32. “That Seanad Éireann urges the Irish Government to continue its support for moves to establish an independent international investigation into alleged violations of international humanitarian law during Israel’s military action in Gaza including the use of white phosphorus in densely inhabited civilian areas, the use of dime munitions and the shelling of the U.N. facilities, including schools which were being used as places of sanctuary by Palestinian civilians as well as the question of collective punishment and to maintain discussions with the representatives of countries such as Belgium, Cyprus, Sweden and Portugal who have also supported this move and that the independent international investigation also investigate the indiscriminate rocket attacks on civilians perpetrated by Hamas and others, the alleged storage of munitions in civilian locations and the allegations of the shooting of innocent Palestinians by Hamas, the alleged use of civilians as human shields by any actor and the alleged firing of rockets from positions adjacent to UN facilities, to schools and hospitals, furthermore, that the Joint Committee on Foreign Affairs supports a two state solution to the Israeli Palestinian conflict with the objective of the State of Israel and an independent Palestinian State living side by side in peace and security and urges the Government to continue to fully support such resolution of the conflict and to take all appropriate steps in the UN, at EU level and in its bilateral international relations to promote and achieve such resolution; supports the International Quartet (EU, USA, Russia and the UN) in its work, and other initiatives to resolve the conflict; welcomes the appointment by President Obama of George Mitchell as his Middle East peace envoy; calls on Iran to end its opposition to a 2 state solution; commends the initiative taken by Egypt to mediate a durable ceasefire between Israel and Hamas; and urges all sides to fully co-operate with UNRWA to facilitate the provision by it in Gaza of humanitarian relief.”

33. “That Seanad Éireann recognising that:

- reckless and incompetent management, regulation and oversight of the domestic Irish banking system has damaged domestic and international confidence in Ireland’s economy.
- the Irish economy cannot recover from the deepening economic depression without a functioning banking system that enjoys the trust of depositors, international markets and the community at large;
- there is a public perception that the resolution of this banking crisis is being manipulated in the interests of powerful and wealthy elites and that unless the Government addresses this suspicion in an open and transparent manner, it will not have the legitimacy needed to gain the necessary support for the painful measures needed to put our public finances and economy back on a sounder footing.

calls on the Government to:

- take more decisive action to restore the reputation of the Irish banking system as a prudent and responsible manager of investors’ capital and depositors’ savings and as a reliable source of credit for Irish businesses;
- replace the current board and senior management team of the Irish Financial Services Regulatory Authority (IFSRA);
- give the Office of the Director of Corporate Enforcement the lead role in all investigations into recent transactions by banks, their investors and directors that may have breached both company law and financial regulation, given that IFSRA itself was at the centre of many of these transactions;

- reveal the names of the ‘Golden Circle’ of ten investors in Anglo Irish Bank, and outline what steps the Government and the bank are now taking to recover the associated €300m in debts on behalf of the tax-payer;
- open up the appointment of the next Governor of the Central Bank to open international competition and scrutiny by the Oireachtas;
- set a cap of €250,000 on the salaries (including bonuses and share options) of senior managers of financial institutions whose liabilities have been guaranteed by the States and / or in which the State has invested, until the guarantee has expired and the state investment has been repaid; and
- require the banks to acknowledge the true scale of their likely loan losses over the coming years and to reflect these losses on their accounts.’
