entitled

An Act to provide for amendments to the Regulation of Lobbying Act 2015, to extend the definition of persons to which the Act applies, to allow the Commission to provide directions on communication, to provide that the Code of Conduct be laid before the Oireachtas; to provide the Commission with further powers to investigate and report on breaches of the Code of Conduct; to extend the cooling-off period to two years, to extend the scope of section 22 of the Regulation of Lobbying Act 2015 and to make a failure to comply with that section an offence; to ensure that Designated Public Officials are aware of post-employment obligations; to allow the Commission to publish certain details regarding its decisions to waive or reduce the cooling-off period; to provide for anti-avoidance clause be added to the list of relevant contraventions, and related matters.

Be it enacted by the Oireachtas as follows:

Interpretation

1. In this Act, “Principal Act” means the Regulation of Lobbying Act 2015.

Amendment of section 5 of Principal Act

2. (1) Section 5(2) of the Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (c):

“(d) that the person is a business representative body, or coalition of business interests, irrespective of the number or status of employees, where one or more of the members of the business representative body or coalition of business interests would fall within the scope of one of the paragraphs (a) to (c) above, if they were to carry on lobbying activities outside of the business representative body, or coalition of business interests.”.

(2) Section 5 of the Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (9):

“(10) The names of individual persons, who carry on lobbying activities as part of a business representative body or coalition of business interests, as provided in section 5(2)(d) above, shall be included on the returns of the business representative body or coalition of business interests that are furnished to the Commission under this Act.”.

Amendment of section 11 of Principal Act

3. Section 11(1) of the Principal Act is amended by the substitution of the following for paragraph (b): 5

“(b) the address (or principal address) at which the person carries on business or main activities or (if there is no such address) the address at which the person ordinarily resides,”.

Duties of Designated Public Officials

4. Part 2 of the Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following new section after section 16: 10

“Duties of Designated Public Officials

- 16A. (1) Where a Designated Public Official is aware that a person or body carrying on lobbying activities has failed to comply with the registration of lobbying activities in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Designated Public Official shall cease any further communication with such a person or body and shall inform the person or body in writing the reasons why such communication has ceased. 15
- (2) Where communication has ceased in accordance with subsection (1) above, a Designated Public Official shall inform the Commission of the communication in writing. 20
- (3) Where the Commission is made aware that a Designated Public Official has been or is in communication with a person or body carrying on lobbying activities where that person or body has failed to comply with the registration of lobbying activities in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Commission shall immediately direct the Designated Public Official to cease communication with that person or body. 25
- (4) Where the Commission is made aware that a Designated Public Official has been or is in communication with a person or body carrying on lobbying activities where that person or body has been guilty of a contravention in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Commission shall immediately direct the Designated Public Official to cease communication with that person or body. 30
- (5) Where communication has ceased under the provisions of this section, the Commission shall determine the duration of the cessation and shall have the power to direct that communication may be re-established between the Designated Public Official and the person or body carrying on lobbying activities.”. 35
