 - deplores the decision of the British government to cancel the Assembly elections due to be held on 29 May 2003;
 - demands that the British government:
 - fully restores the political institutions established under the Agreement;
 - sets a date for Assembly elections to be held before the end of the month of June 2003;
 - urges the Irish Government to:
 - provide for representation in the Dáil for citizens in the Six Counties; and
 - promote all-Ireland policies and strategies across the full range of Governmental responsibilities, recognising the benefits of an island-wide approach to public affairs for all the people of Ireland.”

33. “That Dáil Éireann:

- condemns the decision of the Government to cancel the order for five medium lift helicopters for the Air Corps which will have serious implications for the viability of the Air Corps and the effectiveness of our search and rescue services;
 - noting, in particular, that the White Paper on Defence, which was approved by the Government in February 2000, recognised the urgent equipment modernisation requirements of the Air Corps and the repeated statements from the Minister for Defence that the acquisition of these aircraft would provide a major boost for the organisation and were required to enable the Air Corps to play a pivotal role in search and rescue operations for the foreseeable future;
 - expresses concern also that the cancellation may jeopardise up to 1,500 jobs at FLS Aerospace in North Dublin, as agreement had been reached to provide significant additional business for the plant as part of the contract process;
- and calls on the Government to reverse the decision to cancel the order and to ensure that procedures to provide the five helicopters are re-instated without further delay.” — *Joe Sherlock, Ruairi Quinn, Brendan Howlin, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 34. “That Dáil Éireann immediately establish the Public Accounts Committee and mandate it:

- to review the policy implications of the abuses and regulatory shortcomings revealed by the Report of the Inspectors Appointed to Enquire into the affairs of Ansbacher (Cayman) Limited;
- to make recommendations as it sees fit, in particular in relation to reforms:
 - to improve the chances of detection and prosecution of such abuses,
 - to place clearer obligations on advisors, on directors and institutions in relation to such practices,
 - to strengthen the obligations of regulators in relation to investigation which they conduct and to amend the circumstances where confidentiality is afforded by regulators, and
- to ensure that regulatory supervision and revenue procedures are in accordance with best practice world wide.” — *Richard Bruton, Phil Hogan, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Jimmy Deenihan, Bernard J. 35. “That Dáil Éireann:

- condemns the decision of the Football Association of Ireland to enter into an arrangement to allow the pay channel, Sky Sports, exclusive rights to televise Irish home soccer internationals;
- notes that this move will result in many fans being deprived of the opportunity of watching the matches live on television and that it is likely to result in an increase in the number of young people and children viewing the matches in pubs;
- believes that this decision represents a betrayal of the fans who have loyally supported the Irish soccer team;
- deplores the failure of the Government to use the powers given to it by the Oireachtas in the Broadcasting (Major Events Television Coverage) Act, 1999, to designate these matches and other major sporting occasions as events of major importance to society for which the right of a qualifying broadcaster to provide coverage on free television services should be provided in the public interest;
- notes that there is nothing in Irish legislation or in the EU Directive, Television Without Frontiers, to prevent the Government from acting, even at this stage;

and calls on the Minister for Communications, Marine and Natural Resources to immediately make the required order and to include among the events designated Irish home soccer internationals.” — *Eamon Gilmore, Ruairi Quinn, Brendan Howlin, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Broughan, Joan Burton, Joe Costello, Micheal D. 36. “That Dáil Éireann notes:

- a shipment of plutonium mixed oxide was delivered to Japan in 1999 from British Nuclear Fuels Limited (BNFL) but, because crucial safety data was found to be falsified by BNFL, Japan refused to accept the fuel and it is now being returned to the United Kingdom, and
- the MOX is expected to be shipped through the Irish Sea and thus poses an unacceptable risk to the marine environment, coastline and population of Ireland;

calls on the Irish Government to:

