aitheantas a thabhairt do thairbhe an tsocraithe athstruchtúraithe don Stát agus dá shaoránaigh, agus go háirithe:

- deireadh a chur leis na nótaí gealltanais, a mhalartófar ar bhannaí rialtais fadtéarmacha, a mbeidh meánaibíocht 34 go 35 bliana ag baint leo seachas an mheánaibíocht 7 go 8 mbliana a bhain leis na nótaí gealltanais;

That Dáil Éireann:

welcomes the restructuring of the promissory notes provided to the Irish Bank Resolution Corporation, based on the outcome of discussions with the European Central Bank;

recognises the benefit of the restructured arrangement for the State and its citizens, particularly:

- the removal of the promissory notes, which will be exchanged for long-term government bonds, with an average maturity of 34 to 35 years as opposed to the promissory notes’ 7 to 8 year average maturity;
- the reduction in the State’s general government deficit of approximately €1 billion (0.6% of GDP) per annum over the coming years, which will bring us €1 billion closer to attaining our 3% deficit target by 2015;
- the reduction in the State’s cash borrowing requirement over the next 10 years by €20 billion;
- the significant element of the interest payments on the government bonds that is expected to ultimately be returned to the Exchequer in the form of Central Bank dividends, while these bonds are retained by the Central Bank;
- the substantial improvement in the State’s debt position over time;
- the removal of the remnants of the former Anglo Irish Bank and Irish Nationwide Building Society from the Irish financial system; and
- the housing of all the ‘wind down assets’ in one entity, the National Asset Management Agency, which should lead to greater efficiency in their workout;

commends the Government on progressing

‘Clár Tacaíochta agus réiteach ar an ngéarchéim bhaincéireachta a bhraitear a bheith níos inacmhainne ag pobal na hÉireann agus ag na margáí idirnáisiúnta araon a áirithiú, agus ar an gcaoi sin muinín, fás, cruthú post agus rochtain an Stáit ar chreidmheas inacmhainne ó iasachtóirí príobháideacha a fháil ar ais’ a chur chun cinn; agus tacaíocht a thabhairt d’iarrachtaí leanúnacha an Rialtais fás eacnamaíoch agus cruthú post a chothú, ar iarrachtaí iad a fheabhsóidh, mar aon le pléítí leanúnacha maidir le cúram leathnaithe an tSásra Cobhsaíochta Eorpaigh, inbhuanaitheacht fiachais an Stáit.

the commitment ‘to secure a Programme of Support and solution to the banking crisis that is perceived as more affordable by both the Irish public and international markets, thereby restoring confidence, growth, job creation and the State’s access to affordable credit from private lenders’; and supports the Government’s continuing efforts to foster economic growth and job creation which, in tandem with on-going discussions on the extended remit of the European Stability Mechanism, will further improve the State’s debt sustainability.”

Amendments:

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“notes the proposal from Government to restructure the promissory notes provided to the Irish Bank Resolution Corporation, based on the outcome of discussions with the European Central Bank; recognises the short-term benefit of the restructured arrangement for the State and its citizens, particularly:

- the removal of the promissory notes, which will be exchanged for long-term government bonds, with an average maturity of 34 to 35 years as opposed to the promissory notes’ 7 to 8 year average maturity; and
- the reduction in the State’s general government deficit of approximately €1 billion (0.6% of GDP) per annum in the short-term, which will bring us €1 billion closer to attaining our 3% deficit target by 2015;

further notes that:

- there are many unanswered questions relating to the operations of Anglo Irish Bank and Irish Nationwide Building Society (INBS) and to the issuing of the promissory notes, relevant to any consideration of the restructuring of their debts by Dáil Éireann;
- approximately €35 billion was committed to Anglo Irish Bank and INBS, by the Minister for Finance on behalf of Irish people, in order to stabilise the Eurozone banking system at a time of crisis;
- the promissory notes amount to socialisation of €30.6 billion of private sector debt;
- at the time of issue of the promissory notes in 2010:
  - all functioning Irish banks were already protected by the State guarantee;
  - Irish deposits in Anglo Irish Bank and INBS could have been protected for a fraction of the €30.6 billion promissory note cost; and
  - all €22.5 billion of senior debt in Anglo Irish Bank and INBS has been, or will shortly be, paid in full;

- there is an irrefutable case for the burden of the €30.6 billion to be shared with other Eurozone members, who were the beneficiaries of the promissory notes, via stabilisation of their banks;
- it is not appropriate to ask current and future Irish generations to pay for the losses of Anglo Irish Bank and INBS; and
- the Government did not seek any burden sharing of the €30.6 billion with other Eurozone members; and directs the Government to return to negotiations with relevant parties, with a clear instruction that there must be fair burden sharing of the principle amount of €30.6 billion, and further directs that payment on the March €3.1 billion is suspended, pending successful outcomes of these negotiations.”

