Notices of Motions:

- 215. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes:

- the desire of all political parties, groups and members to improve and prioritise medical outcomes for the nation’s sick children;
- the current cost of the construction of the National Children’s Hospital stands at €1.433 billion and rising;

- that this represents the most dramatic, fluid and unprecedented cost escalation level for any single health related project in the history of the State;
- that this escalation in costs is likely to be ongoing and represents significant challenges in the capacity to deliver urgently needed local health related or capital spending projects;
- that the urgent clinical necessity of co-locating a maternity hospital with the National Children’s Hospital is now seriously compromised if not fatally undermined due to site capacity issues;
- that fire safety and structural viability related concerns have been flagged around the decision to construct approximately 1,000 underground car parking spaces directly under the National Children’s Hospital;
- that the independent review of National Children’s Hospital project (2011) and the Review Group on the National Children’s Hospital (2012) stated that it would be 25 per cent less expensive to build on a greenfield site than on an urban site; and
- the decision by Government and the Health Service Executive (HSE) to commission a review by PricewaterhouseCoopers to establish the sequence of events in relation to the cost increases experienced by the project, establish what was known, when and by whom, and the reporting of relevant information from the project team to the relevant oversight and governance bodies including the National Paediatric Hospital Development Board and also its committees, the HSE and the Department of Health; and

calls on the Government to:

- immediately suspend construction of the National Children’s Hospital at the St James’s Hospital site pending the outcome of a time-limited independent investigation to assess the viability, cost and efficacy of re-tendering the project and transferring its location to a greenfield site with the capacity to include the co-location of a maternity hospital; and
- utilise any site preparation work already started at St. James’s Hospital to develop a satellite children’s urgent care centre, further adult services or any other services deemed most appropriate in the event that a recommendation for relocation is made following the outcome of the independent investigation.” — *Mattie McGrath, Michael Collins, Michael J. Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann” and substitute the following:

“notes:

- the need to develop an appropriately sited, world class facility to care for children and young people from all over Ireland who are in need of specialist and complex care;
- that clinical considerations were paramount in the decision by the Government in 2012 to co-locate the new children’s hospital with St. James’s Hospital, in line with independent reviews affirming the importance of co-location with a major adult academic teaching hospital;
- the Government’s decision to re-develop the Coombe Women and Infants Hospital on the St. James's campus in the context of achieving tri-location of adult, paediatric and maternity services on that campus as the optimum configuration to best support paediatrics, highly complex foetal and high-risk maternal medicine and chronic disease management in young people;

- the capacity of the site at St. James's Hospital to accommodate the new children's hospital and maternity hospital, and the incorporation into the design of the children's hospital of the required operational links with both maternity and adult hospitals on the St. James's Hospital campus;
- that St. James's is the hospital best served by public transport in the country, including easy access to the M50 and Heuston Station and that safe underground car parking, part of the Fire Safety Certificate granted by Dublin City Council for the hospital, will be provided for 1,000 cars, including 675 dedicated to patients and families and 31 drop-off emergency spaces;
- the Government's decision to develop satellite centres on the campuses of Tallaght University Hospital and Connolly Hospital, and that they will be easily accessible to local populations for the management of minor illness and injuries and attendance at outpatient and chronic disease clinics;
- that planning permission, unanimously granted by An Bord Pleanála in April 2016, supported the development of the hospital on the St. James's site and the satellite centres at Tallaght and Connolly Hospitals;
- the vision of the new children's hospital as a research-intensive academic healthcare institution and the potential to attract and retain specialised nursing and medical staff and health and social care professionals;
- the enactment of the Children's Health Bill in 2018, and the establishment of Children's Health Ireland as a statutory body to take over the services provided by the three existing Dublin paediatric hospitals, and run the new children's hospital, outpatient and urgent care centres; and
- the link between the hospital and local and regional paediatric units through an integrated national clinical network aimed at delivering services to children as close to home as possible;

acknowledges:

