109. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- in five weeks’ time the pension age is due to increase to 67 years of age on 1st January, 2021;
- legislation needed to stop the pension age increasing to 67 in January has not been published or introduced to the House;
- every worker in the State makes a considerable tax contribution throughout their working life and should have the right to retire at 65;
- some workers want to retire at 65, while others want to remain at work, where they are able and willing to do so;
- numerous employment contracts stipulate an end of employment date in line with when an employee turns 65;
- since the abolition of the State Pension Transition payment, thousands of 65-year olds have had to sign on for a Jobseeker’s payment;
- there are now over 4,000 65-year olds in receipt of either Jobseeker’s Allowance or Jobseeker’s Benefit;
- there is a difference of €45.30 between the Jobseeker payments and the State Pension leading to an annual loss of €2,355.60; and

- the pension age is scheduled in legislation to increase to 67 years in 2021, and 68 years in 2028; and calls on the Government to:

- restore the State Pension Transition payment for those retiring at 65 years of age;
- abolish mandatory retirement (with exceptions for security-related employment) to give workers the choice to work or retire so long as they are fit to do so;
- make provision for those who remain at work beyond 65 to have their Pay Related Social Insurance (PRSI) contributions counted towards their State Pension; and
- immediately introduce legislation to remove the pension age increase to 67 years and the further increases.” — Louise O'Reilly, Claire Kerrane, Chris Andrews, John Brady, Martin Browne, Pat Buckley, Matt Carthy, Sorca Clarke, Rose Conway-Walsh, Réada Cronin, Seán Crowe, David Cullinane, Pa Daly, Pearse Doherty, Paul Donnelly, Dessie Ellis, Mairéad Farrell, Kathleen Funchion, Thomas Gould, Johnny Guirke, Martin Kenny, Pádraig Mac Lochlainn, Mary Lou McDonald, Denise Mitchell, Imelda Munster, Johnny Mythen, Eoin Ó Broin, Donnchadh Ó Laoghaire, Ruairí Ó Murchú, Darren O'Rourke, Aengus Ó Snodaigh, Maurice Quinlivan, Patricia Ryan, Brian Stanley, Pauline Tully, Mark Ward, Violet-Anne Wynne.

110. “That Dáil Éireann:

notes that:

- 4,000 student nurses and midwives have been working on the frontline in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic;
- these students are carrying out essential work and are compensating for the long-term understaffing of our health service as well as covering for Covid-19-related absences of qualified staff;
- 11,369 health care workers have been infected with Covid-19, 16.6 per cent of all cases in Ireland, 59 of whom were admitted to Intensive Care Units;
- the chronic understaffing of our health service was a problem before the Covid-19 pandemic, and that the necessary measures to address this understaffing have not been addressed by successive Governments;
- these students were briefly paid the Health Care Assistant (HCA) rate in Spring in recognition of the essential nature of the work, but this payment has since ceased, and they now receive no payment for their work;
- the financial cost to the students of carrying out this essential work is sizeable, with many students paying well over and above their travel and accommodation allowances to simply be able to attend the workplace;
- the personal and mental health cost to student nurses and midwives working in such high stress and high pressure jobs are enormous, as well as the obvious risks to their health and the health of their family and/or those they live with;
- even before the Covid-19 crisis, the role these students were playing in their placements was more essential work than training;

- these students are actually paying for the ‘privilege’ of doing unpaid work in their placements, with fees of between €3,000 and €7,500;
- the vast majority of these students are women and their exploitation is also a reflection of gender inequality;
- these students utterly refute the recent claim by the Minister for Health that his refusal to pay them for their placement work is in order to ‘protect their education’;
- student nurses and midwives assert their education has never been protected while on placement because of the burden of essential nursing and care work, alongside academic work, while simultaneously needing to do other jobs to survive financially;
- during the Covid-19 pandemic, the opportunity to work in other jobs to earn income and generally survive has been largely cut off because of the risk of bringing Covid-19 infection in or out of their hospital placement;
- the health services across the country have faced huge difficulties in recruiting and retaining staff for many years, due to the chaos and under-resourcing across the health service, the low pay and the long hours of work;
- many nurses, midwives and doctors emigrate to Australia and other countries, where the pay is higher, and conditions are more favourable; and
- a survey in 2018 showed that, 71 per cent of 4th year student nurses and midwives were considering leaving the country, 79 per cent of them identified increases in pay and improvements in staffing and working conditions as the required incentives to retain nurses and midwives in the public services, and 76 per cent of them found that staffing levels are not adequate to support the learning of student nurses and midwives in the clinical setting; and

calls on the Government to:

- immediately reinstate the payment of student nurses and midwives who are in placements during the Covid-19 pandemic at the HCA rate;
- urgently engage with student nurses and midwives and their union representatives to establish a bursary or payment system that will fully acknowledge the work they do in our health service and will cover the costs of travel and accommodation for the length of their placements;
- abolish all fees for students who are training to work on the frontline of the health service in order to stem the ‘brain drain’, and allow the Health Service Executive to recruit a sufficient number of staff to run our health service at safe and adequately staffed levels; and
- ensure parity of pay, conditions and esteem for nurses and midwives with all other paramedical graduates, including the 37-hour week.” — Richard Boyd Barrett, Mick Barry, Gino Kenny, Paul Murphy, Brid Smith.

112. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- many of our towns and villages do not have water and wastewater treatment services;
- we need people living in communities to develop growth centres;
- towns and villages need investment to provide the infrastructure necessary to attract families to live, work and raise their families;
- clean water and wastewater systems are essential components to grow communities; and
- the excessive cost to the homeowner for the provision of water and wastewater treatment services is a barrier to providing homes;

acknowledges that:

- regional development will provide the catalyst for economic recovery post Covid-19 and Brexit;
- local authorities and developers require clear policies and actions to ensure proper planning takes place; and
- the provision of housing for all is a national economic and social imperative, and infrastructural costs in the provision of water and wastewater treatment cannot be borne solely by house purchasers; and calls on Government to:

- create a strategic plan to make regional development a reality by investing in water and wastewater infrastructure in our towns and villages;
- implement a development lead infrastructure scheme to fast track infrastructural development in our towns and villages to create balanced development; and
- put in place a transparent cost structure for new, and extensions to existing, water and wastewater treatment infrastructure.” — Cathal Berry, Seán Canney, Peter Fitzpatrick, Noel Grealish, Michael Lowry, Verona Murphy, Denis Naughten, Matt Shanahan, Peadar Tóibín.

113. “That Dáil Éireann, pursuant to Standing Order 77:

notes that:

- on 19th August, 2020, Mr. Justice Séamus Woulfe attended a dinner organised by the Oireachtas Golf Society in Clifden, Co. Galway;
- public health regulations in force at that time made it an offence to organise an indoor social event where the numbers attending exceeded 50 persons (other than in a private dwelling);
- the dinner at Clifden had around 80 attendees, significantly in excess of the 50 persons permitted;

- the Government had announced new guidelines on 18th August, 2020, which restricted the numbers permitted at an indoor social event to six persons;
- while these new guidelines did not immediately have the force of law, they did reflect the urgent advice of public health experts in the context of a highly contagious disease;
- Mr. Justice Woulfe’s attendance at an event which was inconsonant with both the public health regulations in force and those which had been publicly announced the day previously, had the effect of undermining the public health effort, which all in society were being urged to participate in, given the grave threat of the spread of Covid-19; and
- Mr. Justice Woulfe’s subsequent response to the public controversy in relation to his attendance at this dinner, as illustrated by the transcript of his interview with Ms. Justice Susan Denham and his correspondence with Mr. Justice Frank Clarke, further undermined the public health effort; and calls for the removal, pursuant to Article 35.4.1^o of the Constitution of Ireland, of Mr. Justice Séamus Woulfe, Judge of the Supreme Court, from office for stated misbehaviour, being his conduct in and in relation to attending the Oireachtas Golf Society dinner in Clifden on 19th August, 2020, undermining the public health effort during a pandemic, and thereby rendering himself unsuitable to exercise the office of a Judge of the Supreme Court.” — Paul Murphy, Bríd Smith, Richard Boyd Barrett, Gino Kenny.
