Notices of Motions:

49. “That Dáil Éireann:

considering:

- the extensive response the Farm Waste Management Scheme has generated, with over 42,200 farmers approved to proceed with work under the scheme;
- the added value the scheme is bringing to the economy by generating additional employment for the construction industry at a time of economic uncertainty; and
- the importance of the environmental benefits associated with full delivery of the scheme;

noting:

- the Government’s previous decision to suspend the Farm Improvement Scheme;
- the considerable levels of personal financial risk undertaken by farmers in acquiring bank loans for completion of works under the scheme;
- the unseasonal inclement weather in the last number of months which has hampered the progress of building projects;
- deferred planning decisions have delayed the commencement of works;
- a substantial number of farmers report they will not be able to complete work by the end of year deadline;
- the Irish Farm Building Contractors' Association suggest up to 10,000 construction jobs will be lost by the end of the year unless the deadline is extended; and
- the rush to complete works may result in health and safety risks on site;

calls on the Government to:

- ensure all payments due under the scheme are paid in line with commitments outlined in the Charter of Rights; and
- take all necessary steps to extend the deadline for completion of works to June 30th 2009.” — Michael Creed, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune,

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“ notes:

- the introduction of an extensive farm waste management scheme to facilitate Ireland’s compliance with the Nitrates’ Directive and to assist farmers meet the obligations under the Directive;
- the extraordinary success of the scheme, with over 42,000 approvals issued to date;
- the unique attractiveness of the scheme, which provides a standard grant-rate of 60 per cent, with a 70 per cent grant-rate in Counties Cavan, Monaghan, Leitrim and Donegal;
- the payment by the Department of almost €330 million in grant-aid to thousands of Irish farmers in 2007 and 2008 to date;
- the agreement of Dáil Éireann to a supplementary estimate for the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food of €195 million in additional funding for the scheme in 2008;
- the extension granted to Ireland by the EU Commission on an exceptional basis, until 31st December 2008, for the completion of work under the farm waste management scheme which acknowledged the specific situation in Ireland; and
- the commitment of the Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Food that all projects completed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the scheme by 31st December 2008 will be grant-aided;

acknowledges:

- that the 31st December 2008 deadline for the completion of the work and the submission of the relevant documentation has been explicitly stated on a number of occasions since March 2006 to all those holding an approval from the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food to proceed under the scheme; and
- the decision of the Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Food to write to all approval holders clarifying those discrete elements of work which will be grant-aided in the event that the farmer, for whatever reason, decides not to proceed with the entire project for which s/he was approved;

urges all farmers holding a valid approval and who have not yet completed their work to:

- complete the work for which they have approval;
- consider completing discrete units of work, for which they will be grant-aided, in accordance with the clarification provided by the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food; and

— note that the deadline date of 31st December 2008 will not be changed.” — An tAire Talmhaíochta, Iascaigh agus Bia.
