- conscious of the commitments made by this State in signing the Good Friday Agreement to 'further strengthen the protection of human rights in this jurisdiction' and to 'initiate a widespread review of the Offences Against the State Acts 1939 - 1985 with a view to both reform and dispensing with those elements no longer required as circumstances permit';
- conscious of the fact that in the intervening five years not only has the Government failed to reform the emergency legislation as required, it has instead done the exact opposite by further expanding emergency powers under the Offences Against the State (Amendment) Act of 1998;
- conscious of the corrosive effect of the operation of emergency legislation on human rights, civil liberties, and democratic life in this State — particularly during the protracted periods of its non-emergency operation over six decades, and specifically in the current period following the Good Friday Agreement;
- conscious of the fact that the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform has utterly failed to demonstrate that the operation of this legislation is presently necessary to the security of the people of this State:
 - resolves that the continuing operation of emergency legislation is not warranted; and
 - further calls on the Government to repeal in their entirety the Offences Against the State Acts 1939 - 1998 at the earliest practicable date." — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

41. “That Dáil Éireann:

- recalling the apology given by the Taoiseach on the 11th May, 1999, to the victims of childhood abuse, in the following terms:
 - ‘On behalf of the State and of all citizens of the State, the Government wishes to make a sincere and long overdue apology to the victims. Abuse ruined their childhoods and has been an ever present part of their adult lives, reminding them of a time when they were helpless. I want to say to them that we believe that they were gravely wronged and that we must do all we can to overcome the lasting effects of their ordeals.
 - What the Government has decided on today is not a break with the past; it is a facing up to the past and all that this involves. This may well be a painful process; but it can not and should not be avoided.
 - This country has a lot to be proud of. We are developing in many ways and for the first time we are seeing movement on a range of serious problems. But we cannot truly advance unless we acknowledge and deal with the more uncomfortable elements of our past. Only when we do this will we have matured as a self-confident and inclusive society . . .
 - ‘The time has long since arrived when we must take up the challenge which the victims of childhood abuse have given us all. A new, comprehensive approach is required to dealing with both the effects and prevention of this abuse.’;
- further recalling the announcement of the same day of a Commission to Inquire into Abuse of Children, the subsequent appointment of Ms. Justice Mary Laffoy as Chairperson of the Commission and the statements of the then Minister for Education and Science that the Commission ‘will be specifically mandated to carry out a thorough and comprehensive inquiry into allegations and establish responsibility at the level of the individual abuser, the institution and management and regulatory authorities’ and that ‘the Committee will have available to it the resources and all the legal powers and protections it needs to do this’;
- noting the clear mandate given to the Commission by the enactment of the Commission to Inquire into Child Abuse Act 2000 (as amended by the Residential Institutions Redress Act 2002), including in particular the mandate ‘to provide, for persons who have suffered abuse in childhood in institutions during the relevant period, an opportunity to recount the abuse, and make submissions, to a Committee’ and the requirement that the Commission and its committees must bear in mind the need of persons who have suffered abuse in childhood to recount to others such abuse, their difficulties in so doing and the potential beneficial effect on them of so doing’;
- acknowledging the commitment and integrity of Ms. Justice Laffoy and the high esteem in which she is held and continues to be held, especially by those connected with the Commission and those who appeared before her;
- condemning the Government’s treatment of the requests of Ms. Justice Laffoy for the resources necessary to enable the Commission adequately to fulfil its statutory obligations and, in particular, the Government’s effective rejection of the proposals put forward by the Commission on the 8th November, 2002, for parallel hearings in four divisions, conducted on a modular basis, which would in its estimation have seen matters conclude by mid 2005;
- acknowledging with regret that Ms. Justice Laffoy has felt compelled to give notice of her intention to resign as Chairperson of the Commission, due to the fact that, in her own words, ‘since its establishment, the Commission has never been properly enabled by the Government to fulfil satisfactorily the functions conferred on it by the Oireachtas’;

