84. “That Dáil Éireann:

- recognises the social and economic hardship caused by water restrictions and disruptions for families and local businesses;
- recognises that an inefficient, outdated and fragmented water network has contributed to drinking water supply problems across the State;
- notes that the State spends €1 billion every year in current and capital expenditure for water treatment and supply;
- notes the need for significant water capital investment for the next four years and recognises the difficulty for the State in financing such investment through Exchequer funding;
- condemns the vast amount of waste caused by 43% of water supplies lost through unidentified leaks; and
- notes that problems associated with water shortages were discussed in Dáil Éireann and Seanad Éireann in January 2010 with little action taken since then to avoid a repeat of similar problems;

calls on Government to:

- establish a single publicly owned water utility company to take over responsibility for water investment and mains management on a national basis while allowing local authorities to tender for the provision of services;
- establish a new Utilities Commission to merge existing regulators for utilities and to take responsibility for regulating a new water utility company;
- reallocate future water funding from the Exchequer to prioritise water conservation by investment in water mains weather proofing; and
- examine all engineering resources of the State to ensure a rapid remedy to widespread burst water mains.” — *Phil Hogan, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 85. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes with grave concern:

- the most recent CSO figures showing a 51% increase in aggravated burglaries in the three months to the end of September 2009 accompanied by a 25% increase in non-aggravated burglaries in the same period;
- the recent widely reported targeting of vulnerable elderly residents in their own homes including a number of incidents in which vulnerable home-owners were viciously assaulted;
- the dramatic cutback in funding of the Scheme of Community Support for Older People in 2009;
- the fact that only 6% of the Garda force is made up of community Gardaí;
- the continual downgrading and closure of rural Garda stations; and
- the consequent fear and anxiety that is keenly felt by elderly people living alone;

calls on the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform to:

- arrest the decline of policing services to rural communities;
- bring forward measures and incentives to facilitate a significant increase in the number of community Gardaí; and
- enhance and develop the Garda Community Safety Week initiative; and calls on the Minister for Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs to reverse the cutback in funding for the Scheme of Community Support for Older People.” — *Charles Flanagan, Enda Kenny, Richard Bruton, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 86. “That Dáil Éireann:

- is aware of the importance of the work done by spouses in partnerships;
- acknowledges the value of that work to economic activity;
- condemns the Government decision to withdraw or reduce the Contributory State Pension from farmers’ and business spouses aged 66 and over;
- is aware that some applicants sought to pay PRSI contributions before reaching age 66 but were denied their efforts by the Department of Social and Family Affairs;
- recognises that this measure is extremely unfair to those who planned for their retirement on the basis of information provided by and calculated by the Department; and calls on the Government to withdraw the notice sent out to persons concerned and to act upon the power accorded to the Minister under subsection 110(2) of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 to ensure those payments are made.” — *Olwyn Enright, Michael Creed, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 87. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognising the economic value of the tourism industry, with peak tourism revenues of €6.5 billion and 300,000 people employed in 2007;

acknowledging:

- tourism revenue dropped by €1.1 billion in 2009 to €5.2 billion, its lowest level since 2004;
- overseas visitor numbers fell by close to one million in 2009 compared to 2008;
- Ireland’s largest tourism market, the United Kingdom, declined by 16%;
- access to Ireland has become worryingly restricted with the ongoing removal of routes and restrictions in airline capacity at both Shannon and Dublin airports; and
- the serious credit flow crisis and level of debt facing the sector as a result of the economic downturn;

considering:

- the introduction of a departure tax was short-sighted, counterproductive and a deterrent to the survival of the tourism industry;
- employment has fallen significantly across all areas of the tourism industry with at least 12,000 job losses in 2009;
- the restaurant sector alone has warned that one in three businesses are at risk of closing, which would result in an estimated 21,000 job losses and €700 million annual loss in tax revenues to the economy;
- the failure by the Government to introduce any significant measures aimed at reducing costs or encouraging an environment conducive to the survival of small and medium sized enterprises; and
- the lack of political will and leadership for strategic assistance to the industry;

calls on the Government to:

- reposition tourism within the current departmental structure with a view to ensuring responsibility for tourism is focused and reflects the importance of this indigenous industry;

