Leasú:

Amendment:

1. After the second paragraph to insert the following new paragraph:

“— believes however that, given the deep unhappiness of the Irish people, and human rights organisations, at the human rights record of the Government of Robert Mugabe, and the failure of President Mugabe to respond positively to attempts by Ireland and others to urge a greater commitment to human rights, it would be inappropriate for the Taoiseach and any member of the cabinet to attend the EU-Africa summit should President Mugabe also attend;”

32. “That Seanad Éireann:

- expressing its outrage at the kidnapping and detention for political ends of hostages, held by illegal armed groups in Colombia, including in 2002 that of Ms Ingrid Betancourt, a former member of the National Senate of Colombia and a candidate for the Presidency of Colombia;
- appalled by the written and photographic evidence recently recovered by the Government of Colombia that portray the inhuman conditions in which Ms Betancourt is being held;
- recalling further that Ms Betancourt has dual French-Colombian citizenship and is therefore also a citizen of Europe;
- regretting that in the last two years, proposals made to facilitate a humanitarian exchange resulting in a release of all hostages held by illegal armed groups, including efforts by the governments of France, Spain and Switzerland have not been successful to date;
- noting the renewed efforts made by the President of France with the full support and encouragement of all the Member States of the European Union;
- noting also efforts at intermediation made by the President of Venezuela, which were acknowledged in the Council Conclusions on Colombia of 19 November 2007, and further recent offers of intermediation made by the Presidents of Argentina and Brazil;
- welcomes the recent offer of the Colombian Government to create a ‘zone of encounter’ for a humanitarian agreement and the offer of the Episcopal Conference of Colombia to act as mediators in securing the release of the hostages;
- calls upon the illegal armed groups in Colombia to release all hostages without delay and on all involved parties to demonstrate the necessary political will to bring an end to this brutal affront to human rights and dignity; and
- continues to support the Government of Colombia in its search for a negotiated solution to the internal armed conflict, including through direct engagement with those illegal armed groups which may be prepared to negotiate, and to bring lasting peace to Colombia.”

34. “That Seanad Éireann welcomes:

- (1) the role being played by the Government in international efforts to secure a total prohibition on the production, stockpiling, transfer and use of cluster munitions through its active participation in international initiatives to address the issue comprehensively, in line with its commitments in the Programme for Government;
- (2) the convening by the Government of a Diplomatic Conference in Dublin in May 2008 to negotiate a new instrument of international humanitarian law on cluster munitions that cause unacceptable harm to civilians;
- (3) the intention of the Government shortly to establish a national committee on international humanitarian law which will have, as its first task, the preparation of comprehensive draft legislation to give effect to the new instrument, thereby enabling its early introduction in the Oireachtas;

and urges the Government

- (4) to support research, publication and awareness raising initiatives on this subject nationally and internationally;
- (5) to ensure that the draft legislation provides not just for the prohibition of use, production, stockpiling and transfer of cluster munitions but also to make provision for assistance to victims of cluster munitions, for the clearance of areas contaminated by unexploded cluster munitions and for assistance in the destruction of stockpiles of cluster munitions, amongst other matters to be agreed in negotiations on the future instrument at the Diplomatic Conference in Dublin in May;
- (6) to increase support for the clearance of contaminated land by land mines, cluster munitions and other unexploded ordnance;
- (7) to increase support for education on the risks of land mines, cluster munitions and other unexploded ordnance;
- (8) to increase support for rehabilitation of survivors and their socio-economic integration; and
- (9) to ensure that no public funds are invested in any company involved in or associated with the production of cluster munitions.”
