Motion (resumed) (1 hr. 30 m remaining):

51. “That Dáil Éireann,

recognising:

- the right to primary education enshrined in Article 42 of the Constitution;
- the failure to adequately plan for population growth in certain parts of the country;
- the uncertainty regarding the availability of school places for hundreds of children next September;
- the thousands of children who are taught in pre-fabricated classrooms; and
- the failure of the Government to fulfil the commitment contained in an Agreed Programme for Government to reduce class sizes for children under 9 to below best international best practice of 20:1;

calls on the Government to:

- ensure that a place is provided for all children old enough to go to primary school next September;
- establish a proactive, forward planning role for the Department of Education and Science in the provision of schools and school extensions so that adequate provision is in place when needed;
- establish a primary school data base; and
- set out a timetable for the implementation of their commitment to reduce class size to international best practice guidelines.”— *Jan O’Sullivan, Olwyn Enright, Pat Rabbitte, Enda Kenny, Liz McManus, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Leasú (atógáil):

Amendment (resumed):

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

- “— commends the Government for investing record levels of exchequer funding in education since 1997 by more than doubling the budget from €3.1 billion to €7.9 billion currently;
- supports the historic decision to provide capital investment funding on a multi-annual basis to the value of €3.9 billion over the next five years;
- commends the Minister for Education and Science for her management of the school building programme which will deliver 1,100 projects over the next 18 months and which has delivered 6,287 projects since 2000;
- notes the initiatives that her Department has taken to ensure that schools are provided as quickly as possible through innovations in the design process and the improvements that have been made in forward-planning through greater cooperation with local authorities and the publication of Area Development Plans;
- welcomes the fact that next September there will be 4,000 more teachers in our primary schools than there were in 2002 and notes that these teachers have made an immeasurable difference to the lives of children with special needs, those from disadvantaged areas and those whose first language is not English; and
- further welcomes the allocation of more mainstream classroom teachers for our primary schools for September 2006 and September 2007.” — An tAire Oideachais agus Eolaíochta
