30. “That, notwithstanding anything in Standing Orders, the Standing Orders of Dáil Éireann relative to Public Business are hereby amended as follows:

Standing Order 27 – Leaders Questions

- (i) In Standing Order 27, by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (c);
- ‘(c) In this Standing Order, “Leader in Opposition” means the leader of a party which had not less than two members elected to the Dáil at the previous General Election or which, if it had less than two, attained that number as a result of a subsequent bye-election.’

Standing Order 116 – Groups

(ii) by the adoption of the following Standing Order in substitution for Standing Order 116:

‘116. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), for the purpose of this Standing Order a group shall mean—

(a) any Party which had not less than five members elected to the Dáil at the previous General Election or which, if it had less than five, attained the number of five members as a result of a subsequent bye-election, or

(b) a majority of the members of the Dáil who are not members of a group as defined in paragraph (1)(a), being not less than five in number, who request formal recognition as a group in writing to the Ceann Comhairle: Provided that such request shall be signed by all such members. The Ceann Comhairle shall grant formal recognition as a group to such members as soon as possible thereafter.

(2) A group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1) for any period in which its membership falls below five members, (or below a majority, in the case of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b)), save where such membership falls by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Dáil, the provisions of this paragraph shall not take effect until such time as the said vacancy has been filled.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2)—

(a) if at any time, it appears to the Ceann Comhairle that, in the case of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b), the membership of the group has fallen below five members or a majority specified therein, he or she shall write to each member of the group seeking confirmation of their continued membership of the group. Unless at least five members forming the said majority confirm their membership in writing within two weeks of the date of issue of the Ceann Comhairle’s letter, the group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b); or

(b) where the Ceann Comhairle is notified in writing by a member of a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b) that such member no longer wishes to be considered a member of such group, and the membership of the group falls below five members or a majority specified therein as a consequence, the group shall cease to be a group within the meaning of paragraph (1)(b).

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall prejudice the right of members to seek formal recognition as a group under paragraph (1)(b).

(4) Each group shall have the right to nominate a private member of the group to present a Bill provided that there is not before the Dáil another Bill presented by a member nominated by the group.

(5) Each group shall have the right in rotation to nominate a private member of the group either to move a motion standing in his or her name or to proceed with a Stage of a Bill in the Dáil. The order in which the right may be exercised by the various groups shall be determined on the basis of the numbers of members in the groups, a larger group having precedence over a smaller one. In the case of an equality of numbers precedence shall be determined by lot. Provided that a party which is a group under paragraph (1)(a) shall have precedence over a group recognised under paragraph (1)(b).’” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

31. “That Dáil Éireann,

- conscious of the very serious implications for employment, business and tourism in the mid west and western regions of the decision of Aer Lingus to end its Shannon to Heathrow air service;
- noting the strong opposition to the move expressed by employers, trade unions and public representatives; and
- recalling the commitments the Government gave prior to privatisation of Aer Lingus that it would take adequate steps to protect the State’s key strategic interests and that in particular it would ensure ‘sufficient services between the State airports and Heathrow to allow passengers connect throughout the course of the day with key long haul destination flights to and from Heathrow’;

calls on Aer Lingus to reverse its decision; and

- further calls on the Government to honour the commitments it gave to the Dáil and the public prior to privatisation of Aer Lingus and to take all appropriate steps to ensure that the Shannon-Heathrow Aer Lingus service is maintained, including, if necessary, the convening of an Extraordinary General Meeting of the company.” — *Jan O’Sullivan, Michael D. 33. “That Dáil Éireann, noting that:

- there is a grave public concern throughout the west at the reported threatened closure of cancer services at Mayo General Hospital and Sligo General Hospital;
- under the National Cancer Strategy not one centre of excellence will be located north of a line from Dublin to Galway;
- the model of managed cancer services utilising a network of facilities is accepted as the preferred option of the most advanced cancer centre in the U.S.;
- many satellite hospitals command a standard of excellence in treatment and outcomes which meet the most exacting of demands; and
- proximity to treatment and speed of response to diagnosis are critical elements of cancer care and management;

calls on the Government:

- to examine the location of the proposed new eight centres of excellence for cancer treatment; and
- to endorse the concept of the networking of managed cancer services to include the retention and extension of the existing services at Castlebar, Sligo and Letterkenny.” — Beverley Flynn.