- the desire of all political parties, groups and members to improve and prioritise medical outcomes for the nation's sick children;
- the considerable increase in capital project costs over and above that notified to the Government in 2017, to a capital cost of €1.433 billion;
- the decision taken by the Government to proceed with the project, and the significant financial commitments given by the Government to complete the construction of the hospital and associated outpatient and urgent care centres;
- the commissioning of an independent review of the escalation in cost to identify the contributory factors and associated responsibilities so that any potential weaknesses are identified and comprehensively and speedily resolved in the interests of the successful completion of the project and the effective management of public funds, and to develop recommendations, if possible, which may identify any areas of potential cost savings or reductions;
- the significant progress made in the development of the new hospital at the St. James's Hospital campus, and works relating to the Tallaght University Hospital and Connolly Hospital outpatient and urgent care centres, with the latter scheduled to open in July 2019; and

- the Government’s investment plans as outlined in Project Ireland 2040 and the National Development Plan 2018-2027, which provide for a substantially increased capital funding commitment of €10.9 billion for the public health service, which includes the substantial capital investment in 2019 of €642 million which will, in addition to the new children’s hospital, and the urgent care centres at Connolly and Tallaght Hospitals, continue significant capital investment in the health services; and supports:

- the Government’s priority to develop and deliver the new hospital on the St. James’s campus and centres at Connolly and Tallaght Hospitals to support best clinical outcomes for children and young people in Ireland; and
- the proposals recently announced by the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform on a revised approach to major capital projects.” —An tAire Sláinte.

216. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- micro-, small- and medium-sized enterprises currently employ over one million people in Ireland according to the Central Statistics Office (CSO);
- the cost of employer liability insurance and public liability insurance is a direct threat to the competitiveness and sustainability of many businesses throughout the country, including, micro-, small- and medium-sized enterprises, sports clubs and facilities, charities, community and voluntary organisations, play centres, livestock marts, pubs and bars;
- the National Competitiveness Council has cited the cost of doing business in Ireland as a major concern, and that hidden costs such as insurance remain a pressure point for businesses;
- the Report on the Cost of Doing Business from the Joint Committee on Business, Enterprise and Innovation placed insurance front and centre as an issue for ‘most business organisations’;
- many businesses are reporting large increases in employer and public liability insurance premiums, many more cannot even obtain a quote, forcing them to self-insure, which puts both businesses and claimants at risk, and large increases in insurance excess and a greater use of insurance exclusions have also been reported;
- the Personal Injuries Commission (PIC) has confirmed that the data shows personal injury claims in Ireland are out-of-sync with other jurisdictions;
- the PIC recommended that corrective action is required to bring personal injury damages back in line with other jurisdictions, that the Judicial Council Bill 2017 be progressed through the Houses of the Oireachtas as quickly as possible and that a judicial council should bring forward guidance on the level of personal injury damages;
- the Personal Injuries Assessment Board (PIAB) was established in 2004 to provide an alternative dispute resolution mechanism to assess personal injury claims to often costly adversarial court proceedings;
- 33,114 applications were received in 2017 by PIAB, only 6,788 awards out of 12,663 made were accepted, and the remaining cases were dealt with outside the PIAB process;

- there is currently no data collected tracking the changes in premiums for employer liability and public liability, which means the problem remains under the surface;
- insurance fraud is one of the many reasons why insurance premiums are high, and there is currently no data collected on insurance fraud, be it from the Garda PULSE insurance fraud statistics or from the Courts Service;
- the insurance fraud database has yet to be established, the original deadline has been missed, and no new deadline has been put in place;
- in many instances, insurance companies are not challenging claims they believe to be dubious and potentially fraudulent; and
- insurance companies use non-disclosure at the point of a claim rather than at the policy proposal stage in order to avoid the payment of a claim; and

calls on the Government to:

- fully establish, without delay, the national claims information database inclusive of public liability and employer liability and an integrated insurance fraud database which includes the number of complaints made to An Garda Síochána, the number of cases brought by the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP), the number of convictions made at both District and Circuit Court level, and the penalties and the sentences handed down;
- legally oblige insurance companies to notify policyholders of claims made against them as claims are made, to inform policyholders of the amount a claim was settled for and the reasons why the claim was settled, and to provide a breakdown of the premium;
- outline a timeline for the implementation of each of the 14 recommendations made by the PIC regarding personal injury awards;
- immediately commence recent legislative proposals passed by the Oireachtas which will require that PIAB update the Book of Quantum every three years or sooner;
- apply pressure to the insurance industry to be forthcoming with data in order for the Department of Finance to complete a key information report on public liability and employer liability insurance claims;
- urgently advance the Judicial Council Bill 2017 to establish a judicial council and establish an interim framework, inclusive of PIAB, to enable the judiciary to complete guidelines in advance of the establishment of the judicial council;
- fully fund and resource a dedicated Garda fraud unit, facilitate the passage through the Oireachtas of the Civil Liability and Courts (Amendment) Bill 2018, so that fraudulent or exaggerated claims are reported to the DPP and bring in tougher penalties for such claims;
- undertake analysis on the potential options for micro-, small-, and medium-sized enterprises which cannot obtain public liability or employer liability insurance from any company operating in Ireland;
- urgently work with the CSO to bring forward an objective measure of the level of public liability and employer liability insurance;
- urgently tackle the 18 outstanding action points in the Cost of the Insurance Working

