ACT REFERRED TO

Gender Recognition Act 2015 (No. 25)
Bill

entitled

An Act to amend the Gender Recognition Act 2015 to provide a right to self-determination for persons who have reached the age of 16 years; to introduce a right to legal gender recognition for persons under the age of 16 years; and to ensure consideration of the status of non-binary persons in Irish law.

Be it enacted by the Oireachtas as follows:

Interpretation

1. In this Act—

“Minister” means the Minister for Social Protection;

“Principal Act” means the Gender Recognition Act 2015.

Amendment of section 7 of Principal Act — the status of non-binary persons in the review of operation of Act

2. Section 7 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) in paragraph (b) by the substitution of “drawn from the findings, and” for “drawn from the findings.”, and

(b) by the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (b):

“(c) ensure that the review of the operation of this Act specifically considers, amongst the other topics and questions determined appropriate by the Minister, the possibility of providing legal gender recognition to persons who have a preferred gender which is neither man/male nor female/woman.”.

Amendment of section 9 of Principal Act — right to self-determination for persons who have reached the age of 16 years

3. Section 9 of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (2)(a) by the substitution of “the age of 16 years on the date he or she makes an application” for “the age of 18 years on the date he or she makes an application”.

Amendment of section 12 of Principal Act — legal gender recognition for persons under the age of 16 years

4. (1) Section 12 of the Principal Act is amended in subsection (1) by the substitution of “has not attained the age of 16 years” for “has attained the age of 16 but not 18 years”.
