2. A éileamh go ndéanfar, de bhun Airteagal 35.4 den Bhunreacht agus alt 39 den Acht Cúirteanna Breithiúnais 1924, an tOnórach an Breitheamh Brian Curtin, Breitheamh den Chúirt Chuarda, a chur as oifig de dheasca mí-iompair a luafar, arb é atá i gceist ann a chuid iompair maidir le síntiús a thabhairt do shuímh idirlín ar a raibh íomhánna pornagrafaíochta leanaí, rochtain a fháil ar na suímh sin agus na suímh sin a úsáid agus i ndáil leis na nithe sin agus é féin a fhágáil mí-oiriúnach dá dheasca sin chun oifig Breithimh den Chúirt Chuarda a fheidhmiú.

(d) that a warrant to search Judge Curtin's home under section 7 of the Child Trafficking and Pornography Act 1998 issued from the District Court on foot of an application by a member of the Garda Síochána on 20 May 2002,

(e) that Judge Curtin's home was subsequently searched on foot of the said warrant and that Gardaí took possession of a personal computer and other material during the search,

(f) that an investigation file was submitted to the Director of Public Prosecutions by the Garda authorities in October 2002 and that the Director of Public Prosecutions instructed that Judge Curtin be prosecuted for knowingly having in his possession child pornography contrary to section 6 of the Child Trafficking and Pornography Act, 1998,

(g) that the trial of the said charge commenced on 20 April 2004 at Tralee Circuit Court and that on 23 April 2004 Judge Curtin was found not guilty of that charge without evidence being given in relation to the subject matter of the charge, the Circuit Criminal Court having determined that the aforesaid warrant was spent when executed at the home of Judge Curtin;

and

2. Calls for the removal, pursuant to Article 35.4 of the Constitution and section 39 of the Courts of Justice Act 1924, of His Honour Judge Brian Curtin, Judge of the Circuit Court, from office for stated misbehaviour, being his conduct in and in relation to subscribing to, accessing and use of websites containing child pornographic images and thereby rendering himself unsuitable to exercise the office of a Judge of the Circuit Court."

—Senator David Norris.

Leasú ar an Tairiscint don Dara Léamh (atógáil):

Amendment to Motion for Second Reading (resumed):

1. To delete all words after “That” and substitute the following:

“Seanad Éireann declines to give a second reading to the Bill so as to permit further consideration of important legal and constitutional issues and in particular

(a) the resolution of current litigation regarding the recognition of a foreign same-sex marriage;

(b) finalisation by the All-Party Oireachtas Committee on the Constitution of its examination of Articles 40.3, 41 and 42, relating to the family;

(c) publication of the Report of the Law Reform Commission on the Rights and Duties of Cohabitees.”

—Senator Mary O’Rourke.

19. Tairiscintí nach ón Rialtas:

Non-Government Motions:

1. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Government to end the practice of making political appointments to the judiciary.”

—Senators Shane Ross, David Norris.

[15 December 2004]

2. “In view of the continuing slow progress of the transitional Government in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) towards democratic elections, added to the catastrophic humanitarian consequences of the civil war that has caused the death of 3.8 million people there since 1998, the ongoing lack of human rights respect and protection in the country, the shameful economic exploitation by foreign interests, and the ineffectiveness of the UN’s peacekeeping mission (MONUC), Seanad Éireann calls on the Government;

(i) to do all in their power, especially through UN, EU and other inter-governmental organisations, to put pressure on the DRC’s transition government to meet the requirements of the Pretoria Agreement. In particular to ensure that delays and impediments to the holding of elections by 30 June, 2005 — such as the passing of essential legislation — be addressed immediately; and

(ii) to ensure that the transitional Government which has been ineffective and negligent in its implementation of the Pretoria Agreement does not continue to hold the people of the DRC to ransom beyond the deadline laid out by that agreement (30 June 2005), and that if an extension is required in order to hold elections that an alternative transitional Government with political legitimacy be but in place by the International Committee in Support of the Transition (CIAT).”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Joe O’Toole, Mary Henry, Feargal Quinn.

