27. “That Dáil Éireann,

calls on the Government to radically modify the new proposed childcare subvention scheme that the Government intends to become fully operational from 1st July, 2008 as this scheme:

- will impose intolerable financial pressures on many parents by increasing the expense of childcare;
- will force some parents to leave employment and become dependent on social welfare payments;
- threatens to cause the closure of many not-for-profit crèches throughout the country;
- presently renders it impossible for such crèches to recruit new staff on a permanent basis; and
- undermines the prospects of returning to the workforce or the obtaining of essential training and education by parents presently working in the home who wish to resume employment; and further calls on the Government to extend application of the existing subvention scheme up to 31st December, 2008 to end the current uncertainty.” — *Alan Shatter, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 28. “That, notwithstanding anything in Standing Orders, the Standing Orders of Dáil Éireann relative to Public Business are hereby amended as follows:

Standing Order 27 - Leaders Questions

(i) In Standing Order 27, by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (c);

‘(c) In this Standing Order, “Leader in Opposition” means the leader of a party which had not less than two members elected to the Dáil at the previous General Election or which, if it had less than two, attained that number as a result of a subsequent bye-election.’.

Standing Order 116 – Groups

(ii) by the adoption of the following Standing Order in substitution for Standing Order 116:

‘116.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), for the purpose of this Standing Order a group shall mean—

(a) any Party which had not less than five members elected to the Dáil at the previous General Election or which, if it had less than five, attained the number of five members as a result of a subsequent bye-election, or

(b) a majority of the members of the Dáil who are not members of a group as defined in paragraph (1)(a), being not less than five in number, who request formal recognition as a group in writing to the Ceann Comhairle: Provided that such request shall be signed by all such members. The Ceann Comhairle shall grant formal recognition as a group to such members as soon as possible thereafter.

(2) A group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1) for any period in which its membership falls below five members, (or below a majority, in the case of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b)), save where such membership falls by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Dáil, the provisions of this paragraph shall not take effect until such time as the said vacancy has been filled.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2)—

(a) if at any time, it appears to the Ceann Comhairle that, in the case of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b), the membership of the group has fallen below five members or a majority specified therein, he or she shall write to each member of the group seeking confirmation of their continued membership of the group. Unless at least five members forming the said majority confirm their membership in writing within two weeks of the date of issue of the Ceann Comhairle's letter, the group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b); or

(b) where the Ceann Comhairle is notified in writing by a member of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b) that such member no longer wishes to be considered a member of such group, and the membership of the group falls below five members or a majority specified therein as a consequence, the group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b).

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall prejudice the right of members to seek formal recognition as a group under paragraph (1)(b).

- (4) Each group shall have the right to nominate a private member of the group to present a Bill provided that there is not before the Dáil another Bill presented by a member nominated by the group.
- (5) Each group shall have the right in rotation to nominate a private member of the group either to move a motion standing in his or her name or to proceed with a Stage of a Bill in the Dáil. The order in which the right may be exercised by the various groups shall be determined on the basis of the numbers of members in the groups, a larger group having precedence over a smaller one. In the case of an equality of numbers precedence shall be determined by lot. Provided that a party which is a group under paragraph (1)(a) shall have precedence over a group recognised under paragraph (1)(b).’” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

29. “That Dáil Éireann,

- conscious of the very serious implications for employment, business and tourism in the mid west and western regions of the decision of Aer Lingus to end its Shannon to Heathrow air service;
- noting the strong opposition to the move expressed by employers, trade unions and public representatives; and
- recalling the commitments the Government gave prior to privatisation of Aer Lingus that it would take adequate steps to protect the State's key strategic interests and that in particular it would ensure ‘sufficient services between the State airports and Heathrow to allow passengers connect throughout the course of the day with key long haul destination flights to and from Heathrow’;

calls on Aer Lingus to reverse its decision; and

- further calls on the Government to honour the commitments it gave to the Dáil and the public prior to privatisation of Aer Lingus and to take all appropriate steps to ensure that the Shannon-Heathrow Aer Lingus service is maintained, including, if necessary, the convening of an Extraordinary General Meeting of the company.” — *Jan O'Sullivan, Michael D. 31. “That Dáil Éireann, noting that:

- there is a grave public concern throughout the west at the reported threatened closure of cancer services at Mayo General Hospital and Sligo General Hospital;
- under the National Cancer Strategy not one centre of excellence will be located north of a line from Dublin to Galway;
- the model of managed cancer services utilising a network of facilities is accepted as the preferred option of the most advanced cancer centre in the U.S.;
- many satellite hospitals command a standard of excellence in treatment and outcomes which meet the most exacting of demands; and
- proximity to treatment and speed of response to diagnosis are critical elements of cancer care and management;

calls on the Government:

- to examine the location of the proposed new eight centres of excellence for cancer treatment; and
- to endorse the concept of the networking of managed cancer services to include the retention and extension of the existing services at Castlebar, Sligo and Letterkenny.” — Beverley Flynn.
