

Social Media Manager

Jason Kiernan is the Social Media Manager for the Houses of the Oireachtas (Irish Parliament) and referred to as the “OireachtasNews Guy”. Jason manages the Social Media Team and is responsible for the curation of all content on the official social media platforms. In June of 2018, Jason and the Social Media Team won a Social Media Award (or Sockie18) for ‘Best Facebook for a State Organisation’. Jason has championed the use of Facebook and Twitter LIVE at a very early stage and was responsible for the Irish Parliament being one of the first parliaments to utilise the LIVE streaming feature within the platforms. The use of the LIVE streaming feature has helped the Irish Parliament to truly engage with a new global audience, including Irish people abroad.

Jason Kiernan

Jason’s career spans over 20 years and he has worked in the civil service, the manufacturing industry and as an ICT Trainer. Jason has worked in the civil service for over 15 years and has worked for the Department of Business, Enterprise & Innovation; the Employment Appeals Tribunal; the Workplace Relations Commission; Private Secretary to the Leader of the Seanad (Irish Senate); the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission and now the Houses of the Oireachtas. Jason’s career has included areas such as consumer & employment law, public relations & communications, ICT training and now social media & digital marketing. Check out the Houses of the Oireachtas Social Media official profiles here:

Twitter - <https://twitter.com/OireachtasNews>

Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/OireachtasNews/>

Instagram - https://www.instagram.com/oireachtas_news/

LinkedIn - <https://ie.linkedin.com/company/oireachtas>