[22 March 2005]

3. “That Seanad Éireann takes note of the Human Rights Watch Report ‘Not a Level Playing Field: Zimbabwe’s Parliamentary elections in 2005’.”

—Senators David Norris, Joe O’Toole, Feargal Quinn, Shane Ross, Mary Henry.

[24 March 2005]

4. “That Seanad Éireann:

- welcomes the publication of the Report of the Consumer Strategy Group and is in agreement with the Group that in order to ensure the needs of the modern consumer are met, it is essential that a new Agency with an expanded remit be established;
- congratulates the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment, Michael Martin T.D. on the decision to establish a new statutory National Consumer Agency to promote and protect consumer interests;
- maintains that the new Agency will ensure for the first time that the interests of consumers will be brought to the forefront of national and local decision making in Ireland;
- supports the establishment of the Board of the new National Consumer Agency on an interim basis until such time as the necessary legislation can be enacted to establish the Agency on a statutory footing;
- believes the new Agency will act as a forceful advocate for the consumer and that it will have the necessary powers, functions and support to challenge vested interests and to ensure that the consumers voice is heard;
- notes the comprehensive nature of the entire Consumer Strategy Group Report which contains over 30 separate recommendations and welcomes the decision to establish a High Level Interdepartmental Committee to examine all the Group’s recommendations and to report back to Government with a detailed implementation plan within 3 months;
- supports the decision of the Minister to engage in a public consultation process on the future of the Groceries Order and notes that process is expected to be completed within two months; and
- urges the Minister to continue to bring forward initiatives in the area of consumer awareness, advocacy and education which will help to demonstrate to consumers that further progress can be achieved.”

[19 May 2005]

5. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Minister for Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs that before signing any Placename Order under Section 5 of the Official Languages Act 2003 he shall have due regard for the expressed wishes of the local community concerned and the applicable local authority in each case.”

—Senators Joe McHugh, Brian Hayes, Paddy Burke, James Bannon, Paul Bradford, Fergal Browne, Ulick Burke, Paul Coghlan, Noel Coonan, Maurice Cummins, Frank Feighan, Michael Finucane, John Paul Phelan, Sheila Terry.

[31 May 2005]

Leasú:

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” and substitute the following:

“notes that the Placenames (Ceantair Ghaeltachta) Order 2004 was published in draft form in June 2004 by the Minister for Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs to encourage consultation with local communities and other interested parties in the Gaeltacht; notes that a total of 24 submissions in writing were received relating to the draft Order as a result of this active consultation process with Gaeltacht communities; notes that a number of amendments to the Order were made on the advice of An Coimisiún Logainmneacha based on these submissions; welcomes this consultative approach to the matter by Minister for Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs and welcomes the making by him of the Order in December 2004; and further notes that the effect of the Order is that the original placenames of Gaeltacht areas now have official status in law for the first time.”

—Senator Mary O’Rourke.

6. “That Seanad Éireann urges the Government as of this September to increase the number of places in Irish medical schools for EU students to 700 as recommended in the Hanly Report of October 2003; and to provide the resources to so do in order to allow for an adequate supply of doctors for the Irish health service.”

—Senator Mary Henry, Joe O’Toole, Feargal Quinn, David Norris, Shane Ross.