- protest the shipment to the Japanese and British Governments;
- welcome the formation of a citizens’ flotilla of small yachts to peacefully express the Irish people’s opposition to the shipment;
- protest the proposed level of security as inadequate and demand an armed military escort capable of meeting any threat from terrorism accompany the shipment;
- request that the United States Administration, which must authorise the security arrangements of the transport, conduct a ‘threat assessment’ in the light of the new security situation created by the September 11th terrorist attack;
- demand that the Japanese and British Governments conduct a full, comprehensive and public environmental impact assessment in consultation with Ireland prior to the voyage;
- demand that the Japanese and British Governments consult with Ireland to formulate contingency plans and emergency preparations in case of an accident or incident;
- demand that the Japanese and British Governments accept full and unconditional liability for any and all harm to Ireland, including its marine environment, arising from the shipment and
- in the light of recent public statements by senior Japanese officials about overturning Japan’s constitutional commitment to reject nuclear weapons, request an urgent public review by the European Union member states of the proposed EURATOM-Japan Peaceful Nuclear Cooperation Agreement.”- Trevor Sargent, Ciarán Cuffe, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan.

37. “That Dáil Éireann:

- condemns the decision of the Government to cut the allocation for Overseas Development Aid (ODA) for this year by €32 million;
- regards the decision as particularly deplorable, given that much of Southern Africa is again facing the threat of widespread famine;
- believes that this decision represents a massive betrayal of the trust of those developing countries that supported Ireland’s election to the Security Council of the United Nations;
- calls on the Government to cancel the cutback and to ensure that ODA is maintained at the level promised;

- further calls on the Government to support the draft Bill prepared by the Labour Party, the Ireland Aid Bill, to ensure that commitments in regard to ODA are ring-fenced and cannot be cut back by any government.” — *Michael D. Higgins, Ruairi Quinn, Brendan Howlin, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 38. “That Dáil Éireann conscious of the new and highly dangerous international situation created by the appalling attacks in the United States on 11th September 2001:

- expresses its continuing sympathy for all the victims of the 11th September atrocities;
- voices its concern at the worsening situation in Palestine and Israel and urges the compliance by the Israeli Government with United Nations resolutions and an end to its military occupation of the Palestinian territories;
- reiterates its commitment to the peaceful resolution of all international disputes and calls upon the Irish Government to:
- strongly oppose the launching of a new war against Iraq by the United States Administration and the British Government, a war which has the potential to escalate far beyond Iraq with catastrophic consequences throughout the region and worldwide;
- cease immediately the practice of giving permission to foreign states to refuel, re-supply and train military aircraft in Irish airports and Irish airspace and to use Irish seaports for their naval vessels;
- use all its political and diplomatic resources in the United Nations and the European Union to promote a peaceful solution.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

[10 September, 2002]

39. “That Dáil Éireann:

- notes with concern the considerable increase in the number of notified redundancies arising from the economic downturn;
- condemns the refusal of a number of companies to pay redundancy terms recommended by the Labour Court;
- believes that the current statutory redundancy scheme, which has not been updated for many years, is totally inadequate to compensate for the loss of a job, as a worker on the average industrial wage with 30 years service could qualify for as little as €10,307;
- notes that the trade union movement regards this situation with sufficient seriousness that the ICTU has sanctioned nation-wide industrial action; and
- calls on the Government to introduce amending legislation to provide for:
 - an increase to three weeks pay for each year of service for redundant workers;
 - a reduction in the qualifying period for entitlement to payments from two years to one; and

- a raising of the ceiling for the calculation of the lump sum to €635 per week and that this figure be index linked.” — *Thomas P. Broughan, Ruairi Quinn, Brendan Howlin, Emmet Stagg, Joan Burton, Joe Costello, Eamon Gilmore, Michael D. 40. “That Dáil Éireann:

