Dear Margaret

Further to the queries below:

- The review was recently completed and presented to the Minister for his consideration.
- We expect to be in a position to provide a copy to the Public Accounts Committee within the next two weeks.

If there are any further queries, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Margaret

Subject: PAC 28 June 2018

Hi Margaret,

The Committee is currently working on its next periodic report on meetings from May to July and having reviewed the transcripts and documentation, I outline below a query that we have regarding the Department.

At the meeting of 28 June 2018, transcript here page 46, Ms Deirdre Donaghy of the Department of Finance stated that a review of the resources requirement of the Tax Appeals Commission being carried out by Ms Niamh O' Donoghue, former Secretary General of the Department of Social Protection had commenced and that the report of the review was expected to be delivered in mid-August 2018.

Questions/information requested

- Could you please provide an update on the review?
- If it has been completed and the report finalised, could a copy be provided for the Public Accounts Committee?

I would appreciate if this information could be made available in the next ten days.

Kind Regards
Margaret Falsey