Group’s Reports on Motor Insurance and Employer and Public Liability Insurance, including the action points marked ‘Concluded (for CIWG)’; and

- work towards creating a single European market for insurance to better enable businesses to shop around for employer and public liability insurance.” — *Michael McGrath, Bobby Aylward, John Brassil, Declan Breathnach, James Browne, Mary Butler, Thomas Byrne, Jackie Cahill, Dara Calleary, Pat Casey, Shane Cassells, Jack Chambers, Lisa M. 217. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- the average woman, or anyone who experiences periods, will have 507 periods from age 12 to 51, for roughly 39 years of her life;
- in Ireland, sanitary products can cost from €2 to €6 per pack, with the average pack containing 10 to 15 pads or tampons, and that a 12 pack of pain relief tablets costs between €6 and €10;
- most women and girls will have 13 periods a year, with some using up to 22 tampons and/or towels per cycle leading to an estimated annual cost of €208 for sanitary products and pain relief, costing €8,100 over a lifetime;
- access to affordable sanitary products and menstrual education should be viewed in a human rights context, as according to the World Health Organisation’s constitution ‘...the highest attainable standard of health as a fundamental right of every human being’;
- the United Nations (UN) Human Rights Council Resolution 33/10 on 29th September, 2016 states that lack of menstrual health management and stigma associated with menstruation both have a negative impact on gender equality and women’s and girls’ enjoyment of human rights, including the right to education and the right to health;
- the UN Committee on Rights of the Child’s General comment No. 20 (2016) on implementation of the rights of the child during adolescence has stated that ‘All adolescents should have access to free, confidential, adolescent-responsive and non-discriminatory sexual and reproductive health services, information and education... [including on] menstrual hygiene’;

- according to a survey of more than 1,100 young girls and women aged between 12 and 19 years by Plan International Ireland, nearly 50 per cent of Irish teenage girls find it difficult to afford sanitary products;
- some 109 of the young women who participated in the survey said they were forced to use a ‘less suitable sanitary product’ because of the high monthly cost involved;
- nearly 60 per cent, or one in two, of young women and girls said school does not inform them adequately about periods;
- six out of ten young women reported feeling shame and embarrassment about their period, 61 per cent miss school on their period and more than 80 per cent said they did not feel comfortable talking about their periods with their father or a teacher; and
- nearly 70 per cent of young women take some form of pain relief during menstruation;

acknowledges that:

- tampons and sanitary towels are not subject to Value Added Tax (VAT) in Ireland, which has a zero rate treatment on women’s sanitary products, but new period products that may better suit some women, girls and the environment, are still taxed at the highest rate of tax at 23 per cent;
- due to the high cost of these products women and girls in period poverty are resorting to unsuitable options such as newspaper, toilet paper or unwashed clothing;
- girls and young women who suffer shame and embarrassment surrounding their period are more likely to use unsuitable options rather than approach family members or their teacher;
- in September 2018, Dublin City Council announced it will provide free sanitary products in its buildings, such as community centres, swimming pools and libraries;
- the advances being made in other countries, such as the success of a six month pilot in Aberdeen to provide free products in all schools funded by the Scottish Government; and
- the work of organisations such as Plan International Ireland and The Homeless Period to alleviate the stress and financial burden placed on women and girls due to period poverty; and

calls on the Government to:

- provide a range of free, adequate, safe and suitable sanitary products and comprehensive, objective menstrual education information distributed through all public buildings, including schools, universities, direct provision centres, refuges, homeless services, Garda stations, hospitals, maternity hospitals, prisons, detention centres and rehabilitation centres so as to tackle period poverty and de-stigmatise and normalise menstruation;
- ensure all menstrual products available in Ireland are safe, through regulation and quality checks;
- ensure young women, girls and people of other genders can learn about their periods and menstrual hygiene in a normalising and safe environment, including online by providing a State-run website with objective information, and ensure girls, boys and people of other genders have access to education about menstruation integrated into the school curriculum;