[14 June 2005]

7. “That Seanad Éireann

- conscious of the outmoded and non user-friendly nature of the process associated with registering, changing address and application for postal votes;
- conscious of the procedural difficulties encountered in the up dating of the Electoral Register, particularly the failure to include eligible voters, recently relocated or those turned 18 years;
- conscious of the lack of an up-date in relation to electronic voting; calls for
 - root and branch reform of the electoral process,
 - review of procedures associated with the up-dating of the Electoral Register,
 - an assurance of greater accuracy and accessibility for those registering,
 - information campaigns on the role of Local Government, the European Parliament, the Houses of the Oireachtas and the President prior to the relevant election, highlighting the importance of transfers in the proportional representational system,
 - widening of the grounds of application for a postal ballot and an extension of deadline for applications,
 - definitive up-date on electronic voting, in particular costly storage of obsolete machines; and automatic registration of all 18 year olds using the PPS serial number provided by the Department of Social and Family Affairs.”

—Senators James Bannon, Brian Hayes, Fergal Browne, Paul Bradford, Paddy Burke, Ulick Burke, Paul Coghlan, Noel Coonan, Maurice Cummins, Frank Feighan, Michael Finucane, Jim Higgins, Joe McHugh, John Paul Phelan and Sheila Terry.

[22 June 2005]

8. “That Seanad Éireann notes that:

- Ireland has one of the highest incidences of Cystic Fibrosis in the world;
- Cystic Fibrosis is Ireland’s most common life threatening genetically inherited disease with 1 in every 20 people carrying the recessive Cystic Fibrosis gene;
- people with Cystic Fibrosis rely heavily on a health system that is inadequately staffed and resourced;
- the survival statistics relating to Cystic Fibrosis is directly proportional to the quality of the health care system, and Ireland sadly falls well below internationally accepted norms;
- with the correct health care, a large proportion of people with Cystic Fibrosis will be able to live a normal productive life; and
- and Seanad Éireann calls on the Government to take immediate steps to provide adequate increased funding and resources to help sufferers of this condition.”

[28 June 2005]

9. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Government to examine the status of charities and charitable collections and in particular to investigate the practice of so called ‘chugging’ or charity mugging by street collectors.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Mary Henry, Feargal Quinn, Joe O’Toole.

[28 September 2005]

10. “That Seanad Éireann, in the light of recent tragic fires in France and other countries involving hostel accommodation of migrant workers and asylum seekers and in the light of our own recent narrow escapes from such tragedies, calls upon the Government to ensure that all such accommodation in Ireland is professionally vetted to ensure compliance with fire regulations, health, safety and hygiene provisions.”

—Senators David Norris, Mary Henry, Feargal Quinn, Joe O’Toole, Shane Ross.

[28 September 2005]

11. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Minister for Communications, Marine and Natural Resources to ensure,

- 1) a total ban on use or sale of mono and multi-monofilament gill and drift nets;
- 2) a ban on trawling within 6 mile limit;
- 3) no netting of any description within 1 mile of the low water mark;
- 4) the creation of and an increase in the protection for spawning/nursery areas;
- 5) closed seasons to protect spawning fish;
- 6) that angling groups like the IFSA are involved in consultation processes;
- 7) that a full survey of all recreational anglers to determine our economic input is commissioned;

- 8) that there is an increase in minimum sizes and a reduction of quotas for commercially exploited species;
- 9) increased fishery protection resources;
- 10) much tighter oversight of domestic and foreign vessels as regards landings, gear etc.;
- 11) an end to the practices of marine dumping and aggregate extraction; and
- 12) an end to nuclear waste dumping/discharges in the Irish Sea.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Feargal Quinn, Mary Henry, Joe O’Toole.

[28 September 2005]

12. “That Seanad Éireann requests the Minister for Foreign Affairs to seek the establishment of a monitoring group to supervise the implementation of the Human Rights Attachments to the External Association Agreement between the European Union and the State of Israel.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Mary Henry, Joe O’Toole.

[28 September 2005]

13. “That Seanad Éireann requests the Government to take all possible measures to ensure that the refinancing of Irish Insurance risk internationally does not as a result of recent tragic global events make Irish domestic insurance unacceptably high.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Mary Henry, Feargal Quinn, Joe O’Toole.