—Stephen S. Donnelly.

2. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“notes that instead of the promise emanating from the European Union summit of June 2012 that bank debt would be separated from State debt, the Irish Government has done the opposite and shackled the Irish people to the toxic debts of the former Anglo Irish Bank until 2053;

condemns the Government for capitulating to the European Union establishment and the European Central Bank, which are institutions that have acted at all times not in the interest of the people, but in the interests of salvaging bondholders and banks from their reckless gambling on the Irish property bubble in pursuit of profits; and demands that no more monies are paid from the State to continue the EU bailout agenda and that the disastrous austerity policy is ended forthwith in favour of a major programme of investment in infrastructure, essential services and job creation.”

—Joe Higgins.

3. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“condemns:

- the decision of the Government to liquidate the Irish Bank Resolution Corporation (IBRC) in such a manner as to make ordinary Irish citizens legally responsible to fully repay the gambling debts of the rogue private financial institution that was Anglo Irish Bank; and
- the failure of the Government to seek, at any point from the European Central Bank, a write-down of this odious debt or to simply repudiate this debt on the grounds that ordinary Irish citizens bear no moral responsibility, whatsoever, for the reckless gambling and speculation of Anglo Irish Bank or international financiers who invested in it;

notes that:

- the Government’s ‘restructuring’ arrangement of IBRC’s (Anglo Irish Bank’s) private debts transforms those debts legally into sovereign debts and will make little or no difference to the unsustainable debt burden that has been imposed on Irish citizens and the Irish economy;
- the Government’s decision to make Irish citizens fully and legally responsible for €30 billion worth of IBRC's debts plus the interest on these debts means that their children and grandchildren will continue to pay for the economic crimes of others for decades to come;

- every euro that will be paid over by the citizens of this State as a result of this legal commitment to repay IBRC's (Anglo Irish Bank's) debts are monies that could otherwise be invested in job creation, economic growth and protecting the livelihoods and services of ordinary Irish citizens;
- following this 'deal' on IBRC's debts the Government is still required to make several billion of further budget cuts in the next budget and in budgets after that – ensuring more suffering for Irish citizens and further damage to the Irish economy;
- only the full and immediate write down of all debts incurred by IBRC and other private financial institutions would represent a just and sustainable resolution of the State's current financial crisis and open the way for economic recovery; and
- the devastating consequences of the liquidation of IBRC for ordinary workers in the bank who bear no responsibility for the reckless and possibly criminal activities of senior executives and management in the bank; and calls for:

- the immediate repudiation of all IBRC's debts and other private banking debt by the State, the seizure of all remaining banking assets for public use, the retention of all State assets and natural resources in public ownership, and the re-orientation of economic policy towards job creation, stimulation of the domestic economy and a fair distribution of wealth; and
- the Government to enter into immediate negotiations with the trade unions representing ordinary workers in IBRC to ensure fair redundancy terms for workers now facing the loss of their jobs.”

—Richard Boyd Barrett, Clare Daly, Joan Collins.

4. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“recognises that the replacement of the promissory notes provided to the Irish Bank Resolution Corporation (IBRC) with long-term government bonds announced by an Taoiseach on Thursday, 7th February, 2013 provides important benefits to the State including:

- a reduction in the general government deficit of approximately €1 billion per annum over the coming years and will bring the State approximately €1 billion closer to attaining the 3% general government deficit target by 2015; and
- a reduction in the State's cash borrowing requirement over the next 10 years by €20 billion by virtue of paying interest only on government bonds rather than capital and interest on the promissory notes;

acknowledges the considerable efforts made in recent months by those who negotiated on Ireland's behalf including the Minister for Finance, the Governor of the Central Bank and officials from the Department of Finance and the National Treasury Management Agency;

calls on the Government to use the €1 billion gain on the general government deficit to ease the planned budget adjustments and to invest further in job creation measures without compromising the achievement of the 3% deficit target by 2015;

notes that the Government has not sought or received any write down whatsoever of the legacy debt associated with the rescue of the former Anglo Irish Bank and Irish Nationwide Building Society;

notes that the Euro Area Summit Statement of 29th June, 2012 reaffirming the imperative need to ‘break the vicious circle between the banks and the sovereigns’ has not been implemented in this case;

notes that the conversion of the promissory notes to long-term government bonds means that there will be no further easement of this debt as a result of evolving European policy;

believes that the Central Bank should be permitted to retain the government bonds for longer than the period agreed which would yield additional savings to the State;

