Tairiscint (atógáil) (1 ur. 30 n fágtha):

Motion (resumed) (1 hr. 30 m remaining):

36. “That Dáil Éireann:

- acknowledging the hard work of all doctors, nurses and healthcare professionals in the North Eastern Health Board (NEHB);

noting that:

- there have been a number of tragic events in the NEHB that have contributed to a crisis of confidence in the health services provided in the NEHB;
- there is a need to look at the provision of health services in the NEHB and to find solutions to restore patients' confidence in the provision of healthcare services in the NEHB region;
- steps must be taken in the NEHB to ensure that the new Dublin/North East regional area does not encounter the same difficulties after 1 January, 2005 when the new health service executive structures are in place;

calls on this Government to:

- explain the circumstances in which the recommendations of the Bonner report were not implemented;
- explain why this Government has failed to review the NEHB in light of a number of recent revelations;
- explain the mechanism by which the Dublin/North East regional health office and all other regional health offices will be accountable to Dáil Éireann and to commit the Tánaiste and Minister for Health and Children to answer Parliamentary Questions on behalf of the regional health offices;
- consult with all stakeholders in the new Dublin/North East regional area and all regional health areas to provide both primary, acute and non-acute hospital care that is acceptable to the people and is medically safe;
- properly resource the Cavan-Monaghan group of hospitals so that acute and elective care can be provided to the people of Cavan-Monaghan;
- properly resource the Louth/Meath group of hospitals so that acute, elective and regional specialties can be safely provided at those hospitals;
- properly resource the Beaumont hospital to provide acute and elective care to the local, regional and national tertiary services that it is responsible for providing to the people of the NEHB and the rest of the country; and
- properly resource the Navan hospital to provide acute and elective care to the people of Meath.” — *Liam Twomey, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, Pat Breen, John Bruton, Paul Connaughton, Simon Coveney, Seymour Crawford, John Deasy, Jimmy Deenihan, Bernard J. Leasú (atógáil):

Amendment (resumed):

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“supports the North Eastern Health Board in its objective of ensuring the provision of a high quality, safe and responsive hospital service, commends the Government for the unprecedented increase in the level of investment in the health services in the North East since 1997 and supports the early implementation of reform measures in order to deliver enhanced services in the region.” — An Tánaiste agus an tAire Sláinte agus Leanaí.