[28 September 2005]

14. “That Seanad Éireann requests the Minister for Arts, Sports and Tourism to come into the house to give a full account of the current situation regarding the future of the Abbey Theatre and its possible relocation.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Mary Henry, Feargal Quinn, Joe O’Toole.

[28 September 2005]

15. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Minister for Environment, Heritage and Local Government to give this House a definitive time-scale for the final introduction of electronic voting, in the light of the unacceptable level of spending being incurred by him, including and following the initial €50 million outlay, the €685,000 annual storage cost incurred over the last three years which will continue to be spent for an indefinite period and the €400,000 spent on testing the system.”

—Senators James Bannon, Paul Bradford, Fergal Browne, Paddy Burke, Ulick Burke, Paul Coghlan, Noel Coonan, Maurice Cummins, Frank Feighan, Michael Finucane, Brian Hayes, Jim Higgins, Joe McHugh, John Paul Phelan, Sheila Terry.

[29 September 2005]

16. “That Seanad Éireann believes that the Groceries Order should be replaced with a new law to take account of changes in the Competition Act and modern trends in the grocery trade to include the following:—

- (1) that all discounts appear on invoices so that the benefits of food competition can be fully passed on to consumers; and

- (2) that our communities are protected from predatory pricing by major multiples in order to see choice and diversity in the food sector where multiples and locals shops can compete on a level playing pitch.”

—Senators Paul Coghlan, Brian Hayes, Fergal Browne, Paddy Burke, James Bannon, Paul Bradford, Ulick Burke, Noel Coonan, Maurice Cummins, Frank Feighan, Michael Finucane, Joe McHugh, John Paul Phelan, Sheila Terry.

[29 September 2005]

17. “That Seanad Éireann,

- appalled at the continuing imprisonment of 5 law abiding citizens from Rossport in County Mayo;
- acknowledging that the 5 remain convinced that the Shell operation at Rossport poses a serious threat to life and health;
- condemns the extraordinarily lethargic and indifferent response of the Government to the men’s imprisonment;
- calls on Shell immediately to waive it’s interests under the injunction;
- invites the five men simultaneously to apologise to the court; and
- calls on the Government to appoint an independent mediator acceptable to the five men to do the following:
 - (1) to report, using independent professional and technical advice as required, on the appropriateness or otherwise of the proposed development on environmental, health and safety grounds and in particular on the appropriateness or otherwise of the use of Quantified Risk Assessments in such a development;
 - (2) to identify and quantify following discussions with the Government and Shell how if at all the proposed development will be used to benefit this region of Mayo; and
 - (3) to identify and quantify following discussions with the Government and Shell the benefits, if any, which will accrue to this country generally from the proposed development.”

[5 October 2005]

18. “That Seanad Éireann expresses its concern at growing reports of climate change in various parts of the world; and requests the Minister to come into the house and give a progress report on our position concerning Ireland reaching its target under the Kyoto Protocol.”

—Senators David Norris, Shane Ross, Joe O’Toole, Feargal Quinn Mary Henry.

[5 October 2005]

19. “That Seanad Éireann urges the Government to begin the process of implementing the recommendations of a number of recent reports on childcare by providing funds in the forthcoming Budget to phase in the following five initiatives:

- (1) extending maternity leave to 26 weeks;
- (2) introducing paid parental leave of 26 weeks;
- (3) making free childcare places available to all three year olds;
- (4) establishing an overall accreditation body to ensure that all of the various suppliers of early childhood care and education are recognised and qualified; and
- (5) appointing one Minister and one Department to be fully responsible for the area of early childhood care and education.”

—Senators Joe O’Toole, Shane Ross, Mary Henry.

[5 October 2005]

20. “That Seanad Éireann, mindful of Ireland’s unprecedented national wealth, urges the Minister for Finance to give far greater resources in the next Budget to childcare and the difficulties encountered by parents of children attending crèches, primary or secondary schools. In particular, Seanad Éireann urges the Minister to set up structures unlocking parents from the difficulties encountered by huge bills for crèches if they decide to work outside the home, aimed at giving them real choices about whether to rejoin the workforce or to care for their children themselves.”

