Fógraí Tairisceana:
Notices of Motions:

231a. “That Dáil Éireann, having been made aware in recent times of the activities in Mother and Baby Homes that operated throughout Ireland in the twentieth century:

notes:

- the ill-treatment of the mothers and babies in these homes;
- the forced separation of single mothers and their babies from 1922 to 1998;
- the falsification of birth certificates and the subsequent mistreatment of survivors by the State; and
- that these practices were facilitated through official Government policy and by institutions, such as County Homes, public maternity hospitals and many adoption agencies;

further notes that:

- this has left a dark stain on our nation; and
- the State has refused the survivors justice to the present day, despite irrefutable and conclusive evidence being submitted by survivors and survivor groups; and calls on the Government to:

- introduce, without delay, a Redress Scheme for the survivors of the Mother and Baby Homes, so as to provide some comfort for this ageing community; and
- set up a Commission of Investigation in relation to the very serious allegations emerging in recent times regarding the widespread and systematic falsification of birth certificates.” — Clare Daly, Mick Wallace, Joan Collins, Catherine Connolly, Maureen O'Sullivan, Thomas Pringle, Thomas P. Broughan.
