[13 September, 2007]

8. "That Seanad Éireann urges the Government

- (1) to play an effective role towards securing a total prohibition on the production, stockpiling, transfer and use of cluster munitions by its active participation in international initiatives to address the issue comprehensively and effectively;
- (2) to enact a national law prohibiting the production, stockpiling, transfer and use of cluster munitions as we know them;
- (3) to support research, publication and awareness raising initiatives on this subject nationally and internationally;
- (4) to increase support for the clearance of contaminated land by landmines, cluster munitions and other unexploded ordnance;
- (5) to increase support for Mine Risk Education;
- (6) to increase support for rehabilitation of mine survivors and their socio-economic integration;

and finally, pending the outlawing of landmines internationally,

- (7) to ensure that no public funds are invested in any company involved in or associated with this inhuman practice."

—Senators David Norris, Joe O'Toole, Feargal Quinn, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik, Rónán Mullen.

[13 September, 2007]

9. "That Seanad Éireann supports:

the declaration of the 4th World Parliamentarians' Convention on Tibet adopted by parliamentarians from 30 different countries on November 19, 2005 in Edinburgh, Scotland in support of Tibet's goal of genuine autonomy;

supports His Holiness the Dalai Lama's Middle Way approach to resolve the conflict between the People's Republic of China and the Tibetan Government in exile through negotiations in the spirit of non-violence and reconciliation;

commends the Chinese Government in inviting the Dalai Lama's special envoys for four rounds of high-level meetings in Beijing and Berne between September 2002 and June 2005;

supports the creation of a zone of ahimsa (peace and non-violence) throughout the Tibetan plateau;

deplores the refusal of the Chinese Government to release political prisoners, in particular the Panchen Lama, Gebhum Choekyi Nyima, who has been held in a secret location since 1995, when he was only 6 years old; and the recent forcible attempts by the Chinese authorities to introduce a brutal discipline known as 'Patriotic re-education' which has been inflicted upon monasteries in Tibet and which has resulted in injury and death to some of the monks at the Drepung Monastery in Tibet."

—Senators David Norris, Feargal Quinn, Joe O'Toole, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.

[13 September, 2007]

10. "That Seanad Éireann requests the Government to give serious examination to the Dargan Metro Project involving an orbital metro route as well as an airport metro line and which, fully costed, presents a more economic prospect than the existing proposal."

—Senators David Norris, Joe O'Toole, Feargal Quinn, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.

[13 September 2007]

11. "That Seanad Éireann expresses concern at the impact on the environment caused by aircraft emissions in an era of growing mass transport."

—Senators David Norris, Feargal Quinn, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.

[13 September, 2007]

12. "That Seanad Éireann calls on the Government in the light of the fact that Ireland is one of the few EU countries that does not facilitate citizens living abroad but within the EU in the exercise of their voting rights in Dáil Elections, Presidential Elections and referenda to make appropriate provisions without delay."

—Senators David Norris, Joe O'Toole, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.

[13 September, 2007]

13. "That Seanad Éireann in the light of Report from Amnesty International and other groups which suggest that Ireland is involved in the inadequately regulated export of more than 1bn. worth of war materials and the fact that Forfás has identified serious legislative gaps in this area calls on the Government to introduce the necessary legislation to remedy these defects.”

—Senators David Norris, Joe O’Toole, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.
[13 September, 2007]

14. “That Seanad Éireann calls on the Government of the People’s Republic of China and the Dalai Lama, notwithstanding their differences on Tibet’s historical relationship with China, to continue the dialogue in a forward-looking manner which will lead to pragmatic solutions that respect the Chinese constitutional framework, the territorial integrity of China and fulfil the aspirations of the Tibetan people for a unified and genuinely autonomous Tibet.”

—Senators David Norris, Joe O’Toole, Feargal Quinn, Shane Ross, Ivana Bacik.
[13 September, 2007]

—Senators David Norris, Feargal Quinn, Ivana Bacik, Rónán Mullen.
[13 September, 2007]

16. “In the light of the European Parliament Report on Extraordinary Rendition which calls on the Irish Government to establish a Committee of Inquiry into the role played by Shannon Airport in this illegal process, that Seanad Éireann immediately recommence moves initiated in 2006 to establish a Special Committee to look into this matter and that in the light of further disclosures about ‘CIA Rendition Flights’ to torture destinations and the involvement in these practises as victims of women and children, condemns such activities in the most unequivocal manner; and calls for the establishment of an International War Crimes Tribunal to determine the guilt or innocence of the most senior US and British personnel.”

—Senators David Norris, Ivana Bacik, Joe O’Toole.
[13 September, 2007]

17. “That in the light of the Government’s uncaring attitude as exemplified by the case of the repatriation of Great Agbonlahor, and their persistent ignoring of the CIA rendition flights through Shannon Airport, Seanad Éireann urges the Government to remove all references to humanity, compassion and religion in the Constitution.”

—Senators David Norris, Ivana Bacik.
[13 September, 2007]

18. “That Seanad Éireann takes note of the Environmental Protection Agency’s report ‘Key Meteorological Indicators of Climate Change in Ireland’.”

—Senators David Norris, Ivana Bacik, Shane Ross, Rónán Mullen.
[13 September, 2007]

19. “That Seanad Éireann, expresses its full confidence in the integrity of the Mahon Tribunal (Tribunal of Inquiry Into Certain Planning Matters and Payments); and rejects all attempts to undermine the work of the Tribunal.”

—Senators Eugene Regan, Frances Fitzgerald.
[26 September, 2007]

20. "That Seanad Éireann, recognising that:

- the Health Service Executive (HSE) has frozen recruitment in the health service for the month of September;
- during the recent General Election both the Taoiseach and the Minister for Health and Children promised the creation of 4,800 new posts in the health sector by the end of the year;

and noting:

- the crisis of confidence affecting cancer services and in particular the suspension of breast cancer treatment facilities and misdiagnosis first highlighted by Rebecca O'Malley in Cork earlier this year;

calls on the Government to;

- clarify recruitment plans for the HSE; and to
- outline the measures it intends to take to restore confidence in cancer services."

—Senators Frances Fitzgerald, Liam Twomey, Paddy Burke, Gerry Buttiner, Nicky McFadden, Paudie Coffey, Paul Coghlan, Eugene Regan, Paschal Donohoe, John Paul Phelan, Maurice Cummins, Fidelma Healy Eames, Joe O'Reilly, Eugene Regan.

[26 September, 2007]

21. "That Seanad Éireann, noting the recent difficulties experienced by many children in obtaining places in primary schools, and the consequent establishment on an emergency basis of a school in Bracken by Educate Together, calls on the Minister for Education to take steps to explore as a matter of urgency how best the management of the primary education system may be structured to ensure equality of access to national school places for all children, irrespective of their religious denomination."

—Senators Ivana Bacik, Shane Ross, Feargal Quinn, Joe O'Toole.

[26 September, 2007]

22. "That Seanad Éireann calls upon the Government to bring forward legislation without delay criminalising the practice of trafficking in persons for the purpose of sexual exploitation, noting that Ireland is at present in breach of its international and European obligations in failing to have such legislation in place."

—Senators Ivana Bacik, Shane Ross, Feargal Quinn, Joe O'Toole, Ronan Mullen.

[26 September, 2007]

23. "That Seanad Éireann calls upon the Government to bring forward legislation without delay specifically criminalising the practice of female genital mutilation."
