210. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- more than 3.17 million listeners tune in to radio every weekday;
- more than two thirds of listeners tune in to independent radio stations;
- Ireland ranks joint first with Germany, at 45 per cent, for using radio as a source of news; and
- radio is the most trusted medium for news in Ireland, with 68 per cent of Irish people trusting what they hear on radio;

agrees that:

- independent radio enjoys an excellent reputation for the provision of public service news and current affairs;
- this programming has been provided to date without State support;
- the statutory 20 per cent public service obligation on the independent radio sector to provide news and current affairs programming is increasingly difficult to deliver in the context of the advertising revenue shift to digital social media platforms;
- the ability of broadcasters to invest in Irish content on a sustainable basis depends in turn on their ability to generate revenues in an environment of significant disruption and challenge;
- the threat to the viability of the independent radio sector has the potential to erode democratic dialogue both nationally and across communities throughout the country; and
- independent journalism, free to pursue the public interest, is an essential component of the democratic process;

recognises that:

- commercial radio revenues, including those accruing to Raidió Teilifís Éireann (RTÉ), have declined significantly in the last ten years, to €127 million in 2016, compared to €140 million in 2007, leading to significant uncertainty regarding the future of the sector;
- the then Taoiseach, Enda Kenny T.D., committed to the reduction of the current levy on independent broadcasters in 2016;
- as with most European nations, the Irish broadcast market is already subject to public intervention in the form of funding and oversight;
- in order to address disinformation, Irish consumers believe that it is the responsibility of news media outlets and Government to take action;
- television licence fee evasion in Ireland is among the highest in Europe and millions of euro are being lost to the sector each year;

- the Oireachtas Joint Committee on Communications, Climate Action and Environment published its report on the Future Funding of Public Service Broadcasting in November 2017;
- the Committee recommended methods to reduce evasion aimed at generating between €35 million and €50 million extra to fund public service broadcasting;
- the Committee also recommended that the Minister for Communications, Climate Action and Environment establish a scheme to assist independent radio stations in the provision of local news and current affairs programmes;
- the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland (BAI) has called for RTÉ to receive an increase in public funding of at least €30 million per year to meet its remit;
- at 71 per cent, Irish consumers are more trusting of ‘most news’ than the European Union average, but that some 57 per cent of Irish consumers are concerned about ‘fake news’; and
- some 63 per cent believe the Government should do more to address disinformation; and calls on the Government to:

- implement the recommendations of the Oireachtas Joint Committee on Communications, Climate Action and Environment report on the Future Funding of Public Service Broadcasting by the end of July 2019;
- establish a public service broadcast fund for the independent radio sector by the end of September 2019, to:
 - invest 25 per cent of funds raised through increased collection of the television licence fee to provide independent radio stations with additional funding to develop and maintain high quality news and current affairs programmes which empower democracy by facilitating democratic engagement and reflect local identity and address local concerns; and
 - limit the funding provided to each organisation by ensuring that stations do not receive:
 - more than 50 per cent of the cost of producing and broadcasting qualifying content;
 - in excess of 20 per cent of their operational budget in a given year; and
 - in excess of € 250,000 in a given year;
- implement the recommendation of the BAI to provide an extra €30 million a year to RTÉ recognising that this funding would be available from enhanced television licence fee collection; and
- implement its commitment to reduce the broadcasting levy to the independent radio sector by the end of June 2019.” — *Timmy Dooley, Bobby Aylward, John Brassil, Declan Breathnach, James Browne, Mary Butler, Thomas Byrne, Jackie Cahill, Dara Calleary, Pat Casey, Shane Cassells, Jack Chambers, Lisa M. 212. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- the National Union of Journalists has repeatedly called for a commission on the future of media in Ireland;
- journalistic independence is vital to allow journalism to hold power to account, thereby playing a vital role in a healthy democracy;
- the nature of what constitutes a media outlet has changed substantially in recent times, and legislation and regulations have not kept pace with developments in the media and digital news sector;
- various threats to the viability of legacy media exist and legitimate questions arise regarding how far media pluralism in Ireland extends;
- academic studies on the media landscape in Ireland have identified that Ireland is at significant risk regarding lack of media-plurality; and
- recent revelations by the Office of the Director of Corporate Enforcement (ODCE) in relation to the potential data breaches within Independent News and Media have once again highlighted the need to examine the operation of media outlets in Ireland; and calls for the urgent establishment of a fully independent commission on the future of media in Ireland comprising a broad spectrum of representatives from relevant backgrounds, including consumers of media, with a view to making recommendations to nurture and sustain a healthy Irish news media where:

