  - (c) the act or omission, where occurring otherwise than in connection with the practice of law, would justify a finding that the legal practitioner concerned is not a fit and proper person to engage in legal practice, 15
  - (d) the act or omission consists of an offence under this Act,
  - (e) the act or omission, in the case of a solicitor, consists of an offence under the Solicitors Acts 1954 to 2013, 20

  - (j) the act or omission consists of the commission of an arrestable offence,
  - (k) the act or omission consists of the commission of a crime or offence outside the State which, if committed within the State, would be an arrestable offence,
  - (l) the act consists of issuing a bill of costs which is grossly excessive,
  - (m) the act consists of a contravention of section 153(1). 35
- (2) In determining whether the act or omission referred to in paragraph (l) of subsection

(1) should be considered as constituting misconduct, the Authority, the Divisional Committee, the Disciplinary Tribunal or, as the case may be, the High Court, may have regard to:

- (a) the amount by which or the extent to which the amount claimed in the bill of costs was found to be excessive; 5
  - (b) whether in the particular circumstances of the legal services performed the amount of the bill of costs appears to be unconscionable; and

Complaints in respect of legal practitioners

48. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, on or after the coming into operation of this Part, where a person wishes to make a complaint that a legal practitioner has, by act or omission, been guilty of misconduct, the complaint shall be made to the Authority. 15
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not act to prevent the Authority or a person who is aggrieved by the act or omission of a legal practitioner seeking assistance from a person with a view to resolving the matter to which a complaint relates.
- (3) In reckoning any period of time for the purposes of any limitation period in relation to the making of an application for adjudication of a bill of costs under Part 10 which bill of costs is or has been the subject of a complaint under this Part, the period beginning on the making of a complaint to the Authority and ending 2 months after the complaint is determined under this Part shall be disregarded. 20

Regulations regarding complaints

- (a) the making of complaints to the Authority under this Act, and
  - (b) the procedures to be followed by the Authority and the Complaints Committee in investigating complaints under this Act.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) regulations made under this section may provide in particular for the extension or abridgement by the Authority or the Complaints Committee of any period specified in the regulations for the doing of any thing, where the Authority or the Complaints Committee are satisfied that it is appropriate to do so and granting the extension or abridgement would not cause an injustice to the other parties to the complaint. 30
- (3) The Authority shall, in making regulations under this section, have as an objective that the manner in which complaints may be made, and the procedures to be followed by the complainant, the legal practitioner concerned and the Authority are as informal as is consistent with the principles of fair procedures and that undue expense is not incurred by the complainant or the legal practitioner concerned in relation to the complaint. 35 40

Fees in respect of complaints

- 50. The Authority may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, make regulations prescribing the fee (if any) payable in respect of making a complaint made under this Act and the regulations may specify the circumstances in which the fee shall be refunded. 5

- (a) it is frivolous or vexatious, or
  - (b) it is without substance or foundation. 10
- (2) The Authority shall not consider a complaint in respect of a legal practitioner under this Part where it is satisfied that the act or omission to which the complaint relates is the same or substantially the same act or omission as that which was the subject matter of a complaint in respect of that legal practitioner which was previously determined under this Act. 15
- (3) The Authority shall not consider a complaint in respect of a solicitor where it is satisfied that the act or omission to which the complaint relates is—

- (4) The Authority shall not consider a complaint in respect of a barrister where it is satisfied that the act or omission to which the complaint relates is— 30
- (a) the same or substantially the same act or omission as that which was the subject matter of a complaint in respect of that barrister which was previously determined by the Barristers' Professional Conduct Tribunal, or
  - (b) the same or substantially the same act or omission as that which was the subject of civil proceedings or criminal proceedings in respect of which a final determination of the issues has been made by the court in those proceedings in favour of the barrister concerned. 35
- (5) (a) Where the Authority is satisfied that the act or omission to which a complaint relates is the subject of civil proceedings or criminal proceedings in respect of which a final determination of the issues has not been made by the court in those proceedings, the Authority may defer consideration of the complaint until the proceedings have been finally determined.

- (b) Where the Authority is satisfied that the act or omission to which a complaint relates has been investigated by a court in civil proceedings or criminal proceedings and that a final determination of the issues which are, in substance, the issues involved in the complaint has been made by the court in those proceedings in favour of the legal practitioner concerned, the Authority may decide to take no action or no further action in relation to the complaint. 5
- (c) Proceedings shall not be regarded as finally determined for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b) until any appeal, rehearing or retrial in relation to those proceedings has been determined.