calls on the Government to publish a detailed analysis of the full impact of the deal on Ireland’s debt and deficit figures over the full course of the deal including, for example, sensitivity analysis for varying interest rates on the government bonds and possible payments to the National Asset Management Agency to cover any shortfall (should one arise) following the sale of IBRC assets by the Special Liquidator; and believes that the justice of Ireland’s case deserves further relief from the impact of bank-related debt and, in particular, that the Government should be seeking to have the cost of bailing out AIB, Bank of Ireland and Permanent TSB lifted from the shoulders of the State through the European Stability Mechanism.” (resumed) —*Michael McGrath, John Browne, Dara Calleary, Niall Collins, Barry Cowen, Timmy Dooley, Seán Fleming, Billy Kelleher, Seamus Kirk, Michael P. Notices of Motions:

184. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises:

- that mortgage arrears in Ireland, at 156,352 mortgages as of December 2014, are significantly higher than in comparable countries;
- the on-going suffering and social cost for those affected by arrears and repossession; and
- the socioeconomic cost for the nation of mortgage arrears and repossessions;

acknowledges policy interventions have been undertaken, including the:

- Personal Insolvency Act 2012;
- Code of Conduct on Mortgage Arrears; and
- Mortgage Arrears Resolution Targets;

welcomes:

- recent reductions in total mortgage arrears levels; and
- initiatives by some lenders to provide borrower-focussed debt restructuring solutions;

supports the recommendations of the 2014 cross-party Report on Hearings on Matters Relating to Mortgage Arrears Resolution Processes by the Joint Committee on Finance, Public Expenditure and Reform;

asserts that policy objectives pertaining to mortgage arrears include:

- minimising socioeconomic harm;
- avoiding repossession of the family home where possible;
- ensuring the dignity of all parties, in the resolution of unsustainable debts;
- ensuring equity in the resolution of unsustainable debts;
- ensuring restructures are truly sustainable for all parties;
- minimising rehousing needs;
- avoiding incentives for strategic default;
- ensuring adequate advice and representation for borrowers; and
- ensuring adequate insolvency options for borrowers;

notes with concern, the:

- rising number of repossession cases before the courts;
- lack of financial expertise available to many borrowers facing mortgage difficulties and repossession;
- lack of legal representation available to many borrowers facing mortgage difficulties and repossession;
- inconsistency in approach being taken by different lenders to mortgage restructuring, including repossessions;
- lack of transparency in reaching decisions on mortgage debt;
- lack of a mechanism to mandate lenders provide reasonable solutions;
- absence of stress testing of restructuring proposals;
- low levels of insolvency arrangements being agreed, including bankruptcies;
- prevalence of five year income attachment orders to bankruptcy orders; and
- low take-up of the mortgage-to-rent scheme and onerous eligibility criteria; and calls on the Government to bring forward proposals for consideration, within 6 weeks, to:

- fund:
  - the provision, at the start of the process, of independent financial expertise to borrowers in arrears, including personal insolvency expertise, where those borrowers cannot afford such expertise; and
  - the provision of adequate legal representation to borrowers facing repossession threats, where those borrowers cannot afford such representation;
- request the Central Bank of Ireland to:
  - define what constitutes a sustainable solution from the borrower's point of

- view, including stress-testing and the retirement period for borrowers; and
- strongly incentivise:
  - the provision of a suite of solutions, to include split mortgages, mortgage-to-rent and certainty on residual debt when properties are sold / surrendered, across lenders; and
  - lenders so as to realise consistency, transparency and fairness in proposed solutions, across lenders;
- amend the Personal Insolvency Act 2012 to:
  - reduce the bankruptcy period to one year, until resolution of the mortgage arrears issue;
  - reduce the maximum payment attachment order period to three years, until resolution of the mortgage arrears issue;
  - simplify / streamline the personal insolvency processes;
  - empower the Insolvency Service of Ireland (ISI), to provide formal opinion, where solicited by a Personal Insolvency Practitioner (PIP), as to the adequacy of restructuring proposals put forward by the PIP; and
  - remove the payment of VAT from insolvency disbursements;
- amend the Land and Conveyancing Law Reform (Amendment) Act 2013 to:
  - ensure any repossession action includes a sustainable restructuring proposal for all outstanding debts; and
  - allow consideration of ISI opinion as to the adequacy of restructuring proposals put forward by the PIP, as grounds for refusing an application for possession;
- amend the parameters of the mortgage-to-rent scheme so that a reasonable number of homes qualify for consideration;
- provide consideration of a mortgage-to-lease scheme, providing off-balance sheet funding to purchase repossessed homes; and
- review the outcomes of repossession hearings to understand the level of consistency with which possession orders are, or are not, being granted.” — *Stephen S.
