26. “That Seanad Éireann—

- commends the Government, the tourism agencies and the wider tourism sector for the exceptional performance of Irish tourism in recent years, which has consistently outperformed competitor destinations in Western Europe, including the number of overseas visitors exceeding 8 million for the first time ever in 2007, an increase of over 33% in the period since 2001, as well as record numbers of domestic visits;
- recognises the continuing commitment of the Government to the progressive delivery of its key tourism investment priorities in tourism marketing, staff training and business development and product development, within a framework of sound public finances and value for money, noting that the total allocation of the tourism services budget has increased by 50% since 2003 to €161 million in 2009;
- acknowledges the exceptionally challenging conditions now facing tourism worldwide in the context of global economic conditions, as well as the particular challenges facing Irish tourism in the context of the current cyclical downturn in the domestic economy and notes that the Government is conscious of these challenges;
- notes that, notwithstanding these exceptionally difficult conditions, overseas visitor numbers reported to date in 2008 are broadly in line with 2007;
- welcomes the Government’s intention to build on the success of its policies and programmes to date by renewing the policy framework for tourism, as set out in New Horizons for Irish Tourism: An Agenda for Action 2003-2012, with a view to ensuring that the sector returns to sustainable growth in the medium term;

- acknowledges the contribution of North-South cooperation in the tourism sector, in particular through the work of Tourism Ireland in marketing the island of Ireland overseas, with the support of the Northern Ireland Tourist Board and the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Investment in the Northern Ireland Executive;

and notes that the Government and in particular the Department for Arts, Sport and Tourism, Fáilte Ireland and Tourism Ireland are continuing to develop and implement actions and initiatives to support the sector in responding to the current short-term challenges it faces.”

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” and substitute the following:

noting;

- the disappointing downward trend in visitor figures, with a decrease of 3% in the number of trips to Ireland in June 2008 and a 2% drop in August 2008 at the height of the tourist season;
- the underlying trend of a fall off in visitors from traditional dependable markets such as North America and Europe with a 10% reduction in figures for August 2008;
- the serious challenges posed to the aviation industry and the resulting impact this threat will have on tourism access to Ireland and in particular, regional destinations;
- the pressure that the current rate of inflation of 4% is exerting on the tourism industry, coupled with unwise increases in transport costs such as the recent 8% increase in taxi charges;

considering;

- the Government’s failure to introduce initiatives and supports aimed at properly harnessing the potential of Open Skies;
- the negative impact the Government’s introduction of a departure tax on flights will have on tourism figures;
- the pressure the €200 annual levy on holiday homes introduced in the Budget will place on the industry;
- the significant cuts in current spending for the Arts in the Budget which will have a significant impact on the availability and quality of cultural tourism products across the country;

calls on the Government to;

- reconsider immediately the short-term revenue generating measures taken in the recent Budget which will not deliver long-term gain for the industry;

- take steps immediately to ensure tourism products and marketing spend in regional areas are enhanced to take advantage of Open Skies;
- introduce concrete steps aimed at restoring competitiveness and reducing cost pressures on the tourism industry; and
- revise the action plan for the industry; New Horizons for Irish Tourism: An Agenda for Action 2003-2012 to take into account the new pressures facing the industry in the context of the current economic climate.
