Leasú ar an Tairiscint don Dara Léamh:

Amendment to Motion for Second Reading:

1. To delete all words after “That” and substitute the following:

“Dáil Éireann declines to give the Prohibition of Micro-Plastics Bill 2016 a second reading for the following reasons:

- (a) the proposed Bill could place Ireland in breach of articles 34 and 35 of the Treaty of the Functioning of the European Union (EU) which relates to the principle of the free movement of goods;
- (b) the proposed Bill, as presented, has significant drafting flaws in relation to definitions, enforcement and level of ambition; and
- (c) the Minister for Housing, Planning, Community and Local Government, having recently carried out an extensive public consultation process, will undertake the following:
 - (i) draw up the necessary justification to ban microbeads in certain products at a national level, to submit this to the EU Commission and formally notify them and the World Trade Organisation of our intention to undertake such a ban;
 - (ii) develop legislative proposals which would, among other things, contain the legislative basis for a domestic ban on microbeads in certain products; and
 - (iii) continue the on-going work which Ireland undertakes, both domestically and in cooperation with our regional and international partners, to heighten public awareness and positively influence societal behavior in relation to marine litter including microbeads and to undertake research to further the science knowledge base and to inform public policy on the issue.”

Leasú ar an Tairiscint don Dara Léamh:

Amendment to Motion for Second Reading:

1. To delete all words after “That” and substitute the following:

“Dáil Éireann, while recognising that rural proofing and equality are important issues to ensure the development of rural areas, declines to give the Rural Equality Bill 2017 a second reading for the following reasons:

- (a) the proposals in the Bill would require rural impact assessments to be carried out on all enactments, including Money Bills, this would have implications, in particular, for the Finance Bill, and could have serious implications for the timely passing of legislation to give effect to the annual Budget;
- (b) the proposed Bill, as presented, has significant drafting flaws in relation to definitions and level of ambition;
- (c) the proposed Bill will create difficulties in relation to the scope of its application and in relation to the administrative burden it will create as there are a significant number of public bodies for which a rural impact scheme is not relevant or material because of the nature of their work (e.g. Irish Film Classification Office), or their limited geographical remit (e.g. Dublin Docklands Development Authority);
- (d) the Action Plan for Rural Development, which takes a whole-of-Government approach to both the economic and social development of rural Ireland, includes a commitment to ‘develop a new and effective rural proofing model which would ensure that rural development issues are considered in the decision-making processes of all Government Departments, State bodies and agencies.’; and

- (e) the Minister for Arts, Heritage, Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs proposes that, in delivering the commitment in the Action Plan, the Oireachtas Committee on Arts, Heritage, Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs should examine the issue and recommend whether rural proofing would be best achieved by non-legislative actions or by legislative actions, or a mixture of both, and present a report to Dáil Éireann on the matter.”
