AN BILLE UM MIONNÚ ÉITHIGH AGUS CIONTA GAOLMHARA, 2018
PERJURY AND RELATED OFFENCES BILL 2018

Bill

entitled

An Act to consolidate and simplify the law relating to perjury and related offences and for that purpose to update certain penalties, and to provide for related matters. 5

Be it enacted by the Oireachtas as follows:

Definitions

1. In this Act—

“affidavit”, in the case of a person for the time being allowed by law to declare instead of swearing, includes declaration; 10

“judicial or other proceeding” means a proceeding relating to the administration of justice before any court and includes a proceeding before any tribunal, other body or person having by law power to hear, receive and examine evidence on oath;

“oath”, in the case of a person for the time being allowed by law to affirm or declare instead of swearing, includes affirmation or declaration; 15

“perjury” has the same meaning that it has in section 2(1);

“relevant Act” does not include—

(a) a private Act, or

(b) a local and personal Act, 20

to which the Statute Law Revision Act 2007 or the Statute Law Revision Act 2009 relates;

“statutory declaration” means a declaration made under the Statutory Declarations Act 1938;

“subornation of perjury” has the same meaning that it has in section 3(1); 25

“swear”, in the case of a person for the time being allowed by law to affirm or declare instead of swearing, includes affirm and declare.

Perjury

2. (1) If any person lawfully sworn as a witness or as an interpreter in a judicial or other proceeding gives a statement material in that proceeding that— 30

- (a) is false, and
 - (b) he or she knows to be false,
- then he or she commits the offence of perjury.
- (2) Where a statement made for the purposes of a judicial or other proceeding is not made before the court, tribunal, other body or person concerned but is made on oath before a person authorised by law to administer an oath to the person who makes the statement, and to record or authenticate the statement, then for the purposes of this section it shall be treated as having been made in such a proceeding. 5
- (3) Where pursuant to an enactment a statement (by whatever name referred to) is made by a person lawfully sworn and is made either— 10
- (a) within the State for the purposes of a proceeding outside the State and such proceeding corresponds to a judicial or other proceeding in the State, or
 - (b) outside the State for the purposes of a judicial or other proceeding within the State,
- then, the statement shall, unless otherwise provided by any enactment, be treated for the purposes of this Act as a statement made for the purposes of a judicial or other proceeding in the State. 15
- (4) The question whether a statement on which the offence of perjury is assigned was material is a question of law to be determined by the court of trial.
- (5) This section is without prejudice to the Criminal Justice (Mutual Assistance) Act 2008. 20

Subornation of perjury

3. (1) Without prejudice to section 7 of the Criminal Law Act 1997, a person commits an offence of subornation of perjury if he or she procures, persuades, induces or otherwise causes another person to make, while lawfully sworn in a judicial or other proceeding, a statement that is false. 25
- (2) The question whether a statement on which the offence of subornation of perjury is assigned was material is a question of law to be determined by the court of trial.
- (3) This section is without prejudice to the Criminal Justice (Mutual Assistance) Act 2008. 30

References to perjury or subornation of perjury

4. (1) Except where the context otherwise requires—
- (a) a reference to perjury in any law or enactment shall be read as a reference to perjury as provided for by section 2, and
 - (b) a reference to subornation of perjury in any law or enactment shall be read as suborning another to commit perjury as provided for by section 3. 35
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) and for convenience of reference there is set out—
- (a) in Part 1 of Schedule 1 a list of provisions in relevant Acts that contain references to perjury or subornation of perjury, and

- (b) in Part 2 of Schedule 1 a list of provisions in instruments made under relevant Acts that contain references to perjury.

False statements on oath made otherwise than in judicial and other proceedings

5. (1) Any person required or authorised by law to make any statement on oath for any purpose, and being lawfully sworn (otherwise than in judicial or other proceedings) who gives or dishonestly causes to be given, or adduces or dishonestly causes to be adduced, a statement material in those proceedings that—
- (a) is false in any material respect, and
- (b) he or she knows to be false, commits an offence. 10
- (2) A person commits an offence if he or she gives or dishonestly causes to be given, or adduces or dishonestly causes to be adduced, any false affidavit for the purposes of the Bills of Sale (Ireland) Acts 1879 to 1883.

False statutory declarations and other false statements without oath 15

6. (1) A person commits an offence if he or she, otherwise than on oath, gives or dishonestly causes to be given, or adduces or dishonestly causes to be adduced, a statement material in those proceedings that is false in any material respect, and he or she knows to be false and the statement is made in any of the following:
- (a) a statutory declaration; 20
- (b) an abstract, account, balance sheet, book, certificate, declaration, entry, estimate, inventory, notice, report, return, or other document which the person is authorised or required to make, attest, or verify, by or under any relevant Act;
- (c) any oral declaration or oral answer which the person is required to make by, under, or in pursuance of any relevant Act. 25
- (2) This section does not apply in respect of an offence to which section 69 of the Civil Registration Act 2004 applies.