- notes the loss of confidence by the Irish people in the current Government;
 - calls for a comprehensive investigation into the delay in having Dáil Éireann decide on the implications of using Shannon Airport as a refueling base for the U.S. Air Force;
 - calls for a comprehensive investigation into the allegations that the Taoiseach was aware of the inexplicable large payments by developers to former Minister Ray Burke prior to his appointment;
 - calls for a comprehensive investigation into the manner in which the Government failed to declare the true state of the national economy prior to the last General Election;
 - condemns successive Ministers for the Environment for failing to overturn badly planned rezoning decisions; and
 - calls for an independent expert land use advisory group to be established as a bulwark against future bad rezoning decisions.” — Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Ciarán Cuffe, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan. [9 October, 2002]

41. “That Dáil Éireann:

- re-iterates its support for the Good Friday Agreement and the institutions established under it;
 - urges all parties to fully support the Agreement and its institutions, based as they are on the principle of inclusivity and respect for all electoral mandates;
 - would strongly oppose a suspension of the institutions by the British Government; and
 - calls upon the Irish Government to defend and promote the Agreement and the agenda for real change, reconciliation and lasting peace in Ireland.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan. [9 October, 2002]

- 42. “That Dáil Éireann welcomes the publication of a Government Green Paper on Basic Income, urges the development of a White Paper on the issue, and a future Government commitment to legislate in this area.” — Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Ciarán Cuffe, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan.

[15 October, 2002]

43. “That Dáil Éireann fully supports the enlargement of the European Union and welcomes the forthcoming accession of new States to the Union, providing that it is the expressed will of their people in referenda in each applicant State, and that they fulfil the democratic and human rights’ standards stipulated in the Copenhagen Criteria.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.
[15 October, 2002]

[15 October, 2002]

45. “That Dáil Éireann condemns the Minister for Agriculture and Food for:

- his failure to assist in the dispute between livestock farmers and the meat industry;
- his failure to promote export markets;
- his failure to amend the operation of the National Sheep Identification System;
- his failure to distribute 7 million gallons of milk quota as granted under Agenda 2000 by the expected date in May 2002;
- his failure to ensure the operation of the Dairy Herd Certification Scheme and the National Beef Assurance Scheme;
- his failure to address the difficulties of grain and maize farmers;
- his failure to maximise the potential of the REPS Scheme and the Early Retirement Scheme;
- his failure to implement an equitable sheep De-stocking Policy; and
- his failure to establish the detail of the Fischler proposals.” — *Billy Timmins, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Jimmy Deenihan, Bernard J. 46. “That Dáil Éireann aware of the growing number of families on housing lists and the great financial difficulties facing those trying to buy homes;

- condemns the decision of the Government to abolish the first time buyers housing grant;
- believes that the decision will make it more difficult for first time buyers to compete with investors in the housing market; and
- calls for the immediate reversal of the decision and the reinstatement of the grant scheme.” — *Eamon Gilmore, Pat Rabbitte, Liz McManus, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Broughan, Joan Burton, Joe Costello, Michael D. 47. “That Dáil Éireann notes:

- the growing crisis in the care of the disabled;
- Government failure to fund the additional residential, respite or day care places required to meet either planned or emergency demand in 2003;
- the complete absence of training, sheltered employment or day placements to meet the needs of this years disabled school leavers;
- the continuing practice of placing disabled persons in psychiatric hospitals;
- the withdrawal of the waiting list funding programme while 1,700 people still await residential services; and
- mindful that 2003 is the European Year of the People with Disabilities and also the year Ireland hosts the Special Olympics, calls on the Government:
 - to restore funding for the New Services Development Programme until waiting lists for residential care are reduced to realistic and manageable levels;
 - to ensure every disabled school leaver can access a day service appropriate to their needs; and
 - to finally end the travesty whereby the parents, siblings and other carers of the disabled are repeatedly forced onto the streets to campaign for basic services.” — *Olivia Mitchell, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Jimmy Deenihan, Bernard J. [29 January, 2003]

48. “That Dáil Éireann:

- expresses its deep concern at the major build-up of troops and weapons in the Gulf Region by the United States and a number of other countries, apparently in preparation for a war against Iraq at a time when the United Nations Arms Inspectors have not yet completed their mandate and when the Security Council has not yet considered what response, if any, is required to the report of the Inspectors;
- notes with alarm a recent UN report pointing to the potentially catastrophic consequences of a war, which include half a million direct or indirect casualties, the outbreak of disease and the displacement of hundreds of thousands of civilians;
- further expresses concern at the provision of facilities at Shannon Airport for US troops and equipment as part of the build up for war, especially without any reference to the Oireachtas; and
- condemns Saddam Hussein for the heinous crimes he has committed against his own people and calls on the Iraqi Government to comply in full with all resolutions of the UN Security Council;

calls on the Irish Government to:

- join with countries like France and Germany in efforts to avoid war and to promote a specific settlement of this dispute, in accordance with the principles of Article 29.2 of the Constitution; and

- suspend the provision of any facilities at Shannon Airport that could be used to facilitate preparations for a war against Iraq.” — *Pat Rabbitte, Liz McManus, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Broughan, Joan Burton, Joe Costello, Eamon Gilmore, Michael D. [29 January, 2003]

49. “That Dáil Éireann, taking account of the humanitarian issues involved and the consequent need for care and consideration, calls on the Government to confirm:

- its opposition to unilateral attacks against Iraq;
 - that only multi-lateral action supported by the UN will be considered;
 - that prior Dáil approval for Irish refuelling or over-flight facilities will be sought if multi-lateral action is authorised by the UN;
 - that they have sought independent verification of the Blair dossier on Iraq which makes specific claims about Iraq’s weapon stocks;
 - that every proactive step possible is being taken to show that we stand with civilised, democratic states and against demagogues and dictators;
 - that Ireland’s security and defence needs have been reassessed;
 - that the General Affairs and External Relations Council of the EU will be asked to consider what contribution the EU will make to stability and prosperity in Iraq post Saddam Hussein; and
 - that it is raising the alarming concerns expressed by UN Inspector Dr. Hans Blix in relation to unanswered questions concerning the possession by Iraq of weapons of mass destruction, and unequivocally condemns the dictatorship of Saddam Hussein.”

50. “That Dáil Éireann:

- concerned that an estimated 1.5 million citizens who have paid their PRSI contributions are being denied their rights and entitlement to dental treatment as a result of the ongoing dispute between the Minister for Social and Family Affairs; and
- aware that the continuation of this dispute has and will continue to cause undue hardship;

calls on the Minister for Social and Family Affairs to immediately enter into discussions which will bring an end to this dispute;

and to put in place a system of guaranteed repayments for those people who have incurred unnecessary dental expenses arising from this dispute.” — *Michael Ring, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Jimmy Deenihan, Bernard J. [4 February, 2003]

51. “That Dáil Éireann,

condemns:

- the illegal and criminal invasion of Iraq by United States and British forces;
- the slaughter of large numbers of men, women and children in the US/British bombardment of cities and towns;
- the slaughter of large numbers of Iraqi conscripts by the massively more heavily armed forces of invasion and also the needless deaths of ordinary US and British soldiers;

declares:

- that the invasion is an imperialist venture to secure Iraqi oil fields and extend its control over the Middle East Region;
- that those who initiated this war bear full criminal responsibility for the consequent deaths and destruction;

notes that the US has announced that 120,000 more troops are to be sent to join the invasion;

demands that none of these troops be allowed facilities at Shannon Airport or at any other location in this State;

further demands that the Minister for Foreign Affairs summons the senior US envoy to Ireland and the British Ambassador to lodge a forceful protest over the killing of Iraqi civilians; and calls for the future of the peoples and resources of Iraq and the Middle East generally to be determined by the people there, based on the principles of freedom, justice, democracy and human rights free from both local dictatorships and imperialist and corporate interference.” — Joe Higgins, Tony Gregory, Paudge Connolly, Jerry Cowley, Seamus Healy, Finian McGrath, Liam Twomey.