- review the ancillary bodies dealing with tourism marketing, promotion and product development to ensure that the industry is strategically led, developed and supported in a coherent manner;
- immediately abolish the departure tax;
- reduce the 13.5% VAT rate on hotel accommodation and restaurants to 10%;
- reduce the upper rate of employer's PRSI by 20% and the lower rate of employer's PRSI by 50%;
- reduce local authority rates, freeze Government and local authority charges and reduce energy costs;
- totally overhaul the Joint Labour Committee (JLC) wage setting system;
- reduce the administration cost and complexity of Irish visitor visas;
- rollout high capacity broadband to regional areas; and
- request that the Competition Authority carries out an investigation into predatory pricing and reckless trading in the hotels sector.” — *Olivia Mitchell, Enda Kenny, Bernard Allen, James Bannon, Seán Barrett, Pat Breen, Richard Bruton, Ulick Burke, Catherine Byrne, Joe Carey, Deirdre Clune, Paul Connaughton, Noel J. 91. “That Dáil Éireann:

- expressing its serious concerns about revelations in the RTÉ Freefall documentary on 6th September, 2010 that Bank of Ireland Chairman, Richard Burrows and Chief Executive, Brian Goggin were informed by Anglo Irish Bank Chairman, Seán Fitzpatrick and Chief Executive, David Drumm, that Anglo Irish Bank was insolvent and requested a takeover of the bank;
- noting that immediately following this meeting Bank of Ireland management then contacted Allied Irish Bank and both banks immediately sought a meeting with the Minister for Finance, Deputy Brian Lenihan;
- further noting that following these meetings the Minister for Finance presented the Credit Institutions (Financial Support) Bill 2008 on 30th September, 2008 (the Bank Guarantee) claiming in the Dáil that the purpose of the Bank Guarantee was to deal with liquidity or cash flow issues within the Irish banking system;
- deploring the fact that the reality of the situation in Anglo Irish Bank was not revealed to the Dáil by the Minister for Finance before the passing of the Bank Guarantee;
- noting that due to the financial impact of the Bank Guarantee and the subsequent borrowing and the recapitalisation of the banks that the State's debt was being serviced at 6.8% in the week beginning 27th September, 2010, a record high since Ireland joined the euro zone; and
- noting that new estimates for the capital and recapitalisation costs of Anglo Irish Bank will reach €34.3 billion and that the total cost of the bank bailout will reach €49.3 billion; and has no confidence in the Minister for Finance, Deputy Brian Lenihan.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Arthur Morgan, Martin Ferris, Aengus Ó Snodaigh.

[5 October, 2010]

92. “That Dáil Éireann:

noting that:

- on 14th December, 2009, the Ombudsman laid a special report on the ‘Lost at Sea Scheme’ before each House of the Oireachtas;
- this was only the second special report in the history of the Office of the Ombudsman; and

- the special report included the Ombudsman’s conclusions that ‘the design of the Scheme and the manner in which it was advertised were contrary to fair and sound administration’;

accepting the Special Report of the Ombudsman, including her findings that:

- elements of the design lacked equity, including the fact that some conditions were improperly restrictive having regard to the overall purpose of the scheme and there was no provision for any discretion in assessing applications or for any form of appeal in deserving cases;
- the scheme was poorly advertised and some potential applicants were treated more favourably than others by being directly notified about the Scheme and invited to apply, or even directly consulted about the possible terms of the Scheme before it was finalised; and
- what emerged was a ‘two track’ system, as a result of which some potential applicants found themselves on the outside track and unfairly and improperly excluded from the Scheme;

rejecting the Report of the Joint Committee on Agriculture, Fisheries and Food on the Ombudsman’s Special Report, laid before Dáil Éireann on 20th October, 2010, including in particular the conclusions of the Joint Committee:

- that the manner in which the scheme was advertised was not adequate but not to the extent that it could be considered contrary to fair and sound administration;
- rejecting the Ombudsman’s views in relation to the design of the scheme; and
- refusing to recommend acceptance of the Ombudsman’s special report to the Houses of the Oireachtas; calls on the Government to accept the special report of the Ombudsman and to implement her recommendations, including her recommendation for the payment of compensation.” — *Seán Sherlock, Eamon Gilmore, Joan Burton, Emmet Stagg, Thomas P. 93. “That Dáil Éireann has no confidence in An Taoiseach, Deputy Brian Cowen, who has misled and betrayed the Irish people, as admitted by his Green Party coalition partners, and who leads a Fianna Fáil/Green Party Government which has totally mismanaged the economy and sold our sovereignty to the IMF and EU.” — Caoimhghín Ó Caoláin, Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Martin Ferris, Arthur Morgan.

[24 November, 2010]

94. “That Dáil Éireann:

- noting that the Government’s commitment to pass legislation to ensure that public appointments are made in a transparent way has not yet been honoured; and

— concerned that Ministers may make inappropriate and unconsidered appointments in their last days in office;

calls on the Government to suspend the making of public appointments by Ministers and the Government until the election of the 31st Dáil. In the event of emergency because of which an appointment has to be made, the relevant Minister should make a statement to the Dáil giving reasons as to why an exception should be made.” — Leo Varadkar.
