Mr. Sean Fleming T.D.

Chair, Committee of Public Accounts,

Leinster House,

Dublin 2.

19th June 2017.

Dear Deputy Fleming,

Further to my attendance at the meeting of the Committee of Public Accounts on 14th June, I committed to revert, with a view to clarifying a potential misunderstanding, with the names of individuals involved in two distinct Groups. As suggested by yourself I will distinguish the two Groups by using different titles – I will simply refer to them as Group 1 and Group 2.

Group 1 met at my behest in early July (first/second week from memory), following information provided to me by John Barrett, to gain a fuller understanding of issues identified in the Garda College.

In addition to myself, those involved in Group 1 were;

John Barrett (Human Resources)

Michael Culhane (Finance)

Patrick McCabe, Anne-Marie McMahon, Sheamus Nolan (Garda College)

Group 2 was convened at the behest of the Commissioner, following a meeting in the Garda College on 27th July, to establish the facts, and to engage stakeholders, regarding issues identified in the Garda College. The Commissioner directed that Group 2 should have broad representation, including from Legal Affairs and Strategy & Change Management; and that the Department of Justice should be provided with all available documentation, and be invited to nominate a representative to be involved in Group 2.

In addition to myself, those involved in Group 2 were;

John Barrett (Human Resources)

Michael Culhane (Finance)

John Keegan (Strategy & Change Management)

Patrick McCabe, Anne-Marie McMahon (Garda College)

Ken Ruane (Legal Affairs) and latterly

Anne Barry, Paul McDonnell (Department of Justice, Equality, and Law Reform), following a request for a nominee.

I trust this clarifies the situation.

Yours sincerely,

Cyril Dunne
