Tairiscint (atógáil) (1 ur. 30 n fágtha):

Motion (resumed) (1 hr. 30 m remaining):

- 42. “That Dáil Éireann, recognising that:

— due to high house prices, inadequate provision of social and affordable housing, and increased rents in the private rented sector, there are now approximately 60,000 households dependent on rent supplement; and — the rent supplement as currently administered is causing serious poverty traps and disincentive to work;

calls on the Government to replace rent supplement with a new housing support which:

- would be related to housing need, income, and local renting conditions;
- would not discriminate between applicants on social welfare and those at work; and
- a recipient would not automatically lose on return to work and any reduction of which would be tapered as the recipients income increases.” — *Eamon Gilmore, Willie Penrose, Pat Rabbitte, Liz McManus, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Leasú (atógáil):

Amendment (resumed):

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“acknowledges the achievements of the Government in:

- increasing housing supply as the key response to the broad range of housing needs;
- ensuring that over 500,000 houses, equivalent to one-third of Ireland’s total housing stock, have been completed in the past 10 years;
- facilitating the 11th successive year of record house completions through the addition of 80,954 in 2005;
- providing SWA rent supplement payments to 60,000 people and introducing the rental accommodation scheme (RAS) to provide improved and more secure arrangements for SWA rent supplement recipients with long-term housing needs thereby reducing dependency on the supplementary welfare allowance scheme;
- putting in place a range of initiatives to expand the supply of affordable housing including the establishment of the Affordable Homes Partnership to address requirements in the greater Dublin area;
- modernising and improving the operation of the private rented sector through the introduction of new legislation and the establishment of the Private Residential Tenancies Board;
- developing and implementing an Integrated Strategy on Homelessness, effective programmes for traveller accommodation and an expanded role for the voluntary and co-operative housing sector; and supports the Government vision for housing as set out in the new housing policy framework ‘Housing Policy Framework Building — Sustainable Communities’, including plans to substantially expand investment over the coming years and develop a range of initiatives so that the maximum number of people can access high quality and affordable accommodation and endorses the action set out in the framework to provide appropriate accommodation responses for those on rent supplement who can benefit from the rental accommodation scheme; including contributing to addressing issues relating to the elimination of poverty and employment traps.” — An tAire Comhshaoil, Oidhreacht agus Rialtais Áitiúil.
