned, and

(b) evidence that is given to the court in relation to the sentence to be imposed for that offence, it is in the public interest to make such an order, and in determining whether to make such order the court shall take account of such matters as the court considers appropriate, including the offender's previous criminal record and the other circumstances relating to him or her.

(3) There is, by virtue of this subsection, conferred on the court power to make, as part of the offender's sentence, a post-release (restrictions on certain activities) order in relation to him or her, that is to say, an order imposing one or more (and no other) of the following restrictions and conditions:

(a) restrictions on the offender's movements, actions or activities;

(b) conditions subject to which the offender may engage in any activity;

(c) restrictions on the offender's association with others or conditions subject to which the offender may associate with others, being restrictions and conditions, as to both their nature and extent, that—

(i) are determined by the court to be no more than is reasonably necessary to be imposed in the public interest, and

(ii) fall into a category of restrictions and conditions specified in a scheme made under subsection (10).

(4) A post-release (restrictions on certain activities) order may be made for such period, not exceeding 7 years, as the court considers appropriate.

5 (5) A post-release (restriction of certain activities) order in relation to the offender shall come into force on the date on which—

10 (a) the sentence of imprisonment imposed on him or her in respect of the offence concerned expires or, as the case may be, his or her remission from the sentence begins, or