- noting that the Taoiseach publicly accepted the criticisms articulated by Ms. Justice Laffoy in her letter of the 2nd September, 2003, a position contradicted by the Government's subsequent response to her letter of resignation;
- deploring the Government's handling of the resignation of Ms. Justice Laffoy, in particular the attempts by the Government to misrepresent its own position and to undermine both the Commission's Chairperson, the Commission itself and the Oireachtas mandate of the Commission;
- believing that the issue of the costs of the Commission has been allowed by the Government to achieve a spurious primacy over the mandate which the Commission received from the Oireachtas:—
 - demands that the Government publish the findings of the review of the Commission completed on 26th February and publish the Heads of a Bill brought to Cabinet by the Minister for Education and Science which were approved by Government on 8th April, together with all Government memoranda and Departmental observations;
 - rejects:
 - apparent proposals for a 'sampling' method to be applied to the investigation of abuse, which would entirely fail to discharge the Taoiseach's undertaking to victims of abuse in 1999 to 'do all we can to overcome the lasting effects of their ordeals',
 - the proposal floated that, in lieu of the proper investigation of childhood abuse complaints as provided for in the legislation, alleged abusers might instead be summoned to attend before the Confidential Committee of the Commission, a body with no mandate or legal capacity to establish the truth or otherwise of allegations or to make any findings of fact, and
 - an apparent proposal that the number and type of residential institutions to be investigated by the Commission be drastically reduced;
 - deplores as negligent and profligate the deed of indemnity agreed between the Government and certain religious orders on the 5th June, 2002, and in particular the facts that the agreement was drafted by solicitors for those orders and not in the Attorney General's Office; that the agreement was neither debated in nor approved by this House; that former Minister Michael Woods, TD, was unaccompanied by Government law officers at critical negotiating meetings; that the Department of Finance had recommended a 50/50 apportionment of liability between Church and State but this recommendation was ignored; that all costs of whatever kind, contemplated or not, in excess of €128m will instead be borne by the Exchequer; that approximately one third of the €128m to be contributed by the orders is to comprise property already donated to the State; and that the Attorney General was not involved in the finalisation of the deed of indemnity;
 - condemns as incompetence on a monumental scale the fact that, four months after the Government had purportedly agreed to additional resources for the Commission, to enable it to implement its proposals of the 8th November, 2002, and just one week after the Government had approved recommendations arising from its first review of the Commission's operations and designed to control costs, Minister Dempsey then returned to Government to secure a second review whose net effects will be to:
 - remove the entitlement to a hearing from the vast majority of abuse victims,
 - further extend the timeframe within which the Commission will complete its work, and

- force disappointed victims from the Commission to the High Court, with consequent increased expense which the taxpayer must cover;
 - acknowledges the fact that several thousand of our fellow citizens, who were exposed under grossly inadequate State supervision to differing types and degrees of physical injury, sexual abuse and continuing injury to mental and emotional wellbeing, have now been further betrayed in their expectations by the Government's mishandling of this situation and that the delay and uncertainty arising therefrom have caused additional and unnecessary distress and suffering for many; and
 - concludes that the Government collectively, as well as the present and former Ministers for Education and Science individually, was neither open nor transparent in its dealings with the Commission and the victims of childhood abuse; that it was at no stage motivated solely by a concern to achieve justice for those who had been denied it for so long; and that all Government members in consequence share responsibility for the present disastrous state of affairs.” — *Pat Rabbitte, Liz McManus, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 42. “That Dáil Éireann:

- deplores the fundamentally flawed waste management policy of the Government as implemented by the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government, Martin Cullen, T.D., which has:
 - led directly to the current situation of confrontation in Dublin and to the imprisonment of bin charges protesters, including elected representatives who should be released,
 - deprived elected representatives on local authorities of powers to determine waste management policy,
 - empowered and encouraged city and county managers to refuse to collect refuse from homes who have not paid the bin tax or who are in arrears, thereby creating a serious health hazard,
 - compounded the double taxation of refuse charges, and
 - facilitated the privatisation of waste management and other local authority services; and
 - demands that the Minister bring forward without delay legislation to amend the Protection of the Environment Act 2003 to ensure that local authorities fulfil their responsibility for public health and safety and provide a refuse collection service to all householders and replaces refuse charges on householders with the proper application of the polluter pays principle to target the main producers of waste as part of a comprehensive and effective waste management strategy.” — Arthur Morgan, Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

43. “That Dáil Éireann:

- notes a whole series of debacles during the summer recess which displays this Government's ineptitude:
 - the incompetent handling of the review of the Laffoy Commission and the resultant resignation of Justice Laffoy;

