222b. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that the homeless figures continue to rise month on month and, at the end of October 2018, there were 9,724 people and 3,725 children in homeless accommodation, according to the statistics provided by the Department of Housing, Planning and Local Government;

further notes that:

- at least 1,600 people were removed and recategorised from these homeless figures;
- people and children in domestic violence refuges and direct provision accommodation are not included in these figures;
- people and children living in unsuitable, overcrowded accommodation and ‘couch surfing’ are also not included in these figures;
- some children are spending their second and third Christmases in emergency accommodation;
- the most recent rough sleeper count was 156, up from 110 in the spring count;
- over 10,000 attended the rally on the 1st December, #HomesForAll, which was also the fourth anniversary of the death of Jonathan Corrie;
- over 14,000 people signed the recent Barnardos Ireland petition to call for an end to the use of bed and breakfasts and hotels to house homeless children; and
- public opinion is ahead of the political will to end the crisis and the majority of the public believe that housing is a human right which should be enshrined in the Constitution, according to a recent Amárach poll published on the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights on 10th December; and calls on the Government to:

- immediately declare a housing emergency and implement the necessary emergency measures to urgently address the crisis;

- hold a referendum on the right to housing in May 2019;
- commit to re-housing families who have been in emergency homeless accommodation, including hubs, for 18 months or more, no later than by the end of quarter 1, 2019;
- commit to re-housing all other families experiencing homelessness by the end of quarter 2, 2019;
- limit the use of hubs and emergency accommodation for families with children to three months maximum;
- increase supports to schools in areas with large populations of homeless families;
- provide free counselling to all families and children experiencing homelessness should they wish to avail of the service;
- increase the number of available emergency beds and single rooms in dry hostels; and
- extend the Housing First programme by doubling all targets in the Housing First National Implementation Plan 2018-2021.” — Thomas P. Broughan, Joan Collins, Clare Daly, Mick Wallace.

TEACHTAIREACHTAÍ ÓN RIALTAS MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNMENT

An Bille Árachais Sláinte (Leasú), 2018. Health Insurance (Amendment) Bill 2018.

For the purpose of Article 17.2 of the Constitution, the Government recommend that it is expedient to authorise such payments out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas as are necessary to give effect to any Act of the present session to amend the Health Insurance Act 1994 to specify the amount of premium to be paid from the Risk Equalisation Fund in respect of certain classes of insured persons from 1 April 2019; to make certain other amendments to that Act; to amend the Voluntary Health Insurance (Amendment) Act 1996 to vary the basis on which persons are appointed to be members of the Voluntary Health Insurance Board; to amend the Voluntary Health Insurance (Amendment) Act 1998 to enable the Voluntary Health Insurance Board to act as an insurer in addition to an agent in respect of the provision of health insurance cover pursuant to an international healthcare plan; to make a consequential amendment to the Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999; and to provide for related matters.

Given on this 11th day of December, 2018

(Signed) Leo Varadkar,
An Taoiseach.

An Bille um Choimisiún Thithe an Oireachtais (Leasú), 2018. Houses of the Oireachtas Commission (Amendment) Bill 2018.

For the purpose of Article 17.2 of the Constitution, the Government recommend that it is expedient to authorise such charges on and payments out of the Central Fund or the growing produce thereof and such payments out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas as are necessary to give effect to any Act of the present session to amend and extend the Houses of the Oireachtas Commission Act 2003; and to provide for related matters.

Given on this 12th day of December, 2018

(Signed) Leo Varadkar,
An Taoiseach.

An Bille Leithreasa, 2018.
Appropriation Bill 2018.

For the purpose of Article 17.2 of the Constitution, the Government recommend that it is expedient to authorise such charges on and payments out of the Central Fund or the growing produce thereof and such payments out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas as are necessary to give effect to any Act of the present session to apply a certain sum out of the Central Fund to the service of the year ended 31 December 2016 and to appropriate to the proper supply services and purposes sums granted by the Central Fund (Permanent Provisions) Act 1965, to make provision in relation to deferred surrender to the Central Fund of certain undischarged appropriations by reference to the capital supply services and purposes as provided for by section 91 of the Finance Act 2004 and, for the purpose of maintaining a sufficient amount of moneys in the Paymaster General's supply account so as to enable the discharge of particular liabilities, to make provision for repayable advances from the Central Fund.

Given on this 12th day of December, 2018

(Signed) Leo Varadkar,
An Taoiseach.