- 53. (1) Where the member of the staff of the Authority who conducted a review of a complaint under section 52 is of the opinion that—

- (a) the main substance of the complaint is that the standard of the legal services provided by the legal practitioner concerned to the complainant, has fallen short, to a substantial degree, of the standard reasonably expected of a legal practitioner in the provision of those services and that the act or omission of the legal practitioner, if the complaint were substantiated, is such that the act or omission concerned could constitute misconduct within the meaning of section 47(1)(b), 5
- (b) the act or omission on the part of the legal practitioner which is the subject of the complaint does not relate to fraud or dishonesty,
- (c) the matter the subject of the complaint is capable of being substantially resolved by the legal practitioner concerned in a prompt manner in accordance with guidelines published by the Authority pursuant to section 57, 10 the Authority may invite the complainant and the legal practitioner concerned to make efforts to resolve the matter the subject of the complaint.

- (2) The agreement by the complainant and the legal practitioner to make efforts to resolve the matter the subject of the complaint shall not prevent the Authority continuing with its consideration or investigation of the complaint. 15
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where the Complaints Committee, the Disciplinary Tribunal or the High Court is satisfied that an act or omission of a legal practitioner the subject of a complaint has been resolved or that proper effort was made by the legal practitioner concerned to resolve the matter in accordance with this section, the Complaints Committee, Disciplinary Committee or the High Court, as the case may be, shall, in determining the appropriate sanction (if any) that should be imposed upon the legal practitioner, give due regard to the efforts to resolve the matter made by the legal practitioner concerned. 20

- 55. An agreement by a legal practitioner who is the subject of a complaint to attempt to resolve the complaint in the manner referred to in section 53 shall not be taken as an admission of any allegation of misconduct insofar as such misconduct consists of an act or omission on the part of the legal practitioner that in the provision of legal services the legal practitioner has fallen short to a substantial degree of the standards reasonably 40 expected of a legal practitioner.

Complaints relating to fraud or dishonesty

- 56. Where the complaint relates to a solicitor and the Authority considers that the complaint or a part of the complaint would constitute fraud or dishonesty on the part of the solicitor, if substantiated, the Authority may— 5
- (a) proceed to carry out an investigation under Part 5,
  - (b) refer the matter to the Complaints Committee, or
  - (c) request the Law Society to carry out an investigation under the Solicitors Acts 1954 to 2013.

- (8) A legal practitioner to whom subsection (7) applies shall, notwithstanding that subsection, provide legal services in relation to the matter concerned where— 5

  - (b) a court orders the legal practitioner to provide legal services to the client, or
  - (c) where the matter involves litigation, a notice of trial has been served in relation to the matter or a date has been fixed for the hearing of the matter concerned.

- (a) the legal practitioner need not also provide a notice referred to in subsection (2) of that section, and
  - (b) references to the notice under that section shall be taken to include references to the agreement. 40

- (3) An agreement under subsection (1) shall constitute the entire agreement between the legal practitioner and the client as respects the provision of legal services in relation to the matter concerned, and no other amount shall be chargeable in relation to those legal services, except to the extent otherwise indicated in the agreement.
- (4) An agreement under subsection (1) shall, in an adjudication under this Part, be amenable to adjudication by the Chief Legal Costs Adjudicator or a Legal Costs Adjudicator. 5

- (5) Failure by a client to pay a bill of costs to a legal practitioner within the time period referred to in section 127(5) shall not be construed as a formal communication of the existence of a dispute by the client to the legal practitioner. 5

- (2) Where an adjudication concerns only legal costs as between a legal practitioner and his or her client, and the Legal Costs Adjudicator has determined that the aggregate of the amounts to be paid is less than 15 per cent lower than the aggregate of those amounts set out in the bill of costs, the party chargeable to those costs shall pay the costs of the adjudication. 35
- (3) Where a Legal Costs Adjudicator has determined that the aggregate of the amounts to be paid in respect of the legal costs referred to in subsection (2) is 15 per cent or more than 15 per cent lower than the aggregate of those amounts set out in the bill of costs, the legal practitioner who issued the bill of costs shall be responsible for the costs of the adjudication. 40
