Dear Deputy O'Flynn,

I refer to your Parliamentary Question 43234/26, and subsequent clarification:

"To ask the Minister for Children; Disability and Equality whether any review has remained incomplete for more than five years."

(The question refers to any review, examination, evaluation, study, strategic review, policy review, inspection-related review, or other formal review process commissioned, initiated, overseen, funded, or conducted by the Department or its agencies under the remit of the Department that remains incomplete after five years from the date on which it commenced.)

As per your clarification, I can confirm that no review, examination, evaluation, study, strategic review, policy review, inspection-related review, or other formal review process commissioned, initiated, overseen, funded, or conducted by the Department, or the bodies listed below which are under the aegis of the Department, remains incomplete after five years from the date on which it commenced.

- Adoption Authority of Ireland
- National Disability Authority
- Oberstown Children Detention Campus
- Office of the Director of Authorised Intervention, Tuam
- Tusla, the Child and Family Agency

I have requested that the Ombudsman for Children's Office reply directly to you on this matter.

Additionally, the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission (IHREC) is an independent public body that accounts to the Oireachtas, with a mandate established under the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission Act 2014 (IHREC Act 2014). They will also respond to you directly.

I hope that you find this information helpful.

Kind regards,

Norma Foley TD

Minister for Children, Disability and Equality
