21. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Minister for Environment, Heritage and Local Government, for an urgent debate on the Nitrates Directive, in light of his hasty signing of said directive, particularly as the figures on which he based his decision, have now been highlighted as being erroneous and the impossibility of the Government standing over such figures, allied with its total disregard for the future of Irish farming.”

22. “That Seanad Éireann urges the Government to ensure that the child sex abuse victim from Cork is not under any circumstances to be pursued for her costs in the wake of her recent unsuccessful legal action.”

23. “That Seanad Éireann:

- noting that our young people receive 1,500 hours of education in the Irish language throughout their schooling, at an estimated cost of €500 million per annum;

- recognising that Irish is the only subject that all students are required to take after the Junior Certificate examination;
- deeply concerned at the fact that, in spite of this situation, many of our young people are leaving school without any reasonable command of the Irish language;
- acknowledging the findings of the 2003 NCCA discussion document, Languages in the Post-Primary Curriculum, which stated that our syllabuses and examinations retain an emphasis on reading and writing at the expense of listening and speaking;

calls on the Government to:

- reform radically the curriculum for Irish in second-level education, focussing on the teaching of Irish as a living language of modern and useful communication;
- introduce an oral examination at Junior Certificate immediately and devise a new subject for the Leaving Certificate, Communicating in Irish, which would focus to a large extent on spoken Irish;
- allow all post-Junior Certificate students a choice as to whether to take Irish to Leaving Certificate level; and
- devise a new National Strategy for Irish which sets out very clearly what the Government wants to achieve for the Irish language, what will be done to support this goal, and what is expected from agencies and other partners in meeting the challenges that lie ahead.”

Amendments:

1. To delete all words after “That” and substitute the following:

“Seanad Éireann,

- recognises the constitutional position of Irish as the national language and the first official language of the State;
- acknowledges the Government’s success in gaining recognition for Irish as an official language of the European Union;
- further acknowledges the Government’s increased support for TG4;
- believes that these measures are important in raising the esteem in which the language is held in society in general, something which naturally has an effect on students’ interest in learning Irish;
- notes that in the 2002 census, 140,000 more people classified themselves as Irish speakers than had been the case in the 1996 census, with significant growth in the number of people outside the Gaeltacht who speak Irish;
- further notes that this year, for the first time, there is a Gaelscoil in every county in the country, a development which is reflective of an increased desire among parents to educate their children through Irish;

- acknowledges that in recent years a new curriculum has been introduced for Irish at primary level, modern literature and film have been added to the Leaving Certificate curriculum and there has been a substantial increase in investment in texts and resources to support the teaching of Irish;
- further acknowledges that the Minister for Education and Science has made very clear her intention to reform how Irish is taught at senior cycle level in particular and has asked the National Council for Curriculum and Assessment to make proposals for curriculum change to her as a matter of priority, and for these proposals to include greater emphasis on the spoken language; and
- believes that all parties should support reform of how Irish is taught in our schools rather than jeopardising the future of the language by calling for its status in our education system to be downgraded.”

—Senator Mary O’Rourke.

2. After “Seanad Éireann” to insert the following:

- “regrets that, despite numerous promises and commitments, the much heralded Ionad Náisiúnta Oideachais Gaeilge in Bhaile Bhúirne, Co. Cork, has still not been established despite the fact that it has the support of Údarás na Gaeltachta, Roinn na Gaeltachta, Gaelscoileanna and the INTO among others and has received capital approval from Government;
- recognizing that the Ionad Náisiúnta Oideachais Gaeilge would provide and produce much needed texts, apparatus and technological support for the teaching of Gaeilge in ordinary schools, Gaeltacht schools and Gaelscoileanna, demands that the Minister for Education and Science gives an immediate commitment to initiate the project and clarify who is responsible for the delay of this project to date.”
