- (3) The Minister shall, in a manner ensuring the independence of adjudicators in the performance of their functions, prescribe categories of persons who may be nominated and criteria, including requirements and qualifications, by which to 35

determine whether or not a person is eligible to be nominated by the Commission for appointment by the Minister as adjudicators (including a Chief Adjudicator).

Appointment of adjudicators

76. (1) The Minister shall appoint persons (referred to in this Act as “adjudicators”) to make adjudications. 5
- (2) The Minister shall appoint a person nominated by the Commission under section 75 unless the Minister—

- (4) Where an adjudicator believes that performing any of his or her functions as an adjudicator would give rise to the perception of any potential conflict of interest, the adjudicator shall disclose that fact to the Commission and to the parties concerned in the matter with which the adjudicator is dealing, and shall, having regard to any submissions received from the person concerned or from the Commission, consider whether it is necessary to recuse himself or herself from the proceedings in question. 5

- (9) A member of the Commission may not during his or her term of office serve as Chief Adjudicator. 30

- (2) If a document contains a statement by a person specified in subsection (3) asserting that an act has been done, or is, or was, proposed to be done, by another person, being an act that relates to a regulatory breach (the “relevant act”) then subject to the conditions specified in subsection (4) being satisfied, that statement shall be admissible in proceedings in respect of the regulatory breach as evidence that the relevant act was done by that other person or was proposed (at the time the statement was made, or, as the case may be, at a previous time) to be done by him or her. 15
- (3) The person referred to in subsection (2) is a person who has done an act of the kind referred to in that subsection in relation to the regulatory breach (whether or not the same as the act which the other person referred to in that subsection is alleged to have done or proposed to do). 20

- (b) evidence may, with the leave of the court or adjudicator seised of the proceedings, be given of any matter which, if that person had been called as a witness, could have been put to him or her in cross-examination as relevant to his or her credibility but of which evidence could not be adduced by the cross-examining party, and 40

- (c) evidence tending to prove that that person, whether before or after making the statement, made (whether orally or not) a statement which is inconsistent with it shall, if not already admissible by virtue of any rule of law or other enactment, be admissible for the purpose of showing that he or she has contradicted himself or herself. 5
- (7) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the admissibility in any proceedings under this Act before a court or an adjudicator of any document, as evidence of any matters stated in it—
 - (a) that is so admissible by virtue of any rule of law or other enactment, or
 - (b) in respect of adjudicators, that would be admissible before a Court hearing civil proceedings by virtue of any rule of law or other enactment. 10

- (i) disproportionate,
 - (ii) in excess of the sanction required to be dissuasive,
 - (iii) in excess of the sanction required to be effective, or

- (6) The Court— 5
- (a) where it makes a determination referred to in subsection (5)(a), or both a determination referred to in subsection (5)(a) and a determination referred to in subsection (5)(b), in relation to an application under subsection (1), shall remit the matter for reconsideration by an adjudicator, subject to such directions as the Court considers appropriate including, as the Court sees fit, directions as to whether or not— 10 and 15

 - (b) where it makes a determination referred to in subsection (5)(b), but does not make a determination referred to in subsection (5)(a), in relation to an application under subsection (1) may—
 - (i) order either or both that a lesser amount be substituted for the amount of the financial penalty, compensation or refund, and that any suspension or withdrawal of authorisation or rights of use specified in the adjudication be reduced or removed, and confirm the adjudication subject to such substitution, and 20
 - (ii) where the Court does not make an order referred to in subparagraph (i) and considers that the interests of justice so require, remit the matter for reconsideration by an adjudicator, subject to such directions as the Court considers appropriate including, as the Court sees fit, directions as to whether or not— 25
 - (I) the adjudicator should be limited to reconsidering a specific aspect of an adjudication, and 30
 - (II) the matter should be reconsidered by another adjudicator.
- (7) The Court shall hear the application under subsection (1) on the evidence before the adjudicator.

- (10) Where the Court confirms or substitutes its own decision for the decision of an adjudicator imposing a requirement to cease a regulatory breach, a requirement to take specified measures to remedy the breach, a financial penalty or a requirement to 40 pay compensation or a refund, the Court may set a time limit for the requirement to be carried out or the payment of the financial penalty or compensation or refund concerned.

- (11) The Commission shall, prior to making an application under subsection (1), seek the consent in writing of the person to the confirmation of the adjudication of the adjudicator. 5

Publication of adjudication

- 110. The Commission shall publish an adjudication confirmed by the Court under section 109 (save where such publication would, in the opinion of the Commission, prejudice the achievement of the objectives of this Act) subject to such redactions as the Commission may consider necessary and appropriate in order to protect the rights of the parties or any other person, to protect commercially sensitive information, or for any other good and sufficient reason, on the website of the Commission as soon as practicable after the adjudication is confirmed. 10 15

Adjudicator may refer question of law to Court

- 111. (1) An adjudicator may, on her or his own initiative or at the request of the Commission or a person the subject of a referral under section 71, refer to the Court for decision by way of case-stated a question of law arising at a hearing on a referral under section 71. 20
- (2) Where a question has been referred under subsection (1), the adjudicator shall not, in relation to a referral under section 71 to which the hearing relates—
- (a) make a decision under section 90 or 91 to which the question is relevant while the reference to the Court is pending, or 25
- (b) proceed in a manner, or make a decision under section 90 or 91, that is inconsistent with the Court's decision on the question.
- (3) Where a question is referred to the Court under subsection (1)—
- (a) the adjudicator shall send to the Court all documents before the adjudicator that are relevant to the matter in question, and 30

