118. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- positive mental health is fundamental to overall health and well-being;
- mental health is central in building a healthy, inclusive and productive society;
- people’s experience of well-being may vary, with some experiencing vulnerability at some stages in their life;
- the Government’s response to the Covid-19 pandemic should ensure that measures protect not only the population’s physical health, but its mental health also, as an equally important component of health and well-being;
- many people may be facing increased levels of alcohol and drug use, insomnia and anxiety during this pandemic;
- reporting of domestic abuse has increased during the pandemic;
- bereavement, isolation, loss of income and fear are triggering mental health conditions or exacerbating existing ones;
- people with pre-existing mental, neurological or substance use disorders are also more vulnerable to Covid-19 infection;
- Covid-19 itself can lead to neurological and mental complications, such as delirium, agitation and stroke;
- the long-term socio-economic impact of the crisis is likely to exacerbate the financial inequalities that contribute to the increased prevalence and disproportionate distribution of mental health difficulties;
- Covid-19 has had a negative impact on access to mental health services and underscores the urgent need for increased funding;
- underfunding of mental health services prior to the pandemic emphasises that the health budget for mental health is struggling to meet the population’s needs; and
- the pandemic is increasing demand for mental health services; and calls on the Government to:

- publish all data in relation to mental health and the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic;
- prioritise and build human resource capacity to deliver mental health and social care;
- ensure redeployment of mental health staff during the pandemic only occurs in extreme circumstances;
- ensure that mental health is a central part of the response to the pandemic;
- apply a whole-of-society approach to promote, protect and care for mental health, as mental health actions need to be considered essential components of the national response to Covid-19;
- include mental health and psychosocial considerations in national response plans across relevant sectors;

- respond proactively to reducing pandemic-related adversities that are known to harm mental health, for example, domestic violence and acute impoverishment;
- ensure mental health and psychosocial support are available in any emergency;
- support community actions that strengthen social cohesion and reduce loneliness, for example, supporting activities that help isolated older adults to stay connected;
- safeguard uninterrupted in-person care for severe mental health conditions;
- ensure that mental health services have the capacity to cope with the additional strain experienced due to Covid-19, which they will continue to be under into the future;
- develop strategies for more vulnerable groups in society as outlined by the World Health Organization and United Nations' surveys;
- utilise digital platforms to provide psychosocial support and early detection and management of mental health conditions;
- invest in mental health interventions that can be delivered remotely, for example, quality-assured tele-counselling for frontline health care workers and people at home with depression and anxiety;
- strengthen communication strategies to support a national campaign to highlight the mental health supports that are available;
- design all communications to be sensitive of their potential impact on people's mental health, for example, by communicating empathy for people's distress and including advice for their emotional well-being;
- provide access to information about positive coping methods;
- prioritise psychosocial support, including for grief and loss;
- ensure the Department of Health conducts a comparative study as to which countries perform well in the area of mental health and assess how Ireland compares;
- build support structures for mental health programme strategy across all Government Departments;
- re-establish a dedicated lead for mental health within the Health Service Executive that reports directly to the Chief Executive Officer;
- support recovery from Covid-19 by building mental health services for the future, recognising that all affected communities will need quality mental health services to support society's recovery;
- develop and fund the implementation of national services' re-organisation strategies that shift care away from institutions to community services;
- ensure mental health is part of universal health coverage by including care for mental, neurological and substance use disorders; and
- involve people with lived experience in the design, implementation and monitoring of mental health services.” — Cathal Berry, Seán Canney, Peter Fitzpatrick, Noel Grealish, Michael Lowry, Verona Murphy, Denis Naughten, Matt Shanahan, Peadar Tóibín, Joan Collins, Catherine Connolly, Michael Fitzmaurice, Marian Harkin, Michael McNamara, Thomas Pringle, Chris Andrews, John Brady, Martin Browne, Pat Buckley, Matt Carthy, Sorca Clarke, Rose Conway-Walsh, Réada Cronin, Seán Crowe, David Cullinane, Pa Daly, Pearse Doherty, Paul Donnelly, Dessie Ellis, Mairéad Farrell, Kathleen Funchion, Thomas Gould, Johnny Guirke, Martin Kenny, Claire Kerrane, Pádraig Mac Lochlainn, Mary Lou McDonald, Denise Mitchell,

119. “That Dáil Éireann resolves that the Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) (Amendment) (No. 9) (Absence from the State) Regulations 2020 (S.I. No. 242 of 2020) be and are hereby annulled.” — Paul Murphy, Mick Barry, Richard Boyd Barrett, Gino Kenny, Bríd Smith.

[28 July, 2020]

120. “That Dáil Éireann:

recognises that:

- many of our towns and villages do not have water and wastewater treatment services;
- we need people living in communities to develop growth centres;
- towns and villages need investment to provide the infrastructure necessary to attract families to live, work and raise their families;
- clean water and wastewater systems are essential components to grow communities; and
- the excessive cost to the homeowner for the provision of water and wastewater treatment services is a barrier to providing homes;

acknowledges that:

- regional development will provide the catalyst for economic recovery post Covid-19 and Brexit;
- local authorities and developers require clear policies and actions to ensure proper planning takes place; and
- the provision of housing for all is a national economic and social imperative, and infrastructural costs in the provision of water and wastewater treatment cannot be borne solely by house purchasers; and calls on Government to:

- create a strategic plan to make regional development a reality by investing in water and wastewater infrastructure in our towns and villages;
- implement a development lead infrastructure scheme to fast track infrastructural development in our towns and villages to create balanced development; and
- put in place a transparent cost structure for new, and extensions to existing, water and wastewater treatment infrastructure.” — Cathal Berry, Seán Canney, Peter Fitzpatrick, Noel Grealish, Michael Lowry, Verona Murphy, Denis Naughten, Matt Shanahan, Peadar Tóibín.

[15 October, 2020]

121. “That Dáil Éireann, pursuant to Standing Order 77:

notes that:

- on 19th August, 2020, Mr. Justice Séamus Woulfe attended a dinner organised by the Oireachtas Golf Society in Clifden, Co. Galway;
- public health regulations in force at that time made it an offence to organise an indoor social event where the numbers attending exceeded 50 persons (other than in a private dwelling);
- the dinner at Clifden had around 80 attendees, significantly in excess of the 50 persons permitted;
- the Government had announced new guidelines on 18th August, 2020, which restricted the numbers permitted at an indoor social event to six persons;
- while these new guidelines did not immediately have the force of law, they did reflect the urgent advice of public health experts in the context of a highly contagious disease;
- Mr. Justice Woulfe’s attendance at an event which was inconsonant with both the public health regulations in force and those which had been publicly announced the day previously, had the effect of undermining the public health effort, which all in society were being urged to participate in, given the grave threat of the spread of Covid-19; and
- Mr. Justice Woulfe’s subsequent response to the public controversy in relation to his attendance at this dinner, as illustrated by the transcript of his interview with Ms. Justice Susan Denham and his correspondence with Mr. Justice Frank Clarke, further undermined the public health effort; and calls for the removal, pursuant to Article 35.4.1° of the Constitution of Ireland, of Mr. Justice Séamus Woulfe, Judge of the Supreme Court, from office for stated misbehaviour, being his conduct in and in relation to attending the Oireachtas Golf Society dinner in Clifden on 19th August, 2020, undermining the public health effort during a pandemic, and thereby rendering himself unsuitable to exercise the office of a Judge of the Supreme Court.” — Paul Murphy, Bríd Smith, Richard Boyd Barrett, Gino Kenny.