- the broad diversity of views and of cultural interests prevalent in society is reflected through the activities of media businesses and the public service broadcaster, including their editorial ethos, content and sources; and
- there is a healthy spread of ownership and control of media businesses, with no person or undertaking holding excessive interests within a sector or across different sectors of media business.” — Catherine Murphy, Róisín Shortall, Brendan Howlin, Joan Burton, Alan Kelly, Jan O'Sullivan, Willie Penrose, Brendan Ryan, Sean Sherlock.

213. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes:

- the increasing importance of digital communications platforms such as Facebook and Google during national elections and referendum campaigns;
- the Cambridge Analytica scandal which highlighted how outside interests can use online tracking and advertising tools to influence national elections;
- that advertising on such platforms is not regulated under existing election advertising rules;
- the work of the Transparent Referendum Initiative in recording the source and number of adverts carried on such platforms during the recent referendum campaign;
- how both Facebook and Google decided, with just three weeks to go to polling day, to amend their own rules to restrict the carrying of advertising in relation to the referendum for the remainder of the campaign;
- the need to understand whether the volume of advertising from overseas was a factor in those decisions; and
- the opportunity that exists to set a precedent on the need for transparency surrounding such advertising; calls on the relevant social media companies to:

- work with the Transparent Referendum Initiative to provide details on the volume and value of referendum advertising that was carried on their platforms during the recent referendum to repeal the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution of Ireland; and
- publish such data in a prompt manner and in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) European Directive; and calls on the Government to commit to finalising the necessary legislation to ensure there is proper regulation of such online election advertising in the future, including mechanisms to provide full transparency on the level and source of such advertising expenditure.” — Eamon Ryan, Catherine Martin.

214. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- with 34.4 million air passengers in Ireland in 2017, there has been an increase in the use of air travel over many years;
- there is a probable impact of increased traffic at Irish airports due to the United Kingdom’s decision to leave the European Union (EU); and
- the Dublin Airport Authority (DAA) is now planning for up to 50 million plus passengers per annum at Dublin Airport alone;

further notes that:

- EU Directives, planning conditions and environmental impact studies have developed over the past 20-25 years, leading to stricter noise conditions being imposed on developments by airports;

- Dublin Airport runway 10R 28L currently has night flights and with a planning condition for no night flights to take place on the new northern runway 10L 28R, all night flights would be directed onto the older runway;
- over 250 European airports, including London Heathrow and Frankfurt, have longstanding restrictions on night flights;
- homes recording noise levels of 63 decibels are to be offered insulation and those affected by 69 decibels are to be offered relocation via a voluntary buy-out scheme;
- the community of St. Margaret's The Ward and St. Margaret's received a level of insulation for their homes and schools following a public period of negotiation with the then Aer Rianta, and this level of insulation has not been reviewed or upgraded since;
- the new northern runway and indeed the existing runway have impacted and will impact further on the value of the properties within certain noise contours, and will also impact on the health of the residents and the environment of the local communities; and
- local residents believe, however that the economic importance of Dublin Airport and the necessity for growth can co-exist with the local community, with proper insulation and sound barrier technologies installed, reasonable noise controls and a voluntary buy-out scheme for those who decide they need to leave; and

calls on the Government to:

- restrict air travel between the hours of 11.30 p.m. and 5 a.m. on all runways;
- instruct the Environmental Protection Agency to carry out independent noise pollution investigations in a selection of homes affected by noise pollution from runway 10R 28L and the proposed new northern runway 10L 28R;
- examine European best practice for insulation and ensure that all homes receive this level of support;
- ensure that the homes affected by the older 10R 28L runway are provided with the same level of insulation as the homes affected by the new northern runway 10L 28R;
- direct the DAA and other airport authorities to offer either improved insulation or a voluntary buy-out scheme to those homes affected, and for insulation and the voluntary buy-out option to be reviewed/upgraded every 5-7 years; and
- bring forward the noise pollution legislation promised but never enacted by previous Governments.” — Thomas P. Broughan, Clare Daly.

215. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that the Health Service Executive (HSE) submitted an audit report to the Government on 11th June, 2018, confirming that, in general, Section 39 organisations had maintained alignment with HSE pay scales during the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest (FEMPI) cuts and that pay cuts averaged around 4.66 per cent since 2010;

further notes that:

- a private members’ motion was agreed by Dáil Éireann in January 2018, calling on the Government to undertake such an audit and analysis, and to commit to reimbursement of any cuts found;
- Section 39 organisations are in agreement with staff and unions that pay restoration is due to staff as per the Lansdowne Road Agreement (Public Sector Stability Agreement 2018-2020) but, in general, they are unable to meet these increased pay demands from their own restricted funds;
- the Labour Court recommendation LCR21609 on 20th November, 2017, between the Irish Wheelchair Association (IWA) and the Services, Industrial, Professional and Technical Union (SIPTU) confirmed the alignment between the IWA pay scales and the HSE;
- the Labour Court recommendation LCR21609 on 20th November, 2017, also criticised the HSE’s administrative requirement for the IWA and SIPTU to engage in the industrial relations process;
- industrial action is due to take place across Section 39 services on 18th September, having been deferred since February to allow for talks;
- funding has still not been provided to Section 39 organisations to restore pay in line with HSE pay rates;
- delays are merely increasing the amounts due to staff incrementally and creating distress and unease for staff and services;
- due to lack of pay restoration, Section 39 organisations find themselves under extreme pressure in relation to recruitment and retention of staff; and
- the work of Section 39 organisations and their staff is of importance, and that industrial action for the large numbers of vulnerable service-users would be a catastrophe; and

calls on the Government to:

- immediately implement the motion as passed by Dáil Éireann on 17th January, 2018, calling for restoration of pay for staff of Section 39 organisations; and
- instruct the HSE to immediately provide the additional funding to the Section 39 organisations found in the HSE report, of which a copy was submitted to the Government on 11th June, 2018, to meet pay restoration obligations to staff.” — Thomas P. Broughan, Thomas Pringle, Clare Daly, Mick Wallace, Maureen O’Sullivan, Joan Collins, Catherine Connolly.

216. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- post offices provide crucial economic, administrative and social services to communities all around Ireland, especially to those in rural and isolated areas;
- many citizens depend on post offices in order to access basic State services, including social welfare payments and passport applications, as well as key financial services including insurance, banking and foreign exchange;
- this Government and the previous Government have stripped vital State services away from rural communities, including rural transport links, support for small schools, and rural Garda stations;

- previous post office closures took place as the result of population decline and not as the result of a pre-meditated programme to drastically reduce the number of post offices that are present in rural areas;
- technological and societal changes have presented significant challenges to the existent post office business model, and that significant change is required in order to ensure the viability of the An Post network;
- the Programme for a Partnership Government committed to revitalising the An Post network through the introduction of new services; and
- there has been a Post Office Network Business Development Group since 2014, which made a final report to the Government in January 2016 that made 23 recommendations, which have yet to be acted upon;

notes that:

- it is the Government's responsibility to provide equality of access to important services to all citizens;
- following the recent decision by An Post to circulate retirement packages to hundreds of postmasters and postmistresses, 159 have elected to take their well-deserved retirements;
- it is An Post's intention that wherever a postmaster or postmistress has elected to retire, that post office will close, leaving communities without access to critical post office services;
- other European countries have already extended Public Service Obligation (PSO) payments for the purpose of maintaining post office outlets in areas where they would be otherwise financially unviable; and
- the proposed changes to a 15 kilometre radius will place an intolerable burden on the elderly and most vulnerable in our communities, particularly those without access to private or public transport; and

calls on the Government to:

- guarantee the current An Post network to ensure that all citizens of Ireland have access to this important service by introducing a new PSO payment for post offices, based on models in the United Kingdom;
- immediately roll out new services, as recommended by the Post Office Network Business Development Group and An Post's own strategy, to ensure the financial viability of the entire An Post network; and
- prevent the loss of post office services in the 159 communities where postmasters or postmistresses are retiring by advertising a new contract, appropriate to the local area and taking into consideration the potential for co-location, to continue the provision of post office services.” — *Timmy Dooley, Bobby Aylward, John Brassil, Declan Breathnach, James Browne, Mary Butler, Thomas Byrne, Jackie Cahill, Dara Calleary, Pat Casey, Shane Cassells, Jack Chambers, Lisa M. 217. “That Dáil Éireann:

acknowledges with grave concern the Irish Fiscal Advisory Council (IFAC)’s Fiscal Assessment Report, November 2018; calls on the Minister for Finance and Public Expenditure and Reform to address the criticisms of budgetary policy raised by the IFAC, which include the following:

- that taken together, Budget 2018 spending and ‘the Budget 2019 plans are not conducive to prudent economic and budgetary management’;
- repeated budgetary failures have ‘left the public finances more exposed to adverse shocks’;
- the ‘medium-term budgetary plans are not credible’;
- over-reliance on corporation tax has inhibited net policy spending rising ‘in line with sustainable revenues’; and
- the Minister’s fiscal stance has ‘echoes of 2007’; and demands that in future the Minister sustainably and adequately funds critical public services, including health and disability services, housing and homelessness, education, social protection, transport, policing and defence, without recourse to annual supplementary estimates, and that he also sustainably funds mitigation measures to address the challenges of the very serious risks to Ireland’s economy and society, including from Brexit, climate change, the national debt and EU/international tax and trade developments.” — Thomas P. Broughan

[12 December, 2018]

218. “That Dáil Éireann resolves that the County of Wexford Local Electoral Areas and Municipal Districts Order 2018 (S.I. No. 637 of 2018) be and is hereby annulled.”— James Browne.

[30 January, 2019]

219. “That Dáil Eireann:

reaffirms the principles of Article 6.1 of the Constitution of Ireland which states: ‘All powers of government, legislative, executive and judicial, derive, under God, from the people, whose right it is to designate the rulers of the State and, in final appeal, to decide all questions of national policy, according to the requirements of the common good.’;

notes that:

- the 32nd Dáil established a Citizens’ Assembly by resolution on 13th July, 2016; and
- on 14th January, 2018, the Citizens’ Assembly voted overwhelmingly for citizens’ initiatives to be provided for; upholds the principle of direct democracy and the holding of constitutional referenda to effect legislative change; acknowledges that a newly-constituted Citizens' Assembly would help implement the principles of direct democracy by adding citizen-initiated referenda to amend the Constitution of Ireland; and supports empowering a Citizens' Assembly for the period of one year, so that it can devise a new mechanism that will enable citizens to robustly scrutinise proposed legislation, assess and advocate for citizens' initiatives and table amendments and counter proposals to Government-sponsored legislation;

agrees that membership of the new, one-year Citizens' Assembly will consist of:

- a chairperson, to be appointed by An Taoiseach;
- a minimum of 66 citizens, randomly selected so as to be broadly representative of Irish society and who are entitled to vote in a referendum and in local authority elections;
- one member from each of the political parties of the Northern Ireland Assembly;
- one member appointed by each political party/grouping of the Oireachtas; and
- substitutes, who may be appointed by each political party/grouping, and who will be entitled to full participation rights, including the right to vote; and further agrees that:

- the Citizens' Assembly-
 - will agree its own rules of procedure to ensure effective conduct of its business which will be done in as economical a manner as possible;
 - will give appropriate regard to the conventions and clauses contained within the Good Friday and St. Andrews' Agreements;
 - will present an interim report to the Houses of the Oireachtas, including its recommendations, within two months of completing its deliberations; and
 - may invite and accept submissions from interested bodies and members of the public, and will seek advice and guidance whenever necessary to aid its members in their deliberations;
- all matters before the Citizens' Assembly will be determined by a majority of the votes cast by members present;
- the chairperson will have the casting vote in the event of a hung vote; and
- An Taoiseach will provide, to the Houses of the Oireachtas, a response to the recommendation/s of the Citizens' Assembly within one month of receiving the interim and final reports, and will indicate a timeframe as to when the holding of any related referendum is envisaged." — *Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Gerry Adams, John Brady, Pat Buckley, Seán Crowe, David Cullinane, Pearse Doherty, Dessie Ellis, Martin J.