Fabrication of evidence

7. A person commits an offence if he or she, with intent to mislead any judicial or other proceeding— 30
- (a) fabricates evidence by any means other than as provided for in respect of perjury or subornation of perjury, or
- (b) knowingly makes use of such fabricated evidence.

False declarations, etc., to obtain registration, etc., for carrying on a vocation or profession 35

8. A person commits an offence if he or she—

- (a) procures or attempts to procure himself or herself to be registered on any register or roll, by whatever name called, kept under or in pursuance of any relevant Act of persons qualified by law to practise any vocation, profession or other calling, or
- (b) procures or attempts to procure a certificate of the registration, by whatever name called, of any person on any such register or roll, gives or dishonestly causes to be given, or adduces or dishonestly causes to be adduced verbally or in writing, any declaration, certificate, or representation which is false in any material respect, and he or she knows to be false. 5

Incitement to commit offence 10

- 9. A person commits an offence if he or she incites another person to commit an offence against this Act.

Corroboration

- 10. A person accused of an offence under this Act, or of any offence declared by any other Act— 15

- (a) to be perjury or subornation of perjury, or
- (b) to be punishable as perjury or subornation of perjury,

shall not be liable to be convicted of that offence upon the evidence of one witness only unless that evidence is corroborated in some material particular by evidence that implicates the person so accused. 20

Proof of certain proceedings on which perjury is assigned

- 11. On a prosecution—
 - (a) for perjury alleged to have been committed on the trial of an indictment, or
 - (b) for procuring or suborning the commission of perjury on any such trial, the fact of the former trial shall be sufficiently proved by the production of a certificate containing the substance and effect (omitting the formal parts) of the indictment and trial purporting to be signed by the registrar of the court concerned, or other person having the custody of the records of the court where the indictment was tried, or by the deputy of that registrar or such other person, without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the certificate. 25 30

Form of oath and perjury, etc.

- 12. For the purposes of this Act, the forms and ceremonies used in administering an oath are immaterial, if—
 - (a) the court or person before whom the oath is taken has power to administer an oath for the purpose of verifying the statement in question, and 35
 - (b) if the oath has been administered in a form and with ceremonies which the person taking the oath has accepted without objection or has declared to be binding on him or her.

Penalties

13. A person who commits an offence under this Act is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a class B fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both, 5
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years or to both.

Proceedings for offences

14. (1) Proceedings for an offence under this Act, or for the offence of perjury or subornation of perjury provided otherwise than under this Act, may only be brought and prosecuted by the Director of Public Prosecutions. 10
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10(4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851, summary proceedings in relation to an offence under this section may be commenced—
- (a) at any time within 12 months from the date on which the offence was committed, or 15
 - (b) at any time within 6 months from the date on which evidence that, in the opinion of the person by whom such proceedings are brought, is sufficient to justify the bringing of proceedings, comes to such person's knowledge,
- whichever is the later, but no such proceedings shall be commenced later than 3 years 20 from the date on which the offence concerned was committed.

Savings

15. (1) Where the making of a false statement is not only an offence under this Act but also by virtue of some other enactment is a corrupt practice or subjects the offender to any forfeiture or disqualification or to any penalty other than imprisonment or fine, then the liability of the offender under this Act shall be in addition to and not in substitution for his or her liability under that other enactment. 25
- (2) Without prejudice to the provisions of Part III of the Children Act 1997 that relate to a statement made in civil proceedings without oath by a child (within the meaning of that Part), nothing in this Act applies to a statement so made. 30
- (3) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), where the making of a false statement is by any other Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, made punishable on summary conviction, then those proceedings may be taken either under that other Act or under this Act.
- (b) Where the making of a false statement under a provision of any Act passed before the commencement of this Act is not punishable as an indictable offence but as a summary offence only, then paragraph (a) does not apply to such provision. 35

Repeals and amendments

16. (1) The Perjury Act 1586 and the Perjury Act 1729 are repealed.
- (2) The provisions of the Acts referred to in column (2) of Schedule 2 are amended in the manner referred to in column (4) of that Schedule opposite the reference in column (3) to the provision concerned. 5

Short title and commencement

17. (1) This Act may be cited as the Perjury and Related Offences Act 2019.
- (2) The Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893 to 2018, this subsection and, in so far as they relate to the amendment to the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1893, section 15(2) and Schedule 2 may be cited together as the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893 to 2019 and shall be read together as one. 10
- (3) The Friendly Societies Acts 1896 to 2018, this subsection and, in so far as they relate to the amendment to the Friendly Societies Act 1896, section 15(2) and Schedule 2 may be cited together as the Friendly Societies Acts 1896 to 2019 and shall be read together as one. 15
- (4) The Insurance Acts 1909 to 2018, this subsection and, in so far as they relate to the amendment to the Assurance Companies Act 1909, section 15(2) and Schedule 2 may be cited together as the Insurance Acts 1909 to 2019 and shall be read together as one.
- (5) This Act comes into operation on such day or days as the Minister may by order appoint, either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision, and different days may be so fixed for different purposes and different provisions. 20