- the series of crises at Accident and Emergency departments which can only get worse in the winter months;
- Ireland coming bottom of the OECD league table for secondary level education expenditure and the axing of childcare for VTOS students;
- the reneging on election promises for a focused school-building programme;
- the €9 million windfall for a developer in Co. Louth in a rezoning decision that will quadruple a village's population;
- the chaotic situation with regard to local authority refuse collection, particularly in Dublin;
- the continuously delayed construction of the Luas and the non-event that was car-free day;
- the war of words between the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform and Gardaí and allegations of ill-treatment in Garda custody;
- the granting of planning permission to the ESB for developments at Moneypoint which will increase its output of greenhouse gases by 126,000 tonnes a year;
- the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government's opposition to the ban on smoking in the workplace; and
- the disastrous fish kills on the Donegal coast;
- calls on the Government to:
 - put an independent body in place to oversee the Laffoy Commission's work because of the Department of Education and Science's conflict of interest;
 - publish without further delay the Hanley Report on the health services;
 - provide increased resources for education, particularly at earlier stages where inequalities take root which are reflected much later in third level participation rates;
 - make it clear to the licensing trade that the ban on smoking will be implemented in full;
 - drop its incineration-led policy on waste disposal and introduce proper recycling systems and incentives to recycle and reduce waste generation;
 - restore confidence in the Gardaí by introducing an independent complaints board which could deal with complaints from the public, or indeed, from the Minister;
 - tackle the long-standing environmental problems with fish farms and research alternative less-intensive aquaculture systems;
 - join the Luas lines with an on-street tram line and to re-open the Western Rail corridor;
 - adopt a coherent approach to reducing greenhouse gas emissions including a revenue-neutral carbon tax; and
 - reverse immediately its opposition to the Green Party bill which would restrict rezoning to lands that are publicly owned.” — Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Ciarán Cuffe, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan.

46. “That Dáil Éireann, in regard to the National Monument at Carrickmines Castle in Dún Laoghaire Rathdown and South Dublin:

 - demolish or remove wholly or in part or to disfigure, deface, alter or in any manner to injure or interfere with any such national monument without or otherwise than the consent hereinafter mentioned, and

- resolves that the Order shall be annulled and calls on the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government, in conjunction with the relevant agencies, to modify the route and junction layout if necessary of the proposed south eastern motorway in the vicinity of the National Monument so as to re-route the road to the south west of the substantial Castle remains.” — Ciarán Cuffe, Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Paul Gogarty, Eamon Ryan.

- noting that similar incentive schemes are available in other countries with whom Ireland competes for projects;
- concerned that the abolition of incentives would result in significant job losses in the whole film sector;

calls on the Government to maintain and develop supports for the film industry and to retain the section 481 incentives in the 2004 Budget.” — Ciarán Cuffe, Eamon Ryan, Trevor Sargent, John Gormley, Dan Boyle, Paul Gogarty.

50. “That Dáil Éireann:

- recognising the considerable benefits in terms of employment and overseas recognition that derive to Ireland from a thriving film industry;
- concerned at the failure of the Government to conduct any analysis of the benefits of film tax relief;
- alarmed at the negative impact on the industry should such relief be withdrawn, and
- demands the urgent production of a sectoral development plan for the industry which would deal with:
 - Ireland’s competitiveness as a location for filmmaking,
 - the linkages between indigenous and inward film production,
 - the opportunity to attract strategic elements of the industry to locate in Ireland, and
 - the proper balance between tax based investor relief and alternative forms of State support or participation; and,

- proposes the suspension of the termination date for film tax relief of 31st December, 2004, for a period that would allow the State to take a strategic overview of the optimum approach to the industry.” — *Jimmy Deenihan, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Bernard J. 51. “That Dáil Éireann:

- notes the following alarming list of crises for which the Government must bear full responsibility:
 - the continuing deterioration at accident and emergency departments, where patients may now be considered lucky to get a trolley with many spending days on chairs waiting for admission;
 - more allegations of ill-treatment in Garda custody and the continued failure of the Government to introduce an independent body to deal with complaints;
 - the failure of the Government, for yet another year, to introduce energy taxes despite the fact that Ireland is the country seventh most dependent on fossil fuels and mounting evidence of the devastating effects of global warming on the planet's species;
 - the damage to confidence in the process of public consultation resulting from the decision by An Bord Pleanála to allow Government policy to override the recommendations of its experts and to grant permission for the toxic waste incinerator at Ringaskiddy;
 - the stalling of the Medical Practitioners Bill despite increasing evidence of the dangers to patients of negligence within the health service;
 - the refusal of the Government to respond to genuine concerns about the system of electronic voting it is adopting, leaving the country to face local and European elections in June in which there is no way of proving that the results are correct;
 - the absence of any coherence between Government policies on spatial strategy and decentralisation; and
 - repeated discord within the cabinet over the smoking ban, the Hanly report, incinerators and the indemnity agreement with the churches with regard to child abuse;
- calls on the Government to:
 - drop the Hanly Report as the basis for reform of the health service and to reverse the downgrading of local hospitals;
 - restore public confidence in the Gardaí by introducing a genuinely independent complaints board;
 - adopt as soon as possible a revenue-neutral carbon tax to reduce greenhouse gas emissions;
 - drop its proposed Infrastructure Bill which is being used to bully An Bord Pleanála into compliance with the Government's wishes;
 - ensure that the Medical Practitioners Bill is brought before the Oireachtas at the earliest opportunity;

