“Final Consultation

247A. (1) Following consultation(s) under section 247, a prospective applicant shall request a final consultation meeting with the planning authority in whose area the proposed development would be situated under this section.

- (2) A request to the planning authority by a prospective applicant to hold a final consultation meeting under this section shall be in writing and shall include the following:
 - (a) the name and address of the prospective applicant;
 - (b) a site location plan sufficient to identify the land;
 - (c) a brief description of the nature and purpose of the development and of its possible effects on the environment;
 - (d) a draft layout plan of the proposal;
 - (e) details of the pre-application consultations that may have taken place with prescribed bodies, community organisations, or the public;
 - (f) such further information as may be prescribed;
 - (g) such other information, drawings or representations as the prospective applicant may wish to provide or make available, and
 - (h) the appropriate fee.
- (3) A prospective applicant shall submit to the planning authority at the time of the request any further prescribed documentation to be discussed at the final consultation meeting.
- (4) The planning authority shall convene a final consultation meeting within 4 weeks of receipt of the prospective applicant's request, to be attended by the planning authority, the prospective applicant or his/her representative, or both, and planning authority officials who have sufficient level of relevant knowledge and expertise in the matter concerned, and community organisations, who may subsequently submit observations to the planning authority within 2 weeks of the final consultation.
- (5) The planning authority on receipt of the request, shall issue the documentation received or parts thereof, to any relevant prescribed bodies, including relevant community organisations, that in the opinion of the planning authority may have relevant observations in relation to the proposed development.
- (6) The failure of a prescribed body to respond to a request under subsection (5) shall not prevent the planning authority from proceeding under this section to deal with the request concerned.
- (7) The planning authority may, at its discretion, consult with any person including community organisations, who may have information that is relevant for the purposes of consultations relating to a proposed development under this section.

- (8) The planning authority shall be required, within 4 weeks of the holding of the final consultation meeting, to form, and issue to the prospective applicant any relevant prescribed bodies, including relevant community organisations, an opinion as to whether the documents submitted for the final consultation meeting constitute a reasonable basis for making an application for permission for the proposed development.
- (9) The planning authority shall in appropriate cases, set out in the opinion issued under subsection (8) its advice as to any issues that need to be addressed in the relevant documents that could result in them constituting a reasonable basis for making an application for permission.
- (10) An opinion issued under subsection (9) shall be valid for 1 year from the date of issue of that opinion.
- (11) Following receipt of an opinion from the planning authority, the prospective applicant may proceed to apply for permission for the proposed development under section 34 of the Principal Act.
- (12) Neither the holding of a consultation under section 247 or a final consultation meeting under this section, nor the forming of an opinion under this section, shall prejudice the performance by the planning authority of its respective functions under the Principal Act or any other enactment.
- (13) The planning authority shall keep a record of any consultations or request for consultations under this section that relate to a proposed large-scale residential development, including the names of those who participated in the consultations or request for consultations, and a copy of such record shall be placed and kept with the documents to which any application in respect of that proposed development relates which shall only be made public when a planning application in respect of the proposed development is made under section 34.
- (14) A member or official of a planning authority is guilty of an offence if he or she takes or seeks any favour, benefit or payment, direct or indirect (on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any other person or body), in connection with any consultation entered into or any advice given under this section.
- (15) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2)(f), the matters that may be the subject of regulations under that subparagraph may include but shall not be limited to a description of—
 - (a) the proposed types of houses and/or student accommodation units and their design, including proposed internal floor areas, housing density, plot ratio, site coverage, building heights, proposed layout and aspect,

- (b) public and private open space provision, landscaping, play facilities, pedestrian permeability, vehicular access, and parking provision,
 - (c) where relevant the provision of ancillary services, where required, including childcare facilities,
 - (d) any proposals to address or, where relevant, integrate the proposed development with surrounding land uses,
 - (e) any proposals to provide for services infrastructure (including water, wastewater and cabling, including broadband provision), and any phasing proposals,
 - (f) proposals under Part V of this Act, where relevant,
 - (g) details of protected structures or archaeological monuments included in the Record of Monuments and Places, where relevant, and
 - (h) any aspect of the proposed development likely to have significant effects on the environment or significant effects on a European site.
- (16) The Minister may make regulations to provide for such matters of procedure and administration as appear to the Minister to be necessary or expedient in respect of matters to which this section relates, including—
- (a) items which may be considered at the final consultation meeting, and
 - (b) the conducting of the final consultation meeting and the forming an opinion under this section.”.”.

—Thomas Pringle.

22. In page 17, to delete lines 6 to 39, and in page 18, to delete lines 1 to 7.

—Richard Boyd Barrett, Gino Kenny, Paul Murphy, Bríd Smith.

23. In page 17, line 15, to delete “within the period of 16 weeks” and substitute “to the planning authority within the period of 8 weeks”.

—Eoin Ó Broin, Thomas Gould.

24. In page 17, line 15, to delete “16 weeks” and substitute “6 weeks”.

—Cian O'Callaghan.