- ensure improved access to hygienic facilities and sanitary products that are affordable and meet individual needs;
- work with other countries across the European Union to remove VAT on all sanitary products, including healthy and environmentally-friendly sanitary products such as cups and period-proof underwear; and
- prioritise the issue of menstrual equity for girls and children’s rights as central to Irish Aid’s work overseas in line with the UN’s Sustainable Development Goal 5 on achieving gender equality and empowering all women and girls, and Goal 6 which calls for universal and equitable access to adequate and equitable sanitation and hygiene for all by 2030.” — Catherine Martin, Marcella Corcoran Kennedy, Maria Bailey, Joan Burton, Mary Butler, Lisa Chambers, Joan Collins, Catherine Connolly, Ruth Coppinger, Clare Daly, Frances Fitzgerald, Kathleen Funchion, Mary Lou McDonald, Denise Mitchell, Imelda Munster, Catherine Murphy, Margaret Murphy O’Mahony, Hildegard Naughton, Kate O’Connell, Fiona O’Loughlin, Louise O’Reilly, Jan O’Sullivan, Maureen O’Sullivan, Anne Rabbitte, Róisín Shortall, Bríd Smith, Niamh Smyth.

Motion (postponed division):

218. “That Dail Eireann:

notes that:

- global opium production jumped by 65 per cent from 2016 to 2017, the highest ever recorded by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), and global cocaine manufacture rose by 56 per cent between 2013 and 2016, reaching its highest level ever in 2016;
- illicit drugs like opium and cocaine are booming and new drugs like fentanyl are emerging as a major drug problem;
- the European Monitoring Centre for Drugs and Drug Addiction’s Early Warning System for new drugs monitored 670 new psychoactive substances by the end of 2017, up from 300 in 2013;
- cannabis remains the world’s most commonly used drug, with 192 million people using it in 2018;
- in the European Union (EU), over 92 million people have used illicit drugs; and
- drug markets continue to be the most significant illegal market in the EU, with over 33 per cent of organised criminal groups involved in the production, trafficking and supply of illicit drugs;

further notes that:

- over 26 per cent (more than one in four) of the Irish population have used illicit drugs, with cannabis the most widely used;
- our communities are now coping with an increasingly complex and chaotic drug problem that includes prescription drugs, illegal drugs, new psychoactive substances, high-strength cannabis, crack cocaine, crystal meth and ketamine, and widespread availability and misuse of alcohol continues to be a core part of the polydrug problem;

- 695 people died from drug-related causes in 2015, and there has been a 61 per cent increase in drug-related deaths between 2004 and 2015 and drug-related deaths are 3.5 times higher than road deaths; and
- insidious, ongoing day-to-day related intimidation is being experienced in our communities, and in 2015 less than ten per cent of people experiencing intimidation reported it to An Garda Síochána for fear of reprisal;

calls on the Taoiseach's department to appoint a senior official to the National Drugs Strategy's (NDS) national structures to ensure direct accountability of all agencies at national, regional and local level for their active participation in implementing the new NDS; and

calls on the Government to:

- implement its own Programme for Government commitment through the immediate allocation of an emerging needs fund to the task forces to support community drug projects in the delivery of services that can respond to current and emerging service gaps in communities;
- commit to a clear timetable for prompt implementation of the Public Health (Alcohol) Act 2018 without further delay;
- accelerate the work of the Garda asset profilers targeting people making significant sums of money from the drug trade living in our communities;
- ensure that the new scheme proposed in the NDS for young people is developed through a partnership approach involving youth services, schools, and community drug projects;
- conclude the work of the working group on alternative approaches to criminalisation and end the criminalisation for personal use;
- strengthen the community voice across all levels of the NDS and make immediate investment in community leadership and participation programmes;
- acknowledge the relationship between addiction and mental health and commit to greater co-operation between the relevant agencies, as considered in 'A Vision for Change' and the NDS; and
- cease the Health Service Executive reviews of drug and alcohol task forces, with immediate effect, as these reviews are being carried out without any discussion or consultation with the national NDS committees that are responsible for supporting and monitoring the task forces, and it is incompatible with the interagency partnership approach that underlies the NDS for one agency to carry out a review and present it as a fait accompli" — *Joan Collins, Maureen O'Sullivan, Thomas P. 2. To insert the following after “as a fait accompli.”:

3. (a) To insert the following after “polydrug problem;”:

“— while addiction to drugs is a problem across all of the country, neighbourhoods with a concentration of social and economic disadvantage are more seriously affected by drugs than other areas and merit a more substantive response from the State to address the underlying causes of drug addiction;”;

(b) to insert the following after “community leadership and participation programmes;”:

4. To delete all words after “Dáil Éireann:” and replace with the following:

- the funding of €28 million provided annually by the Department of Health to the drug and alcohol task forces; and

220. “That Dáil Éireann:
notes that:

- the National Union of Journalists has repeatedly called for a commission on the future of media in Ireland;
- journalistic independence is vital to allow journalism to hold power to account, thereby playing a vital role in a healthy democracy;
- the nature of what constitutes a media outlet has changed substantially in recent times, and legislation and regulations have not kept pace with developments in the media and digital news sector;
- various threats to the viability of legacy media exist and legitimate questions arise regarding how far media pluralism in Ireland extends;
- academic studies on the media landscape in Ireland have identified that Ireland is at significant risk regarding lack of media-plurality; and
- recent revelations by the Office of the Director of Corporate Enforcement (ODCE) in relation to the potential data breaches within Independent News and Media have once again highlighted the need to examine the operation of media outlets in Ireland; and calls for the urgent establishment of a fully independent commission on the future of media in Ireland comprising a broad spectrum of representatives from relevant backgrounds, including consumers of media, with a view to making recommendations to nurture and sustain a healthy Irish news media where:

- the broad diversity of views and of cultural interests prevalent in society is reflected through the activities of media businesses and the public service broadcaster, including their editorial ethos, content and sources; and
- there is a healthy spread of ownership and control of media businesses, with no person or undertaking holding excessive interests within a sector or across different sectors of media business.” — Catherine Murphy, Róisín Shortall, Brendan Howlin, Joan Burton, Alan Kelly, Jan O'Sullivan, Willie Penrose, Brendan Ryan, Sean Sherlock.

221. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes:

- the increasing importance of digital communications platforms such as Facebook and Google during national elections and referendum campaigns;
- the Cambridge Analytica scandal which highlighted how outside interests can use online tracking and advertising tools to influence national elections;
- that advertising on such platforms is not regulated under existing election advertising rules;
- the work of the Transparent Referendum Initiative in recording the source and number of adverts carried on such platforms during the recent referendum campaign;
- how both Facebook and Google decided, with just three weeks to go to polling day, to amend their own rules to restrict the carrying of advertising in relation to the referendum for the remainder of the campaign;
- the need to understand whether the volume of advertising from overseas was a factor in those decisions; and

- the opportunity that exists to set a precedent on the need for transparency surrounding such advertising; calls on the relevant social media companies to:

- work with the Transparent Referendum Initiative to provide details on the volume and value of referendum advertising that was carried on their platforms during the recent referendum to repeal the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution of Ireland; and
- publish such data in a prompt manner and in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) European Directive; and calls on the Government to commit to finalising the necessary legislation to ensure there is proper regulation of such online election advertising in the future, including mechanisms to provide full transparency on the level and source of such advertising expenditure.” — Eamon Ryan, Catherine Martin.

222. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- with 34.4 million air passengers in Ireland in 2017, there has been an increase in the use of air travel over many years;
- there is a probable impact of increased traffic at Irish airports due to the United Kingdom’s decision to leave the European Union (EU); and
- the Dublin Airport Authority (DAA) is now planning for up to 50 million plus passengers per annum at Dublin Airport alone;

further notes that:

- EU Directives, planning conditions and environmental impact studies have developed over the past 20-25 years, leading to stricter noise conditions being imposed on developments by airports;
- Dublin Airport runway 10R 28L currently has night flights and with a planning condition for no night flights to take place on the new northern runway 10L 28R, all night flights would be directed onto the older runway;
- over 250 European airports, including London Heathrow and Frankfurt, have longstanding restrictions on night flights;
- homes recording noise levels of 63 decibels are to be offered insulation and those affected by 69 decibels are to be offered relocation via a voluntary buy-out scheme;
- the community of St. Margaret’s The Ward and St. Margaret’s received a level of insulation for their homes and schools following a public period of negotiation with the then Aer Rianta, and this level of insulation has not been reviewed or upgraded since;
- the new northern runway and indeed the existing runway have impacted and will impact further on the value of the properties within certain noise contours, and will also impact on the health of the residents and the environment of the local communities; and
- local residents believe, however that the economic importance of Dublin Airport and the necessity for growth can co-exist with the local community, with proper insulation and sound barrier technologies installed, reasonable noise controls and a voluntary buy-out scheme for those who decide they need to leave; and

calls on the Government to:

- restrict air travel between the hours of 11.30 p.m. and 5 a.m. on all runways;
- instruct the Environmental Protection Agency to carry out independent noise pollution investigations in a selection of homes affected by noise pollution from runway 10R 28L and the proposed new northern runway 10L 28R;
- examine European best practice for insulation and ensure that all homes receive this level of support;
- ensure that the homes affected by the older 10R 28L runway are provided with the same level of insulation as the homes affected by the new northern runway 10L 28R;
- direct the DAA and other airport authorities to offer either improved insulation or a voluntary buy-out scheme to those homes affected, and for insulation and the voluntary buy-out option to be reviewed/upgraded every 5-7 years; and
- bring forward the noise pollution legislation promised but never enacted by previous Governments.” — Thomas P. Broughan, Clare Daly.

223. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that the Health Service Executive (HSE) submitted an audit report to the Government on 11th June, 2018, confirming that, in general, Section 39 organisations had maintained alignment with HSE pay scales during the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest (FEMPI) cuts and that pay cuts averaged around 4.66 per cent since 2010;

further notes that:

- a private members’ motion was agreed by Dáil Éireann in January 2018, calling on the Government to undertake such an audit and analysis, and to commit to reimbursement of any cuts found;
- Section 39 organisations are in agreement with staff and unions that pay restoration is due to staff as per the Lansdowne Road Agreement (Public Sector Stability Agreement 2018-2020) but, in general, they are unable to meet these increased pay demands from their own restricted funds;
- the Labour Court recommendation LCR21609 on 20th November, 2017, between the Irish Wheelchair Association (IWA) and the Services, Industrial, Professional and Technical Union (SIPTU) confirmed the alignment between the IWA pay scales and the HSE;
- the Labour Court recommendation LCR21609 on 20th November, 2017, also criticised the HSE’s administrative requirement for the IWA and SIPTU to engage in the industrial relations process;
- industrial action is due to take place across Section 39 services on 18th September, having been deferred since February to allow for talks;
- funding has still not been provided to Section 39 organisations to restore pay in line with HSE pay rates;

- delays are merely increasing the amounts due to staff incrementally and creating distress and unease for staff and services;
- due to lack of pay restoration, Section 39 organisations find themselves under extreme pressure in relation to recruitment and retention of staff; and
- the work of Section 39 organisations and their staff is of importance, and that industrial action for the large numbers of vulnerable service-users would be a catastrophe; and

calls on the Government to:

- immediately implement the motion as passed by Dáil Éireann on 17th January, 2018, calling for restoration of pay for staff of Section 39 organisations; and
- instruct the HSE to immediately provide the additional funding to the Section 39 organisations found in the HSE report, of which a copy was submitted to the Government on 11th June, 2018, to meet pay restoration obligations to staff.” — Thomas P. Broughan, Thomas Pringle, Clare Daly, Mick Wallace, Maureen O’Sullivan, Joan Collins, Catherine Connolly.

224. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- post offices provide crucial economic, administrative and social services to communities all around Ireland, especially to those in rural and isolated areas;
- many citizens depend on post offices in order to access basic State services, including social welfare payments and passport applications, as well as key financial services including insurance, banking and foreign exchange;
- this Government and the previous Government have stripped vital State services away from rural communities, including rural transport links, support for small schools, and rural Garda stations;
- previous post office closures took place as the result of population decline and not as the result of a pre-meditated programme to drastically reduce the number of post offices that are present in rural areas;
- technological and societal changes have presented significant challenges to the existent post office business model, and that significant change is required in order to ensure the viability of the An Post network;
- the Programme for a Partnership Government committed to revitalising the An Post network through the introduction of new services; and
- there has been a Post Office Network Business Development Group since 2014, which made a final report to the Government in January 2016 that made 23 recommendations, which have yet to be acted upon;

notes that:

- it is the Government’s responsibility to provide equality of access to important services to all citizens;
- following the recent decision by An Post to circulate retirement packages to hundreds of postmasters and postmistresses, 159 have elected to take their well-deserved retirements;

- it is An Post’s intention that wherever a postmaster or postmistress has elected to retire, that post office will close, leaving communities without access to critical post office services;
- other European countries have already extended Public Service Obligation (PSO) payments for the purpose of maintaining post office outlets in areas where they would be otherwise financially unviable; and
- the proposed changes to a 15 kilometre radius will place an intolerable burden on the elderly and most vulnerable in our communities, particularly those without access to private or public transport; and

calls on the Government to:

- guarantee the current An Post network to ensure that all citizens of Ireland have access to this important service by introducing a new PSO payment for post offices, based on models in the United Kingdom;
- immediately roll out new services, as recommended by the Post Office Network Business Development Group and An Post’s own strategy, to ensure the financial viability of the entire An Post network; and
- prevent the loss of post office services in the 159 communities where postmasters or postmistresses are retiring by advertising a new contract, appropriate to the local area and taking into consideration the potential for co-location, to continue the provision of post office services.” — *Timmy Dooley, Bobby Aylward, John Brassil, Declan Breathnach, James Browne, Mary Butler, Thomas Byrne, Jackie Cahill, Dara Calleary, Pat Casey, Shane Cassells, Jack Chambers, Lisa M. 225. “That Dáil Éireann:

acknowledges with grave concern the Irish Fiscal Advisory Council (IFAC)’s Fiscal Assessment Report, November 2018; calls on the Minister for Finance and Public Expenditure and Reform to address the criticisms of budgetary policy raised by the IFAC, which include the following:

- that taken together, Budget 2018 spending and ‘the Budget 2019 plans are not conducive to prudent economic and budgetary management’;
- repeated budgetary failures have ‘left the public finances more exposed to adverse shocks’;
- the ‘medium-term budgetary plans are not credible’;

- over-reliance on corporation tax has inhibited net policy spending rising ‘in line with sustainable revenues’; and
- the Minister’s fiscal stance has ‘echoes of 2007’; and demands that in future the Minister sustainably and adequately funds critical public services, including health and disability services, housing and homelessness, education, social protection, transport, policing and defence, without recourse to annual supplementary estimates, and that he also sustainably funds mitigation measures to address the challenges of the very serious risks to Ireland’s economy and society, including from Brexit, climate change, the national debt and EU/international tax and trade developments.” — Thomas P. Broughan.

227. “That Dáil Eireann:

reaffirms the principles of Article 6.1 of the Constitution of Ireland which states: ‘All powers of government, legislative, executive and judicial, derive, under God, from the people, whose right it is to designate the rulers of the State and, in final appeal, to decide all questions of national policy, according to the requirements of the common good.’;

notes that:

- the 32nd Dáil established a Citizens’ Assembly by resolution on 13th July, 2016; and
- on 14th January, 2018, the Citizens’ Assembly voted overwhelmingly for citizens’ initiatives to be provided for;

upholds the principle of direct democracy and the holding of constitutional referenda to effect legislative change; acknowledges that a newly-constituted Citizens’ Assembly would help implement the principles of direct democracy by adding citizen-initiated referenda to amend the Constitution of Ireland; and supports empowering a Citizens’ Assembly for the period of one year, so that it can devise a new mechanism that will enable citizens to robustly scrutinise proposed legislation, assess and advocate for citizens’ initiatives and table amendments and counter proposals to Government-sponsored legislation;

agrees that membership of the new, one-year Citizens’ Assembly will consist of:

- a chairperson, to be appointed by An Taoiseach;
- a minimum of 66 citizens, randomly selected so as to be broadly representative of Irish society and who are entitled to vote in a referendum and in local authority elections;
- one member from each of the political parties of the Northern Ireland Assembly;
- one member appointed by each political party/grouping of the Oireachtas; and
- substitutes, who may be appointed by each political party/grouping, and who will be entitled to full participation rights, including the right to vote; and further agrees that:

- the Citizens' Assembly-
 - will agree its own rules of procedure to ensure effective conduct of its business which will be done in as economical a manner as possible;
 - will give appropriate regard to the conventions and clauses contained within the Good Friday and St. Andrews' Agreements;
 - will present an interim report to the Houses of the Oireachtas, including its recommendations, within two months of completing its deliberations; and
 - may invite and accept submissions from interested bodies and members of the public, and will seek advice and guidance whenever necessary to aid its members in their deliberations;
- all matters before the Citizens' Assembly will be determined by a majority of the votes cast by members present;
- the chairperson will have the casting vote in the event of a hung vote; and
- An Taoiseach will provide, to the Houses of the Oireachtas, a response to the recommendation/s of the Citizens' Assembly within one month of receiving the interim and final reports, and will indicate a timeframe as to when the holding of any related referendum is envisaged.” — *Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Gerry Adams, John Brady, Pat Buckley, Seán Crowe, David Cullinane, Pearse Doherty, Dessie Ellis, Martin J. 228. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- the State and the Government have a duty of care to members of the Defence Forces;
- a number of former Air Corps personnel have taken legal action against the State as a result of illnesses believed to be caused by exposure to toxic chemicals during their employment;
- hundreds and possibly thousands of current and former members of the Air Corps may be affected by exposure to chemicals during their employment; and
- information provided by whistleblowers to the State outlines 73 deaths of serving and former Air Corps personnel prior to the age of 66, with the average age of death at 50;

acknowledges that a number of reports commissioned by or on behalf of State bodies, as early as the 1990s, have outlined significant safety concerns in relation to working conditions at Casement Aerodrome, Baldonnel;

condemns the fact that the safety concerns raised in the series of reports commissioned by or on behalf of State agencies were not addressed by the Air Corps or the Minister for Defence in a timely fashion;

commends the whistleblowers who have highlighted this matter and undertaken research in order to determine relevant facts in relation to the impact of lack of appropriate health and safety on Air Corps personnel;

calls on the Government to:

- commit to putting in place and maintaining full training, personal protective equipment and ventilation in order to minimise the risks to Air Corps personnel of toxic chemical exposure;
- outline the steps it intends to take to address the concerns raised by whistleblowers and ensure the highest possible standards of health and safety for Air Corps personnel; and
- put in place measures, including medical cards, to address the health needs of personnel that have been exposed to hazardous chemicals, and extend these measures to any civilians affected and to students who may be affected while on work experience; and resolves to establish a Special Committee under Standing Order 84 to conduct relevant hearings into the matter of the health effects of toxic chemical exposure among Air Corps personnel, based on international evidence and a survey of former and serving Air Corps personnel, and provide a report and recommendations to the Dáil.” — *Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Gerry Adams, John Brady, Pat Buckley, Seán Crowe, David Cullinane, Pearse Doherty, Dessie Ellis, Martin J. 229. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- in February 2018, Dáil Éireann agreed the second reading motion of the Petroleum and Other Minerals Development (Amendment) (Climate Emergency Measures) Bill 2018 and referred the Bill to the Select Committee on Communications, Climate Action and Environment;
- pursuant to Standing Order 141, detailed scrutiny was undertaken by the Joint Committee on Communications, Climate Action and Environment prior to Committee Stage consideration;
- in December 2018, the Joint Committee divided on the Question that the draft detailed scrutiny report (which recommended that the Bill progress to Select Committee consideration), and, as there was an equality of votes, the Question was, pursuant to Standing Orders, decided in the negative;
- at a subsequent Joint Committee meeting in February 2019, an amendment to the scrutiny report was agreed in the following terms:
 - ‘The Joint Committee having completed its scrutiny of the Bill has to report that it finds itself unable to recommend for or against the Bill proceeding to Third Stage.’; and
- when a separate vote was taken to adopt the amended report and lay it before both Houses, there was again an equality of votes and the question was decided in the negative and the Committee therefore arrived at no decision;

further notes that Standing Order 141, while allowing a Joint Committee to undertake detailed scrutiny, did not anticipate that the Joint Committee would fail to report to both Houses; and therefore agrees that the requirement for the Select Committee on Communications, Climate Action and Environment (having embarked on scrutiny in Joint Committee, pursuant to Standing Order 141(c)) to report, prior to Committee Stage, on its detailed scrutiny of the Petroleum and Other Minerals Development (Amendment) (Climate Emergency Measures) Bill 2018, is hereby discharged.” — Brid Smith, Gino Kenny, Richard Boyd Barrett.