[2 April, 2003]

52. “That Dáil Éireann:

condemning the 8% reduction in funding for the Arts Council for 2003, constituting a reduction in funding from €47.7 million in 2002 to €44 million in 2003, and resulting in:

- the deferral and curtailment of many important arts programmes, making it impossible for the Arts Council to meet their objectives as stated in the Arts Plan 2002 — 2006; and
- the inevitable loss of key personnel from arts organisations across the country, which is already having a seriously detrimental effect upon participation with, and access to, the arts nationally;

calls upon the Government:

- to immediately assess the current standing of all projects awarded monies under the Access Programme of the Department of Arts, Sport and Tourism, and to reallocate to the Arts Council any monies short-listed for projects that are now no longer to proceed;
- to provide €61.9 million funding to the Arts Council for 2004 as outlined in the Arts Plan 2002 — 2006; and
- to honour the commitment to support this third Arts Plan as detailed in the Fianna Fáil-Progressive Democrats joint Programme for Government.” — *Jimmy Deenihan, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Bernard J. 53. “That Dáil Éireann:

- notes the latest figures from the European Environmental Agency which reveal that Ireland now has the worst record within the European Union regarding our failure to comply with the targets set under the Kyoto Protocol, with a 31% increase in climate change emissions since 1990;
- calls on Government to immediately scrap its ineffective Climate Change Strategy, and undertake a root and branch reform of the Programme for Government to ensure compliance with the Kyoto Protocol, to avoid massive fines, and to reduce the risk of future flooding and other extreme weather events; and
- furthermore calls on the Government to:
 - increase spending on public transport;
 - improve energy efficiency in the building regulations;
 - radically transform our energy policies;
 - support improvement in insulation and efficiency in existing buildings; and
 - initiate a root and branch reform of the Programme for Government in order to attain the targets set under the Kyoto Protocol.” — Ciarán Cuffe, Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan.[14 May, 2003]

54. “That Dáil Éireann:

- noting the recent critical Reports on the treatment of people with mental illness by Amnesty International, the Irish Psychiatric Association and the Inspector of Mental Hospitals;
- concerned that Irish mental health policy and service provision remain out of step with international best practice and that the institutionalisation of the mental health services in Ireland has failed to live up to World Health Organisation standards;
- believing that the high admission and readmission rates to psychiatric hospitals are due in large measure to the lack of community based facilities;

- concerned at the lack of dedicated psychiatric facilities for adolescents, the lengthy waiting lists for treatment and the lack of consistency in the provision of mental health services throughout the country; and
- deploring the fact that people with intellectual disability continue to be inappropriately accommodated in psychiatric facilities in violation of human rights law;

condemns the Government for its neglect of the mental health sector and failure to vindicate the human rights of people with mental illness and for the reduction in the percentage of the health budget spent on mental health and calls on the Government to immediately bring forward a comprehensive package of measures, including appropriate finances, to provide:

- a comprehensive, needs-based, service-user-led review of the mental health care services, promptly and fully implemented, ensuring that they meet international human rights standards and best practice in line with the World Health Organisation 2001 annual report, with an emphasis on community-based care;
 - regular quality research in all areas of mental health care needs and service provision, an essential prerequisite for the development of a quality service;
 - full financial provision for all areas of mental health care;
 - all necessary resources and assistance for the Mental Health Commission in its securing adequate care and conditions for people with mental illness;
 - effective action on all relevant recommendations made in the reports of international treaty-based committees, annual reports of the Inspector of Mental Hospitals, and Government reviews and reports;
 - a comprehensive system of personal advocacy and an effective complaints procedure, to ensure that people with mental illness are assisted in exercising the full range of their rights;
 - specialised mental health care for all who need it, including children, the homeless, prisoners, people with other forms of disability, travellers, asylum seekers and refugees, and other minority or vulnerable groups;
 - a public education and awareness campaign to counter the stigma of mental illness, emphasising the rights of people with mental illness; and
 - rights-based disability and mental health legislation to give full effect to its international human rights obligations, with due regard to its obligation to enable persons with disabilities to exercise their rights on an equal basis with other citizens.”