35. “That Dáil Éireann,

noting:

- the scandalous misdiagnosis of women who were screened for cancer in the midlands region;

- the crisis in cancer care including the inadequate provision of radiation oncology with cancer sufferers having to travel inordinate distances for treatment, the long delay in delivery of promised centres of excellence, the diminution of existing cancer services in local hospitals in advance of that delivery, the flawed plan for location of these centres, leaving whole regions inadequately served; and
- the apartheid in our health services which sees private patients able to gain speedy access to diagnostic services for cancer while public patients must join long waiting lists;

has no confidence in the Minister for Health and Children, Deputy Mary Harney.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

36. “That Dáil Éireann affirms its confidence in the Tribunal of Inquiry Into Certain Planning Matters and Payments appointed by Instrument of the Minister for the Environment and Local Government dated the 4th day of November 1997 (following the passing of appropriate motions by Dáil Éireann and Seanad Éireann) and as amended by Instruments dated the 15th day of July 1998, 24th day of October 2002, 7th day of July 2003, 3rd day of December 2004 and by the Tribunal of Inquiry Into Certain Planning Matters and Payments Act 2004 (No. 39 of 2004).” — *Eamon Gilmore, Joan Burton, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 37. “That Dáil Éireann:

- expresses its serious concern at the conditions endured by cystic fibrosis patients and the unnecessary risks to which they have been exposed;
- deplores the failure of the Government to ensure the provision of acceptable facilities as a result of which the life expectancy of those with cystic fibrosis in Ireland is way below the level of other developed countries;
- urges the Minister for Health and the HSE to expedite the provision of the long promised dedicated isolation unit at St. Vincent’s Hospital, Dublin; and
- calls on the Government, pending the construction of this unit, to provide temporary isolation beds to reduce the risk of cross infection.” — Jan O’Sullivan, Eamon Gilmore, Joan Burton, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. Broughan, Joe Costello, Michael D. Higgins, Brendan Howlin, Kathleen Lynch, Ciarán Lynch, Liz McManus, Brian O’Shea, Willie Penrose, Ruairí Quinn, Pat Rabbitte, Seán Sherlock, Róisín Shortall, Joanna Tuffy, Mary Upton, Jack Wall.

[30 January, 2008]

38. “That Dáil Éireann;

- recognising the need for greater supports for adult education and the importance of adult learning to the continued growth of the economy;
- considering the low level of participation of Irish adults in ongoing education and training estimated to be at just 8% of the workforce, compared to 35% in Sweden, 29% in the UK and well below the EU target of 12.5%;
- noting the Government's failure to act on the commitment in Towards 2016 to put in place a targeted fund to alleviate fees in public institutions for part-time courses at third level by those at work who have not previously pursued a third level qualification;
- recognising the fundamental injustice that exists in the exclusion of low paid workers from obtaining financial support through the Back to Education Allowance;
- accepting the need for a more co-ordinated and focused approach to the development of adult education nationally; and
- noting that the proportion of the FÁS budget currently spent on upskilling those in employment is only 5%;

calls on the Government to:

- use the National Training Fund to introduce a voucher scheme for individuals who have not already benefited from higher education to pay for courses in higher educational institutions, whether taken on a part-time or full-time basis;
- introduce two-week statutory annual paid training leave, financed out of the NTF and paid at the minimum wage rate in order to focus on low-skilled workers;
- reconsider the eligibility criteria for the Back to Education Allowance scheme to include low-paid workers;
- immediately publish the review of the National Adult Learning Council and re-introduce a co-ordinating structure for the adult education sector;
- provide dedicated funding for English language training for speakers of other languages; and
- honour its Programme for Government commitment to provide improved guidance and ancillary supports for the adult education sector, including child care services.”