—Senators Shane Ross, Joe O’Toole, Mary Henry.

[5 October 2005]

21. “That Seanad Éireann

- notes the ongoing commitment of the parties in government to the National Pensions Reserve Fund which is helping to ensure future generations of the elderly will be properly provided for;
- congratulates the Government for maintaining the National Pension Reserve Fund and the payment of 1% of GNP per annum into the Fund;
- welcomes the fact that this year so far the Fund has earned €1.7 billion or some 14% bringing its total value to €14.4 billion;
- acknowledges also that, overall, since its inception in difficult market conditions four years ago, the Fund has earned €2.6 billion; and
- urges the Government to continue to support this innovative scheme which will assist in meeting our great responsibility to provide for those who will need pensions in future years.”

—Senators Mary O’Rourke, Eddie Bohan, Cyprian Brady, Peter Callanan, Margaret Cox, Brendan Daly, Timmy Dooley, Geraldine Feeney, Liam Fitzgerald, Camillus Glynn, John Hanafin, Brendan Kenneally, Michael Kitt, Tony Kett, Terry Leyden, Don Lydon, Martin Mansergh, Marc MacSharry, Paschal Mooney, Pat Moylan, Francis O’Brien, Labhrás Ó Murchú, Ann Ormonde, Kieran Phelan, Eamon Scanlon, Jim Walsh, Mary White and Diarmuid Wilson.

25. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Government to urgently implement the measures needed to effectively tackle juvenile crime and to prevent offending and re-offending by children and young people at risk of offending by ensuring appropriate measures including the following;

- the bringing into force of the remaining provisions of the Children’s Act 2001;
- a detailed plan with the deadline for implementation to be published immediately as to how the measures in the Children’s Act 2001 are to be implemented;
- proper ongoing and guaranteed funding and resources to be made available for the measures contained in the act and in particular those aimed at preventing juvenile offending;
- increased use of community service orders and restorative justice schemes;
- proper funding and resources for the Probation and Welfare and Social Work Services;
- rehabilitation of Offenders legislation to be put in place; and
- long term, ongoing and guaranteed investment in educational and work programmes specifically aimed at children and young persons at risk of involvement in juvenile crime.”

Amendment:

To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” and substitute the following:

“recognises that the Children Act 2001 is a modern and progressive statute which provides a wide range of interventions for young offenders in line with its major principles of diversion, restorative justice and detention as a measure of last resort and:

- commends the Government on the measures taken to date to implement key provisions of the Children Act, 2001 and notes with satisfaction the commitment to implement the remaining provisions of the Act in a co-ordinated manner and on a phased basis as envisaged at the time of its enactment;
- welcomes the additional staffing and other resources provided to the Probation and Welfare Service in recent years to implement the Children Act, 2001;
- acknowledges the significant progress made in implementing the Children Act 2001 through the establishment of the Special Residential Services Board and the development of the child protection and family support services in the health sector;
- notes the bringing into force of all the restorative justice provisions of the Children Act, 2001 and welcomes the commitment of the Garda authorities and of the Probation and Welfare Service to the effective implementation of these provisions;
- welcomes the current youth justice review and the consequent intention to restructure the youth justice system to improve the delivery of services in the area and to strike the right balance between the rehabilitation of young offenders and the essential protection of the community;
- commends the Government on the wide range of social inclusion measures put in place to tackle such areas as crime, drugs misuse and educational disadvantage, which have a positive impact on children at risk of offending and on young offenders; and
- commends the Government’s decision in October 2004 to expand the strength of An Garda Síochána to 14,000 members to tackle crime generally in line with its commitment in the Agreed Programme for Government and congratulates the Minister and the Garda Commissioner for the significant progress to date in implementing the project plan to ensure that this target is achieved.”