- alter the electronic voting system to provide a paper record of votes so that disputed results may be verified; and
- halt and review the programme of decentralisation of Government Departments in order to co-ordinate with the National Spatial Strategy and to undertake a process of real decentralisation of decision-making powers to regional and local authorities.” — Trevor Sargent, Dan Boyle, Ciaran Cuffe, Paul Gogarty, John Gormley, Eamon Ryan.

calls on the Government to:

54. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognising the urgent need for a radical reappraisal of animal welfare in this State particularly in the context of:

- the appalling conditions recently exposed on so-called ‘puppy-farms’ in Ireland, conditions which are not tolerated in any other E.U. country;
- the growth in fur farming in Ireland including that artic fox confined in inhumane and unnatural conditions, electrocuted at 6 months without veterinary supervision, a practice that has been made illegal in the north of Ireland and Britain;

- the on-going hunting with packs of hounds of deer reared/farmed in captivity (a practice outlawed in the north of Ireland on the grounds of cruelty) despite the Kane Report of the Department of Agriculture's Veterinary Inspector which referred to it being 'inhumane' the deer 'terrified' and that it could be argued legally that this contravenes the Protection of Animals Act 1911;
- the on-going practice of enclosed live hare coursing (recently banned in the north of Ireland) inflicting cruelty and terror on the most timid of small animals;
- the use of packs of hounds for the hunting and killing of foxes along with various associated abuses the most extreme being the bleeding of hounds on fox-cubs — all of which is now being banned in Britain;
- the increasing numbers of shooters coming to this country indiscriminately destroying many species of wild-birds;
- abuses related to live exports of farm animals; and resolves to act in each of the cases set out above and where appropriate outlaw such activities and ensure that only the highest standards in animal welfare shall be permitted forthwith in Ireland." — Tony Gregory.

55. "That Dáil Éireann:

- acknowledges that the Irish Government policy of assisting hundreds of thousands of US troops to participate in the illegal invasion and occupation of Iraq has resulted in tens of thousands of deaths including the killing of approximately 10,000 civilians and nearly 900 occupation troops including approximately 800 American soldiers;
- acknowledges that Irish assistance in this war has contributed to a situation where thousands of people including children are being injured or killed by exploding cluster bombs, and the main cities of Iraq are poisoned with radiation from uranium tipped shells and missiles;
- acknowledges that the alleged threat that provided the justification for war and for Irish assistance — the imminent danger posed by Iraqi weapons of mass destruction — has since proved to be false;
- expresses its horror at all deaths, atrocities and human rights violations associated with this war, and extends its sympathies to all survivors and condolences to all families affected;
- expresses its anger at the cost of this war to date, including an estimated spend of over $100 billion by the US alone — which could have been better spent in the war on global poverty, hunger and disease;
- expresses its revulsion at the torture and killing of Iraqi prisoners of war by US and British occupation troops, and its support for independent human rights monitors including Amnesty International and the United Nations to gain immediate access to all detention facilities in Iraq;
- resolves that the circumstances warrant the immediate suspension of overflight and landing privileges granted by the Government to military and civilian chartered aircraft conveying US troops to Iraq, and instructs the Government to act accordingly;
- calls on the Irish people to peacefully register their opposition to the occupation of Iraq and to Irish collusion in that occupation on the occasion of the US President's visit to Ireland during the US-EU Summit; and

- instructs the Government to spare no effort in international diplomacy both under the EU Presidency and as a sovereign state to ensure a speedy end to the occupation of Iraq by the so-called Coalition of the Willing, that the transition to Iraqi democratic self-government is managed by the United Nations, that any associated UN peacekeeping force be led by troops from the Arab nations, and that all those responsible for war crimes in relation to this conflict be brought to justice in accordance with international law, regardless of their position or rank.”
