''notes that the 2005 Estimates for the Public Services (Abridged) published by the Minister for Finance on 18th November, 2004:

— fail to properly address the persistent inequalities in Irish society brought about directly by the policies of the Government;

— fail to fulfil the Government's pre-election promise to extend medical cards, without qualification and including coverage for medicines, to a further 200,000 people;

— will further entrench the inequitable two-tier system in our health services;

— fail to address the need for a comprehensive system of childcare;

— contain totally inadequate provision for local authority housing and for local government funding in general;

— reneges on the commitment of the Taoiseach to the Irish people and to the international community to reach the target of 0.7% of GNP for Overseas Development Aid by 2007;

and therefore calls on the Minister for Finance to withdraw and redraft his Book of Estimates.'' — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Seán Crowe, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan.
