Fógraí Tairisceana:
Notices of Motions:

- 104. “That Dáil Éireann:

- recognising that the national minimum wage is low, providing a full-time employee with less than €18,000 annually (with reductions for those under 18 or in their first job), and that amongst EU states it ranks as 12th highest when measured as a percentage of average monthly wages and 9th highest if measured in terms of purchasing power parity;
- accepting that:
 - the current minimum wage has not kept pace with average growth in wages or been increased since July 2007;
 - the 2009 income levy has already reduced the real value of the minimum wage; and
 - the new universal social charge will be payable on wages at this level;
- concerned that 116,000 workers, or 6.6% of the workforce, are living below the poverty line, that the working poor make up 24% of all those in poverty and 40% of all households in poverty, and that the minimum wage is especially relied upon for protection by women, migrants and other vulnerable workers;
- noting that only 4% of workers, and only 1.2% of industrial workers in export sectors, are on the minimum wage, with no major impact on competitiveness;
- acknowledging the role of a statutory minimum wage in protecting against unfair competitive advantage by unscrupulous employers who exploit their workers;
- further acknowledging the opportunity available through the Labour Court, which has yet to be invoked by any employer, to plead inability to pay the national minimum wage;
- reaffirming that a statutory minimum wage is a statement of core values, providing a threshold of decency under which society agrees that workers’ wages should not fall, and that a reduction would signal a race to the bottom in which everyone – low wage workers, public and private sector workers, social welfare claimants and pensioners – will suffer;
- believing that a reduction in the minimum wage will only create a disincentive to work, will have no impact on the public debt or on economic recovery and makes absolutely no sense at any level;

- condemning the Government's logic that poverty wages will create more jobs and that welfare rates must be below even those poverty wages, which logic will in turn require major cuts in welfare payments; and
- appalled that the Government's four year plan has targeted the most vulnerable members of society and convinced that the proposed reduction in the minimum wage of one euro an hour will have the most profound impact on those who are poorest, deepen their poverty and draw more workers into poverty;

condemns the Government's unnecessary, unwise and unfair decision to reduce the national minimum wage and calls for a reversal of this cut." — *Willie Penrose, Eamon Gilmore, Joan Burton, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 105. "That Dáil Éireann:

notes with grave concern:

- the most recent CSO figures showing a 51% increase in aggravated burglaries in the three months to the end of September 2009 accompanied by a 25% increase in non-aggravated burglaries in the same period;
- the recent widely reported targeting of vulnerable elderly residents in their own homes including a number of incidents in which vulnerable home-owners were viciously assaulted;
- the dramatic cutback in funding of the Scheme of Community Support for Older People in 2009;
- the fact that only 6% of the Garda force is made up of community Gardaí;
- the continual downgrading and closure of rural Garda stations; and
- the consequent fear and anxiety that is keenly felt by elderly people living alone;

calls on the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform to:

- arrest the decline of policing services to rural communities;
- bring forward measures and incentives to facilitate a significant increase in the number of community Gardaí; and
- enhance and develop the Garda Community Safety Week initiative; and calls on the Minister for Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs to reverse the cutback in funding for the Scheme of Community Support for Older People." — *Charles Flanagan, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 106. “That Dáil Éireann:

- is aware of the importance of the work done by spouses in partnerships;
- acknowledges the value of that work to economic activity;
- condemns the Government decision to withdraw or reduce the Contributory State Pension from farmers’ and business spouses aged 66 and over;
- is aware that some applicants sought to pay PRSI contributions before reaching age 66 but were denied their efforts by the Department of Social and Family Affairs;
- recognises that this measure is extremely unfair to those who planned for their retirement on the basis of information provided by and calculated by the Department; and calls on the Government to withdraw the notice sent out to persons concerned and to act upon the power accorded to the Minister under subsection 110(2) of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 to ensure those payments are made.” — *Olwyn Enright, Michael Creed, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. [2 February, 2010]

107. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognising the economic value of the tourism industry, with peak tourism revenues of €6.5 billion and 300,000 people employed in 2007;

acknowledging:

- tourism revenue dropped by €1.1 billion in 2009 to €5.2 billion, its lowest level since 2004;
- overseas visitor numbers fell by close to one million in 2009 compared to 2008;
- Ireland’s largest tourism market, the United Kingdom, declined by 16%;
- access to Ireland has become worryingly restricted with the ongoing removal of routes and restrictions in airline capacity at both Shannon and Dublin airports; and
- the serious credit flow crisis and level of debt facing the sector as a result of the economic downturn;

considering:

- the introduction of a departure tax was short-sighted, counterproductive and a deterrent to the survival of the tourism industry;
- employment has fallen significantly across all areas of the tourism industry with at least 12,000 job losses in 2009;
- the restaurant sector alone has warned that one in three businesses are at risk of closing, which would result in an estimated 21,000 job losses and €700 million annual loss in tax revenues to the economy;
- the failure by the Government to introduce any significant measures aimed at reducing costs or encouraging an environment conducive to the survival of small and medium sized enterprises; and
- the lack of political will and leadership for strategic assistance to the industry;

calls on the Government to:

- reposition tourism within the current departmental structure with a view to ensuring responsibility for tourism is focused and reflects the importance of this indigenous industry;

111. “That Dáil Éireann:

- expressing its serious concerns about revelations in the RTÉ Freefall documentary on 6th September, 2010 that Bank of Ireland Chairman, Richard Burrows and Chief Executive, Brian Goggin were informed by Anglo Irish Bank Chairman, Seán Fitzpatrick and Chief Executive, David Drumm, that Anglo Irish Bank was insolvent and requested a takeover of the bank;
- noting that immediately following this meeting Bank of Ireland management then contacted Allied Irish Bank and both banks immediately sought a meeting with the Minister for Finance, Deputy Brian Lenihan;
- further noting that following these meetings the Minister for Finance presented the Credit Institutions (Financial Support) Bill 2008 on 30th September, 2008 (the Bank Guarantee) claiming in the Dáil that the purpose of the Bank Guarantee was to deal with liquidity or cash flow issues within the Irish banking system;
- deploring the fact that the reality of the situation in Anglo Irish Bank was not revealed to the Dáil by the Minister for Finance before the passing of the Bank Guarantee;
- noting that due to the financial impact of the Bank Guarantee and the subsequent borrowing and the recapitalisation of the banks that the State's debt was being serviced at 6.8% in the week beginning 27th September, 2010, a record high since Ireland joined the euro zone; and
- noting that new estimates for the capital and recapitalisation costs of Anglo Irish Bank will reach €34.3 billion and that the total cost of the bank bailout will reach

€49.3 billion; and has no confidence in the Minister for Finance, Deputy Brian Lenihan.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Arthur Morgan, Martin Ferris, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

112. “That Dáil Éireann:

noting that:

- on 14th December, 2009, the Ombudsman laid a special report on the ‘Lost at Sea Scheme’ before each House of the Oireachtas;
- this was only the second special report in the history of the Office of the Ombudsman; and
- the special report included the Ombudsman’s conclusions that ‘the design of the Scheme and the manner in which it was advertised were contrary to fair and sound administration’;

accepting the Special Report of the Ombudsman, including her findings that:

- elements of the design lacked equity, including the fact that some conditions were improperly restrictive having regard to the overall purpose of the scheme and there was no provision for any discretion in assessing applications or for any form of appeal in deserving cases;
- the scheme was poorly advertised and some potential applicants were treated more favourably than others by being directly notified about the Scheme and invited to apply, or even directly consulted about the possible terms of the Scheme before it was finalised; and
- what emerged was a ‘two track’ system, as a result of which some potential applicants found themselves on the outside track and unfairly and improperly excluded from the Scheme;

rejecting the Report of the Joint Committee on Agriculture, Fisheries and Food on the Ombudsman’s Special Report, laid before Dáil Éireann on 20th October, 2010, including in particular the conclusions of the Joint Committee:

- that the manner in which the scheme was advertised was not adequate but not to the extent that it could be considered contrary to fair and sound administration;
- rejecting the Ombudsman’s views in relation to the design of the scheme; and
- refusing to recommend acceptance of the Ombudsman’s special report to the Houses of the Oireachtas;

calls on the Government to accept the special report of the Ombudsman and to implement her recommendations, including her recommendation for the payment of compensation.” — *Seán Sherlock, Eamon Gilmore, Joan Burton, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 114. “That Dáil Éireann:

- noting that the Government’s commitment to pass legislation to ensure that public appointments are made in a transparent way has not yet been honoured; and
- concerned that Ministers may make inappropriate and unconsidered appointments in their last days in office;

calls on the Government to suspend the making of public appointments by Ministers and the Government until the election of the 31st Dáil. In the event of emergency because of which an appointment has to be made, the relevant Minister should make a statement to the Dáil giving reasons as to why an exception should be made.” — Leo Varadkar.