Judicial review

- 112. (1) The validity of a decision made or an act done by the Commission (including by an authorised officer or adjudicator) in the performance of a function under Chapters 1 to 7 or Part 6 (whether such function is performed by way of powers conferred by or under this Act or otherwise) shall not be challenged other than— 35

- (a) by way of an application for judicial review under Order 84 of the Rules of the Superior Courts (S.I. No. 15 of 1986) (in this section referred to as “Order 84”), and in accordance with this section, or
- (b) in accordance with a process provided for in the Principal Act or this Act by which the validity of such decision or act may be challenged. 5
- (2) Notwithstanding section 104, a person affected by, but not the subject of, a decision under section 90 or 91 may, not later than 14 days after the decision is published, apply to the Court by way of an application for judicial review under Order 84 and in accordance with this section.
- (3) At any time after the bringing of an application for leave to apply for judicial review of any decision or other act to which subsection (1) applies and which relates to a matter for the time being before the Commission (including a matter before an adjudicator), the Commission may apply to the Court to stay the proceedings pending the making of a decision by the Commission (including a decision by an adjudicator) in relation to the matter concerned. 10 15
- (4) On the making of an application to stay proceedings referred to in subsection (3), the Court may, where it considers that the matter before the Commission (including an adjudicator and an authorised officer) is within the jurisdiction of the Commission (including an adjudicator and an authorised officer), make an order staying the proceedings concerned on such terms as it thinks fit. 20
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), an application for leave to apply for judicial review under Order 84 in respect of a decision or other act to which subsection (1) applies shall be made in respect of a decision made or an act done under Chapters 1 to 7 or Part 6 not later than 28 days from the date on which the notice of the decision or act was first sent or published as the case may be or, if notice of the decision or act was not sent or published, from the date on which the person or persons became aware of the decision or act. 25
- (6) The Court may extend the period provided for in subsection (5) within which an application for leave referred to in that subsection may be made but shall only do so if it is satisfied that— 30
- (a) there is good and sufficient reason for doing so, and
- (b) the circumstances that resulted in the failure to make the application for leave within the period so provided were outside the control of the applicant for the extension.
- (7) An application for leave under this section shall be made by motion ex parte and shall be grounded in the manner specified in Order 84 in respect of an ex parte motion for leave. 35
- (8) The Court hearing the ex parte application for leave may decide, having regard to the issues arising, the likely impact of the proceedings on the Commission or the person concerned or another party, or for other good and sufficient reason, that the application for leave should be conducted on an inter partes basis and may adjourn the application on such terms as it may direct in order that a notice may be served on that person. 40

- (9) If the Court directs that the leave hearing is to be conducted on an inter partes basis it shall be by motion on notice (grounded in the manner specified in Order 84 in respect of an ex parte motion for leave)—
- (a) if the application relates to a decision made or other act done by the Commission (including an adjudicator and an authorised officer) in the performance or purported performance of a function under this Act or the Principal Act, to the Commission (including an adjudicator and an authorised officer) concerned, and 5
 - (b) to any other person specified for that purpose by order of the Court.
- (10) The Court may— 10
- (a) on the consent of all of the parties, or
 - (b) where there is good and sufficient reason for so doing and it is just and equitable in all the circumstances,
- treat the application for leave as if it were the hearing of the application for judicial review and may for that purpose adjourn the hearing on such terms as it may direct. 15
- (11) The Court shall not grant leave under this section unless it is satisfied that—
- (a) there are substantial grounds for contending that the decision or act concerned is invalid or ought to be quashed,
 - (b) the applicant is materially affected by or has a sufficient interest in the matter which is the subject of the application, and 20
 - (c) the matter does not relate to a decision by an adjudicator under section 90 or 91.
- (12) If the court grants leave under this section, no grounds shall be relied upon in the application for judicial review under Order 84 other than those determined by the Court to be substantial under subsection (11)(a).
- (13) The Court may, as a condition for granting leave under this section, require the applicant for such leave to give an undertaking as to damages. 25
- (14) If an application is made for judicial review under Order 84 in respect of part only of a decision or other act to which subsection (1) applies, the Court may, if it thinks fit, declare to be invalid or quash the part concerned or any provision thereof without declaring invalid or quashing the remainder of the decision or other act or part of the decision or other act, and if the Court does so, it may make any consequential amendments to the remainder of the decision or other act or the part thereof that it considers appropriate. 30
- (15) The Court shall, in determining an application under this section or an application for judicial review on foot of such leave— 35
- (a) act as expeditiously as possible consistent with the administration of justice, and
 - (b) give such priority as it reasonably can, having regard to all the circumstances, to the disposal of proceedings in that Court under this section.

Appeals to Court of Appeal

- 113. (1) An appeal to the Court of Appeal shall lie in respect of a determination of the High Court on an appeal under section 106 in respect of a decision by an adjudicator under section 90 or 91.
- (2) The determination of the High Court on— 5
- (a) an appeal under section 105 against an urgent interim measures notice,

 - (c) an application for judicial review of any other decision made or act done under this Act by the Commission (including decisions made or acts done under this Act by an authorised officer or by an adjudicator), 10
 - (d) a reference to the Court by way of case-stated by an adjudicator under section 111, or
 - (e) an application to the High Court for compliance with an urgent interim measure under section 57,
- shall be final and no appeal shall lie from the decision of the High Court to the Court of Appeal in any case save with leave of the High Court, which leave shall only be granted where the High Court certifies that its decision involves a point of law of exceptional public importance and that it is desirable in the public interest that an appeal should be made to the Court of Appeal. 15
